THE COLOURS AND SOUNDS OF KANDINSKY

A sweeping career retrospective of works by 20th century Russian abstract artist and theorist Vasily Kandinsky is currently on show at Milan's Palazzo Reale (17 Dec 2013-27 Apr 2014) with more than 90 works lent by the Centre Pompidou in Paris. Compositions of colours, dots, lines and surfaces convey a feeling of balance and peace in which shades and shapes correspond to the unmistakable sounds and timbres of different musical instruments. Art that almost becomes a sort of visual music. www.kandinsky milano.it

In the photo: Vasily Kandinsky, Gelb-Rot-Blau (Giallo-Rosso-Blu), 1925. Oil on canvas (Centre Pompidou collection, Paris).

Choco Dream

Enjoy chocolate in all of its different shapes and varieties. Here you can find an overview of the best venues in the city, from the most historic locations to the more innovative ones.

for a truly choco experience don't miss a visit to the new Zàini boutique in Corso Como district, offering also an original street food, a shot of dark chocolate in a box with strawberries (opening page); hot chocolate laced with rose buds by Zàini; the unmistakable packaging by Armani/Dolci; precious pralines signed by Neuhaus Maitre Chocolatier; the unique Giandujottos made with the Guido Gobino artisanal method.

In via San Vittore 6 (map D5) the famous school of Belgium chocolate boasts one of its most famous brands: Neuhaus Maitre Chocolatier. The shop is a small treasure trove where pralines – more than 100 varieties that arrive fresh, each week, from Belgium – are displayed in cases like precious jewels, alongside bars with dried fruits, characteristic letters of the alphabet and greeting cards, all made exclusively from chocolate! www.neuhaus-cioccolato.it

When talking about confectionery, one instantly thinks of Pasticceria Marchesi which, since 1824, has been dedicating itself to producing the most delectable sweet treats, specializing in chocolate and offering an astute selection of premium-quality cocoas (via S. Maria alla Porta 11/a, map E4). www.pasticceriamarchesi.it

A famous name of Piedmont tradition is Venchi (via Mengoni 1 corner of via Tommaso Grossi, map F4) which turns out more than 250 products, including classic chocolate cakes, truffle cigars, traditional chocolates and jars of "Chocaviar" – extra-bitter 90 per cent cocoa granules right up to chocolate butter for cooking purposes. www.venchi.com

Finally, don't miss a visit to Peck in via Spadari (map F5), the ultimate haven of taste for more than 120 years where you can find several of the most sought-after gastronomic products, including pralines, truffles, spreadable creams and chocolates of all shapes and sizes. Take their beautifully wrapped parcels of biscuits and chocolates home as a gift. www.peck.it

A reference point in the Quadrilatero della Moda, Pasticceria Cova (via Montenapoleone 8, map G4) has been titillating the taste buds of the Milanese with its specialties since 1817. It is almost impossible not to stop in front of its sparkling window displays showcasing gourmand delights for all occasions. www.pasticceriacova.it

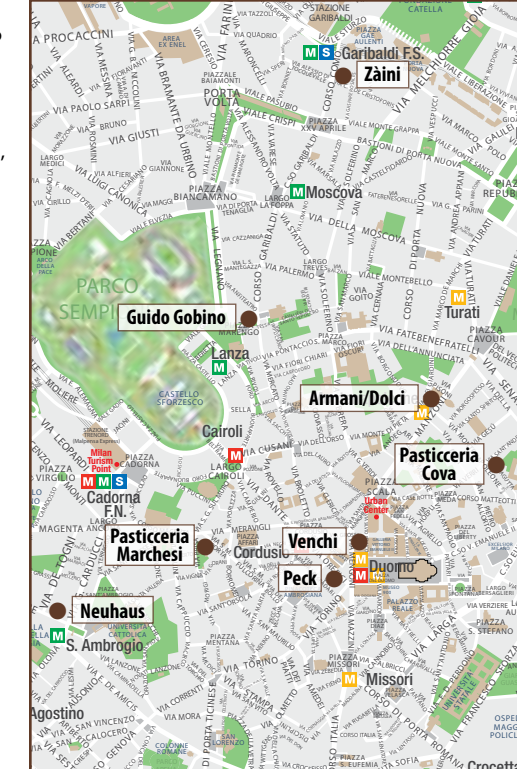

Also in the Quadrilatero (via Manzoni 31, map F4) is possibly the most glamorous address for Milanese patisserie: Armani/Dolci, a location dedicated by world renowned designer Giorgio Armani to the world of chocolate and not only. Here you can find elegant pralines, chocolate bars, assorted dragées or fruit preserves, delightful gifts that are perfect for any occasion, also thanks to the store's elegant, unmistakable packaging. www.armanidolci.com

In the Brera district (corso Garibaldi 39, map E3) Guido Gobino offers a supremely high-quality range of his innovative creations. Don't miss his oh-so delicious mini-ganache shaped like mosaic tiles, his spreadable gianduja cream, his dark chocolate "maximo" giandujotto whose filling contains up to 40 percent of the best PGI Piedmont hazelnuts and his mini-sheets of chocolate. www.guidogobino.it

Dulcis in fundo, in Corso Como you can find a real paradise for chocolate dreamers: the exclusive century old Milanese factory Zàini recently opened a new sales and taste haven in via de Cristoforis, 5 (map F2). The ideal place to taste some of the best chocolate in town... don't miss its unique hot chocolate and mini cakes!

Top in Town

—The Last Supper by Leonardo da Vinci

One of the most famous attractions in the world, "L'Ultima Cena" or "Cenacolo" by Leonardo da Vinci is a large 15th century mural painting representing the scene of the last supper of Jesus narrated in the Gospel. It can be found in the church of Santa Maria delle Grazie. Booking required: ask your concierge. www.cenacolovinciano.net. Piazza Santa Maria delle Grazie, 2. M1 Conciliazione.

—Duomo, the symbol of Milan

Among one of the most important (and majestic) Gothic buildings in the world, the Duomo, constructed on and off over a period of 450 years (begun 1386) is the symbol of Milan. To experience it at its most majestic you must ascend to the roof (either by elevator or by steps) where you will be surrounded by an outburst of pinnacles, turrets and marble statuary and, naturally, the city's famed golden Madonnina. The cathedral is open daily 8.30am-6.45pm. Admission free. www.duomomilano.it. Piazza Duomo. M1-M3 Duomo.

—"Il Castello"

The ancient seat of the ruling Visconti, the Castello Sforzesco was later rebuilt by Francesco Sforza and is now simply known by the Milanese as "Il Castello". Demolished and reconstructed several times from 1300 onwards, it has served as the backdrop for numerous historic events. Today, it houses a number of interesting museums and libraries. Its park is a favourite with old and young alike. Open daily 7am-6pm. Free admission. M1-M2 Cadorna FN; M1 Cairoli; M2 Lanza.

—Galleria, the "living room" of the Milanese

Sometimes known as "the living-room of the Milanese", Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II with its elegant, four-storey arcade, housing luxury cafés and famous designer shops, is covered by a glass barrel vault and a beautiful glass cupola and measures 196 metres in length. Tradition has it that placing your right heel on the bull, depicted in the mosaic on the floor, and then spinning around inside it, will bring good luck. Piazza Duomo-Piazza della Scala. M1-M3 Duomo.

—The Opera house

The world's premier opera house, built at the behest of Empress Maria Teresa of Austria and designed by Piermarini, the Teatro alla Scala was inaugurated in 1778 with an opera by Antonio Salieri. www.teatroallascala.org. Piazza della Scala. M1-M3 Duomo; M3 Montenapoleone.

—Ambrosiana, all about Leonardo

The Ambrosiana picture gallery contains several exquisite works of art from the 15th through 17th centuries and includes "The musician", attributed to Leonardo, Raphael's cartoon for the "School of Athens" fresco and Caravaggio's "Basket of fruit". The Ambrosiana library will be exhibiting Leonardo's entire Codex Atlanticus until 2015, 44 or 45 pages at a time for three months at a stretch. www.ambrosiana.it. Piazza Pio XI, 2. M1-M3 Duomo, M1 Cordusio.

—Science and technology

The Museo Nazionale della Scienza e della Tecnologia Leonardo da Vinci is one of the most important museums of science and technology in the world. Its collections, featuring cars, aircraft, ships, scooters, trains, reconstructions of ancient workshops for metalworking, explore the relationship between men and machines starting from Leonardo da Vinci. Don't miss a visit to the new MUST Shop. www.museoscienza.org. Via San Vittore, 21. M2 Sant'Ambrogio.

—Milan's Street of Art

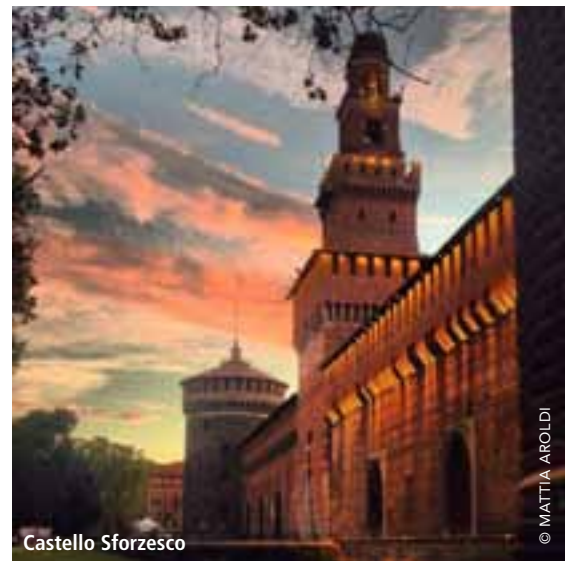

Following the opening of "Cantiere del '900", a new section of the Gallerie di Piazza Scala, Milan has been enriched by a new art circuit featuring the city's three main museum hubs: the Pinacoteca di Brera, the Gallerie d'Italia in piazza della Scala and the civic complex consisting of Palazzo Reale and the Museo del Novecento. An itinerary extending over 900 metres, that can be crossed on foot in just 15 minutes, from via Brera to piazzetta Reale, cutting through piazza Scala and the Galleria, which hosts an extraordinary part of our country's art history.

One of the highlights of 20th century Milanese art, Fausto Melotti's recently restored sculptorial group I Sette Savi will be on display until 31 January at Malpensa Airport's Porta di Milano (Terminal 1): a fascinating space located between the entrance of the main Terminal and the train station to Milan. Open daily 10am-10pm. Free entrance.

BRAIN INSIDE STORY

Direct from the National Museum of Natural History in New York and the only Italian stopover, the exhibition Brain will be on show at the Museo di Storia Naturale in corso Venezia 55 until 13 April: an exhibition of international scope that will enable visitors to learn about how the brain processes thoughts, senses and feelings through imaginative art, vivid brain-scan imaging and dynamic interactive exhibits. www.mostrabrain.it

RAFFAELLO AT PALAZZO MARINO

The famed Madonna di Foligno painted by Raffaello between 1511 and il 1513 will be on display at Palazzo Marino (Sala Alessi) until 12 January. Echoing the success last year of Canova's "Amore e Psiche", which registered a record attendance of 225 thousand visitors in just one month, this year's initiative is also proving to be a blockbuster and is ranked among our critics' pick of must-see exhibitions in Milan. Free entrance.

GIUSEPPE VERDI BICENTENARY

To mark the bicentenary of the birth of famous composer Giuseppe Verdi, Milan is offering a rich events program including concerts, exhibitions and initiatives until 27 January: "Verdi a Milano" is a large collective celebration that will involve several highly prestigious locations including Teatro alla Scala and the Auditorium di Milano, GAM-Galleria d'Arte Moderna and Palazzo Morando, the MIC-Museo Interattivo del Cinema and WOW Spazio Fumetto.

Featured among the protagonists of the celebrations marking Verdi's centenary is the Grand Hotel et de Milan: Giuseppe Verdi's favourite residence, the historic hotel has opened its spaces to the city to pay tribute to the famous composer with a series of theatrical and musical events. A great performance by the Giuseppe Verdi Symphonic Orchestra and Symphonic Chorus of Milan is scheduled to be held on Saturday 25 (11am): "Rievocazione Storica". Re-enactment of the aftermath of the premiere of Othello, held at Teatro alla Scala on 5 February 1887. The Verdi Orchestra will give an open-air performance in piazzetta Croce Rossa and the Tenor will sing from the balcony of the suite of the Grand Hotel et de Milan, where the Maestro resided. Free entrance with no seating limitations. www.grandhoteletdemilan.it

THE RAFT BY BILL VIOLA

Bill Viola (New York, 1951), considered the most famous video artist in the world, showcases his powerful and extremely moving video installation at Palazzo Te in Mantua (1 hr. 45 minutes from Milan). In the Napoleonic rooms of this architectural 16th century masterpiece, his work entitled The Raft tells the story, in just 10 minutes, with slow motion pictures, of a group of men and women struck by a massive onslaught of water that knocks them over. Described by the artist as "an image of destruction and survival" his work serves as a symbol of hope in these difficult times. Until 20 February.

la Rinascente Food Hall: taste with a view

For a romantic dinner, a business lunch, a party but also a meeting with friends or simply a coffee break on the magnificent terraces overlooking the Duomo, the Food Hall on the seventh floor of la Rinascente acts as the perfect backdrop for all occasions. In fact, every day until midnight, guests can take their pick from among several locations.

All of this in an exclusive, cosmopolitan atmosphere featuring a spectacular view over the spires of the Duomo and a panoramic terrace, where you can enjoy a decidedly unique tasting experience.

Road of the Abbeys

Milan offers you a trip in discovery of art, nature and religious attractions

In anticipation of Expo 2015, the Provincia di Milano is presenting a special initiative for tourism: "The Road of the Abbeys". A new interesting itinerary to discover and enjoy the artistic treasures of Milan and its outlying areas, a delightful experience combining art, religion, nature and enogastronomy... don't miss it!

The aim of the "The Road of the Abbeys" special project is to promote the area and the cultural sites along this itinerary with an interesting cultural, naturalistic and enogastronomic offer. A not-to-be-missed opportunity to discover real treasures of significant architectural and cultural interest, with tastings of regional products, thematic guided tours, events and historic re-enactments, educational labs and lots more besides. www.stradadelleabbazie.it - www.stradadelleabbazie.eu

A unique itinerary to promote the area sees its natural beginning in the city of Milan and connects the important sites of San Lorenzo in Monluè, continuing along the following route lying south of the city: Abbeys of Chiaravalle and Viboldone, Basilica of Santa Maria Assunta in Calvenzano, the Abbey of Mirasole, the Abbey of Morimondo and the Church of San Pietro in Gessate.

Long stretches of the itinerary – just over 100 km – traverse the Agricolo Sud Milano Park and the Valle del Ticino Park and can be covered for the most part either on foot or by bicycle in discovery of unique landscapes, marked by rocks, canals, fountains, windmills, country roads and large farmhouses, where you can stop and savour a number of specialities of the Lombardy area.

During the year, a cornucopia of unmissable opportunities and events, from religious feasts to historic re-enactments, from concerts to guided tours of sites of historic interest, from workshops to gastronomic exhibitions plus loads of markets where you can purchase local produce or handicrafts. For example, in August, the area hosts the feasts of two Patron Saints, i.e. S. Bernardo in Morimondo and San Costantino in Gudo Visconti.

Bucherer

Located just 70 kilometres from Milan, the city of Lugano will surprise you with its natural beauties and wide array of shopping and entertainment venues at all times of the day

Taking things slowly is an absolute "must" in Lugano. In fact, it is only by strolling leisurely that one is able to discover several of the old city's best kept secrets and hidden corners. When talking about shopping in Lugano, one immediately thinks about via Nassa, a reference point for luxury boutiques, including historic jewellers Bucherer whose name, since 1888, has been synonymous with stunning high-precision timepieces and jewellery, and the splendid Les Ambassadeurs boutique. In via della Posta 2, corner of via Canova, you can find the E. Marinella store, a brand known throughout the world for its stylish, hand-made neckties, worn by heads of state, industrial magnates and celebrities. Finally, for an exclusive shopping experience, we suggest a trip to the renowned FoxTown Outlet in Mendrisio, boasting more than 160 boutiques carrying several of the world's most important haute couture labels at prices discounted from 30 to 70%.

SPOTLIGHT Silver Icons in Milan

Silver creations that mirror the passion of Milanese designer Claudio Calestani for motorbikes, rock music and the martial arts. The accessories showcased at the historic landmark Atelier Claudio Calestani in corso Venezia are precious masterpieces that express an "easy rider" look to be worn but, above all, to be seen: zoomorphic-type rings, dark rock-style jewellery, metal-worked buckles, bracelets and belts in different colours. The designer has also just opened a new, elegant atelier in via Thaon de Revel, in the Isola district.

Milan is known as one of the shopping capitals of the world. Although high-end purchases can be made in any part of the city, several urban areas are also entirely given over to the business of luxury shopping. First and foremost, the Quadrilatero della Moda, set amidst four of Milan's most expensive and prestigious shopping streets, namely via Montenapoleone, via Manzoni, via della Spiga and corso Venezia. It is here that the most important fashion designers offer their luxurious creations. WHERE TIP Discover the new "Fashion History Tour" by Zani Viaggi (www.zaniviaggi.it/livemilano). Beyond the Quad itself, shoppers can visit other districts such as the Duomo-corso Vittorio Emanuele II-Galleria-via Dante area, Brera and Solferino, with corso Garibaldi, corso Buenos Aires and the Vercelli-Belfiore-Marghera districts. A UNIQUE TAX-FREE SHOPPING EXPERIENCE

The staff of Premier Tax Free Italy at the Lounge in via Montenapoleone 21: Sara Bernabé, General Manager, between Wenlei Kao and Yulia Boytsova, special assistants for Chinese and Russian customers.

Since 1985 more than 100,000 international merchants have chosen the assistance and services of Premier Tax Free.

A leader in tax free shopping worldwide, Premier Tax Free works with the most important dealers, by providing more than 400 cash refund points for VAT (value added tax) refund claims, when and wherever suits you in the currency of your choice: in cash in the city, at airports, on your return home or with a cheque, credit card or a bank draft. Premier Tax Free has more than 25 years experience in providing a high-quality tax free shopping service to merchants (using ad hoc technologies and solutions) and to tourists throughout the world.

In order to be eligible for a VAT refund you must reside outside the EU and, in Italy, you are only eligible for a VAT refund if you spend a minimum amount of 154.94 euros in one store on the same day.

In Milan, Premier Tax Free is located in the heart of the Quadrilatero della Moda, at its head offices in via Montenapoleone 21, where its Chinese and Russian mother-tongue staff is available to offer you a number of services ranging from hiring a car with a driver to image consultancy, right up to delivery of your purchases to your hotel or directly at the airport.

HOW TO CLAIM A REFUND ON PURCHASES

➤ Shops: when paying for your purchases ask the shop staff for a Premier Tax Free form and then fill in all the required fields.

➤ Airports: before leaving the EU, go to the Customs desk and present your completed

MONTENAPOLEONE CARD. SHOPPING WITHOUT STOPPING

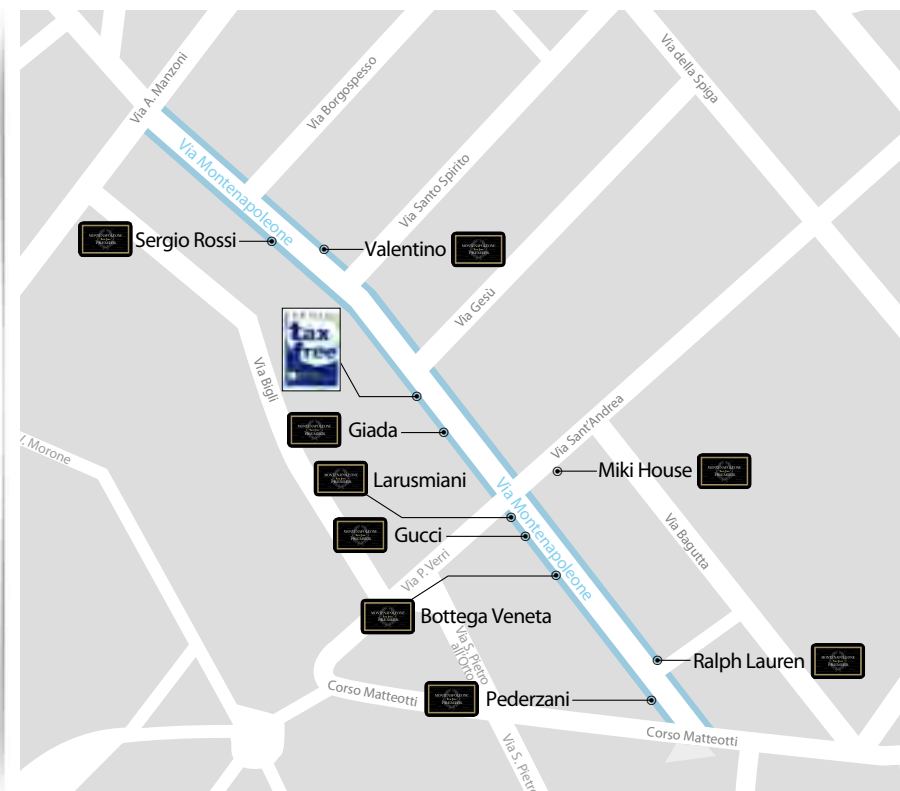

The capital of Italian fashion, the "Quadrilatero" and via Montenapoleone are Milan's most famed and fabled shopping districts. Each year, thousands of tourists flock here to discover the latest trends and to indulge in some of the world's most exclusive shopping, now made even more advantageous thanks to the "Montenapoleone Card" – an initiative launched by Premier Tax Free, a company specializing in tax free shopping services available in 26 countries worldwide. "This Card", explains Sara Bernabè, general manager of Premier Tax Free, "is a unique initiative, launched in collaboration with Associazione della Via MonteNapoleone, which not only allows non-EU citizens to obtain a VAT refund downtown on their purchases but also an additional 15% bonus on the refund itself: an amount that thanks to the card itself, can be spent freely at affiliated boutiques.

The card is proving to be a huge success. I am happy to report that most of the boutiques involved in this project stated that the average sale made thanks to the Montenapoleone Card is 120% higher than the amount loaded on the card itself. That's why the stores are delighted to accept our card as it really boosts sales and gives them an advantage over boutiques that are still not involved in the Montenapoleone Card project.

Welcome to Brera

Brera is synonymous with the artistic heart of the city and home to the impressive Accademia di Belle Arti, with the Pinacoteca, the historic Biblioteca Nazionale Braidense, the Museo Astronomico, and the Giardino Botanico.

To start your shopping tour on the right foot, we suggest stopping for a cup of coffee at Princi, not just an ordinary bakery, but a meeting point. Not far from the elegant artisan footwear sold by Iliprandi or small stationary shop Rigadritto offering special gift ideas from all over the world, visitors will find the first Italian monobrand store of fashion guru Marc Jacobs. The array of boutiques continues with the new Gucci boutique, the first European men's flagship store, the Fixdesign Flagship Store, tailor-made, Italian-style shoes by Alfonso Garlando, and the Kusmi Tea new tea house, carrying a wide selection of unforgettable blends of blacktea, green tea and infusions. Other points of interest include historic high-class luxury jewellers Manfredi, sophisticated scarves by Faliero Sarti, the original accessories by Angela Caputi Giuggiù, clothing and footwear for fashion-conscious kids by the new Gusella store in corso Garibaldi 50, unique leather accessories by Giòsa Milano in via Ciovasso.

Dulcis in fundo, in the real sense of the word, don't forget to sample the specialties of maître chocolatier Guido Gobino in corso Garibaldi.

INFORMATION

Reservations for most restaurants are strongly advised. Consult your concierge.

In Italy, service is included in the price meaning that although tipping is not compulsory, it is obviously appreciated as a sign of satisfaction. Some menus include the word "coperto", a small surcharge corresponding to the cost of the service and bread.

Although no dress code exists in Italy, semi-formal clothing is usually considered de rigueur at restaurants.

All restaurants and bars are non-smoking unless a separate smokers' area is specifically offered.

Friendly atmosphere at La Briciola

This delightful venue, established almost 36 years ago by patron "Gianni", is set in the heart of Brera and was recently enlarged to include a bar and lounge area.

The atmosphere chez "La Briciola" is warm and friendly, thanks to Gianni and his "merry" team of waiters who have made hospitality one of their signature features. It is not mere chance that, since its inception, the venue has been the favourite haunt of the Milanese jet-set and numerous "friends", who meet here to spend a pleasant evening in good company. Boasting a sophisticated, elegant atmosphere and outstanding Mediterranean cuisine featuring a selection of superior-quality meat, La Briciola is also renowned for its typical Milanese specialities including "riso al salto" and the authentic version of "cotoletta alla Milanese" (Milanese-style breaded veal cutlet).

Check out its wines — La Briciola also boasts one of the city's finest cellars featuring more than 300 labels of regional Italian and international wines which serve as a perfect accompaniment to its tantalizing dishes presented with taste and flair by Patron Gianni and his staff who move silently between tables and are always ready to offer customers helpful tips and suggestions.

Navigli District

Each month PR Manager Gaetano Lopez will give readers of Where Milan suggestions to discover the city by night. Ending with a tip: to help you make the most of what's new on the nightlife scene and to book that special evening... ask your Concierge!

Milan is the home of the Aperitivo and it is most definitely a ritual which no Milanese is prepared to forego. Favourite beverages consumed during this beloved tradition include the city's renowned Martini, Prosecco or Campari, accompanied by an all-you-can-eat buffet. A myriad of venues, ranging from the smallest bars to larger, uber-chic locations situated in the heart of the city, organize this event.

There are 3 types of venues: design bars (Just Cavalli, Armani, Dolce&Gabbana Gold, Il Gattopardo Café), traditional bars (the places that have written Milan's history including Bar Zucca and Caffè Biffi in Galleria Vittorio Emanuele, Cova in via Montenapoleone and Bar Magenta for a younger crowd); and, the latest trend, all luxury hotel bars. There are three main areas dedicated to nighttime entertainment featuring a concentration of venues (see Map at pages 62-63):

- Navigli District: an area characterized by places offering live music, patronized by artists, models, musicians and university students. Must-try options are its boat bars and the area's old osterie where you can sample an array of wines, cold cuts and typical cheeses.
- Brera District: an historic area boasting a warren of characteristic venues offering live music and, believe it or not, fortune-tellers who are happy to predict your future for a small fee. ...
- Garibaldi District & Corso Como: this is Milan's most fashionable area by night, where, not only will you find a bevy of pizzerie, restaurants, pubs and discotheques, but also possibly chance upon showbiz celebs and sports heroes.

The most exclusive Clubs.

First and foremost, Armani Privé in the Montenapoleone area, where you can club 'til dawn amidst VIPs, business magnates and Milanese jet-setters. And, then again, Just Cavalli Restaurant & Club, set against the backdrop of Parco Sempione, recently elected "The Best Club in The World" in Monte Carlo, featuring ultra-exclusive parties and international stars hailing from all parts of the globe. Also worth a visit is the highly unusual Gattopardo Club, a deconsecrated church often used for film shoots. Another of my favourites is the recently opened, ultra-trendy Club Byblos which is already becoming a cult venue. And, finally landmark club, Hollywood (Corso Como), which stays open until the wee hours of the morning.
