EDITOR'S TIP

URBAN LANDSCAPES

Milan's urban landscape, and the metropolitan landscape in general, are the central themes of the exhibition entitled 'Urban Perspectives. Portrait of a city' (3-30 November), a collective show featuring the work of five Italian artists including Nadiaanna Crosignani, Paolo Sangalli and Livia Romilde Vaccaro, with their pictorial works, and Giorgio Lo Cascio (see photo) and Michele Ranzani, with their photographic images. The exhibition compares a series of widely differing techniques, taking viewers on an artistic journey whose roots, though steeped in tradition, also focus on expressions of a more contemporary nature. The landscape is a metaphoric context, an eclectic blend of the past and the present.

Brera, the new perfume district

Considered one of Milan's quaintest districts, in addition to its picturesque artisanal workshops, Brera is slowly becoming populated with small yet delectable shops carrying only the most sought-after fragrances, transforming the area into a 'district of Artistic Perfumery'.

BY STEFANIA VIDA

For both lovers of signature fragrances and for neophytes who are eager to delve deeper into this desirable universe, we suggest a short tour to experience the enchantment of 'Haute Parfumerie', beginning with the historic district of Brera and its countless boutiques.

BETWEEN THE PAST AND THE PRESENT

Mention Brera and you immediately think of the magnificent Pinacoteca which houses a multitude of rare artistic treasures. However, the district has a distinctive trait, namely the ability to evolve while remaining true to its traditions. Over the years, in addition to its small art galleries and shops selling canvases and paintbrushes, countless boutiques showcasing rare essences are springing up.

We begin our tour in via Brera where we find Campomarzio 70. Founded in the roaring 1920s during the golden age of artistic perfumery, the establishment grew and flourished. Thanks to its ongoing search for the most exclusive fragrances and cosmetics, Campomarzio 70 has become a reference point for scent connoisseurs and perfumers alike. The plus points of this shop include customized consultations, a champagne corner and an olfactory workshop (by appointment only). www.campomarzio70.it At no. 5, we find the Olfattorio Bar-à-Parfums, dedicated to specialty perfumery, and boasting a truly unique range of artistic perfumes, niche cosmetics and luxury make-up. The space also has a corner dedicated to Penhaligon's, the luxury British perfume house established in 1870.

The Olfattorio is also present in Milan, at no. 23 via Brera, with the Dyptyque boutique, purveyors of the famous and uber trendy Dyptyque candles, the Artisan Parfumeur in via Bagutta 8, renowned for its pioneering spirit and contemporary fragrances for more than 40 years, and a space at la Rinascente in piazza Duomo (www.olfattorio.it). We end our tour of via Brera at Profumo. Located at no. 6, the store is housed in an elegant palazzo formerly inhabited by the illustrious Beccaria family. The palazzo's stately granite columns act as a backdrop to the creations of famous international 'noses', taking customers on an olfactory journey that only the magic of perfume can offer (www.profumomilano.com). Just a little further one, at no. 2 via Solferino, we find the French fragrance of Fragonard.

» SAVE THE DATE
For the ninth consecutive year, "Esence - The Scent of Excellence", the event dedicated to Artistic Perfumery will be held in Milan from 23 to 26 March 2017 at The Mall in Porta Nuova. www.esence.com

Penhaligon's

The famous perfumer has opened its first foreign boutique, just steps from the Pinacoteca di Brera. In addition to a complete range of soaps, perfumes and cosmetics, it also carries a selection of 'Art de vivre' products including porcelain, kurte and pashminas for women and children inspired by the concept of a liberated, natural lifestyle, in keeping with the true Fragonard spirit! www.fragonard.com Our next port of call is via Fiori Chiari, where we find the beautiful window displays of Culti Milano. Over time, in addition to concentrating on home fragrances, this original innovator of the home diffuser has extended its range to encompass a series of body care products. Alessandro Agrati founded the brand in 1990. This eclectic interior designer drew inspiration from the artisanal working of rattan to create the first 'reed' home diffuser, designed to perfume living spaces with a fresh, sensual scent, using rattan bamboo reed sticks to diffuse the fragrances better. The brand also has a boutique at no. 53 corso Venezia (www.culti.com). Just a little further on, we encounter the window displays of Dr.Vranjes. The 'nose' behind these fragrances is Dr. Paolo Vranjes (a pharmacist, chemist and cosmetologist) who creates niche perfumes for people and living areas. The in-store experience is unique, and Vranjes is rightly proud of it. The store offers a dedicated olfactory décor consultancy, recommending the right fragrance for every ambience by evaluating spaces, volumes, lighting and furnishings (<http://drvranjes.it>). We continue onwards to the beautiful via Madonnina, where we find the Officina Profumo - Farmaceutica di Santa Maria Novella, once a humble pharmacy, Santa Maria Novella has become the equivalent of Cartier for natural body care products and essences. Its recipes have remained the same since 1612 when it was founded in Florence (www.smnovella.com). Just a little further one we find Creed, an historic brand, now run by the sixth generation of the founding family, which has been in business for more than 250 years... a trip back in time to discover the unique essences that originally sealed the success of the London-based establishment way back in 1760 (<http://creed.cale.it>). We are now in piazza del Carmine, a good place to take a break and indulge in a refreshing aperitivo in the shadow of the imposing Church, before heading to Ponte Vetro to visit 9Nine, a sophisticated perfumery that offers a selection of world-class products ranging from British toiletries to natural cosmetics, with the most prestigious names in the niche perfume industry, including Costume National Scents, Molton Brown, Ligne St. Barth and Bronnley (www.beautysanspa.com). Dulcis in fundo, anticipation builds for the opening (once again in Brera) of The Merchant of Venice, an historic perfumery epitomizing the art of Venetian perfume-making, and highlighting the city's role as the forerunner and inventor of perfume as we know it today. The Merchant of Venice offers a luxury line encompassing a wide range of exclusive perfumes for men and women, body-care products, home fragrances and accessories contained in elegant bottles inspired by the tradition of the city's famous hand-blown Murano glass (www.themerchantofvenice.it).

THE QUADRILATERO AND ITS ENVIRONS

If you're not yet tired, turn your attention to the famous Quadrilatero where, in addition to its glitzy, up-market boutiques, you will also discover several spaces dedicated exclusively to perfumes. We are talking about Etro in via Verri (www.etro.com), Acqua di Parma in via Gesù (www.acquadiparma.com) and Jo Malone in via Manzoni, which also has a branch in via Santa Maria alla Porta, located just steps from the historic Pasticceria Marchesi... for those of you who are unable to resist the temptation of indulging in a sweet treat! (www.jomalone.com). Move away from the Cadorna railway station, and when you are in corso Magenta you will notice the window displays of

Perfume by Calè

Perfume by Calè, an iconic boutique whose modern design and spacious interiors resemble those of an art gallery. Silvio Levi's luminous showroom showcases a careful selection of the world's most exclusive fragrances and is the ideal place to choose and 'sample' the fragrance best-suited to your personality (www.cale.it). In corso Magenta Locherber Milano has opened its first own-name fragrance boutique: a welcoming lounge-type space celebrating the olfactory universe of the Milanese brand, which has transformed home fragrance into a furnishing accessory (www.cosvalitaly.com). We end our tour in the city's upscale corso Como district, where the Avery Perfum Gallery is the ultimate destination for scent connoisseurs and features contemporary furnishings and niche fragrances, as well as several unusual objet d'art including a series of elegant ceramics designed by Fornasetti (www.averyperfumegallery.com).

ALL IN ONE

If you're just passing through Milan and are pressed for time, don't worry. The historic la Rinascente department store in Piazza Duomo is your go-to address. At this one-stop shop you will find a vast assortment of several of the world's best perfume brands. This is a reference point in the city, where all the most exclusive brands in the sector can be found under one roof. After crossing the threshold, you will be welcomed by an entire floor devoted to fragrances and make-up, with dedicated corners where you can treat yourself to a customized make-up experience from a highly qualified staff member (www.rinascente.it).

AN HOTEL "À PARFUM"

It's called LabSolue and it's the perfume laboratory housed inside the Magna Pars Suites Milano. The fragrances that pervade the rooms emanate from this laboratory and, during their stay, guests can visit a state-of-the-art perfume laboratory to learn about the secrets of this fascinating ephemeral art and purchase the same aromatic essential oils that permeated their rooms during their stay at the hotel. The laboratory features a blend of wood, iron and steel elements, antique objet d'art and contemporary furniture. It has a small library dedicated to the world of perfumes, where guests, seated comfortably on its elegant velvet chairs, can relax while waiting for their essence of choice to be prepared. Via Forcella, 6. www.magnapars-suitesmilano.it

Fragonard

The perfume museum in Venice

Some people might be shocked to hear that Venice is the real birthplace of perfume, and perfume was actually invented here. If you're a connoisseur of signature fragrances then there's only one go-to address: Santa Croce 1992, home to the 'Museo del Tessuto e del Costume con i percorsi dedicati al profumo', a compulsory stopover for a real olfactory experience in Venice (see photo). The magnificent Palazzo Mocenigo houses these products and other treasures. This is a beautifully restored private residence, which, in its own right, is worth a visit. The tour has been curated to enlighten the public about all aspects of the art of perfume-making; a fascinating mixture of alchemy, science and experimentation! www.mocenigo.visitmuve.it. This and other interesting information can be found in the special dedicated to Artistic Perfumery in the November issue of the new Where® Venice magazine.

Discover the new "design district"

Scalo Milano, a district located approximately 20 minutes from the centre of Milan, dedicated to fashion, food, design and lots more besides, has just opened its doors to the public. By Stefania Vida

Note down this address: via Milano 5 in Locate Triulzi. Built on the foundations of a late-industrial building, the location not only hosts the best design and fashion brands, but also good food... and a touch of art! Boasting approximately 130 stores extending over a surface area of 30,000 square metres on one level (with the exception of the Food Court which has been conceived as an arena located below street level), flanked by a park – a green, 130,000 square metre space, part of an urban renewal project that is slated to include cultural venues and civic spaces for people of all ages.

STYLE & DESIGN

Opened in a former industrial area, the design of the City Style District is inspired by that of olden-day factories revitalized, however, by contemporary facades, new techniques and state-of-the-art materials including glass (both transparent and coloured) and reflective steel surfaces that mirror the dynamic spirit of the city, playing with the reflections of natural light during the day and enhancing the luminosity of the window displays at night.

Scalo Milano is directly accessible via an underground rail link, a train service or the motorway. In fact, in addition to taking the motorway, the venue can be quickly reached via the S13 rail link ('Locate Triulzi' stop) or via the Zani Viaggi shuttle (www.zaniviaggi.it, see also page 20).

UnionPay is a global payment network originated from China, responsible for the inter-bank payment via UnionPay system worldwide. By June 2016, over 350,000 merchants in Italy accept UnionPay card for payment, among which 100,000 merchants are located in Milan. This allows hundred of thousands of affluent Chinese customers to shop with their favourite cards. UnionPay also actively work with famous retail groups, such as la Rinascente department stores, The Brian & Barry Building concept megastore, McArthurGlen Designer outlets, Value Retail outlets, SINA hotels, Airport dutyfree shops, to provide special discount or services for UnionPay cardholders.

ENTERTAINMENT

Several venues offering food are included in the Entertainment section, because they are considered as meeting places.

DINING

Reservations for most restaurants are strongly advised. In Italy, service is included in the price meaning that although tipping is not compulsory, it is obviously appreciated as a sign of satisfaction. Some menus include the word "coperto", a small surcharge corresponding to the cost of the service and bread. Although no dress code exists in Italy, semiformal clothing is usually considered de rigueur at restaurants. All restaurants and bars are non-smoking unless a separate smokers' area is specifically offered. Set meals: prices are per person and usually refer to a 3-course meal (beverages excluded).

Fashion in food

laRinascente

An amazing show dedicated to food

From 17 to 19 November, for the fourth consecutive year, "When Food Meets Fashion", an event that interprets food in the most surprising ways, is back at the flagship store in Piazza Duomo.

For three unmissable days, la Rinascente becomes an incredible stage for cookery classes, cooking demos, themed entertainment, gourmet dinners, tastings, educational talks and much more.

Professional chefs from Jeunes Restaurateurs d'Europe will be the absolute protagonists of the event with their "art", while the fashion and beauty brands of la Rinascente will take part in the show with fun entertainment and special displays.

A REAL COOKERY SCHOOL AND SPECTACULAR COOKING DEMOS

Organized, once again, in partnership with the JRE, the association that brings together the best young talents of European haute cuisine, the event will involve the participation of several of the academy's best chefs including Alberto Basso, Enrico Gerli (one Michelin Star), Luigi Pomata, Marcello Trentini (one Michelin Star) and Paolo Trippini.

In addition to showcasing their skills at spectacular cooking demos on floor six of the store, the chefs will also hold cookery classes on floor -1, transformed, for the occasion, into a real cookery school with worktops, equipped with all the requisite kitchen utensils and appliances, for cooking and food preparation.

A GRAND DINNER, GOURMET MENUS AND DELICIOUS TASTINGS

Another unmissable moment of the event is the Grand Dinner at the Maio Restaurant on Floor 7, scheduled to be held on Friday 18 November. The dinner, by reservation only, will consist of different courses, each prepared by a JRE chef and Luca Seveso, resident chef of the Maio.

The other restaurants in the Food Hall on floor 7 will also provide a number of entertaining, engaging events including the presentation of special menus and cooking demos. In the meantime, the brands available at the Food Market will set up a food trail on the other floors to offer the public a chance to explore their products in several creative, surprising ways.

For more detailed information about the event and to make bookings for cookery classes and Grand Dinner, stay tuned on www.rinascente.it

GALLERIA-PIAZZA SCALA DISTRICT

Gucci

The highly central Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II has recently regained its former splendor, thanks to important renovation works which has also seen the re-opening of its upper floors: new spaces for events, cafés and eateries.

EDITOR'S TIP Don't miss the new exclusive panoramic walkway extending over a surface area of 800 sq.m. (www.milanocard.it/vegalleria).

SHOPPING AT THE TOP

From the iconic Prada store to Versace's latest gem, it's impossible not to remain awestruck by the collections showcased in these spaces that tend to resemble museums rather than shops! In the Galleria, haute couture takes centre stage. In addition to the aforementioned Prada and Versace, other standouts include

Louis Vuitton, Gucci, Armani, Borsalino, Luisa Spagnoli, Bric's,

Tod's

Tod's, Stefanel and Massimo Dutti

alternated with historic workshops (whose signs serve as an indication of their storied past), including Cadè (shirts and ties since 1926), Piumelli, renowned for its handmade gloves, Mejana, purveyors of time-honoured fountain pens and historic bookstores: Bocca, for art lovers and the Libreria Rizzoli Galleria: three floors all dedicated to the printed word!

DINING AND GOURMET

You say 'aperitivo' and you immediately think of Camparino in Galleria, a landmark location and a reference point where Milan's elite meet to partake in one of Italy's oldest social traditions! For those in search of a taste of tradition, located just nearby is Luini (renowned for its one-of-a-kind "panzerotti"). Conversely, those favouring a more sought-after gourmet experience can either opt to eat at Ristorante Galleria where you enjoy a taste of Milanese food and hospitality, at Savini, located on the first floor of the Galleria or the Marchesi alla Scala restaurant lying adjacent to Teatro alla Scala, presided over by Gualtiero Marchesi, one of Italy's most revered chefs. For the more 'fashion oriented', a top-notch address is Il Ristorante Trussardi alla Scala located just moments away. And then again, if your idea of bliss is an unrivalled view over piazza Duomo a sure-fire choice is Giacomo Arengario, the restaurant of the Museo del '900.

AROUND THE CORNER

If after visiting all the boutiques in the Galleria, you still haven't had your fill of shopping, we recommend several truly unique addresses located just a stone's throw away. For the ultimate one-stop shopping experience look no further than la Rinascente (under the arcades): an amazing array of fashion items under just one roof! Just a little further on, the window displays of Rocca 1794 will seduce you with their collections of several of the world's most desirable jewelry and watch brands, a perfect blend of passion, dedication, know-how and luxury.

If you're in search of a special souvenir, head to Pettinaroli in piazza San Fedele. Founded in 1881, its antique prints are still an absolute 'must!' A reference point in Milan for the best Made in Italy cuts is Valli Tessuti

Alta Moda, with the perfect fabrics to make elegant outfits. Outliving (in via Agnello) offers a storefront packed with items for outdoor living, leisure time, holidays, travel and the home... and, if after all of this you realize that you might have gone over the top with your purchases and thus need an extra suitcase, Rimowa and Pellux (in piazza San Fedele) offer some of the best travel luxury in the industry!

BRERA DISTRICT

Brera is synonymous with the artistic heart of the city. In fact, as you stroll along the streets of this ancient district, you cannot help but be enchanted by its almost surreal atmosphere boasting small artisans' workshops or quaint stores selling canvases and paints.

EDITOR'S TIP Additionally, Brera is home to the impressive Accademia di Belle Arti, where visitors can admire Milan's famous painting collection at the Pinacoteca (the Brera Picture Gallery), the historic Biblioteca Nazionale Braidense (Braidense National Library), the Museo Astronomico (The Astronomical Museum), the oldest scientific research institute in the city and the Giardino Botanico (Botanical Gardens).

ART, SHOPPING AND ENTERTAINMENT

To start your sightseeing tour on the right foot, we suggest stopping for a cup of coffee at Princi, not just an ordinary bakery, but a meeting point where, amidst the heady scents of "brioche" and "cappuccino", you will have a

Alfonso Garlando

Misani

Alfonso Garlando. Other points of interest include historic luxury jewellers Manfredi, antique and modern creations in silver at the Argenteria Dabbene, the original accessories by Angela Caputi Giuggiù and unique leather accessories by Giòsa Milano in via Ciovasso. Conversely, for design aficionados, we suggest a visit to lose yourself amidst the thousands of furnishing ideas offered by Cargo&Hi-Tech.

TASTING SUGGESTIONS

Between visiting one shop and another, you might be surprised to suddenly discover that it's time for lunch. Try the typical Parma-based charcuterie specialties at Parma & Co, where you can also enjoy a Sunday brunch or the famed sandwiches sold by Panino Giusto. The afternoon is likely to pass by in a flash until you suddenly realize that it's aperitivo time: you are definitely likely to be seduced by the purely Art Déco-style atmosphere of El Tombon de San Marc or the trendier atmosphere of Fashion Café in via San Marco; other options are heady wine tasting sessions in the informal ambience of either N'Ombra de Vin or Moscatelli.

Conversely, the more fashion-oriented will find just what they're looking for in nearby corso Como, featuring Milan's renowned 10 Corso Como, a café, restaurant, concept store, bookshop and exhibition space. Choosing the right restaurant for dinner might pose quite some discussion. Here are some venues where you can savour authentic Italian cuisine: Maxelà, for meat lovers, La Briciola, Il Consolare, and Giallo for real "VIP-watching", the Piedmontese flavours of Alla Cucina delle Langhe, the Tuscan ones of Osteria Brunello and, last but not least, the characteristic restaurants of old Milan including Rigolo, All'Isola, Trattoria Torre di Pisa and La Vecchia Lira. Not to be missed, the Carminio where the menu changes daily. Finally, make sure to visit Ristorante 13 Giugno, a triumph of Sicilian cuisine, and the adjacent Fattoria di Brera, a unique pret-à-manger renowned for its stylish ambience and its delightfully fresh fare and, for a different taste, the new restaurant Hong Kong Crossover in via Ciovasso offers the sought-after flavours of the Orient.

VERCELLI-MAGENTA DISTRICT

CORSO VERCELLI, SHOPPING BAG IN HAND

If you access corso Vercelli starting from piazzale Baracca, at building number 1 you will find a Montblanc boutique, home to high quality beautifully fashioned timepieces and writing instruments. While in the area, should you decide to pick up a new pair of uber-glam sunglasses, at number 5 corso Vercelli, Salmoiraghi e Viganò awaits you. One of the best-known opticians in Italy, it boasts as many as 500 sales points scattered across the country. Just a little further on, at number 19, your new sunglasses are likely to protect you from the glittering window displays of Luigi Verga Orologi, historic, high-class watchmakers. While on the subject of luxury, from number 11 onwards you will find a real mini-haven of elegance, mainly for men and mainly made-to-measure. The stores located here range from De Molfetta, the go-to shop for expertly handmade shirts and fashion-forward men's knitwear to Luca Calzature, a reference point since 1968 for artisanal footwear: all the beauty of Italian quality combined with the luxury of personalization and hundreds of models from among which to choose. At number 23 you can also find Brian & Barry (which, in spite of its name, is a 100% Italian brand, currently at the top of its form, as shown by its new, lavish megastore in San Babila) and Boggi Milano, a surefire choice for men's clothing where you can take advantage of the discounts reserved for you as a reader of Where®.

IN DISCOVERY OF VIA BELFIORE'S BOUTIQUES

On reaching piazza Wagner, you can make a small diversion in discovery of via Belfiore, even less touristy and, therefore, even more suggestive. And yet, even here, several of the most prestigious brands make an appearance, in quick succession. For a luxe pit-stop, at number 18, you'll find one of the most iconic Nespresso points in the city. Now that you're feeling a little more energized, you can return to the heart of Italian craftsmanship: in a singular "duel" two different artisanal shoe shops stand one next to the other, both boasting a storied past and the guarantee of Italian artisanal excellence. It's up to you to choose between one of the two, either Calzature Belfiore, handcrafted shoes since 1950, or Calzature Cardinale, a small family-run business since 1977. On the contrary, at number 6, you'll find Mortarotti, a cult destination of Milanese style carrying the creations of the best Italian fashion brands.

BACK IN CORSO VERCELLI AND VIA RASORI

By retracing your footsteps, you'll find yourself back in corso Vercelli, where you can browse the other side. Starting from the other end, you'll find Coin, the upmarket department store stocking a good collection of most of what you have seen until now. Further on, at number 14, you'll find yet another classic of Made-in-Italy, i.e. Geox, which doubles up just a little further on down the road at number 8, with its upmarket cousins Fay, Hogan and Tod's. Always at number 8, there's also Nadine, an Italian chain of women's fashion clothing. If children are your target, make a small deviation into the parallel of via Rasori, where, at number 4, you'll find a delectable boutique, simply spilling over with surprises, SophiePetit. And while you're here, bear in mind that there's another gem, whose "toys", in this case, are more likely to appeal to the ladies: Martino & Mazzolini, at number 8, is an intriguing goldsmith's workshop that creates bronze jewellery using an ancient technique that has almost disappeared. Finally, walking towards Sant'Ambrogio, don't miss a visit to the famed Belgian chocolate atelier Neuhaus Maître Chocolatier.

NEUHAUS MAÎTRE CHOCOLATIER

In Milan, the famous school of Belgium chocolate boasts one of its most iconic brands: the Neuhaus shop is a small treasure trove where pralines – more than 100 varieties that arrive fresh, each week, from Belgium – are displayed in cases like precious jewels, alongside bars with dried fruits, whimsical letters of the alphabet and greeting cards, all made exclusively from chocolate.

To commemorate the 150th anniversary of the treaty, different cities in both countries have organized a series of cultural events including art exhibitions, plays and modern and traditional dance performances, film screenings, events dedicated to design and architecture but also comics, sporting events and cuisine. For example, one of the events staged in Japan includes an important exhibition on Botticelli at the Tokyo Metropolitan Art Museum. The most significant event on the Milanese events calendar is a major retrospective at Palazzo Reale dedicated to Ukiyoe masters Hokusai Hiroshige and Utamaro, featuring a selection of 200 xylographs and illustrated books including the famous Great Wave and the Thirty Six views of Mount Fuji by Hokusai (a part of the Cushion Pine at Aoyama, dated circa 1830-1832, pictured above) on loan from the Honolulu Museum of Art. On the other hand, Situations (30 September- 29 January 2017, www.hangarbicocca.org) is the first retrospective dedicated by a European institution to Kishio Suga, a key figure on the contemporary Japanese art scene. The exhibition showcases over twenty of Suga's installations (re-adapted by the artist for the occasion) dating from 1969 to the present in the 'Navate' space of Pirelli Hangar Bicocca. In parallel with the exhibitions, the public will have an opportunity to further their knowledge about Japan, thanks to the staging of several events of a scientific, artistic and cultural nature. The events program, dedicated to Japan, will culminate on 7 December with the premiere of Giacomo Puccini's Madama Butterfly at the La Scala Opera house.

Leonardo3. Il Mondo di Leonardo

Massimiliano Lisa, Director of the Leonardo3-Il Mondo di Leonardo exhibition talked to Where®Milan about this unique show, a combination of historic and scientific research featuring the reconstruction of physical and digital models. By Stefania Vida

What are the main attractions of this exhibition?
Our aim is to celebrate the genius of Leonardo and above all, to enlighten the public about his scientific and artistic achievements. To achieve this, we have employed several different types of media, including reproductions of his manuscripts, 3D models, interactive stations and physical models. However, our real accomplishment is that our exhibition features the first-ever reproductions of working models based on Leonardo's original blueprints. The Last Supper is also showcased in a number of different ways, including a reproduction on the wall featuring details that were lost in the original version, multi-media display stations that permit hands-on interaction and a screening in virtual reality.

Does the museum have services that cater to the needs of international visitors?
All of our interactive stations are designed for use in both Italian and English. All that is required is a simple touch of the button on the screen (several of our stations also offer the options of different languages). Furthermore, an audio guide in other languages is also available to visitors.

When visiting the museum, what 'installations' should not be missed?
It depends on individual tastes. I love music and flight and, in both these areas, our museum boasts a number of unique installations. In particular, the Codex of Flight is a must-visit! Other highlights include musical machines, such as the Clavi-Viola (harp-violin) or the Elastic Drum and, naturally, his flying machines, including the Mechanical Eagle and the Great Kite. ... It's worth noting that several of Leonardo's projects and our models actually work!

How long will the exhibition remain open in Milan?
The official date is 31 December 2016. However, we're hoping for a new extension or possibly, the transformation of the exhibition into a museum. In the latter case, it will be a dynamic, continuously evolving museum, because since 2013 to this date we have renewed many of its contents several times.

What are the next projects in the pipeline?
We're about to open a new exhibition in South Korea and we're working on several projects that may involve setting up permanent museums abroad. Furthermore, several new machines, including a huge trumpet, that have never been viewed by the public, will soon be showcased at the exhibition in Milan.

Tips around Milan

Visiting Italian beauties

Four destinations to enjoy a day of fun and relaxation with the whole family!

MONZA

The beauty of its 14th century Torre dell'Arengario, its glam shopping streets and its Gothic-style Duomo, featuring marvellous frescoes depicting the life of Queen Theodelinda, make the centre of Monza well worth a visit. However, Monza's real jewel in the crown is its famous Villa Reale, a magnificent 18th century dwelling designed by Francesco Piermarini, the architect who also designed the La Scala Opera House in Milan. Strolling through its Italianate gardens or its regal rooms is a feast for the eyes. Its rich calendar of events both inside and outside the villa includes exhibitions. Don't miss Italy's annual Formula 1 Grand Prix held in September at the racetrack lying behind its park. www.villarealedimonza.it
DISTANCE FROM MILAN: 50 min (25km)

LA VENARIA REALE

Lying behind the eponymous historical town, renowned for its delectable Piedmont fare and its picturesque yearly 'Palio', the Reggia di Venaria Reale is a true masterpiece of Baroque architecture and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Originally built as a hunting lodge for the Savoy, it is now a sought-after tourist destination where visitors can admire its rooms, often used to host top-level exhibitions. Other must-visit attractions include its gardens, accessible either on foot or aboard a small convenient train. The House of Diana, the Fountain of the Stag and the Royal Stables are just some of the marvels housed in the villa's park which is a part of the imposing Parco della Mandria, an oasis of peace for protected animal species. Don't miss the "Brueghel. Masterpieces of Flemish Art" exhibition until 19 February 2017 at the Sale delle Arti. www.lavenaria.it

MANTUA

"A city shaped like a Palazzo": this delightful description given by academic and diplomat Baldassarre Castiglioni perfectly renders the idea of the charms and treasures offered by Mantua. Small and well designed, the city is, first and foremost, an original mixture of history and art. Originally an Etruscan settlement, it achieved its full splendour in Medieval times and, in particular, during the reign of the Gonzaga family, the Dukes of Mantua who conquered the city in 1328 and ruled benevolently until 1707. Important monuments including Palazzo Ducale, Palazzo del Podestà, Palazzo della Ragione and the churches of San Lorenzo (the "Rotonda") and Santa Maria del Gradaro also date back to this period. The city was named Italian Capital of Culture 2016. www.mantova.com

VENICE

The city's major attractions, such as the awe-inspiring Basilica of St. Mark, in pure Venetian Byzantine style, the Campanile (the bell tower) and Palazzo Ducale, the Palace of the Doges, are all situated just nearby St. Mark's Square. Just a few steps from the square, well worth a visit are the historic Teatro della Fenice and, burdened with legend, the Bridge of Sighs, one of Venice's most characteristic bridges together with the Ponte Rialto and Ponte delle Guglie. In terms of uniqueness, Venice tops all other cities with its canals – which can be navigated aboard one of the city's famous gondolas – and its two islands which can be easily accessed by means of a vaporetto: Murano, where for centuries glassblowers have performed oral gymnastics turning out fantastic glass pieces, and Burano, with its characteristic coloured houses and lace.

Welcome to Milano

InfoMilano, the tourist information and hospitality point originally conceived for Expo 2015, has been set up in Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II. By Stefania Vida

InfoMilano is the city's first visiting card and the place from which everyone can get friendly, helpful, multilingual advice about everything that Milan has to offer. A modern facility designed to welcome and accompany tourists from their arrival in the city and for the entire duration of their stay, offering a vast range of services: from cultural activities to hotel accommodation right up to the various options available to discover the city and its attractions, including museums, restaurants, historic workshops and the most exclusive shopping. The choice of setting up InfoMilano inside the Urban Center stemmed from a need to provide tourists with a highly central, visible and attractive place positioned in one of the city's best-known destinations, namely the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, a connecting point between piazza del Duomo and Teatro alla Scala. Boasting 400 square metres spread out over three floors (170 of which comprise the ground floor), the Urban Center was designed to accommodate a visitor influx estimated at around 90,000 people per day in anticipation of the Universal Exposition held in 2015. The establishment of the InfoMilano space serves as an addition to the regular activities of the Urban Center which will continue to host debates, presentations and meetings open to the public. The spaces, its flooring, partitions and audio/video systems have been upgraded to guarantee improved efficiency and a more rational use of the space available, thus guaranteeing the complete autonomy of the two facilities.
