LOVING MILAN

Are you in search of a truly romantic backdrop to celebrate Valentine's Day? Take inspiration from Romeo, but not from Shakespeare's passionate but ill-fated hero. In this instance, we were thinking about Walt Disney's Romeo, the easy-going, infallible protagonist of the Aristocats. His seduction technique involved taking a romantic walk along the rooftops of the city. Follow his example and treat your significant other to a marvelous view of Milan from above on the walkway of the Highline Galleria (www.highlinegalleria.com). At the end of the tour, you can celebrate with a pizza (Romeo-style) at the "I Dodici Gatti" restaurant. If, on the contrary, you're looking for something a little more upmarket, head to the "Felix Lo Basso Restaurant", also located here, on the top floor of the Townhouse Galleria (felixlobassorestaurant.it): its starred chef and fabulous culinary offerings will not disappoint.

Chocolate, a passion!

Armani/Dolci

A delight for both the eye and the palate, chocolate is an irresistible temptation that is impossible to resist. To savour it to the full, in all of its shapes and varieties, we suggest a tantalizing selection of the best locations in the city, including February's must-attend event. Which one? Read on.

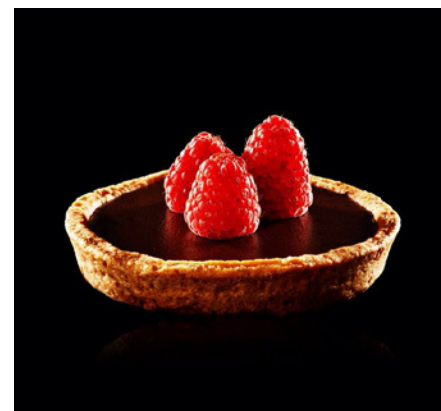

BY STEFANIA VIDA

Milan is ready to host the world's most important event dedicated to chocolate and its specialties: the Salon du Chocolat will be returning to the Milanese capital from 9 to 12 February at MiCo-Milano Portello with a rich program of novelties and international celebrities, who have made this product famous. Ernst Knam (who has been assigned the task of creating the Valentine Day's themed chocolate sculpture, the symbol of the event, that will welcome guests at the entrance), Carlo Cracco, Iginio Massari, Davide Oldani, Davide Comaschi and Andrea Besuschio are just some of the celebrities who will enhance the event. The Salon du Chocolat 2017 will also host an important charity project developed in collaboration with the Italian League for the Fight against Cancer in Milan (LILT). The world champion of chocolate Davide Comaschi will create a unique Valentine's Day chocolate that will be sold during the Salon du Chocolat. Proceeds from the sale will be used to support LILT, Milan's 'home from home' accommodation project for families with sick children in hospital. This is a special chocolate, both in terms of its shape, and the type of chocolate chosen by Comaschi: a mixture of unusual flavours designed to satisfy the palate and touch the heart.

Some of the delightful and delectable things happening at The Chocolate Show include: show cookings, tastings, performances and a unique fashion show featuring models wearing designs made out of chocolate. The event will culminate on Sunday, 12 February with the 'Tavoletta d'Oro' award, the prize for high quality Italian chocolate awarded by the Compagnia del Cioccolato. For those wishing to learn more: the international 'Salon du Chocolat' was founded in Paris in 1994, and was based on an idea by Sylvie Douce and François Jeantet. Its aim was to offer the public an opportunity to discover chocolate in all of its myriad forms. Some figures: over the past 22 years, 165 salons have been organized, with an average of 20 salons per year, more than 10,000 exhibitors, with an attendance of 8.2 million visitors. The event is currently staged in 30 cities on 4 continents. www.salonduchocolat.it

FROM HISTORIC ADDRESSES... Neuhaus Maître Chocolatier, one of the most illustrious brands of the Belgian school of chocolates, is located in Milan at number 6, via San Vittore. The shop is a small treasure chest where pralines (more than 100 varieties that arrive fresh from Belgium weekly) are displayed in glass cases like precious jewels, alongside slabs with dried fruit, the brand's characteristic letters of the alphabet and greeting cards, all made from » An assortment of Ernst Knam's spectacular specialties. A true feast for the eyes, acting as a perfect complement to the chocolates shown on the facing page. These and other specialties can be found at the Salon du Chocolat, from 9 to 12 February at MiCo-Milano Portello.

A point of reference in the Quadrilatero, via Montenapoleone 8, Cova, established in 1817, delights the palates of the Milanese with its specialties. Honoured with the prestigious 'Bottega Storica' insignia, it is impossible not to stop in front of its glittering window displays featuring the most unusual and tantalizing creations, created ad hoc for all occasions. Closed from 1 January for renovations, the location will re-open in Spring 2017. www.covamilano.com

» THE NUANCES OF CHOCOLATE
Milk, dark, gianduja, hazelnut or light... the thousand nuances of chocolate are interpreted by Venchi in products boasting an unmistakable taste and seductive shapes since 1878. This was, in fact, the year when Silvano Venchi opened his chocolate shop in the city of Turin, the birthplace of Italy's chocolate-making tradition.

Venchi

Say the words 'pastry shop' and you immediately think of Pasticceria Marchesi, which, since 1824, has dedicated itself to turning out the tastiest sweet treats with passion and creativity. It specializes above all, in chocolate, which is produced using only the finest quality cocoas. In Milan you can choose from among three of its venues: the historic location in via Santa Maria alla Porta, the ultra-glam spot in via Montenapoleone and the brand new venue in the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele. www.pasticceriamarchesi.it

A highly celebrated name in Piedmontese tradition is Venchi (in Milan, branches of this brand can be found in Via dei Mercanti, via Mengoni corner of via Tommaso Grossi, piazza Cadorna, Eataly Smeraldo and the Stazione Centrale). Its stores offer a truly vast selection ranging from classic chocolate cakes to a dark chocolate rum-flavoured spread, traditional Cuneese chocolates and more unusual products including cocoa butter for cooking. www.venchi.com
In via Montello 25, Cabosse is the Milanese shop of the famous 'Cioccolato di BruCo' brand, a historic artisanal company located in the province of Ancona. Customers can choose from among a number of delicacies, including white figs covered with dark chocolate, classic dragées, a spreadable Gianduja cream and chocolate bars. Though ostensibly French, Gay Odin (via San Giovanni sul Muro 5, www.gay-odin.it) is a bona fide Italian, or more precisely, a Neapolitan, brand. Inside, although its shelves and display cases are filled with tantalizing delicacies, the piece de resistance is the chocolate 'forest', made with pieces of chocolate of various sizes processed with ancient machinery reproducing the veining of wood.

Lastly, an absolute must is a visit to Peck in via Spadari, a historic temple of taste for more than 120 years, where you can find the most sought-after gastronomic products year-round, including deliciously sweet pralines, gourmet truffles, spreadable creams and chocolates of all shapes and flavours, perfect for an indulgent moment or to give as a gift. www.peck.it

» ...TO THE MOST INNOVATIVE LOCATIONS!

A renowned Piedmontese maître chocolatier, Guido Gobino has launched in Milan at no. 39 corso Garibaldi with a high-quality selection of his innovative creations. Must-tries include his extraordinary mini-ganache shaped like the tesserae of a mosaic, a spreadable Gianduja cream, the brand's 'maximo' gianduiotto infused with a 40% hazelnut filling, and his mini-sized chocolate squares. guidogobino.it
Via Manzoni 31, possibly the most glamorous address on Milan's confectionery scene, is home to the Armani/Dolci boutique, a shop owned by the celebrated designer Giorgio Armani, dedicated entirely to the world of chocolate. Here you can find delectable pralines, chocolate bars, assorted dragées or fruit jellies, charming gifts that are perfect for all occasions, distinguished by their high-quality ingredients and their elegant, unmistakable packaging, a distinctive souvenir in its own right, just waiting to be taken home! www.armanidolci.com
In Milan, you can discover the specialties of Cioccolati Italiani at several locations (via De Amicis 25, via San Raffaele 6, via Torino-Piazzetta San Giorgio, Alzaia Naviglio Grande 44, and at Il Centro di Arese shopping mall). Some information for chocolate connoisseurs. The brand only uses 'Fino de Aroma' cocoa, the finest in the world (accounting for only 8% of world cocoa production) as the base for all their products and preparations. www.cioccolatitaliani.it

Borsa Italiana Gallery

Or just BIG. This is the name of the brand new exhibition space located on the basement floor of the historic Palazzo Mezzanotte, the headquarters of the Italian Stock Exchange in Piazza Affari. A space created as part of the Italian Stock Exchange's 'Finance For Fine Arts' program designed to promote and support Italy's artistic and cultural heritage. The entire project is based on the conviction that the restoration of artworks should go hand-in-hand with the improvement of their visibility for collective enjoyment. For this reason, in addition to their restoration, the gallery has advocated the digitalization and display of works, a project also undertaken for several masterpieces housed at the Pinacoteca di Brera. The Gallery can be visited on request or when initiatives, organized by Palazzo Mezzanotte for the public, are underway.

Today, Tiffany's heart has taken to travelling through Italy, stopping over in Milan, Rome, Venice, Verona and Florence. A particular charm representing each of the above-mentioned Italian cities has been designed for the 'Return to Tiffany' bracelet. The ideal gift for those who hold their cities dear to their hearts! EDITOR'S TIP Don't miss the new exclusive panoramic walkway extending over a surface area of 800 sq.m. (www.highlinegalleria.com).

SHOPPING AT THE TOP

From the iconic Prada store to Versace's latest gem, it's impossible not to remain awestruck by the collections showcased in these spaces that tend to resemble museums rather than shops! In the Galleria, haute couture takes centre stage. In addition to the aforementioned Prada and Versace, other standouts include

Louis Vuitton, Gucci, Armani, Borsalino, Luisa Spagnoli,

Louis Vuitton

Bric's, Tod's, Stefanel and Massimo Dutti alternated with historic workshops (whose signs serve as an indication of their storied past), including Cadè (shirts and ties since 1926), Piumelli, renowned for its handmade gloves, Mejana, purveyors of time-honoured fountain pens and historic bookstores: Bocca, for art lovers and the Libreria Rizzoli Galleria: three floors all dedicated to the printed word!

DINING AND GOURMET

You say 'aperitivo' and you immediately think of Camparino in Galleria, a landmark location and a reference point where Milan's elite meet to partake in one of Italy's oldest social traditions! For those in search of a taste of tradition, located just nearby is Luini (renowned for its one-of-a-kind "panzerotti"). Conversely, those favouring a more sought-after gourmet experience can either opt to eat at Ristorante Galleria where you enjoy a taste of Milanese food and hospitality, at Savini, located on the first floor of the Galleria or the Marchesi alla Scala restaurant lying adjacent to Teatro alla Scala, presided over by Gualtiero Marchesi, one of Italy's most revered chefs. For the more 'fashion oriented', a top-notch address is Il Ristorante Trussardi alla Scala located just moments away. And then again, if your idea of bliss is an unrivalled view over piazza Duomo a sure-fire choice is Giacomo Arengario, the restaurant of the Museo del '900.

AROUND THE CORNER

If after visiting all the boutiques in the Galleria, you still haven't had your fill of shopping, we recommend several truly unique addresses located just a stone's throw away. For the ultimate one-stop shopping experience look no further than la Rinascente (under the arcades): an amazing array of fashion items under just one roof! Just a little further on, the window displays of Rocca 1794 will seduce you with their collections of several of the world's most desirable jewelry and watch brands, a perfect blend of passion, dedication, know-how and luxury.

If you're in search of a special souvenir, head to Pettinaroli in piazza San Fedele. Founded in 1881, its antique prints are still an absolute 'must!' A reference point in Milan for the best Made in Italy cuts is Valli Tessuti Alta Moda, with the perfect fabrics to make elegant outfits. Outliving (in via Agnello) offers a storefront packed with items for outdoor living, leisure time, holidays, travel and the home... and, if after all of this you realize that you might have gone over the top with your purchases and thus need an extra suitcase, Rimowa and Pellux (in piazza San Fedele) offer some of the best travel luxury in the industry!

BRERA DISTRICT

Brera is synonymous with the artistic heart of the city. In fact, as you stroll along the streets of this ancient district, you cannot help but be enchanted by its almost surreal atmosphere boasting small artisans' workshops or quaint stores selling canvases and paints.

EDITOR'S TIP Additionally, Brera is home to the impressive Accademia di Belle Arti, where visitors can admire Milan's famous painting collection at the Pinacoteca (the Brera Picture Gallery), the historic Biblioteca Nazionale Braidense (Braidense National Library), the Museo Astronomico (The Astronomical Museum), the oldest scientific research institute in the city and the Giardino Botanico (Botanical Gardens).

ART, SHOPPING AND ENTERTAINMENT

To start your sightseeing tour on the right foot, we suggest stopping for a cup of coffee at Princi, not just an ordinary bakery, but a meeting point where, amidst the heady scents of "brioche" and "cappuccino", you will have a chance to begin your day on a high note. A reference point for antique lovers, Brera boasts a large number of antique shops and art galleries: don't miss a visit to Lorenzo Vatalaro in piazza San Simpliciano 7, focused on antique sculptures, paintings and artworks, where a few modern, contemporary items are also represented.

As an aside, those interested in bargains or bric à brac should definitely make time to visit the Mercatino di antiquariato e brocantage, held on the third Sunday of each month. Not far from the elegant artisan footwear sold by Iliprandi or the evocative location where jewellery collections are designed and handcrafted, ddm-daniela de marchi. The array of boutiques continues with the tailor-made, Italian-style shoes by Alfonso Garlando. Other points of interest include historic luxury jewellers Manfredi, antique and modern creations in silver at the Argenteria Dabbene, the original accessories by Angela Caputi

Alfonso Garlando

Giuggiù and unique leather accessories by Giòsa Milano in via Ciovasso.

THE NEW PERFUME DISTRICT

At no. 4, we find the new The Merchant of Venice boutique, an historic perfumery epitomizing the art of Venetian perfume-making offering a luxury line encompassing a wide range of exclusive perfumes for men and women contained in elegant bottles inspired by the tradition of the city's famous hand-blown Murano glass (www.themerchantofvenice.com). Our next port of call is via Fiori Chiari, where we find the beautiful window displays of Culti Milano. Over time, in addition to concentrating on home fragrances, this original innovator of the home diffuser has extended its range to encompass a series of body care products. The brand also has a boutique at no. 53 corso Venezia (www.culti.com). Don't miss a visit also to: Campomarzio 70 (via Brera 2, www.campomarzio70.it), Olfattorio Bar-à-Parfums (via Brera 5, www.olfattorio.it), Diptyque (via Brera 23, www.diptyqueparis.eu), Profumo (via Brera 6, www.profumomilano.com), the new boutique of Amouage (via Fiori Chiari 7, www.amouage.com), Dr.Vranjes (via Fiori Chiari 24, <http://drvranjes.it>), Officina Profumo - Farmaceutica di Santa Maria Novella (via Madonna, www.smnovella.com), Creed (via Madonna 17, <http://creed.cale.it>), 9Nine (via Ponte Vetro 22, www.beautysanspa.com) and Fragonard (via Solferino 2, www.fragonard.com).

TASTING SUGGESTIONS

Between visiting one shop and another, you might be surprised to suddenly discover that it's time for lunch. Try the typical Parma-based charcuterie specialities at Parma & Co, where you can also enjoy a Sunday brunch or the famed sandwiches sold by Panino Giusto. The afternoon is likely to pass by in a flash until you suddenly realize that it's aperitivo time: you are definitely likely to be seduced by the purely Art Déco-style atmosphere of El Tombon de San Marc or the trendier atmosphere of Fashion Café in via San Marco or, for different taste, the new restaurant Hong Kong Crossover in via Ciovasso offering the sought-after flavours of the Orient; other options are heady wine tasting sessions in the informal ambience of either N'Ombra de Vin or Moscattelli.

VERCELLI-MAGENTA DISTRICT

CORSO VERCELLI, SHOPPING BAG IN HAND

If you access corso Vercelli starting from piazzale Baracca, at building number 1 you will find a Montblanc boutique, home to high quality beautifully fashioned timepieces and writing instruments. While in the area, should you decide to pick up a new pair of uber-glam sunglasses, at number 5 corso Vercelli, Salmoiraghi e Viganò awaits you. One of the best-known opticians in Italy, it boasts as many as 500 sales points scattered across the country. Just a little further on, at number 19, your new sunglasses are likely to protect you from the glittering window displays of Luigi Verga Orologi, historic, high-class watchmakers. While on the subject of luxury, from number 11 onwards you will find a real mini-haven of elegance, mainly for men and mainly made-to-measure. The stores located here range from De Molfetta, the go-to shop for expertly handmade shirts and fashion-forward men's knitwear to Luca Calzature, a reference point since 1968 for artisanal footwear: all the beauty of Italian quality combined with the luxury of personalization and hundreds of models from among which to choose. At number 23 you can also find Brian & Barry (which, in spite of its name, is a 100% Italian brand, currently at the top of its form, as shown by its new, lavish megastore in San Babila) and Boggi Milano, a surefire choice for men's clothing where you can take advantage of the discounts reserved for you as a reader of Where®.

IN DISCOVERY OF VIA BELFIORE'S BOUTIQUES

On reaching piazza Wagner, you can make a small diversion in discovery of via Belfiore, even less touristy and, therefore, even more suggestive. And yet, even here, several of the most prestigious brands make an appearance, in quick succession. For a luxe pit-stop, at number 18, you'll find one of the most iconic Nespresso points in the city. Now that you're feeling a little more energized, you can return to the heart of Italian craftsmanship: in a singular "duel" two different artisanal shoe shops stand one next to the other, both boasting a storied past and the guarantee of Italian artisanal excellence. It's up to you to choose between one of the two, either Calzature Belfiore, handcrafted shoes since 1950, or Calzature Cardinale, a small family-run business since 1977. On the contrary, at number 6, you'll find Mortarotti, a cult destination of Milanese style carrying the creations of the best Italian fashion brands.

BACK IN CORSO VERCELLI AND VIA RASORI

By retracing your footsteps, you'll find yourself back in corso Vercelli, where you can browse the other side. Starting from the other end, you'll find Coin, the upmarket department store stocking a good collection of most of what you have seen until now. Further on, at number 14, you'll find yet another classic of Made-in-Italy, i.e. Geox, which doubles up just a little further on down the road at number 8, with its upmarket cousins Fay, Hogan and Tod's. Always at number 8, there's also Nadine, an Italian chain of women's fashion clothing. If children are your target, make a small deviation into the parallel of via Rasori, where, at number 4, you'll find a delectable boutique, simply spilling over with surprises, SophiePetit. And while you're here, bear in mind that there's another gem, whose "toys", in this case, are more likely to appeal to the ladies: Martino & Mazzolini, at number 8, is an intriguing goldsmith's workshop that creates bronze jewellery using an ancient technique that has almost disappeared. Finally, walking towards Sant'Ambrogio, don't miss a visit to the famed Belgian chocolate atelier Neuhaus Maître Chocolatier.

NEUHAUS MAÎTRE CHOCOLATIER

In Milan, the famous school of Belgium chocolate boasts one of its most iconic brands: the Neuhaus shop is a small treasure trove where pralines – more than 100 varieties that arrive fresh, each week, from Belgium – are displayed in cases like precious jewels, alongside bars with dried fruits, whimsical letters of the alphabet and greeting cards, all made exclusively from chocolate.

A new "Food Court"

It's called Borgospesso 1 (named after the street in which it's located) and it's the new project by Alessandro Rosso: a real 'Food Concept Store' in the heart of the Quadrilatero. By Stefania Vida

Are you a foodie in search of olden-day flavours? Do you want to try DOC Milanese specialties, or perhaps you're in search of a quiet place to relax after an exhilarating shopping spree? For these there is only one go-to address: Borgospesso 1! We are in the heart of the chaotic Quadrilatero della Moda, but this street is much more tranquil when compared with the bustle of activities characterizing other nearby streets. Pluses of Borgospesso 1 include its distinctly evocative location (in the ancient wine cellars that used to be the crypt of the nearby church of via Manzoni), late-night opening hours, and its collaboration with several of Milan's most historic venues: a trip into the history of the city and Italian specialties. Key Players? Let's begin with the delicacies of historic pasticceria Tavoggia Milano 1909, and continue with the sought-after gastronomic treats of Drogheria Parini 1915. Other highlights include the gourmet offerings of Al Panino Bistrot, and those of Trattoria Bagutta 1924, one of Italy's most historic eateries. The latter is protected by the Ministry of Cultural Assets, and retains its old-world charm thanks to its warm, welcoming, and cozy atmosphere. The kitchen at Trattoria Bagutta is run by 32-year-old chef Guglielmo Paolucci, whose CV lists his wide experience at several international restaurants.

The décor at Borgospesso 1 stems from an unusual concept, where the venue is covered in tabloids pasted above the mirrors in its rooms. This look is the result of a careful composition of a series of clippings taken from satirical newspapers of Italian, French and German origin, focusing on the theme of good food and conviviality. Borgospesso 1 is open Monday through Sunday, from the morning until late at night. An ideal place for breakfast, lunch, an aperitivo, dinner or an after-dinner drink!

A pyramid in the city

That's right, Milan even has its own pyramid! It's the new seat of the Giangiacomo Feltrinelli Foundation, a gridded-glass structure in viale Pasubio, located along the perimeter of the old Spanish walls. By Stefania Vida

Given its spectacular structure (designed by the architectural firm, Hergoz & De Meuron) and impressive cultural 'content', it can truly be defined as a record-breaking pyramid. Boasting a heritage collection of 12 linear km of archival holdings, 270,000 books and 16,000 periodicals, the Giangiacomo Feltrinelli Foundation is one of the major European centres of documentation and research in the field of historical, political, economic and social sciences. The new Milanese headquarters, named 'Feltrinelli Porta Nuova', recently opened its doors in viale Pasubio, just steps from Corso Como and the futuristic Porta Nuova district.

This highly unusual architectural and cultural project, was designed as a contemporary meeting place that would be both accessible and useful to citizens. The building, dedicated to the Foundation's new headquarters, houses a library, the archives, a multi-purpose room, a bookstore and a cafeteria on the ground floor. Measuring 188 meters in length and 32 meters in height, the style of this five-storey building is inspired by the simplicity and beauty of historic Milanese architecture. The Multi-Purpose room represents the heart of the project: a place that is accessible to everyone, where people can study, work, obtain information and share experiences, watch performances and screenings, and participate in meetings and conventions on topics organized by the Foundation. Other highlights include the Feltrinelli bookstore and the Babitonga Café on the ground floor. The former, based on a new, distinctive concept, houses a selection of 15,000 books (dedicated to social and human sciences, literature and visual arts), while the latter is an ideal place to indulge in a moment's relaxation, observe your surroundings, or browse through the bookstore.

An attic in the Galleria dedicated to art

Fondazione Prada has opened a new space in the city dedicated to contemporary photography. The space, called 'Osservatorio' (Observatory), enjoys a unique position above the central Octagon of Milan's Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II. By Elena Peverata

Entirely dedicated to contemporary photography and only recently inaugurated, the new exhibition space of the unstoppable Foundation commissioned by Miuccia Prada opened on 21 December, and has a name that aptly describes the nature of this iconic space. The 'Osservatorio' owes its name to its strategic position, on the upper floors of one of the arcade's central buildings, at the level of the iron and glass dome, with a spectacular view over the Galleria's covered vaults. The 800 square metres of the Foundation's new headquarters, located on the fifth and sixth floor of the same building that houses the Prada Uomo boutique, are the result of an in-depth restoration project, executed while respecting the building's historic and architectural heritage. 'Osservatorio' is a place that will be devoted to the exploration and study of the trends and expressions of contemporary photography, the evolution of the medium, and its connections with other creative disciplines. The inaugural exhibition, "Give Me Yesterday", explores the use of photography as a personal 'diary' from the beginning of the year 2000 until today, through the work of 14 Italian and international artists. In a world characterized by the widespread use of photographic devices and the uninterrupted circulation of images produced and shared thanks to digital platforms, a generation of young artists has transformed the photographic diary into a tool focusing on their everyday lives and intimate, personal rituals. Mixed in with each other, and without any particular chronological order, the photographs of various authors are displayed along only one side of the exhibition space, creating a sort of vast, uninterrupted mural, on two levels of the 'Observatory', illuminated by the large windows overlooking the roofs of the city.

Tips around Milan

Visiting Italian beauties

Four destinations to enjoy a day of fun and relaxation with the whole family!

MONZA

The beauty of its 14th century Torre dell'Arengario, its glam shopping streets and its Gothic-style Duomo, featuring marvellous frescoes depicting the life of Queen Theodelinda, make the centre of Monza well worth a visit. However, Monza's real jewel in the crown is its famous Villa Reale, a magnificent 18th century dwelling designed by Francesco Piermarini, the architect who also designed the La Scala Opera House in Milan. Strolling through its Italianate gardens or its regal rooms is a feast for the eyes. Its rich calendar of events both inside and outside the villa includes exhibitions. Don't miss Italy's annual Formula 1 Grand Prix held in September at the racetrack lying behind its park. www.villarealedimonza.it
DISTANCE FROM MILAN: 50 min (25km)

LA VENARIA REALE

Lying behind the eponymous historical town, renowned for its delectable Piedmont fare and its picturesque yearly 'Palio', the Reggia di Venaria Reale is a true masterpiece of Baroque architecture and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Originally built as a hunting lodge for the Savoy, it is now a sought-after tourist destination where visitors can admire its rooms, often used to host top-level exhibitions. Other must-visit attractions include its gardens, accessible either on foot or aboard a small convenient train. The House of Diana, the Fountain of the Stag and the Royal Stables are just some of the marvels housed in the villa's park which is a part of the imposing Parco della Mandria, an oasis of peace for protected animal species. Don't miss the "Brueghel. Masterpieces of Flemish Art" exhibition until 19 February 2017 at the Sale delle Arti. www.lavenaria.it

DISTANCE FROM MILAN: 1 h 45 min (142km)

MANTUA

"A city shaped like a Palazzo": this delightful description given by academic and diplomat Baldassarre Castiglioni perfectly renders the idea of the charms and treasures offered by Mantua. Small and well designed, the city is, first and foremost, an original mixture of history and art. Originally an Etruscan settlement, it achieved its full splendour in Medieval times and, in particular, during the reign of the Gonzaga family, the Dukes of Mantua who conquered the city in 1328 and ruled benevolently until 1707. Important monuments including Palazzo Ducale, Palazzo del Podestà, Palazzo della Ragione and the churches of San Lorenzo (the "Rotonda") and Santa Maria del Gradaro

Venice, The Grand Canal

also date back to this period. The city was named Italian Capital of Culture 2016. www.mantova.com
DISTANCE FROM MILAN: 2.10 hours (190km)

VENICE

The city's major attractions, such as the awe-inspiring Basilica of St. Mark, in pure Venetian Byzantine style, the Campanile (the bell tower) and Palazzo Ducale, the Palace of the Doges, are all situated just nearby St. Mark's Square. Just a few steps from the square, well worth a visit are the historic Teatro della Fenice and, burdened with legend, the Bridge of Sighs, one of Venice's most characteristic bridges together with the Ponte Rialto and Ponte delle Guglie. In terms of uniqueness, Venice tops all other cities with its canals – which can be navigated aboard one of the city's famous gondolas – and its two islands which can be easily accessed by means of a vaporetto: Murano, where for centuries glassblowers have performed oral gymnastics turning out fantastic glass pieces, and Burano, with its characteristic coloured houses and lace.

Welcome to Milano

InfoMilano, the tourist information and hospitality point originally conceived for Expo 2015, has been set up in Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II. By Stefania Vida

InfoMilano is the city's first visiting card and the place from which everyone can get friendly, helpful, multilingual advice about everything that Milan has to offer. A modern facility designed to welcome and accompany tourists from their arrival in the city and for the entire duration of their stay, offering a vast range of services: from cultural activities to hotel accommodation right up to the various options available to discover the city and its attractions, including museums, restaurants, historic workshops and the most exclusive shopping. The choice of setting up InfoMilano inside the Urban Center stemmed from a need to provide tourists with a highly central, visible and attractive place positioned in one of the city's best-known destinations, namely the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, a connecting point between piazza del Duomo and Teatro alla Scala. Boasting 400 square metres spread out over three floors (170 of which comprise the ground floor), the Urban Center was designed to accommodate a visitor influx estimated at around 90,000 people per day in anticipation of the Universal Exposition held in 2015. The establishment of the InfoMilano space serves as an addition to the regular activities of the Urban Center which will continue to host debates, presentations and meetings open to the public. The spaces, its flooring, partitions and audio/video systems have been upgraded to guarantee improved efficiency and a more rational use of the space available, thus guaranteeing the complete autonomy of the two facilities.
