... and the living is easy*, especially when Where offers the right tips for a perfect style in keeping with the season. Why Knot?

If your look is formal and impeccable year-round, then try adding a touch of colour to your wardrobe: E. Underwater Time

The Jaeger-LeCoultre Deep Sea Chronograph Cermet timepiece is writing a new chapter in the field of underwater exploration thanks to unprecedented technological progress.

Inspired by the famous 1959 Memovox Deep Sea model, the first alarm diving watch, the Deep Sea Chronograph Cermet takes things one step further. Though built on classical aesthetic codes, what makes the difference is its case in reinforced Cermet. A model for real professionals, it has a rotating unidirectional bezel while the luminescent hands and hour-markers enable easy and error-free indication reading, even under poor visibility conditions. www.jaeger-lecoultre.com

Armani, a lifestyle experience

Armani/Ristorante

The crossroads of artists, designers and stylists from all over the world, Milan is enriched by exclusive locations. The "Quadrilatero della moda" is a real kaleidoscope of ideas and colours that continues to awe onlookers with its glittering window displays and innovative offers.

A doyen of the Milanese scene, Giorgio Armani has chosen a rationalist-style historic palace, located in the heart of via Manzoni, as the headquarters for his Armani Hotel Milano. The location exudes an international feel, in perfect keeping with the cosmopolitan style of the city. Epitomizing elegance and allure, it offers a sense of warmth and intimacy, a sort of home-from-home, for which credit also goes to its Lifestyle Manager, a real reference point for customers, committed to satisfying all types of requirements. Every details has been personally designed by Giorgio Armani himself, mirroring his aesthetic where luxury, serenity and beauty are interpreted in perfect Armani style.

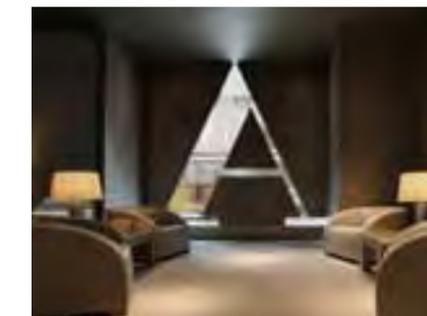

The venue's highly sought-after gastronomic offers continues in the Armani/Lounge with its "one-of-a-kind" view where guests can enjoy the wonderful decor accompanied by the soothing notes of soft music.

Conversely, the Armani/Bamboo Bar is the ideal place to meet friends for a relaxing "afternoon tea" or a pre-dinner aperitivo.

Armani/Lounge

Inspired by Italy's rich tradition, the cuisine at the Armani/Ristorante offers authentic culinary delights, with menus featuring fresh, seasonal ingredients served in a minimalist, elegant atmosphere on the seventh floor. A Tribute to Femininity

Angela Caputi Giuggiù's "Venere" collection is dedicated to a stylish, low-key woman who nevertheless enjoys making a statement. The linearity of black and white contrasts perfectly with the eccentricity of large shells. A refined tribute to one of Renaissance Italy's most famous paintings: "The Birth of Venus". The collection, made from special plastic resins, skilfully mirrors all the style and elegance of the highly original artisan creations of the Florentine artist. A perfect blend of fashion-forward trends and design.

Milan is known as one of the shopping capitals of the world. Although high-end purchases can be made in any part of the city, several urban areas are also entirely given over to the business of luxury shopping. First and foremost, the Quadrilatero della Moda, set amidst four of Milan's most expensive and prestigious shopping streets, namely via Montenapoleone, via Manzoni, via della Spiga and corso Venezia. It is here that the most important fashion designers offer their luxurious creations. WHERE TIP Discover the new "Fashion History Tour" by Zani Viaggi (www.zaniviaggi.it/livemilano). Beyond the Quad itself, shoppers can visit other districts such as the Duomo-corso Vittorio Emanuele II-Galleria-via Dante area, Brera and Solferino, with corso Garibaldi and corso Como or the Vercelli-Belfiore-Marghera districts.

MISSONI, AVANT-GARDE KNITWEAR IN THE GOLDEN QUAD

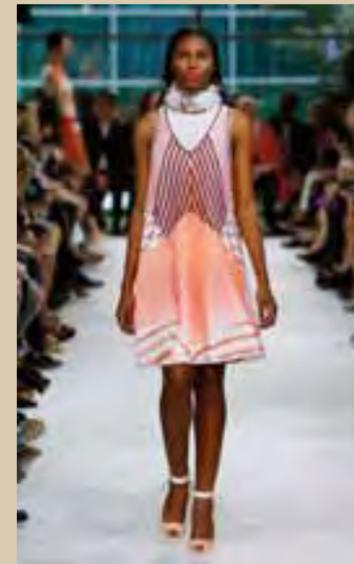

New design look of the Missoni boutique in via Sant'Andrea

Patricia Urquiola, Angela Missoni

Stylishly set in Milan's famed and fabled Quadrilatero, prominent fashion brand Missoni, known for its colourful mix and match creations, has teamed up with stellar architect and designer Patricia Urquiola, in collaboration with Angela Missoni, for the exclusive restyling of the spaces and decor of its boutique in via Sant'Andrea. The new space interprets the Missoni concept in an environmental key, making use of an array of shades and textures in different materials ranging from wood to frosted glass.

More than ever before, the protagonists of its flagship store are the refined collections of womenswear, beachwear, menswear and childrenswear suspended from metal rods to better show off the Milan-based designer's signature trippy prints. Other standouts include the accessories, artfully placed above and underneath the see-through shelves of brightly-coloured tables or modular displays in a seductive blend of matte and reflective surfaces, neutral hues and bold shades in a medley of schematic, sinuous designs, padded or covered with Missoni fabrics.

The King of Colour

The story of Missoni is one of passion, creativity and dedication. The company was founded by Rosita and Ottavio and the unmistakable Missoni style is the fruit of the couple's successful partnership. In fact, just after their wedding in 1953, they decided to establish a small knitwear workshop which soon became a cornerstone of Italian fashion. A brand linked since the very beginning to aesthetic and technological innovation which won Missoni a number of awards making it one of the best-known and best-loved names in international fashion and design, still capable today of seducing and enchanting customers with its brightly-coloured "put-together" of zigzag chevron patterns, stripes and undulations using a technique known as fiammato (the Italian for flames) to create a knitted fabric with colourful zigzag lines that resemble embroidery, using thousands of tiny, colourful threads to produce an intricate weave of geometric and floral jacquard prints.

The progenitor of a multi-coloured aesthetic vision, its collections continue to influence contemporary lifestyles. In fact, aside from the main line, the company also offers a variety of luxury goods including the Missoni Home line, a dream that has become reality with the openings of the Hotel Missoni in Edinburgh and Kuwait.

SUMMER FASHION

For the 2013 spring-summer season, Missoni has developed an evanescent, almost imperceptible look, to convey a sort of optical illusion. The silhouette designed is one that appears to defy gravity. Long, knee-length or mini-dresses in organza and lace-worked knitwear, pervaded with design applications and 3D prints, degradè tonal effects and sequined holograms superimposed on the coloured macro intarsia of dresses in structured knitwear or trousers, either long or tight-fitting or cut to the knee. Made from butter soft suede or knitted lace, the jackets are reminiscent of the art of James Turrell and are completed with crystal-clustered chokers, transforming the Missoni woman into a presence that irradiates energy, a cosmic girl coming down to earth with light.

MONTENAPOLEONE CARD. SHOPPING WITHOUT STOPPING

The capital of Italian fashion, the "Quadrilatero" and via Montenapoleone are Milan's most famed and fabled shopping districts. Each year, thousands of tourists flock here to discover the latest trends and to indulge in some of the world's most exclusive shopping, now made even more advantageous thanks to the "Montenapoleone Card" – an initiative launched by Premier Tax Free, a company specializing in tax free shopping services available in 26 countries worldwide. "This Card", explains Sara Bernabè, general manager of Premier Tax Free, "is a unique initiative, launched in collaboration with Associazione della Via MonteNapoleone, which not only allows non-EU citizens to obtain a VAT refund downtown on their purchases but also an additional 15% bonus on the refund itself: an amount that thanks to the card itself, can be spent freely at affiliated boutiques.

The card is proving to be a huge success. I am happy to report that most of the boutiques involved in this project stated that the average sale made thanks to the Montenapoleone Card is 120% higher than the amount loaded on the card itself. That's why the stores are delighted to accept our card as it really boosts sales and gives them an advantage over boutiques that are still not involved in the Montenapoleone Card project.

Brera is synonymous with the artistic heart of the city. In fact, as you stroll along the streets of this ancient district, you cannot help but be enchanted by its almost surreal atmosphere boasting small artisan's workshops or quaint stores selling canvases and paints. Additionally, Brera is home to the impressive Accademia di Belle Arti, where visitors can admire Milan's famous painting collection at the Pinacoteca (the Brera Picture Gallery), the historic Biblioteca Nazionale Braidense (Braidense National Library), the Museo Astronomico (The Astronomical Museum), the oldest scientific research institute in the city and the Giardino Botanico (Botanical Gardens), an evocative green space located.

WHERE TIP Discover the "Brera Art District" tour by Zani Viaggi (www.zaniviaggi.it/livemilano).

Art, shopping and entertainment
 To start your sightseeing tour on the right foot, we suggest stopping for a cup of coffee at Princi, not just an ordinary bakery, but a meeting point where, amidst the heady scents of "brioche" and "cappuccino", you will have a chance to begin your day on a high note. A reference point for antique lovers, Brera boasts a large number of antique shops. As an aside, those interested in bargains or bric a brac should definitely make time to visit the Mercatino di antiquariato e brocantage, held on the third Sunday of each month. Not far from the elegant artisan footwear sold by Iliprandi or small stationary shop Rigadritto offering special gift ideas from all over the world, visitors will find the first Italian monobrand store of fashion guru Marc Jacobs, whose adjacent café is the perfect spot for a "trendy" aperitivo. The array of boutiques continues with the new Fixdesign Flagship Store for fashion young women, tailor-made, Italian-style shoes by Alfonso Garlando, and the Kusmi Tea new tea house, carrying a wide selection of unforgettable blends of blacktea, green tea and infusions. Other points of interest include historic high-class luxury jewellers Manfredi, sophisticated scarves by Faliero Sarti, the original accessories by Angela Caputi Giuggiù, jewellery by Kidult in via Pontaccio, designer eyewear by Alain Mikli in corso Como, unique leather accessories by Giòsa Milano in via Ciovasso and the sartorial tradition of Ader and Montezemolo. Conversely, for design aficionados, we suggest a visit to the Calligaris flagship store, after which you will have a chance to lose yourself amidst the thousands of furnishing ideas offered by Cargo&Hi-Tech; dulcis in fundo, in the real sense of the word, don't forget to sample the specialties of maître chocolatier Guido Gobino in corso Garibaldi.

Tasting suggestions
 Between visiting one shop and another, you might be surprised to suddenly discover that it's time for lunch. Try the typical Parma-based charcuterie specialties at Parma & Co, where you can also enjoy a Sunday brunch or the famed sandwiches sold by Panino Giusto. The afternoon is likely to pass by in a flash until you suddenly realize that it's aperitivo time: you are definitely likely to be seduced by the purely Art Dèco-style atmosphere of El Tombon de San Marc or the trendier atmosphere of Fashion Café in via San Marco; other options are heady wine tasting sessions in the informal ambience of either N'Ombra de Vin or Moscatelli. Conversely, the more fashion-oriented will find just what they're looking for in nearby corso Como, featuring Milan's renowned 10 Corso Como, a café, restaurant, concept store, bookshop and exhibition space. Choosing the right restaurant for dinner might pose quite some discussion. Here are some venues where you can savour authentic Italian cuisine: Maxelâ, for meat lovers, La Briciola, Il Consolare, and Giallo for real "VIP-watching", the Mediterranean flavours of Mimmo-Osteria del Corso, the Tuscan ones of Osteria Brunello and, last but not least, the characteristic restaurants of old Milan including Rigolo, All'Isola, La Libera, Bebel's and La Vecchia Lira. Not to be missed, the Carminio where the menu changes daily. Finally, make sure to visit Ristorante 13 Giugno, a triumph of Sicilian cuisine, and the adjacent Fattoria di Brera, a unique pret-à-manger renowned for its stylish ambience and its delightfully fresh fare.

INFORMATION

Reservations for most restaurants are strongly advised. Consult your concierge. In Italy, service is included in the price meaning that although tipping is not compulsory, it is obviously appreciated as a sign of satisfaction. Some menus include the word "coperto", a small surcharge corresponding to the cost of the service and bread. Although no dress code exists in Italy, semi-formal clothing is usually considered de rigueur at restaurants. All restaurants and bars are non-smoking unless a separate smokers' area is specifically offered. Several unusual venues, offering unique gourmet delicacies, are listed under Tasting Experience.

Unique Tasting Experience

by Carolina Scuri

Out and about in the city, lots of useful suggestions and hot-off-the-press news about several locations where you can sample artisanal ice-cream, an Italian specialty famous throughout the world. From Where Milan's reporter Carolina Scuri

3.

1. Founded in 1964 by the Cardelli family, "La Bottega del Gelato" offers some fifty choices on a daily basis ranging from cream to fruit versions, either Mediterranean or tropical. A tip? Ice-cream filled fruit, not only unique and irresistible but also the pride of Cardelli's production.

2. Never the same, always unique... this is the leitmotiv of "La Gelateria della Musica" where classics are reinvented with an updated twist. The selection changes daily depending on the season and on which fresh ingredients are available. A symphony of taste, be sure to try their signature flavour "Pane Burro e Marmellata" (Bread, Butter and Jam), inspired by the memory of a trip to France.

3. One of the best-known gelaterie in Milan, Massimo Travani, owner of "Il Massimo del Gelato", offers a range of delicious, classic ice-creams. The house speciality is their chocolate of which you can sample as many as 10 different varieties, based on their percentage of cocoa, from 75% to 100% of "Pure Gold" further enriched by ultra-light slivers of real gold. An excellent alternative to its ice-cream are its fruit granitas and semi-frozen pastries.

4. A small 1950s haven of decadent gelato treats, "Rinomata Gelateria Artigiana" offers a vast assortment of classical tastes, from more delicate flavours to richer, creamier ones. Boasting a vintage atmosphere, its marble counter features rows of gold bell-shaped covers like those used on old-fashioned ice-cream carts.

5. Fruity flavours, from Sorrento lemons to mixed wild berries, but also a selection of creams, ranging from the typical traditional Bolognese variety to the more sought-after "crema sultano" (Sultan's cream) reminiscent of flavours of the East: these are the original pairings with which "Ciocolati Italiani" experiments. Be sure to try their Sunday brunch. Reservations must be made by Saturday afternoon.

6. Each day, the open-plan workshop of concept store "Biancolatte" prepares artisanal ice-cream, devoid of hydrogenated fats, made from highly select ingredients using only fresh milk and seasonal fruits. Simplicity and attention to detail are the essence and mood of this ice-cream parlour, the perfect place for a gourmand stopover at any time of the day. There's something for all tastes: from tubs of ice-cream topped with hot chocolate and whipped cream to the venue's renowned "sfizi", miniature masterpieces of dark chocolate filled with ice-cream.

INFORMATION

Several venues offering food are included in this section. These are considered as meeting places rather than gourmet addresses and thus explain our decision to list them here rather than under Dining. Most major theatre productions are listed here, together with a list of other entertainment. Since programme times are subject to change (often on a daily basis) it is impossible to list all of them here. We therefore suggest that you double-check details regarding specific programme times. Major events can be found in the "Where Now" section. Open-air markets are an excellent opportunity not only to make purchases but also to acquaint visitors with the folklore of the city or indulge in VIP watching. For this reason, we have listed them here rather than under "Shopping". All details are correct at the time of going to press but times can, and do, change. Always ask your concierge to double-check all details.

Aperitivo & Nightlife

by Gaetano Lopez

Each month PR Manager Gaetano Lopez will give readers of Where Milan suggestions to discover the city by night. Ending with a tip: to help you make the most of what's new on the nightlife scene and to book that special evening... ask your Concierge!

Milan is the home of the Aperitivo and it is most definitely a ritual which no Milanese is prepared to forego. Favourite beverages consumed during this beloved tradition include the city's renowned Martini, Prosecco or Campari, accompanied by an all-you-can-eat buffet. A myriad of venues, ranging from the smallest bars to larger, uber-chic locations situated in the heart of the city, organize this event. There are 3 types of venues: design bars (Just Cavalli, Armani, Dolce&Gabbana Gold, Il Gattopardo Café), traditional bars (the places that have written Milan's history including Bar Zucca and Caffè Biffi in Galleria Vittorio Emanuele, Cova in via Montenapoleone and Bar Magenta for a younger crowd); and, the latest trend, all luxury hotel bars.

Gold

In fact, during aperitivo hour, people start thinking about where to go for dinner, in a city boasting a highly eclectic offer. There are three main areas dedicated to nighttime entertainment featuring a concentration of venues:

- Navigli District: an area characterized by places offering live music, patronized by artists, models, musicians and university students. Must-try options are its boat bars and the area's old osterie where you can sample an array of wines, cold cuts and typical cheeses.
- Brera District: an historic area boasting a warren of characteristic venues offering live music and, believe it or not, fortune-tellers who are happy to predict your future for a small fee. ...
- Garibaldi District & Corso Como: this is Milan's most fashionable area by night, where, not only will you find a bevy of pizzerie, restaurants, pubs and discotheques, but also possibly chance upon showbiz celebs and sports heroes.

The most exclusive Clubs. First and foremost, Armani Privé in the Montenapoleone area, where you can club 'til dawn amidst VIPs, business magnates and Milanese jet-setters. And, then again, Just Cavalli Restaurant & Club, set against the backdrop of Parco Sempione, recently elected "The Best Club in The World" in Monte Carlo, featuring ultra-exclusive parties and international stars hailing from all parts of the globe. Also worth a visit is the highly unusual Gattopardo Club, a deconsecrated church often used for film shoots.

Another of my favourites is the recently opened, ultra-trendy Club Byblos which is already becoming a cult venue. And, finally landmark club, Hollywood (Corso Como), which stays open until the wee hours of the morning.
