Where Milan

Before you begin your visit please take note of some tips that will be very useful during your stay. These are only suggestions. More tips can be found throughout the magazine, and in the final section called 'Essentials', where you can find a complete map of the city and a transportation map.

TOURIST INFORMATION

Let's begin with some tourist information: firstly visit the InfoMilano official tourist information center. It's located in the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele, on the corner of Piazza della Scala, or for a more service-oriented location don't miss the Milan Visitor Center, situated just steps from the Castle, in Largo Cairoli. This is a hub for the numerous shuttles that provide transportation to shopping outlets, and sightseeing tours from the lakes to Venice.

MOVING AROUND

To tour the city buy The Milan Pass, your key to the city, (more on www.themilanpass.com - Infoline +3902867131). Transport and entertainment rolled into one. Included in The Milan Pass you'll find a ticket for the CitySightseeing red double decker buses, currently celebrating their 10th Anniversary: 3 lines and 40 stops allow you to crisscross Milan easily, and many tourist services are included.

Finally, Veloleo is an eco-friendly opportunity to visit the city: a three-wheeled device with electric assist and room for two at the back with a driver at the pedals. www.veloleo.it

AND DON'T FORGET OUR FREE MAPS!

Never forget your Where® Map! It's free and you can find it in your hotel (ask your concierge), or at tourist information points around the city.

SATURDAY

16 THE ART OF PARADOX

◀ This weekend is a great opportunity to see the 'Escher' exhibition. Mathematically-inspired woodcuts, suspended between the real world and the reflected world, between dreams and reality, between geometric elements and plays of perspective, Maurits Cornelis Escher brings us his world of paradoxical art. More than 200 works explore his talent and artistic history, starting from his figurative art rooted in the 'Liberty' movement to his relationship with historical Avant-Garde movements, from his love for Italy to his trip to Spain which, following a visit to the Alhambra Palace, marking a turning point in his life.

From 24 June to 22 January 2017. Escher. Palazzo Reale, piazza Duomo 12.

TUESDAY

5 GREAT FLAMENCO FESTIVAL

The Piccolo Teatro Studio is set to host the international premiere of "Guerrero Warrior" interpreted by the rising stars of the Eduardo Guerrero company. A highly entertaining, colourful and vibrant show that captures all the emotion, drama and passion of Flamenco. The ninth annual Flamenico Festival will also see the participation of international stars of the caliber of Pastora Galvan on Wednesday 6 July and Eva Yerbabuena on Thursday 7 July at Teatro Strehler.

17 ITALY'S ARTISTIC HERITAGE

▲ Last chance to see the exhibition "La Bellezza Ritrovata" at the Gallerie d'Italia-Piazza Scala, the museum and cultural hub of Intesa Sanpaolo in Milan. This is the final exhibition of the 17th edition of "Restituzioni", the program curated by Carlo Bertelli and Giorgio Bonsanti which, since 1989, has focused on safeguarding and protecting Italy's artistic heritage. Spanning a time frame of more than thirty centuries, the 145 restored works, now available for public viewing, include masterpieces and artistic artefacts by great art masters of the past.

SUNDAY

3 A HIDDEN LEGACY

◀ Six rooms, divided into six sections, shed light on the themes and trends of 19th century figurative art: the Portrait, the View and the Landscape, Genre painting, Still life and, finally, Realism and Symbolism. The exhibition, offering visitors free admission on the first Sunday of the month, takes them in discovery of the art collections on display at Milan's Gallery of Modern Art featuring 62 masterpieces formerly stored in the museum's warehouse. A 'hidden legacy' – most of which has never before been seen – featuring masterpieces by the likes of Francesco Hayez, Domenico and Gerolamo Induno, Mosè Bianchi and others.

◀ Take advantage of the late-night opening at Mudec-Museum of Cultures today and every Thursday and Sunday (until 10.30pm) to admire a vast selection of works created between 1931 and 1981 by legendary Catalan artist Joan Miró. The use of different materials and innovative techniques plays a key role in the paintings and sculptures displayed.

UNTIL SUNDAY

31 DOUBTING REALITY

▲ The personal exhibition by German artist Carsten Höller who engages his audience in his search for new ways of inhabiting our world ends today. The exhibition unfolds along twinned, parallel paths, demanding sensory participation and perceptual focus on the part of his viewers. His work arouses different states of mind: joy, euphoria, hallucinations and, of course, "doubt", giving life to new, possible interpretations of reality.

Sales in the City

In Milan, it's the hottest season of the year and we're not only talking about temperatures. It's sale time in the city, an absolute 'must' for shopping addicts!

BY STEFANIA VIDA

The summer holidays are coming: what better time to bag a bargain than the sales? July 2nd is the eagerly-awaited date marking the beginning of the summer sales in Milan (the winter ones generally start in January, with dates differing slightly depending on which region you happen to be in), when boutiques fill to overflowing with customers unable to resist the temptation of taking advantage of the discounts of on-trend collections. Based on the motto "tell me what kind of shopping you're looking for and I'll tell you who you are" Where* offers you a brief overview of Milanese districts where you'll find the best bargains to satisfy your every style whim.

LUXURY SHOPPING

You say luxury and the first word that comes to mind in Milan is the 'Quadrilatero'. That's right because, throughout the world our Quadrilatero della moda is recognized as the most exclusive destination for upscale shopping. Via Montenapoleone, via della Spiga, via Gesù, via Verri, via Borgospesso, via Santo Spirito, via Sant'Andrea and via Manzoni are the nec plus ultra of Milanese fashion, for men, women and even children, thanks to the marvellous boutiques that vie for attention with glittering window displays and unmissable collections. But not only.

If you're tired and want to take a truly chic break then make sure to recharge your batteries with a classic espresso at Cova, the historic bar now owned by fashion giant LVMH in via Montenapoleone or the Pasticceria Marchesi across the street, currently owned by the Prada Group. Another reference point for upmarket shopping is the picturesque, iconic and simply spectacular Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, home to the greats of fashion, including Prada, Gucci, Louis Vuitton and Versace... a unique destination both whose upper and lower spaces are well worth a visit. Known as the 'Living Room of the Milanese', the Galleria now also offers a spectacular rooftop view.

In fact, a pedestrian path along its rooftop walkways, from which you can enjoy an unparalleled view over piazza Duomo and its surroundings, was recently opened to the public! (www.milanocard.it/vegalleria www.highlinegalleria.com).

One-stop shop at la Rinascente

In the heart of Milan, just a few steps away from the Duomo, you will find la Rinascente's flagship department store – the most elegant and avant-garde store of the group.

TRENDY SHOPPING

Corso Vittorio Emanuele II and the centre's neighbouring via Torino, but also corso Buenos Aires, are the shopping meccas most frequently patronized by young, fashion-conscious Milanese, in search of the latest trends. These areas boast loads and loads of shops and it's easy to get lost amidst the myriad offers of ever-changing, ready-to-wear fashions. Piazza Duomo branches off into corso Vittorio Emanuele which leads to piazza San Babila and the nearby via Torino which stretches as far as porta Ticinese (from here you can access the Navigli and the recently revamped Darsena). On the other hand, lying in the opposite direction is Corso Buenos Aires, the longest shopping street in the world. Packed on both sides with a flotilla of shops, its starts from Porta Venezia (don't miss the new, recently restructured piazza Oberdan and Spazio Oberdan for film aficionados) and ends in piazzale Loreto. If you need to take a breather after indulging in some frenetic shopping then why not head to the beautiful Indro Montanelli Public Gardens in porta Venezia? The gardens are also home to the Planetarium and the Civic Museum of Natural History.

ARTISTIC SHOPPING

Brera and the Navigli are two of the most picturesque districts in old Milan. If this is where you're headed, then make sure to wear 'flatties'; their cobbled streets were not originally designed for heels! Since time immemorial, Brera has been associated with the artistic heart of the city. In fact, as you walk through this historic district you will be struck by its almost surreal atmosphere, a treasure trove of small artists' workshops, quaint shops selling canvases and paints, antique shops and the imposing Academy of Fine Arts. Highlights include the masterpieces at the Pinacoteca, the historic Biblioteca Nazionale Braidense, the Astronomical Museum, the oldest institute of scientific research in the city, and the Botanical Gardens, an evocative green oasis in the heart of the city.

SHOPPING IN A QUIET AREA

Corso Vercelli and via Vincenzo Monti are Milan's 'niche' shopping streets which though less busy and easier to shop in than the city centre, are, nevertheless, packed to overflowing with small shops just waiting to be discovered in a characteristic atmosphere, further enhanced by the passage of historic trams that give this street an almost retrò flavour. While strolling along corso Vercelli you will come across lots of trendy shops for all tastes: from clothing to footwear, from decorations for the home right up to taste locations, small gems of sought-after elegance that are bound to seduce you! What's more the area is also located just a stone's throw from one of Milan's most important attractions: The Last Supper, a masterpiece admired each year by millions of visitors. Also within easy walking distance are Parco Sempione, the Triennale di Milano and the Torre Bianca and, if you're feeling energetic, you can easily push onwards until you reach the Castello Sforzesco.

INNOVATIVE SHOPPING

We now find ourselves in one of Milan's most contemporary, fashionable districts, bursting with buzzing bars that cater to the traditional aperitivo ritual, a destination where hip youngsters are always in the spotlight. We are obviously talking about corso Como and piazza Gae Aulenti, a real jewel of architecture and design. From food giant Eataly Smeraldo in piazza XXV Maggio to the sought-after shopping and dining complex of corso Como, home to '10 Corso Como, an oasis of high style, combining an art gallery, a superb design bookshop, an idiosyncratic fashion boutique and a charming courtyard café, a truly 'viby' district! Don't miss a visit to the Tortona district, where you can find a mix of artistic boutiques and culture hubs with the MUDEC-Museo delle Culture and the Armani/Silos.

VINTAGE SHOPPING

We end our overview of shopping with a few tips for vintage enthusiasts. One of standouts in this sector is the iconic Cavalli e Nastri, a great little vintage shop at number 2 via Brera (its two other branches are located respectively at number 3 and number 12 via Gian Giacomo Mora) where, in addition to clothing and accessories, you can find a number of interesting, carefully selected objets d'art. On the other hand, if you happen to find yourself in Foro Bonaparte, at number 74 to be exact, make sure to pop into Madame Pauline, who has brought a corner of France to the heart of Milan with a selection of dresses, costume jewelry, bags and accessories of all kinds dating from the early 20th century to the present time. Lastly, Franco Jacassi's Vintage Delirium, filled with iconic pieces from the Callot Souers, Versace and Thierry Mugler, is one of the most fascinating vintage shops in Milan.

SALES TIP

If you've forfeited making important purchases while waiting for the sales to begin, then now is the time to indulge, but not before having obtained a few tips from the experts to guarantee bagging the best bargains. First and foremost, remember that discounts are only applied to collections already on sale at shops and not, unfortunately, to new in-store arrivals. Moreover, it's important to bear in mind that discounts are not fixed, but vary from 5% to 70% depending on the individual policy of each shop. Once you've chosen the shop, the hard part begins: make sure that the garments selected are the right size and don't buy anything that you don't love because the sales policy does not allow for changes of mind, meaning that you will not be entitled to change any item purchased, unless it happens to be defective. A suggestion, pay attention to labels so that you know exactly what you're getting and, if you want an insider tip, don't only limit yourself to the shopping streets in the centre... if you avoid following the crowds, you'll be able to take advantage of a much wider choice!

Fashion Outlets

Just a few kilometres from Milan, the nec plus ultra for the fashion addicted are the city's outlying fashion outlets. Don't miss a trip to these shopping meccas that offer truly advantageous discounts year-round but which, during sale time, become must-visit destinations for upscale shopping, with additional discounts on outlet prices.

Inter Store Milano

The Inter Store Milano has opened a new location in Milan's Galleria Passarella 2, just footsteps from the city's highly central San Babila. A real haven for football aficionados where fans can find a vast selection of official F.C. Inter items including jerseys, sportswear and shoes signed by Nike.

In addition to selling gadgets and official merchandise, the venue also offers a Ticketing Area. The store is the team's latest addition to the other official Inter shop in San Siro which also sells A.C. Milan merchandise.

Pomellato

Well-known Milanese brand Pomellato has opened a new boutique at no. 17 via Montenapoleone, in the heart of the Quadrilatero. Its prestigious collections of jewelry (from its classic 'Nudo' to its more recent lines) are housed in an intimate, cocoon-like atmosphere that mirrors its spirit of contemporary luxury, timeless craftsmanship and unconventionality. Inspired by the brand's Milanese identity and the architectural diktats of the 1960s – the era in which the brand was founded –, the boutique attracts passersby with its retro sign. Inside, the space is divided into two rooms featuring the brand's hallmark combination of ancient and modern details.

Vista Darsena

Aptly named Vista Darsena, this new venue is located in Milan's recently revamped canal port. Open daily from 8am to 2am, Vista Darsena aims to become a meeting point (and not only) for Milanese locals of all ages. A place where you can relax, read a newspaper, drink or eat something at any time of day or night, work on your PC and navigate using the venue's high-speed Internet system and, naturally, sample a zingy aperitivo or two. Cocktails and mouth watering nibbles are served from 6pm to 10pm. The list includes different types of Spritzers, an array of Vintage cocktails, made using retro liqueurs such as 'Rabarbaro Zucca' and 'Punt e Mes' as well as a selection of Classic and contemporary aperitifs, ranging from Mojitos to Moscow Mules. Ghe Sem

A new location dedicated to experimental cuisine has taken up residence in via Vincenzo Monti. Though its name Ghe Sem has a decidedly oriental flavour, it is actually of Milanese origin. The venue serves tapas-style dim sum upgraded with an Italian twist, without the addition of too many spices. Its pasta, on the other hand, is made according to the recipe used for traditional Chinese ravioli but, in this case, its fillings differ. Some examples? In addition to more traditional steamed meat fillings, other quirkier varieties include ossobuco and saffron, Fassona beef with caramelized onions and then squid and ikura, i.e. salmon roe.

Pomellato doubles its presence in Milan

In addition to its historic boutique in via San Pietro all'Orto, Pomellato has now opened its second Milanese space in via Montenapoleone. By Stefania Vida

Boasting an intimate, zen-like environment, the new Pomellato space embodies a perfect blend of contemporary luxury, timeless craftsmanship and a decidedly 'unconventional' concept. Located in Milan's iconic luxury shopping street, the boutique is not defined by its grandeur but rather by its style, inspired by the brand's Milanese identity and the architectural diktats of the 1960s (the era in which the brand was founded). The space attracts passersby with its retro sign, while its interior is divided into two different rooms featuring the brand's hallmark combination of ancient and modern details. The boutique stocks all of the brand's exquisite collections, from its classic (and timeless) 'Nudo' to new collections like its 'Capri' line. Featuring an irresistible combination of class and timeless elegance, for the first time, the brand's new Capri jewelry reveals itself with shiny ceramic shapes enhanced by sensual silhouettes. The creations are available in vibrant pink and turquoise, in more minimalist shades of black and white, as well as in a limited edition produced both in coral and in turquoise. Small coloured gems or white diamonds are always present to add a final touch of sophistication. From drop earrings to its new lobe earrings, right up to its splendid rings of floral inspiration featuring one or more rounded shapes, the new Capri collection is a truly visual treat.

Several venues offering food are included in the Entertainment section, because they are considered as meeting places. Most major theatre productions are listed there. Since programme times are subject to change, we suggest to doublecheck specific programme times.

DINING

Reservations for most restaurants are strongly advised. In Italy, service is included in the price meaning that although tipping is not compulsory, it is obviously appreciated as a sign of satisfaction. Some menus include the word "coperto", a small surcharge corresponding to the cost of the service and bread. Although no dress code exists in Italy, semiformal clothing is usually considered de rigueur at restaurants. All restaurants and bars are non-smoking unless a separate smokers' area is specifically offered. Set meals: prices are per person.

Angela Caputi Giuggiù latest creations

Angela Caputi Giuggiù's innovative, elegant jewels are the perfect addition to the wish list of every woman: "Opalina" is the collection of costume jewellery created by the Florentine designer for Spring/Summer 2016. Her synthetic resins are characterized by a spectacular, translucent effect, resembling that of opaline. This gemstone pairs beautifully with innumerable shades of colour, creating myriad variations in which opaline is combined with yellow and orange, turquoise and coral, green jade and amethyst. This season, the designer has focused on this somewhat unusual combination by enhancing the 'Opalina' collection with a mini-series in which the geometric shapes of transparent Perspex are enriched by small shavings and sheets of fluorite, thus creating a perfect harmony between the different hues and components used to create the collection. www.angelacaputi.com

Luxury Top Brands

Milan is known as one of the shopping capitals of the world. Although high-end purchases can be made in any part of the city, several urban areas are also entirely given over to the business of luxury shopping. First and foremost, the Quadrilatero della Moda, set amidst four of Milan's most expensive and prestigious shopping streets, namely via Montenapoleone, via Manzoni, via della Spiga and corso Venezia. It is here that the most important fashion designers offer their luxurious creations.

GALLERIA-PIAZZA SCALA DISTRICT

The highly central Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II has recently regained its former splendor, thanks to important renovation works which has also seen the re-opening of its upper floors: new spaces for events, cafés and eateries. EDITOR'S TIP Don't miss the new exclusive panoramic walkway extending over a surface area of 800 sq.m. (www.milancard.it/vegalleria).

SHOPPING AT THE TOP

From the iconic Prada store to Versace's latest gem, it's impossible not to remain awestruck by the collections showcased in these spaces that tend to resemble museums rather than shops!

In the Galleria, haute couture takes centre stage. In addition to the aforementioned Prada and Versace, other standouts include Louis Vuitton, Gucci, Armani, Borsalino, Luisa Spagnoli, Bric's, Tod's, Stefanel and Massimo Dutti alternated with historic workshops

Louis Vuitton

(whose signs serve as an indication of their storied past), including Cadè (shirts and ties since 1926), Piumelli, renowned for its handmade gloves, Mejana, purveyors of time-honoured fountain pens and historic bookstores: Bocca, for art lovers, Libreria Poligrafico (Italian State Mint and Printing Institute) for coin collectors and the recently revamped Libreria Rizzoli Galleria: three floors all dedicated to the printed word!

DINING AND GOURMET

You say 'aperitivo' and you immediately think of Camparino in Galleria, a landmark location and a reference point where Milan's elite meet to partake in one of Italy's oldest social traditions! For those in search of a taste of tradition, located just nearby is Luini (renowned for its one-of-a-kind "panzerotti"). Conversely, those favouring a more sought-after gourmet experience can either opt to eat at Ristorante Galleria where you enjoy a taste of Milanese food and hospitality, at Savini, located on the first floor of the Galleria or the Marchesi alla Scala restaurant lying adjacent to Teatro alla Scala, presided over by Gualtiero Marchesi, one of Italy's most revered chefs. For the more 'fashion oriented', a top-notch address is Il Ristorante Trussardi alla Scala located just moments away. And then again, if your idea of bliss is an unrivalled view over piazza Duomo a sure-fire choice is Giacomo Arengario, the restaurant of the Museo del '900.

AROUND THE CORNER

If after visiting all the boutiques in the Galleria, you still haven't had your fill of shopping, we recommend several truly unique addresses located just a stone's throw away. For the ultimate one-stop shopping experience look no further than la Rinascente (under the arcades): an amazing array of fashion items under just one roof! Just a little further on, the window displays of Rocca 1794 will seduce you with their collections of several of the world's most desirable jewelry and watch brands, a perfect blend of passion, dedication, know-how and luxury.

If you're in search of a special souvenir, head to Pettinaroli in piazza San Fedele. Founded in 1881, its antique prints are still an absolute 'must'! Outliving (in via Agnello) offers a storefront packed with items for outdoor living, leisure time, holidays, travel and the home... and, if after all of this you realize that you might have gone over the top with your purchases and thus need an extra suitcase, Rimowa and Pellux (in piazza San Fedele) offer some of the best travel luxury in the industry!

Every day, at lunch and at dinner (excluding Sat at lunchtime and Sun), the main dining room boasting just 7 tables is transformed into the "Marchesi" restaurant where guests can order a special menu. Prada is global but its heart is Milan's Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II where Mario Prada opened his first shop in 1913. The new "Prada Galleria" presents a flexible layout and new sales space, the Fondazione Prada, areas for events and the headquarters of the Prada Group, that will bring new energy to Milan's historic center and help revitalize an exquisite urban landmark. BRERA DISTRICT

Brera is synonymous with the artistic heart of the city. In fact, as you stroll along the streets of this ancient district, you cannot help but be enchanted by its almost surreal atmosphere boasting small artisans' workshops or quaint stores selling canvases and paints.

EDITOR'S TIP Additionally, Brera is home to the impressive Accademia di Belle Arti, where visitors can admire Milan's famous painting collection at the Pinacoteca (the Brera Picture Gallery), the historic Biblioteca Nazionale Braidense (Braidense National Library), the Museo Astronomico (The Astronomical Museum), the oldest scientific research institute in the city and the Giardino Botanico (Botanical Gardens).

ART, SHOPPING AND ENTERTAINMENT

To start your sightseeing tour on the right foot, we suggest stopping for a cup of coffee at Princi, not just an ordinary bakery, but a meeting point where, amidst the heady scents of “brioches” and “cappuccino”, you will have a chance to begin your

Alfonso Garlando

Other points of interest include historic luxury jewellers Manfredi, antique and modern creations in silver at the Argenteria Dabbene, the original accessories by Angela Caputi Giuggiù and unique leather accessories by Giòsa Milano in via Ciovasso. Conversely, for design aficionados, we suggest a visit to the Calligaris flagship store, after which you will have a chance to lose yourself amidst the thousands of furnishing ideas offered by Cargo&Hi-Tech.

TASTING SUGGESTIONS

Between visiting one shop and another, you might be surprised to suddenly discover that it's time for lunch. Try the typical Parma-based charcuterie specialties at Parma & Co., where you can also enjoy a Sunday brunch or the famed sandwiches sold by Panino Giusto. The afternoon is likely to pass by in a flash until you suddenly realize that it's aperitivo time: you are definitely likely to be seduced by the purely Art Déco-style atmosphere of El Tombon de San Marc or the trendier atmosphere of Fashion Café in via San Marco; other options are heady wine tasting sessions in the informal ambience of either N'Ombra de Vin or Moscattelli.

Conversely, the more fashion-oriented will find just what they're looking for in nearby corso Como, featuring Milan's renowned 10 Corso Como, a café, restaurant, concept store, bookshop and exhibition space. Choosing the right restaurant for dinner might pose quite some discussion. Here are some venues where you can savour authentic Italian cuisine: Maxelà, for meat lovers, La Briciola, Il Consolare, and Giallo for real "VIP-watching", the Piedmontese flavours of Alla Cucina delle Langhe, the Tuscan ones of Osteria Brunello and, last but not least, the characteristic restaurants of old Milan including Rigolo, All'Isola, Trattoria Torre di Pisa and La Vecchia Lira. Not to be missed, the Carminio where the menu changes daily. Finally, make sure to visit Ristorante 13 Giugno, a triumph of Sicilian cuisine, and the adjacent Fattoria di Brera, a unique pret-à-manger renowned for its stylish ambience and its delightfully fresh fare and, for a different taste, the new restaurant Hong Kong Crossover in via Giovasso offers the sought-after flavours of the Orient.

VERCELLI-BELFIORE DISTRICT

Maybe you've just seen Leonardo's Last Supper and are in need of a relaxing walk to ward off the possible onset of Stendhal's syndrome. Or, maybe you simply wish to take a stroll through one of Milan's less touristic areas. In all of these cases, the Vercelli-Belfiore district, midway between the Conciliazione and Wagner metro stops, is a perfect itinerary: this area, though mainly residential and frequented during the day, is capable of surprising visitors. One of the most characteristic and strategic tram routes in the city, this district is definitely worth a visit, shopping bag in hand. In fact, its carousel of shops has few rivals.

CORSO VERCELLI, SHOPPING BAG IN HAND

If you access corso Vercelli starting from piazzale Baracca, at building number 1 you will find a Montblanc boutique, home to high quality beautifully fashioned timepieces and writing instruments.

At number 3, you will find Zadig & Voltaire, the French clothing brand that, in 2008, chose to open its first Italian monobrand store right here on corso Vercelli. While in the area, should you decide to pick up a new pair of uber-glam sunglasses, at number 5 corso Vercelli, Salmoiraghi e Viganò awaits you. One of the best-known opticians in Italy, it boasts as many as 500 sales points scattered across the country. Just a little further on, at number 7, your new sunglasses are likely to protect you from the glittering window displays of Luigi Verga Orologi, historic, high-class watchmakers offering a diverse selection of luxury brands including Rolex, Audemars Piguet and Pomellato. While on the subject of luxury, from number 11 onwards you will find a real mini-haven of elegance, mainly for men and mainly made-to-measure. The stores located here range from De Molfetta, the go-to shop for expertly handmade shirts and fashion-forward men's knitwear to Luca Calzature, a reference point since 1968 for artisanal footwear: all the beauty of Italian quality combined with the luxury of personalization and hundreds of models from among which to choose. At number 23 you can also find Brian & Barry (which, in spite of its name, is a 100% Italian brand, currently at the top of its form, as shown by its new, lavish megastore in San Babila) and Boggi Milano, a surefire choice for men's clothing where you can take advantage of the discounts reserved for you as a reader of Where.

Montblanc

IN DISCOVERY OF VIA BELFIORE'S BOUTIQUES

On reaching piazza Wagner, you can make a small diversion in discovery of via Belfiore, even less touristic and, therefore, even more suggestive. And yet, even here, several of the most prestigious brands make an appearance, in quick succession. For a luxe pit-stop, at number 18, you'll find one of the most iconic Nespresso points in the city. Now that you're feeling a little more energized, you can return to the heart of Italian craftsmanship: in a singular "duel" two different artisanal shoe shops stand one next to the other, both boasting a storied past and the guarantee of Italian artisanal excellence. It's up to you to choose between one of the two, either Calzature Belfiore, handcrafted shoes since 1950, or Calzature Cardinale, a small family-run business since 1977. On the contrary, at number 6, you'll find Mortarotti, a cult destination of Milanese style carrying the creations of the best Italian fashion brands.

BACK IN CORSO VERCELLI AND VIA RASORI

By retracing your footsteps, you'll find yourself back in corso Vercelli, where you can browse the other side. Starting from the other end, you'll find Coin, the upmarket department store stocking a good collection of most of what you have seen until now. Further on, at number 14, you'll find yet another classic of Made-in-Italy, i.e. Geox, which doubles up just a little further on down the road at number 8, with its upmarket cousins Fay, Hogan and Tod's. Always at number 8, there's also Nadine, an Italian chain of women's fashion clothing. If children are your target, make a small deviation into the parallel of via Rasori, where, at number 4, you'll find a delectable boutique, simply spilling over with surprises, SophiePetit. And while you're here, bear in mind that there's another gem, whose "toys", in this case, are more likely to appeal to the ladies: Martino & Mazzolini, at number 8, is an intriguing goldsmith's workshop that creates bronze jewellery using an ancient technique that has almost disappeared. Finally, walking towards Sant'Ambrogio, don't miss a visit to the famed Belgian chocolate atelier Neuhaus Maitre Chocolatier.

A McArthurGlen Property

Superlative food experience

Zaini's Milan-based shop, located between corso Como and the innovative piazza Gae Aulenti, offers many options for a sweet or savoury break. By Diana Orlando

For those who enjoy savouring delicacies while strolling through the streets of the city, here are a few tasty “street food” tips: fresh strawberries covered with dark chocolate, mini Sicilian “cannoli” filled with gorgonzola, mascarpone and flakes of chocolate and mouth watering artisanal “gelato” made from natural ingredients. The gelato is served in practical tubs and can be topped with biscuits, mini meringues or caramelized flowers.

Lunch break offerings naturally leavened savoury brioches that can be filled with mortadella from Emilia (a time-honoured recipe) and a cream made from Bronte pistachio nuts or tuna fillets, topped with an artichoke cream and a pinch of chili pepper or even, alternatively, smoked Scottish salmon garnished with fresh robiola. Finally, discerning foodies should head to the venue for breakfast, a coffee or chocolate break or even evening cocktails, a must-try experience thanks to the venue's astute selection of spirits and amuse bouche.

THE HISTORY OF CHOCOLATE

Since 1913, Zaini has produced its delectable chocolate with the same passion. You can sample its chocolates and wide range of products at its new store in via de Cristoforis on the corner of Corso Como where visitors are welcomed into a special atmosphere thanks to its evocative decor featuring historic photos, period furniture and a curved counter where you can savour authentic cakes, fragrant chocolate, fruit nectares and sweet and savoury delicacies.

Asola, a 360-degree culinary experience

This exclusive restaurant dominates piazza San Babila from above, offering an indulgent tasting experience and a spectacular view over the Milanese skyline. By Stefania Vida

Chef Matteo Torretta (see photo) leads the culinary team at the Asola restaurant, one of Milan's finest dining experiences located on the top floor of The Brian&Barry Building. Light though inventive, Torretta brings several great classics of Italian and international cuisine to the table, upgraded with a contemporary twist. From the large kitchen, strategically located in the centre of the dining room, the chef interacts with guests seated around a large counter while he preps and cooks their food in front of them: a truly indulgent, 360-degree culinary experience! The kitchen has been conceived as an atelier where the chef, like a tailor, is an artisan who combines flavours and ingredients to give life to unique, exciting creations. This sartorial take on gastronomy is also apparent in the original, innovative architecture of the restaurant, thus making Asola a one-of-a-kind location on the Milanese dining scene. Offering two different, well-defined types of cuisine, Asola is a restaurant with two souls: a 'business' soul for a quick, light lunch break or a 'power' meal, featuring a menu that also offers 'light portions, and a 'gourmet' soul boasting more sought-after offerings for dinner. A concept that expresses the restaurant's international perception of dining, with meals served from 12-noon to 11pm. Lastly, for those in search of a more intimate atmosphere, the place to dine is the 'San Babila' table (for 6/8 people) featuring a breathtaking view over the eponymous piazza.

Authentic flavours from Terraferma

Located just footsteps from the futuristic Porta Garibaldi district, the Terraferma restaurant was opened five years ago by brothers Franco and Massimo Gallo, long-time restaurateurs who were later joined by Giovanni Solimando who now runs the kitchen.

The result of a restyling project curated by architect Luca Zanobini, the restaurant welcomes guests into a sophisticated ambience, characterized by exposed wooden beams, niches stocked with precious wines, sofas around tables illuminated by modern lamps and an outdoor area designed for 'al fresco' dining both during summer and winter months. The venue serves Mediterranean cuisine, updated with an international twist, and standouts includes excellent fresh fish dishes presented in a variety of ways. Thanks to innovative pairings and combinations, based on local and seasonal market offerings, Giovanni always manages to put a fresh spin on classic recipes.

OUT OF TOWN

Lake Maggiore, Isola Bella

Dream lakes

Lying North of Milan and set in the Alpine Chain, each year the lakes of Lombardy attract millions of visitors thanks to their mild climate, breathtaking scenery, natural beauties and historic and artistic treasures. By Stefania Vida

The shores of Lago Maggiore wash up on the banks of Piedmont and Lombardy in Italy, while its more austere northern basin lies in the mountainous region of Switzerland. The most famous island, lying just off Stresa – a small, elegant town, rich in neoclassic and liberty buildings and a shopping mecca boasting a myriad of boutiques – is Isola Bella, anchored like a fantastic ship-garden and dominated by the majestic Palazzo Borromeo, built in the 17th century and rich in art treasures, including the private collection of Milan's most famous aristocratic family. The Borromeo clan also owned Rocca di Angera, an imposing fortress (12th-17th century) boasting opulent ambiances, of which the most famous is the Sala di Giustizia. The "Rocca" also has a medieval garden (Visits daily from 9am-5.30pm. www.isoleborromeo.it). The new "Lago Maggiore Express" now also offers daily excursions by train and boat from Milan (www.trenord.it/it/free-time).

Lake Como, on whose shores Alessandro Manzoni drew inspiration for his masterpiece "I Promessi Sposi" ("The Betrothed") is the romantic and worldly older sister of Maggiore and Garda and takes its name from the city of Como. "Must-visit" sights include the Gothic Duomo, the Romanic basilicas of San Fedele and Sant'Abbondio and the neoclassic Villa Olmo. Lying just a stone's throw northwest of Como is Cernobbio, a small fashionable resort frequented by the wealthy of Europe because of its deluxe hotel Villa d'Este and Villa Erba where director Luchino Visconti spent his childhood (www.villaerba.it). Continuing North, we find Isola Comacina a jewel of art and nature, rich in Mediterranean vegetation and one of the most important archaeological sites of the dark ages in Northern Italy (www.isola-comacina.it). In nearby Tremezzo, don't miss a visit to the Baroque-style Villa Carlotta, featuring an Italian garden and sculptures by Canova. At the junction of the southern arm of the lake lies Bellagio, also referred to as the pearl of Como, set in a strategic position to soak up the panorama. Don't miss a visit to the other lakes that are also easily accessible from Milan. These include Lake Orta, with the old Island of San Giulio, traversed by the "Via del silenzio e della meditazione" ("Road of silence and meditation") and dominated by the Romanesque basilica, the Palazzo Vescovile and the monastery (by car from Milan: take the A26 autostrada and exit at either Borgomanero or Arona). Situated just moments from the lake, we find the UNESCO world heritage site of Sacro Monte di Varallo (16th century) with its magnificent basilica and reconstruction of the life of Christ in 45 chapels. As an alternative, we suggest a trip to Lake Varese and Lake Lugano.

Villa del Balbianello

Architecture and landscapes

A beauty that makes a mark and leaves you gasping, an adventurous, romantic story and a panoramic terraced garden that juts dramatically into the lake: Villa del Balbianello is a must-visit place, and possibly one which you might have seen at the cinema...

Due to its evocative beauty, it comes as no surprise that Villa del Balbianello has been used, several times, as a film set: for 'A month by the lake' by John Irving, for 'Star Wars: Episode II' by George Lucas and for '007 Casino Royale' by Martin Campbell, to mention but a few. However, the history of the villa itself resembles the plot of a film. Built at the end of the 18th century at the behest of Cardinal Angelo Maria Durini, a man of culture and an illuminated patron of the arts, in the 19th century, the villa became a meeting place for intellectuals. In 1919, the villa was purchased by American general Butler Ames who renovated the villa and its gardens. Following his death, in 1974, Ames's heirs sold the villa to Italian entrepreneur Guido Monzino, a passionate explorer and mountaineer, who embellished it with mementoes from his expeditions, giving it the unique, captivating appearance that it still retains today. A FAI (the National Trust for Italy) heritage site since 1988 and now open to the public, one of the Villa's most appealing aspects is its breathtaking position atop a small promontory overlooking Lake Como. Its elegant architecture blends harmoniously with its terraced garden, where the arches of the loggia frame the lake, sycamores potted to resemble candelabra offer respite from the heat and cascading wisteria fill the air with their heady scent. Inside, in addition to its rooms boasting a rich collection of furnishings and objet d'art, you can also visit the 'Museum of Expeditions' set up in the attic by its last owner who participated in a number of expeditions that took him to several different parts of the world. Known as one of the most romantic locations on the lake, the Villa is hugely popular with lovers and newlyweds.

Tips around Milan

Five destinations to spend a day of fun and relaxation for the whole family!

MONZA

The beauty of its 14th century Torre dell'Arengario, its glam shopping streets and its Gothic-style Duomo, featuring marvellous frescoes depicting the life of Queen Theodelinda, make the centre of Monza well worth a visit. However, Monza's real jewel in the crown is its famous Villa Reale, a magnificent 18th century dwelling designed by Francesco Piermarini, the architect who also designed the La Scala Opera House in Milan. Strolling through its Italianate gardens or its regal rooms is a feast for the eyes. Its rich calendar of events both inside and outside the villa includes exhibitions (don't miss the 'Quattroruote Road to R-evolution' exhibition until Monday 12 September showing how transportation was imagined by last century's artists and designers) and Italy's annual Formula 1 Grand Prix held on 4 September 2016 at the racetrack lying behind its park.

LA VENARIA REALE

Lying behind the eponymous historical town, renowned for its delectable Piedmont fare and its picturesque yearly 'Palio', the Reggia di Venaria Reale is a true masterpiece of Baroque architecture and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Originally built as a hunting lodge for the Savoy, it is now a sought-after tourist destination where visitors can admire its rooms, often used to host top-level exhibitions. Other must-visit attractions include its gardens, accessible either on foot or aboard a small convenient train. The House of Diana, the Fountain of the Stag and the Royal Stables are just some of the marvels housed in the villa's park which is a part of the imposing Parco della Mandria, an oasis of peace for protected animal species. www.lavenaria.it

"A city shaped like a Palazzo": this delightful description given by academic and diplomat Baldassarre Castiglioni perfectly renders the idea of the charms and treasures offered by Mantua. Small and well designed, the city is, first and foremost, an original mixture of history and art. Originally an Etruscan settlement, it achieved its full splendour in Medieval times and, in particular, during the reign of the Gonzaga family, the Dukes of Mantua who conquered the city in 1328 and ruled benevolently until 1707. Important monuments including Palazzo Ducale, Palazzo del Podestà, Palazzo della Ragione and the churches of San Lorenzo (the "Rotonda") and Santa Maria del Gradaro also date back to this period. The city was named Italian Capital of Culture 2016.

TRENTO

Set within the heart of the Alps, during its thousand-year evolution Trento has known how to attract elements of different traditions, originating from Northern and Southern Europe, combining them in a truly unique mix which eventually resulted in the city being chosen as the seat of the Council of Counter-Reformation (1545-1563). Its landmark sights include the austere Castello del Buonconsiglio, the 16th century villa-fortress of Palazzo delle Albere and the brand new MUSE-Museo delle Scienze, designed by Renzo Piano (www.muse.it). www.discovertrento.it
DISTANCE FROM MILAN: 2.45 hours (235km)

VENICE

The city's major attractions, such as the awe-inspiring Basilica of St. Mark, in pure Venetian Byzantine style, the Campanile (the bell tower) and Palazzo Ducale, the Palace of the Doges, are all situated just nearby St. Mark's Square. Just a few steps from the square, well worth a visit are the historic Teatro della Fenice and, burdened with legend, the Bridge of Sighs, one of Venice's most characteristic bridges together with Ponte Rialto and Ponte delle Guglie. In terms of uniqueness, Venice tops all other cities with its canals – which can be navigated aboard one of the city's famous gondolas – and its two islands which can be easily accessed by means of a vaporetto: Murano, where for centuries glassblowers have performed oral gymnastics turning out fantastic glass pieces, and Burano, with its characteristic coloured houses and lace. A tip for an unforgettable experience: from the Campanile di San Giorgio maggiore visitors can admire the city from above... without having to queue for hours.

Fiorenzo Galli

Triennale Exhibition at Le Cavallerizze

Toti submarine

Where®Milan met Fiorenzo Galli, the Managing Director of the Museum of Science and Technology who told us about the latest innovations at this landmark site of Milanese culture.
By Stefania Vida

What are the strong points of the Museum?

We boast a collection of approximately 17,000 historical items: a display that is important in terms of both its diversity and the number of artefacts exhibited. Other on-site facilities include a research centre (which also offers training courses for teachers), a centre devoted to the restoration of historical-scientific objects and 13 laboratories, without obviously forgetting the important work carried out by our 130 members of staff. We pay particular attention to our visitors by offering them different itineraries based on their specific interests and the time at their disposal. Our multi-lingual guides (9 languages spoken) are always on-hand to provide assistance and we also offer an App for Android.

What are the top 10 'must-sees' at the Museum?

It's difficult to choose, but I would definitely say the Enrico Toti submarine (which we acquired in 2005 and which has now become the symbol of the museum), the air and sea pavilion featuring the Conte Biancamano transatlantic liner (we're talking about roughly 1,000 tons of steel), the Ebe schooner-brig (the largest vessel hosted in a museum in Italy) and Luna Rossa. I would also recommend the new Le Cavallerizze pavilion, the Leonardo da Vinci collection of models, the moonstone, the UA1 detector, the Regina Margherita thermoelectric power station, the Stassano furnace, our collection of locomotives and Enrico Forlanini's experimental helicopter. The Science Museum is a venue with a storied past projected towards the future.

What are your next challenges?

We can justifiably describe ourselves as an 'ongoing start up', we never stop and, what's more we have numerous projects in the pipeline. We have just opened the new, recently refurbished Cavallerizze area (currently hosting several exhibitions of Milan's XXI Triennale International Exhibition). Alternately, in July, we will be opening the new section dedicated to the history and discoveries made by Cern of Geneva. It will be a permanent exhibition, featuring objects and interactive systems that explore the evolutionary history of Cern. At the end of the year, we will also have a new area dedicated to steel, with particular reference to Dalmine, the historic, Bergamo-based company as well as a new green space covering a surface area of approximately 5,000 sq.m.

Welcome to Milano

InfoMilano, the tourist information and hospitality point originally conceived for Expo 2015, has been set up in Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II. By Stefania Vida

InfoMilano is the city's first visiting card and the place from which everyone can get friendly, helpful, multilingual advice about everything that Milan has to offer. A modern facility designed to welcome and accompany tourists from their arrival in the city and for the entire duration of their stay, offering a vast range of services: from cultural activities to hotel accommodation right up to the various options available to discover the city and its attractions, including museums, restaurants, historic workshops and the most exclusive shopping. The choice of setting up InfoMilano inside the Urban Center stemmed from a need to provide tourists with a highly central, visible and attractive place positioned in one of the city's best-known destinations, namely the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, a connecting point between piazza del Duomo and Teatro alla Scala. Boasting 400 square metres spread out over three floors (170 of which comprise the ground floor), the Urban Center was designed to accommodate a visitor influx estimated at around 90,000 people per day in anticipation of the Universal Exposition held in 2015. The establishment of the InfoMilano space serves as an addition to the regular activities of the Urban Center which will continue to host debates, presentations and meetings open to the public. The spaces, its flooring, partitions and audio/video systems have been upgraded to guarantee improved efficiency and a more rational use of the space available, thus guaranteeing the complete autonomy of the two facilities.
