Where Milan

Before you begin your visit please take note of some tips that will be very useful during your stay. These are only suggestions. More tips can be found throughout the magazine, and in the final section called 'Essentials', where you can find a complete map of the city and a transportation map.

TOURIST INFORMATION

Let's begin with some tourist information: firstly visit the InfoMilano official tourist information center. It's located in the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele, on the corner of Piazza della Scala or, for a more service-oriented location, don't miss the Milan Visitor Center, situated just steps from the Castle, in Largo Cairoli. This is a hub for the numerous shuttles that provide transportation to shopping outlets, and sightseeing tours from the lakes to Venice.

DON'T FORGET OUR FREE MAPS!

Never forget your Where® Map! It's free and you can find it in your hotel (ask your concierge), or at tourist information points around the city.

MOVING AROUND

To tour the city buy The Milan Pass, your key to the city, (more on www.themilanpass.com - Infoline +3902867131). Transport and entertainment rolled into one. Included in The Milan Pass you'll find a ticket for the CitySightseeing red double decker buses, 3 lines and 40 stops allow you to crisscross Milan easily, and many tourist services are included.

HOT DATES

Whether it's discovering the events celebrating Italian traditions, art and music or visiting an exhibition, Where® brings you this month's unmissable dates.

30 RICCARDO CHAILLY CONDUCTS AT LA SCALA

This evening, Maestro Riccardo Chailly will be on the podium at La Scala to conduct one of the ten annual concerts performed by the Filarmonica della Scala orchestra. He will present Dmitrij Sostakovich's Symphony no. 12 in D minor op. 112, a new phase of the programmatic work dedicated to the symphonic production of the Russian giant. The concert will open with the Suite for Jazz Orchestra no 1, followed by the world premiere of Carlo Boccadoro's Concerto for piano and orchestra starring the young but well-established pianist Beatrice Rana. The second date with Chailly will be on 6 March, when one of the world's greatest pianists, Maurizio Pollini, will execute Beethoven's Emperor Concerto no. 5 in E flat major and Symphony no. 7 in A major. Two must-attend events!

Get ready for the winter sales!

In Milan, it's the 'hottest' season of the year and we're not only talking about temperatures. It's sale time in the city, an absolute 'must' for shopping addicts!

BY STEFANIA VIDA

All Milan knows that the first week of January is one of the highlights of the New Year, and marks the eagerly-awaited arrival of the winter sales (5 January). Boutiques are filled to overflowing with customers, who can't resist the temptation of the discounts off on-trend collections. Based on the motto "tell me what kind of shopping you're looking for and I'll tell you who you are" we offer you a brief overview of Milanese shopping districts where you will find the best bargains to satisfy your every style whim. Enjoy!

LUXURY SHOPPING

When you say luxury the first word that comes to mind in Milan is the 'Quadrilatero' because, throughout the world our "Quadrilatero della moda" is recognized as the most exclusive destination for upscale shopping. Via Montenapoleone, via della Spiga, via Gesù, via Verri, via Borgospesso, via Santo Spirito, via Sant'Andrea and via Manzoni are the nec plus ultra of Milanese fashion, for men, women and children, thanks to the fantastic boutiques vying for attention with glittering window displays and must-have collections. If you're tired and need a truly chic break, make sure to recharge your batteries with a classic espresso at Cova, the historic bar now owned by fashion giant LVMH in via Montenapoleone, or the Pasticceria Marchesi across the street, currently owned by the Prada Group (its historic headquarters are in via Santa Maria alla Porta, while its most recent branch is located in Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II). Otherwise, you may want to try 'Borgospesso 1' in via Borgospesso, the new, go-to address for Milanese food which gathers several historic gastronomic names, including Drogheria Parini 1915, Al Panino Bistrot and Trattoria Bagutta 1924, under just one roof... an absolute must! Another reference point for upmarket shopping is the picturesque, iconic and simply spectacular Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, home to the greats of fashion, including

» AN AWARD-WINNING SQUARE Futuristic Piazza Gae Aulenti, with its increasing number of boutiques, recently won the prestigious 'Landscape Institute Award 2016' which promotes and rewards the most innovative projects in the world based on design, technology and protection of the natural and built environment. www.landscapeinstitute.org

10 Corso Como

Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II

Via della Spiga

Corso Buenos Aires

Corso Vittorio Emanuele II

Prada, Gucci, Louis Vuitton and Versace and several high-class restaurants: a unique destination whose upper and lower spaces are well worth a visit. Known as the 'Living Room of the Milanese', the Galleria now offers a spectacular rooftop view thanks to the new Highline Galleria, a pedestrian path along its rooftop walkways, from which you can enjoy an unparalleled view over piazza Duomo and its surroundings (www.highlinegalleria.com).

TRENDY SHOPPING

Corso Vittorio Emanuele II, the centre's neighbouring via Torino, and corso Buenos Aires, are the shopping meccas most frequently patronized by young, fashion-conscious Milanese, in search of the latest trends. These areas boast loads and loads of shops and it's easy to get lost among the myriad offers of ever-changing, ready-to-wear fashion.

Piazza Duomo branches off into corso Vittorio Emanuele II which leads to piazza San Babila and the nearby via Torino, which stretches as far as porta Ticinese (from here you can access the Navigli and the recently revamped Darsena).

Corso Buenos Aires, lying in the opposite direction, is the longest shopping street in the world, where an increasing number of 'maxi boutiques' have taken up residence. One such example is Swedish giant H&M, which recently opened its new store – a whopping 5-storey building – at number 8. If you need to take a breather after indulging in some frenetic shopping, head to the beautiful Indro Montanelli Public Gardens in porta Venezia: the gardens are also home to the Planetarium and the Civic Museum of Natural History.

ARTISTIC & BEAUTY SHOPPING

Brera and the Navigli are two of the most picturesque districts in old Milan. If this is where you're headed, make sure to wear 'flatties', these cobbled streets were not originally designed for heels!

A favourite haunt of the locals for the city's cherished aperitivo ritual, the Navigli and the revamped Darsena are a must-visit stopover for visitors to Milan, who will find themselves seduced by the artistic atmosphere of its numerous painters' studios.

Since the olden days, Brera has been associated with the artistic heart of the city. In fact, as you walk through this historic district, you will be struck by the almost surreal atmosphere, and a treasure trove of small artists' workshops, quaint shops selling canvases and paints, antique shops and the imposing Academy of Fine Arts.

Highlights include the masterpieces at the Pinacoteca, the historic Biblioteca Nazionale Braidense, the Astronomical Museum, the oldest institute of scientific research in the city, and the Botanical Gardens, an evocative green oasis in the heart of the city. Brera never ceases to amaze and now, in addition to its picturesque artists' workshops, countless boutiques showcasing rare essences are springing up, transforming Brera into a 'district of Artistic Perfumery'. For example, The Merchant of Venice, an historic perfumery epitomizing the art of Venetian perfume-making, and highlighting the city's role as the forerunner and inventor of perfume as we know it today, has just opened its doors to the public (via Brera 4, www.themerchantofvenice.com).

SHOPPING IN A QUIET AREA

Corso Vercelli and via Vincenzo Monti are Milan's 'niche' shopping streets which are less busy and easier to shop in than the city centre, but are still packed to overflowing with small shops just waiting to be discovered in a distinctive atmosphere that is further enhanced by the passage of historic trams giving this street an almost retrò flavour. While strolling along corso Vercelli you will come across several trendy shops for all tastes, offering clothing, footwear, home décor and eateries, small gems of sought-after elegance that are bound to seduce you! What's more the area is located just a stone's throw from one of Milan's most important attractions:

The Last Supper, a masterpiece admired each year by millions of visitors. The Parco Sempione, and the Triennale di Milano are also within easy walking distance, and, if you're feeling energetic, you can easily push onwards until you reach the Castello Sforzesco.

INNOVATIVE SHOPPING

We now find ourselves in one of Milan's most contemporary, fashionable districts, bursting with buzzy bars that cater to the traditional aperitivo ritual, a destination where hip youngsters are always in the limelight. Obviously we're talking about corso Como and piazza Gae Aulenti, a real jewel of architecture and design (which is dedicated to one of the 'greats' of Milanese design), with its increasing number of boutiques, including the brand new spaces of Moleskine, New Balance and Reebok. From food giant Eataly Smeraldo in piazza XXV Aprile to the sought-after shopping and dining complex of corso Como, home to 10 Corso Como, this is an oasis of high style,

» SALES TIP
If you've missed out on important purchases while waiting for the sales to begin, now is the time to indulge, but not before getting a few tips to guarantee that you bag the best bargains. First and foremost, remember that discounts are only applied to collections already on sale at shops and not to new in-store arrivals. And, it's important to bear in mind that discounts are not fixed, but depend on the individual policy of each shop. A suggestion, pay attention to labels so that you know exactly what you're getting and, if you want an insider tip, don't limit yourself to the shopping streets in the centre... if you avoid following the crowds, you'll be able to take advantage of a much wider choice!

New Openings

Feltrinelli Porta Volta

The new headquarters of the Giangiacomo Feltrinelli Foundation in viale Pasubio (Corso Como district) has been unveiled. The complex includes the new building for the Foundation (a renowned research and study centre), plus two separate 'twin' buildings. Located along the perimeter of the old Spanish walls; both buildings, which are owned by Feltrinelli, will be used to host a library, the archives, a multi-functional room, a bookstore and a cafeteria on the ground floor. Measuring 188 meters in length and 32 meters in height, the style of this five-storey building is inspired by the simplicity and generous scale of historic Milanese architecture.

Moleskine

Renowned for bringing back to life the legendary notebook used by artists and thinkers over the past two centuries, including Vincent Van Gogh, Pablo Picasso, Ernest Hemingway and Bruce Chatwin, Moleskine has now launched a new Milanese store. Surrounded by the futuristic skyscrapers of Porta Nuova, the latest addition to the Milanese Moleskine Store family overlooks a dynamic, urban open space, rechristened by many, "the square of the future". Inside you can find the entire range of the world's most famous notebooks and diaries, journals, bags, writing instruments and reading accessories.

ODStore Duomo

The largest confectionery store in the city has opened in the shadow of the Duomo. Located in an ancient palazzo owned by the Veneranda Fabbrica del Duomo, ODStore Duomo is spread over 3 floors (and 700 square meters), and is divided into three areas: sweet, savoury and 'wine cellar'. The store offers a selection of 'Sapori Artigianali' branded items, as well as products from other internationally recognized brand names, focusing, specifically on a wide range of snacks, sweet and savoury offerings and gluten-free products. The store is open daily from 8am to 11pm.

Amouage

Amouage, an international brand of luxury fragrances, has opened its second Italian stand-alone shop in the capital of fashion and luxury. The brand has chosen Brera as a showcase for its fine, eclectic fragrances; they are the undisputed protagonists of selective perfumery. In addition to special projects, offered in a limited edition series, for its clientele, the new store offers the entire Amouage line, plus its latest releases Myths, Lilac Love and Bracken.

La Stringa d'Oro

The first International Football Museum in Milan, 'La Stringa d'Oro', has opened in Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II. The memorabilia and mementoes showcased are not only related to Italian teams but to the entire world of European and international football, including women's football. The museum also features a section dedicated to goalkeepers and coaches who have marked the evolution of modern football, as well as a description of the world's most important stadiums. An unconventional perspective that offers a whole new take on the world of football museums.

The jewel in its crown is the 'Stringa d'Oro, a new prize that will be awarded each year to the best pass of the season. Entrance adjacent to the Urban Center (4th floor), corner of piazza della Scala.

MILANO PIAZZA DUOMO

Creative ceramics and more

While strolling along corso Venezia, it is impossible not to be aware of the brightly-coloured window displays of the Fornasetti store. This magical place is the beneficiary of the creative genius of Piero Fornasetti, who introduced his designer ceramics, interior accessories and furnitures to the world. By Stefania Vida

"Imagination, fantasy and creativity are essential food for the soul and the spirit: it is the duty of those who have them to share them with others, and in this way fantasy invokes fantasy and poetry invites poetry for everyone, at all times". Piero Fornasetti used these words to describe the inspiration that fuelled his art, which now, as then, continues to be loved throughout the world.

For connoisseurs of these whimsical collections, or for those who enjoy browsing, the go-to address is corso Venezia 21/A, a neo-classical building where the young Filippo Tommaso Marinetti (a poet and writer and the founder of the Futurist movement) lived and the place where the brand decided to open its new store. Spread out over three levels, with seven window displays overlooking the street, this space can be explored room by room, each of which is painted in a different colour to highlight its contents like a treasure chest. Entering these rooms is like immersing oneself in a fantasy-filled world thanks to its interior design, concept and numerous collections of ceramics and furnishings (including several vintage pieces).

This welcoming, culturally dynamic and eclectic place, also hosts exhibitions and events in a dedicated space, offering visitors an inspiring break from the hustle and bustle of city life.

The store also offers a custom-made design service. A team of expert artisans is on-hand to listen to individual requirements, consult with customers and draw up 'bespoke' interior design projects.

SHOPPING

Visitors should note that VAT is 22% and it is generally included in the price of goods.

TAX-FREE SHOPPING

By law, non-EU residents are entitled to reclaim the VAT paid on items purchased and exported from the EU: before finalizing a purchase, they should ask the shop assistant whether they are eligible for a tax refund.

Shopping hours are generally from 10am to 7pm; less centrally located shops still take the traditional lunch break. Most shops are closed on Sundays (except those located in central Milan) and on Monday mornings. Ask your Concierge.

UnionPay is a global payment network originated from China, responsible for the inter-bank payment via UnionPay system worldwide. By June 2016, over 350,000 merchants in Italy accept UnionPay card for payment, among which 100,000 merchants are located in Milan. This allows hundred of thousands of affluent Chinese customers to shop with their favourite cards. UnionPay also actively work with famous retail groups, such as la Rinascente department stores, The Brian & Barry Building concept megastore, McArthurGlen Designer outlets, Value Retail outlets, SINA hotels, Airport dutyfree shops, to provide special discount or services for UnionPay cardholders.

ENTERTAINMENT

Several venues offering food are included in the Entertainment section, because they are considered as meeting places.

DINING

Reservations for most restaurants are strongly advised. In Italy, service is included in the price meaning that although tipping is not compulsory, it is obviously appreciated as a sign of satisfaction. Some menus include the word "coperto", a small surcharge corresponding to the cost of the service and bread. Although no dress code exists in Italy, semiformal clothing is usually considered de rigueur at restaurants. All restaurants and bars are non-smoking unless a separate smokers' area is specifically offered. Set meals: prices are per person and usually refer to a 3-course meal (beverages excluded).

VIA GESÙ-QUADRILATERO DELLA MODA

Located in a district formerly inhabited by the city's aristocracy, over the years, via Gesù has seen the multiplication of boutiques devoted to the male universe: with its secret gardens and discreet air of luxury it provided the perfect setting for upmarket men's shopping. It has also officially been consecrated as 'The Men's Street', a bastion of style and sartorial excellence. If you happen to find yourself in the city during Men's Fashion Week (13-17 January), when the new collections are presented, a visit to its exclusive shops is a great opportunity to purchase this season's must have garments and accessories.

STYLE FROM HEAD TO TOE

Lying just behind via Montenapoleone is the suave Brioni boutique, an oasis of male elegance where you can choose from among an array of inimitable Made-in-Italy garments and accessories (www.brioni.com). Just a little further on is Caruso's theatre-boutique, behind whose 'red curtains' not only can you find the designer's latest, on-trend casual and formalwear collections but also their iconic dinner jackets, the maison's signature pieces (www.carusomenswear.com). After feasting your eyes and updating your wardrobe, it's time to move on to accessories. Across the street is the only Milanese boutique of the Zilli brand that sells small leather goods, luggage, shoes, belts, eyewear and jewelry making it almost impossible to leave the emporium empty-handed (www.zilli.com). Just a little further on, Doriani will satisfy your need for warmer garments made from precious cashmere, essential to face the rigours of winter in style (www.doriani.it). Tradition and innovation go hand-in-hand at the nearby Tincati flagship store, a brand renowned for its exclusive, resistant wind and water materials and classically tailored clothing (www.tincatimilano.it). Make sure to keep its visiting card, its home tailoring service could come in useful to add a touch of Italian polish to your wardrobe wherever you happen to be. Lastly, just beyond the iconic Four Seasons Hotel Milano, you will discover the latest collections by Kiton, a real emblem of Neapolitan sartorial style (www.kiton.it).

MADE-TO-MEASURE ELEGANCE

Milan is not only a haven, or possibly heaven, of fashion but also of bespoke menswear. One of its most notable examples is Neapolitan tailor Rubinacci who to further pamper the luxury shopper has included a sort of men's-only-club room within the store, where business conversations can be held, rare fabrics chosen for future acquisitions or real Neapolitan coffee sipped at the store's in-house cigar room (www.marianorubinacci.net). Continue onwards to sartorial emporium De Luca where you can take advantage of a vast array of fabrics from Ermenegildo Zegna, Loro Piana and Dormeuil to create garments tailored exclusively to suit individual requirements (www.delucasartoria.it).

A PAMPERING EXPERIENCE

For a full-on grooming experience and a relaxing beauty break, head to the Acqua di Parma boutique, an icon of Made-in-Italy grooming rituals where, in addition to choosing from an array of products, you can either enjoy a wet shave in an atmosphere reminiscent of an olden-day, Italian barber's shop or benefit from a relaxing hand massage in the 'Blu Mediterraneo Resort' area (www.acquadiparma.com).

The "new" Fidenza Village

Bigger, revamped and recently transformed, shopping at Fidenza Village has become an exclusive experience combining style, pleasure, gastronomy and culture. The Village has expanded its space – with exclusive hospitality at the core of its services – by integrating its existing 21,000 square metres with an additional 3,500 square metres, to host 20 new spaces that will be used to accommodate new boutiques and the new Villano restaurant. Other highlights will include its new 'Concierge' lounge, dedicated to welcoming guests. Its most recent newcomers include Dsquared2, New Balance, Moleskine, Jil Sander, K-Way, Le Silla, Liu Jo Uomo, Luisa Spagnoli, Mandarina Duck, Nike Factory Store, P.A.R.O.S.H and Pretty Ballerinas. To further enhance visitors' shopping experience, until 8 January, a spectacular light show, entitled 'Sound of Lights', will enliven the atmosphere at the Village. www.fidenzavillage.com

GALLERIA-PIAZZA SCALA DISTRICT

Giorgio Armani

Borsalino

The highly central Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II has recently regained its former splendor, thanks to important renovation works which has also seen the re-opening of its upper floors: new spaces for events, cafés and eateries.

EDITOR'S TIP Don't miss the new exclusive panoramic walkway extending over a surface area of 800 sq.m. (www.highlinegalleria.com).

SHOPPING AT THE TOP

From the iconic Prada store to Versace's latest gem, it's impossible not to remain awestruck by the collections showcased in these spaces that tend to resemble museums rather than shops! In the Galleria, haute couture takes centre stage. In addition to the aftermentioned Prada and Versace, other standouts include Louis Vuitton, Gucci, Armani, Borsalino, Luisa Spagnoli, Bric's, Tod's, Stefanel and Massimo Dutti alternated with historic workshops (whose signs serve as an indication of their storied past), including Cadè (shirts and ties since 1926), Piumelli, renowned for its handmade gloves, Mejana, purveyors of time-honoured fountain pens and historic bookstores: Bocca, for art lovers and the Libreria Rizzoli Galleria: three floors all dedicated to the printed word!

DINING AND GOURMET

You say 'aperitivo' and you immediately think of Camparino in Galleria, a landmark location and a reference point where Milan's elite meet to partake in one of Italy's oldest social traditions! For those in search of a taste of tradition, located just nearby is Luini (renowned for its one-of-a-kind "panzerotti"). Conversely, those favouring a more sought-after gourmet experience can either opt to eat at Ristorante Galleria where you enjoy a taste of Milanese food and hospitality, at Savini, located on the first floor of the Galleria or the Marchesi alla Scala restaurant lying adjacent to Teatro alla Scala, presided over by Gualtiero Marchesi, one of Italy's most revered chefs. For the more 'fashion oriented', a top-notch address is Il Ristorante Trussardi alla Scala located just moments away. And then again, if your idea of bliss is an unrivalled view over piazza Duomo a sure-fire choice is Giacomo Arengario, the restaurant of the Museo del '900.

AROUND THE CORNER

If after visiting all the boutiques in the Galleria, you still haven't had your fill of shopping, we recommend several truly unique addresses located just a stone's throw away. For the ultimate one-stop shopping experience look no further than la Rinascente (under the arcades): an amazing array of fashion items under just one roof! Just a little further on, the window displays of Rocca 1794 will seduce you with their collections of several of the world's most desirable jewelry and watch brands, a perfect blend of passion, dedication, know-how and luxury.

If you're in search of a special souvenir, head to Pettinaroli in piazza San Fedele. Founded in 1881, its antique prints are still an absolute 'must'! A reference point in Milan for the best Made in Italy cuts is Valli Tessuti Alta Moda, with the perfect fabrics to make elegant outfits. Outliving (in via Agnello) offers a storefront packed with items for outdoor living, leisure time, holidays, travel and the home... and, if after all of this you realize that you might have gone over the top with your purchases and thus need an extra suitcase, Rimowa and Pellux (in piazza San Fedele) offer some of the best travel luxury in the industry!

Rimowa

PETTINAROLI

Founded in 1881 and now run by the fourth generation, it is considered one of the oldest venues in the city. Since its inception, the shop has been a reference point for style and elegance in writing paper, business cards, printed documents, desk items and photo albums in beautifully handcrafted leather according to time-honoured Italian tradition. The basement floor houses a vast assortment of prints and antique maps. Mon 3pm-7pm; Tues-Fri 10am-7pm; Sat 10am-2pm/3pm-7pm. M1-M3 Duomo. Map F4

MARCHESI ALLA SCALA

Gualtiero Marchesi, the undisputed Maestro of Italian cuisine, reconfirms his love for Milan with a new initiative "a restaurant within the restaurant". The iconic "Il Marchesino" restaurant, lying adjacent to La Scala, now shares its space with the new "Il Marchesi". Every day, at lunch and at dinner (excluding Sat at lunchtime and Sun), the main dining room boasting just 7 tables is transformed into the "Marchesi" restaurant where guests can order a special menu. Not only a chance to rediscover historic dishes but also the specials created, over the years, for Milan.

VALLI TESSUTI ALTA MODA

A reference point in Milan for the best Made in Italy cuts. Located in via Verdi, just steps from Teatro alla Scala, here expert staff will assist you in the search for the perfect fabric to make elegant outfits, prêt-à-porter or formal wear. These fabrics are inspired by the patterns of the most up-to-date haute couture collections. Valli stocks a wide assortment of exquisite fabrics for men (including pinstripes and prince of Wales check by Ermenegildo Zegna and Loro Piana) and women (Valentino and Ungaro), as well as bolts of cloth to make coats and outerwear, shirts, accessories and bridal gowns.

BRERA DISTRICT

Brera is synonymous with the artistic heart of the city. In fact, as you stroll along the streets of this ancient district, you cannot help but be enchanted by its almost surreal atmosphere boasting small artisans' workshops or quaint stores selling canvases and paints.

EDITOR'S TIP Additionally, Brera is home to the impressive Accademia di Belle Arti, where visitors can admire Milan's famous painting collection at the Pinacoteca (the Brera Picture Gallery), the historic Biblioteca Nazionale Braidense (Braidense National Library), the Museo Astronomico (The Astronomical Museum), the oldest scientific research institute in the city and the Giardino Botanico (Botanical Gardens).

ART, SHOPPING AND ENTERTAINMENT

To start your sightseeing tour on the right foot, we suggest stopping for a cup of coffee at Princi, not just an ordinary bakery, but a meeting point where, amidst the heady scents of "brioche" and "cappuccino", you will have a chance to begin your day on a high note. A reference point for antique lovers, Brera boasts a large number of antique shops and art galleries: don't miss a visit to Lorenzo Vatalaro in piazza San Simpliciano 7, focused on antique sculptures, paintings and artworks, where a few modern, contemporary items are also represented.

As an aside, those interested in bargains or bric à brac should definitely make time to visit the Mercatino di antiquariato e brocantage, held on the third Sunday of each month. Not far from the elegant artisan footwear sold by Iliprandi or the evocative location where jewellery collections are designed and handcrafted, ddm-daniela de marchi. The array of boutiques continues with the tailor-made, Italian-style shoes by Alfonso Garlando. Other points of interest include historic luxury jewellers Manfredi, antique and modern creations in silver at the Argenteria Dabbene, the original accessories by Angela Caputi

Alfonso Garlando

Giòsa Milano

Giuggiù and unique leather accessories by Giòsa Milano in via Ciovasso.

THE NEW PERFUME DISTRICT

At no. 4, we find the new The Merchant of Venice boutique, an historic perfumery epitomizing the art of Venetian perfume-making offering a luxury line encompassing a wide range of exclusive perfumes for men and women contained in elegant bottles inspired by the tradition of the city's famous hand-blown Murano glass (www.themerchantofvenice.com). Our next port of call is via Fiori Chiari, where we find the beautiful window displays of Culti Milano. Over time, in addition to concentrating on home fragrances, this original innovator of the home diffuser has extended its range to encompass a series of body care products. The brand also has a boutique at no. 53 corso Venezia (www.culti.com). Don't miss a visit also to: Campomarzio 70 (via Brera 2, www.campomarzio70.it), Olfattorio Bar-à-Parfums (via Brera 5, www.olfattorio.it), Diptyque (via Brera 23, www.diptyqueparis.eu), Profumo (via Brera 6, www.profumomilano.com), the new boutique of Amouage (via Fiori Chiari 7, www.amouage.com), Dr.Vranjes (via Fiori Chiari 24, <http://drvranches.it>), Officina Profumo - Farmaceutica di Santa Maria Novella (via Madonna, www.smnovella.com), Creed (via Madonna 17, <http://creed.cale.it>), 9Nine (via Ponte Vetere 22, www.beautysanspa.com) and Fragonard (via Solferino 2, www.fragonard.com).

TASTING SUGGESTIONS

Between visiting one shop and another, you might be surprised to suddenly discover that it's time for lunch. Try the typical Parma-based charcuterie specialities at Parma & Co, where you can also enjoy a Sunday brunch or the famed sandwiches sold by Panino Giusto. The afternoon is likely to pass by in a flash until you suddenly realize that it's aperitivo time: you are definitely likely to be seduced by the purely Art Déco-style atmosphere of El Tombon de San Marc or the trendier atmosphere of Fashion Café in via San Marco or, for different taste, the new restaurant Hong Kong Crossover in via Ciovasso offering the sought-after flavours of the Orient; other options are heady wine tasting sessions in the informal ambience of either N'Ombra de Vin or Moscatelli.

ANGELA CAPUTI GIUGGIÙ

The precious collections designed by Angela Caputi are a meld of fashion and art. Angela Caputi first established her exclusive workshop in Florence, in 1975, where she personally designs all her collections under the "Angela Caputi Giuggiù" brand name. Renowned throughout the world, her bijoux, made entirely by hand using synthetic resins, are an authentic expression of "Made-in-Italy" elegance. Sophisticated, original creations combined to create unique objects both in terms of colour and shape. A magical blend of contemporary and classical taste.

ALFONSO GARLANDO

Since 1971, Alfonso Garlando has been creating his footwear in the name of elegance and the high quality of artisanal, strictly "Made-in-Italy" products. Today, this tradition continues in the heart of Brera with unique, handcrafted items: hundreds of styles produced using premium quality fabrics and skins, for ceremonies, evenings and elegant events but also for comfortable, everyday wear. Customers can also find a collection of ton sur ton bags, belts and clutches, that can be customized according to individual tastes and requirements.

FASHION CAFÉ

Centrally located in the Brera district, this well-known venue has been revamped and converted into an elegant restaurant. Fashion Café is the ideal setting for a quick lunch, a dinner with friends, a romantic rendezvous or an evening of musical entertainment. On Saturday evenings, you can listen to live music in a vibrant, contemporary ambience. Open daily from the morning to the early hours of the night, it puts a contemporary spin on Milanese lifestyle, marrying refined taste, design, fashion and energy.

CULTI MILANO

Located in the charming Brera district, via Fiori Chiari is the address of the new boutique dedicated to Culti Milano's sought-after home fragrances. The store stocks the entire range of Culti Milano's perfumery products, characterized by its unique style that focuses on quality, a careful selection of only the finest ingredients and painstaking attention to detail, to personalize both homes and work environments with an unmistakable aura of style and elegance. Culti Milano represents a unique approach to lifestyle design that over time has evolved to include new sophisticated fragrances including Matusalem, its large 25-litre bottle: the centerpiece of any interior.

VERCELLI-MAGENTA DISTRICT

CORSO VERCELLI, SHOPPING BAG IN HAND

If you access corso Vercelli starting from piazzale Baracca, at building number 1 you will find a Montblanc boutique, home to high quality beautifully fashioned timepieces and writing instruments. While in the area, should you decide to pick up a new pair of uber-glam sunglasses, at number 5 corso Vercelli, Salmoiraghi e Viganò awaits you. One of the best-known opticians in Italy, it boasts as many as 500 sales points scattered across the country. Just a little further on, at number 19, your new sunglasses are likely to protect you from the glittering window displays of Luigi Verga Orologi, historic, high-class watchmakers. While on the subject of luxury, from number 11 onwards you will find a real mini-haven of elegance, mainly for men and mainly made-to-measure. The stores located here range from De Molfetta, the go-to shop for expertly handmade shirts and fashion-forward men's knitwear to Luca Calzature, a reference point since 1968 for artisanal footwear: all the beauty of Italian quality combined with the luxury of personalization and hundreds of models from among which to choose. At number 23 you can also find Brian & Barry (which, in spite of its name, is a 100% Italian brand, currently at the top of its form, as shown by its new, lavish megastore in San Babila) and Boggi Milano, a surefire choice for men's clothing where you can take advantage of the discounts reserved for you as a reader of Where®.

IN DISCOVERY OF VIA BELFIORE'S BOUTIQUES

On reaching piazza Wagner, you can make a small diversion in discovery of via Belfiore, even less touristy and, therefore, even more suggestive. And yet, even here, several of the most prestigious brands make an appearance, in quick succession. For a luxe pit-stop, at number 18, you'll find one of the most iconic Nespresso points in the city. Now that you're feeling a little more energized, you can return to the heart of Italian craftsmanship: in a singular "duel" two different artisanal shoe shops stand one next to the other, both boasting a storied past and the guarantee of Italian artisanal excellence. It's up to you to choose between one of the two, either Calzature Belfiore, handcrafted shoes since 1950, or Calzature Cardinale, a small family-run business since 1977. On the contrary, at number 6, you'll find Mortarotti, a cult destination of Milanese style carrying the creations of the best Italian fashion brands.

BACK IN CORSO VERCELLI AND VIA RASORI

By retracing your footsteps, you'll find yourself back in other Vercelli, where you can browse the other side. Starting from the other end, you'll find Coin, the upmarket department store stocking a good collection of most of what you have seen until now. Further on, at number 14, you'll find yet another classic of Made-in-Italy, i.e. Geox, which doubles up just a little further on down the road at number 8, with its upmarket cousins Fay, Hogan and Tod's. Always at number 8, there's also Nadine, an Italian chain of women's fashion clothing. If children are your target, make a small deviation into the parallel of via Rasori, where, at number 4, you'll find a delectable boutique, simply spilling over with surprises, SophiePetit. And while you're here, bear in mind that there's another gem, whose "toys", in this case, are more likely to appeal to the ladies: Martino & Mazzolini, at number 8, is an intriguing goldsmith's workshop that creates bronze jewellery using an ancient technique that has almost disappeared. Finally, walking towards Sant'Ambrogio, don't miss a visit to the famed Belgian chocolate atelier Neuhaus Maître Chocolatier.

NEUHAUS MAÎTRE CHOCOLATIER

In Milan, the famous school of Belgium chocolate boasts one of its most iconic brands: the Neuhaus shop is a small treasure trove where pralines – more than 100 varieties that arrive fresh, each week, from Belgium – are displayed in cases like precious jewels, alongside bars with dried fruits, whimsical letters of the alphabet and greeting cards, all made exclusively from chocolate.

Armani/Ristorante, the essence of taste

One Michelin star, a stylish location and a unique menu. Located in the heart of Milan, this exclusive, designer-style restaurant is an oasis of taste, infused with an international flavour. By Stefania Vida

Featuring minimalist, clean-cut lines, natural colours and a magnificent view over Milan's skyline, the designer has infused the exclusive Armani/Ristorante with his elegantly, understated style. Inspired by Italy's rich and diversified culinary tradition, the menu offers authentic and classic culinary delights, integrated with the freshest, seasonal products and a wide selection of excellent wine labels.

The restaurant hosts a number of culinary collaborations, including its 'Meet the Chefs' event: a series of unmissable experiences dedicated to the world of fine dining, showcasing a combination of Michelin-starred cuisine, experimentation and creativity. Several of Europe's most renowned starred chefs meet in the kitchen, which is manned by Executive Chef Filippo Gozzoli (see photo), to create a truly unique gourmet experience.

On 26 January, three-Michelin-starred chef Gert De Mangeleer, one of the leading representatives of the new wave of young chefs from Flanders, will treat diners to his own, vibrant version of contemporary Belgian cuisine.

On 9 March, it's the turn of José Avillez, the first recipient of a second Michelin star at his Lisbon-based Belcanto restaurant. Renowned for re-interpreting classic dishes with both taste and passion, Avillez exemplifies the new frontier of Portuguese cuisine.

Lastly, on 11 May, Sergio Herman will delight diners with his culinary expertise. Herman was awarded three Michelin stars in The Netherlands, and thereafter opened 'The Jane' in Antwerp, which offers a cosmopolitan atmosphere and expertly crafted dishes that in a short space of time, earned him two Michelin stars.

Amazing dining on a tram

Tap into the unique experience of dining aboard the historic ATMosfera tram while taking in the sights of the city! By Stefania Vida

Those visiting Milan will have noted the iconic trams trundling through the streets of the city. Among these, one in particular will not go unnoticed: ATMosfera. In fact, several cars of this vintage tram have been meticulously refurbished to host the most characteristic of all Milanese restaurants, taking discerning diners on a sightseeing tour of the city to ensure a delightful, innovative retro approach to dining. As soon as you board, you are immediately catapulted into the past, thanks to its plush velvet covered seats and windows shaded with flounced curtains, surmounted by artfully placed period photographs. "ATMosfera" is an amusing play on words combining the company's acronym (Azienda Trasporti Milanese aka ATM) with the idea of an atmospheric setting. As they cruise the city streets of Milan, lulled by the movement of the tram and its refined decor, diners can enjoy a sought-after dinner featuring a blend of enticing flavours highlighted in the three menus on offer: Milanese (meat), fish and vegetarian (70€ each, four-course dinner with a welcome drink). The tram-restaurant departs each evening at 8pm from piazza Castello, corner of via Beltrami, and returns to the tramstop after a 2-hour tour of several of the city's most romantic districts... a truly unmissable experience!

>> 7 days a week, all year round.

Milan's history

The "Carrelli" or "Ventotto", a tourism symbol of the city, is a vintage tram dating back to 1928. Originally known as "vettura tranviaria a carrelli tipo 1928", this institution on rails, featuring iconic wooden seats, has been boarded, at least once, by every self-respecting Milanese. A part of Milan's history and folklore, thanks to ATMosfera, the "Carrelli" has now been re-invented as an exclusive restaurant boasting an exquisitely retro flavour.

Leonardo gets a makeover in Galleria

Innovative multimedia exhibition Leonardo3-Il Mondo di Leonardo never ceases to amaze with its new projects: a unique opportunity to interact with Leonardo's inventions through innovative, engaging media, several of which have been designed specifically for youngsters. By Stefania Vida

Boasting the sale of almost 600,000 tickets, the exhibition dedicated to Renaissance genius Leonardo da Vinci has reached an important watershed. A success that is also due to the constant presence of Italian and foreign visitors, which led to the decision to extend the exhibition until 31 December 2017. Its many innovations include several world premieres: two machines, the flying 'Bicycle' and the flying 'Tandem', a multimedia experience dedicated to the 'Vitruvian Man' and the 'Incendiary Sphere'. The flying 'Bicycle' and flying 'Tandem' projects originate from page 897 of Leonardo's 'Codex Atlanticus' which contains two variations of the same idea, with respectively one or two pilots. In addition to the new flying machines, the exhibition now also hosts a 3D multimedia installation dedicated to Leonardo's famous anatomical drawing of the Vitruvian man, a perfect example of the ideal proportional canons of the human body based on studies by Vitruvius. Another new addition to the exhibition is the 'Incendiary Sphere', a massive incendiary globe resembling the first fragmentation bomb in history, capable of inflicting devastating damage to the enemy. Finally, in collaboration with 'Leonardo a Milano', every Saturday and Sunday from 12-noon to 5pm, visitors will be given a chance to enjoy an unforgettable experience by personally recreating 'The Last Supper' in a specially equipped room under the supervision of qualified instructors. All interactive experiences are in both Italian and English and, to encourage the use of their content by a wider public, audio guides in Italian, English, Russian, German, French, Spanish, Portuguese and Chinese are also available.

Ski tips around Milan

The high-altitude ski resorts lying just moments away from Milan promise a combination of great conditions and stylish atmospheres, for a short vacation or even just a special day's getaway.

Monterosa Ski area.
In the background, the Matterhorn.

Just over a two-hour drive from the city, Lombardy, Piedmont or the Aosta Valley offer an array of ski resorts lying at the foot of the Alps. Here is a pick of the best winter sports destinations, ideal for downhill skiing enthusiasts but also for those who enjoy snowboarding, telemark and freeride skiing.

SNOW THRILLS IN LOMBARDY

There are roughly 25 ski destinations in Lombardy, including ski areas and smaller resorts, boasting an overall offer of more than 700 kilometres of downhill runs. Among the most popular destinations, a hot favourite with the Milanese is the Alta Valtellina which offers enthusiasts an opportunity to enjoy a variety of winter sports at Livigno, Bormio, Aprica and Santa Caterina Valfurva. www.altavaltellina.com

THE 'WHITE GALAXY' OF PIEDMONT

Long associated with snow and ice sports, this region, which hosted the 2006 Winter Olympics, offers a vast range of options for downhill ski enthusiasts: 53 ski resorts, more than 1,300 km of runs and over 300 drag and chair lifts. The international ski area of the Via Lattea (the Milky Way), located between Italy and France, boasts as many as 212 pistes for all tastes, roughly seventy drag and chair lifts and the option of purchasing a single skipass for all the valleys between Sestriere, Sauze d'Oulx, Sansicario, Cesana, Pragelato, Claviere and Montgenèvre. www.vialattea.it

THE AOSTA VALLEY, A SNOW PARADISE

Spectacular scenery framed by a chain of mountains that extends over a stretch of 4,000 metres, 45 lifts and 95 pistes suitable for skiers of all levels, acres of untracked powder and just one skipass for the d'Ayas, Gressoney and Valsesia valleys: these are the highlights of the Monterosa Ski area which offers an evocative crossing on skis. The trail starts from Champoluc, crosses through the Gressoney-La Trinité area and ends in Alagna. www.monterosa-ski.com

On the Italian side of the Mont Blanc chain, Courmayeur, also known as the rooftop of Europe, is a top choice for all skiers. www.courmayeurmontblanc.it

You start at an altitude of 1,500 metres until you reach the Plateau Rosa ski area located at an altitude of 3,500 metres. Boasting the best snow record in Europe and trails stretching for 350 km, you can ski day-long without ever crossing the same piste: all of this and more is Breuil-Cervinia Valtournenche Zermatt, one of the most extensive ski areas in the Alps, boasting kilometer after kilometer of sweeping pistes that stretch along the three valleys bordering Italy and Switzerland. www.cervinia.it

Lastly, particularly worthy of note is the picturesque town of Chamois. The highest town in the Aosta Valley, it can only be reached via cablecar. This small, snow-covered hamlet, the only community in Italy that cannot be accessed by car, offers an old-world atmosphere and trails suitable for skiers of all levels. www.chamois-lamagdeleine.it

Sportswear shopping

Where can you satisfy your desire for glamour and the technical features required to face the most challenging outdoor adventures?

Vicolungo The Style Outlets is the go-to destination for sportswear, where you can find a wide range of high-quality products at fabulously discounted prices, with a particular focus on snow sports. Now that the winter sales are on, the opportunities to save on the purchase of ski apparel and accessories are endless. vicolungo.thestyleoutlets.it

Tips around Milan

Visiting Italian beauties

Four destinations to enjoy a day of fun and relaxation with the whole family!

MONZA

The beauty of its 14th century Torre dell'Arengario, its glam shopping streets and its Gothic-style Duomo, featuring marvellous frescoes depicting the life of Queen Theodelinda, make the centre of Monza well worth a visit. However, Monza's real jewel in the crown is its famous Villa Reale, a magnificent 18th century dwelling designed by Francesco Piermarini, the architect who also designed the La Scala Opera House in Milan. Strolling through its Italianate gardens or its regal rooms is a feast for the eyes. Its rich calendar of events both inside and outside the villa includes exhibitions. Don't miss Italy's annual Formula 1 Grand Prix held in September at the racetrack lying behind its park. www.villarealedim Monza.it
DISTANCE FROM MILAN: 50 min (25km)

LA VENARIA REALE

Lying behind the eponymous historical town, renowned for its delectable Piedmont fare and its picturesque yearly 'Palio', the Reggia di Venaria Reale is a true masterpiece of Baroque architecture and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Originally built as a hunting lodge for the Savoy, it is now a sought-after tourist destination where visitors can admire its rooms, often used to host top-level exhibitions. Other must-visit attractions include its gardens, accessible either on foot or aboard a small convenient train. The House of Diana, the Fountain of the Stag and the Royal Stables are just some of the marvels housed in the villa's park which is a part of the imposing Parco della Mandria, an oasis of peace for protected animal species. Don't miss the "Brueghel. Masterpieces of Flemish Art" exhibition until 19 February 2017 at the Sale delle Arti. www.lavenaria.it

DISTANCE FROM MILAN: 1 h 45 min (142km)

MANTUA

"A city shaped like a Palazzo": this delightful description given by academic and diplomat Baldassarre Castiglioni perfectly renders the idea of the charms and treasures offered by Mantua. Small and well designed, the city is, first and foremost, an original mixture of history and art. Originally an Etruscan settlement, it achieved its full splendour in Medieval times and, in particular, during the reign of the Gonzaga family, the Dukes of Mantua who conquered the city in 1328 and ruled benevolently until 1707. Important monuments including Palazzo Ducale, Palazzo del Podestà, Palazzo della Ragione and the churches of San Lorenzo (the "Rotonda") and Santa Maria del Gradaro also date back to this period. The city was named Italian Capital of Culture 2016. www.mantova.com

DISTANCE FROM MILAN: 2.10 hours (190km)

VENICE

The city's major attractions, such as the awe-inspiring Basilica of St. Mark, in pure Venetian Byzantine style, the Campanile (the bell tower) and Palazzo Ducale, the Palace of the Doges, are all situated just nearby St. Mark's Square. Just a few steps from the square, well worth a visit are the historic Teatro della Fenice and, burdened with legend, the Bridge of Sighs, one of Venice's most characteristic bridges together with the Ponte Rialto and Ponte delle Guglie. In terms of uniqueness, Venice tops all other cities with its canals – which can be navigated aboard one of the city's famous gondolas – and its two islands which can be easily accessed by means of a vaporetto: Murano, where for centuries glassblowers have performed oral gymnastics turning out fantastic glass pieces, and Burano, with its characteristic coloured houses and lace.

InfoMilano, the tourist information and hospitality point originally conceived for Expo 2015, has been set up in Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II. By Stefania Vida InfoMilano is the city's first visiting card and the place from which everyone can get friendly, helpful, multilingual advice about everything that Milan has to offer.

A modern facility designed to welcome and accompany tourists from their arrival in the city and for the entire duration of their stay, offering a vast range of services: from cultural activities to hotel accommodation right up to the various options available to discover the city and its attractions, including museums, restaurants, historic workshops and the most exclusive shopping. The choice of setting up InfoMilano inside the Urban Center stemmed from a need to provide tourists with a highly central, visible and attractive place positioned in one of the city's best-known destinations, namely the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, a connecting point between piazza del Duomo and Teatro alla Scala. Boasting 400 square metres spread out over three floors (170 of which comprise the ground floor), the Urban Center was designed to accommodate a visitor influx estimated at around 90,000 people per day in anticipation of the Universal Exposition held in 2015. The establishment of the InfoMilano space serves as an addition to the regular activities of the Urban Center which will continue to host debates, presentations and meetings open to the public. The spaces, its flooring, partitions and audio/video systems have been upgraded to guarantee improved efficiency and a more rational use of the space available, thus guaranteeing the complete autonomy of the two facilities.
