Welcome Back Red Passion!

In the early 20th century it was a meeting place for, musicians, artists and men of learning.

Today, one century after it was first opened, Camparino has returned to its original spot in the Galleria. It was, in fact, here that the tradition of the Milanese aperitivo first came into being.

Where takes pleasure in informing its readers about this city landmark, situated between La Scala, the Duomo and Milan's key shopping streets.

– ANDREA JARACH
Publisher, Where Milan

The new windows of Camparino in the "Galleria", corner of piazza Duomo. History looms large wherever you might happen to be in Milan. In the early 20th century, the name Camparino became a symbol of Milanese lifestyle. Since that time, entertainment and design have mingled with this century-old brand.

Several scenic breathing spaces just a short distance from the city

If you think that Lombardy, one of Italy's 20 regions, of which Milan is the capital, is an industrial area interspersed with houses and streets then... think again! Incredible, but true, this region boasts an immense heritage of green breathing spaces of which as many as 25 have been established as Nature Parks.

To learn more, consult the map on this page and visit the lombardiaparchi.proedi.it website. If you happen to be in the city for a few days and wish to escape from urban sprawl to the pure tranquillity of the outdoors then we suggest visiting one of the parks: in fact, the largest, the Ticino Nature Park, is located just 20 km from the city.

"Experiencing the Parks of Lombardy" is a guide by Where®. For further information, visit www.proedieditore.it or ask your concierge.

The Guide is available at BIT 2012 (Borsa Internazionale del Turismo-International Tourism Exchange). 16-19 February, Fieramilano-Rho, Regione Lombardia block.

LOVE IN MILAN

Milan – a city to love and be loved – is getting ready to celebrate the most romantic day of the year. To celebrate Valentine's Day it offers restaurants, boutiques and stores (where you can buy gifts for your loved one), concerts and performances. In addition to the natural beauty of its views and gardens, "Where Milan" offers you a number of great ideas to make your day a truly special one. For those who are lucky enough to be in a relationship and for those who, though still looking for a "significant other," are nevertheless content to share this day with family and friends. And, obviously, also for those who wish to dedicate this special day to loving and indulging themselves.

Tips for Two

Though renowned as a city of fashion and finance, once away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life, Milan is also a truly romantic city. The special appeal of the "Navigli" and the charm of the places that populate its banks, the streets of the historic centre – narrow and silent – and the old "case di ringhiera" (old houses characterized by intricate wrought iron banisters). And, then, obviously, its typical restaurants, concerts and elegant boutiques. Whether you're in a relationship or looking for a "significant other" with whom to spend Valentine's Day, here are some perfect locations for turning your romantic fantasies into reality.

• Tiffany: What Makes Love True

Tiffany & Co. Located in via della Spiga, one of the city's most fashionable streets, a visit to Tiffany & Co. is an absolute "must"... especially on Valentine's Day. Heart-shaped charms and the store's famous "blue boxes" are the hallmark features of this brand founded in New York in 1837. Its Milanese counterpart is no less fascinating. What better occasion to make your sweetheart's dream come true?

The Red Train of the Alps

Just 2 hours and a half from Milan, after circling the Como Lake, you can reach one of the world's top destinations for philosophers, artists, crowned heads and showbiz celebrities. The best way to get there is a trip on the Bernina Express. The small red train that allows you to ride with ease from Tirano to St. Moritz, travels along what has been defined as "one of the most panoramic railway lines in the world", declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2008. So book your ticket and hop aboard to experience a truly fabulous scenic opportunity (see map page 32).

» Experience the unique sights of Italy and Switzerland on the Bernina Express train. In just 2 ½ hours you'll make your way through a landscape of enchanted valleys as you glide through the countryside and enjoy lakes and small romantic towns, towering fir trees and dramatic gorges, sweeping vistas of Alpine crossings, pass over 196 timeless bridges and through 55 winding tunnels – all viewed through the spectacular panoramic windows of this small train that travels along the Rhaetian railway line, constructed in 1910. Technical buffs will enjoy knowing that the train climbs up to the 2253m high Bernina Pass without the help of a rack-and-pinion mechanism. The train leaves from Tirano, a town in Valtellina bordering on Switzerland, and passes through the main square of the town hosting a 16th century sanctuary.

» After a short time, you will find yourselves passing over the spiralling Brusio viaduct, the symbol of the Bernina Express, where the train makes a 360° turn on itself. In this area, the landscape is enriched by modern sculptures and "crotti", constructions made from the typical stone found in the valley. The journey continues along Lake Poschiavo, from whence it begins its upward journey into the Alpine mountains, passing from an altitude of 1100 metres at the bottom of the valley up to the 2253m high Bernina Pass.

» From here the line begins to climb steeply until it reaches the highest station, i.e. the Bernina Ospice. This is also the symbolic linguistic border between Italian and Engadinese dialect and it is here that the train begins its descent. As you pass through the spectacular glacier of Morteratsch, you will enter a magical atmosphere. Pontresina, Samàden and Celerina are just a few of the towns that will enchant your gaze before you reach St. Moritz, where the Bernina Express arrives on special railway lines, specifically designed for its electric powering system. On alighting from the train, you can continue your journey, this time on foot, along the streets of this exclusive resort.

Fashion Stores

Milan is known as one of the shopping capitals of the world. Although high-end purchases can be made in any part of the city, several urban areas are also entirely given over to the business of luxury shopping. First and foremost, the Quadrilatero della Moda, set amidst four of Milan's most expensive and prestigious shopping streets, namely via Montenapoleone, via Manzoni, via della Spiga and corso Venezia. It is here that the most important fashion designers, of international repute, offer their luxurious creations.

Discover the world of fashion and glamour in this unique, magical pedestrian precinct (also featuring a number of small side streets dotted with glam boutiques). Beyond the Quad itself, shoppers can visit other districts just as golden, such as the Duomo-corso Vittorio Emanuele II-Galleria-via Dante area, Brera and Solferino, with corso Garibaldi and corso Como or the Vercelli-Belfiore-Marghera districts.

World of Armani

© Bob Krieger

In Milan, Armani is not simply a fashion brand but rather an integral part of city life.

Starting from Boutique Giorgio Armani, the largest of the 75 present in 46 countries worldwide: three floors of luxury and elegance, 2000 sq.m. set against the backdrop of a Renaissance palazzo, an imposing synthesis of the Armani signature style (www.armani.com). Via Manzoni 2, T: 02 76003234. M1 San Babila. Map G4.

At the Emporio Armani concept store in via Manzoni 31, the first and largest luxury brand sales point in the city, you can also find the following Armani lines: Jeans, Confectionery, Flowers and Books (via Manzoni 31, T: 02 72318600. M3 Montenapoleone. Map G4).

Lying adjacent to the latter is the store dedicated to home furnishings (via Manzoni, 37, T: 02 76260230. M3 Montenapoleone. Map G4) which, together with Armani Casa in via Sant'Andrea 9, constitutes a reference point for interior decor, from furniture to lighting; from accessories to textiles.

In Milan, a number of the coolest locations also carry the Armani signature. These include Emporio Armani Caffè (via Croce Rossa 2, T: 02 72318680. M3 Montenapoleone. Map G4), Nobu, the sushi restaurant Via Pisoni 1, T: 02 62312645. M3 Montenapoleone. Map F4) and Armani Privé (via Manzoni 31, T: 02 62312655. M3 Montenapoleone. Map G4), where the VIPs and captains of industry who animate Milan's "dolce vita" can be spotted enjoying a drink or dancing until the late hours of the night.

Armani dominates the centre of Milan with a large billboard at the junction between via Cusani and via Broletto (Map E4), for years one of the symbols of the city.

And, since November, Armani is also a hotel: 95 rooms, a haute cuisine restaurant, a luxurious SPA and magnificent panoramic views over the city (Armani Hotel Milano, via Manzoni 31. M3 Montenapoleone. Map G4. www.armanihotels.com). All imbued with "King Giorgio's" typical elegance and style.

INFORMATION

Reservations for most restaurants are strongly advised. Consult your concierge. In Italy, service is included in the price meaning that although tipping is not compulsory, it is obviously appreciated as a sign of satisfaction. Some menus include the word "coperto", a small surcharge corresponding to the cost of the service and bread. Although no dress code exists in Italy, semi-formal clothing is usually considered de rigeur at restaurants. All restaurants and bars are non-smoking unless a separate smokers' area is specifically offered. Several unusual venues, offering unique gourmet delicacies, are listed under Tasting Experience rather than under the standard Dining sections.

When Milan Rhymes with Japan

The restaurants in Milan combine all the elements of Japanese cuisine with the quality of only the freshest, origin-certified, Italian ingredients. In order to avoid any possible risk of contamination following the tragic events in Fukushima, the Italian Association of Japanese Restaurateurs (www.ristoratorigiapponesi.it) guarantees that even the most typical products are not imported directly from Japan. In short, good, safe food combined with the unparalleled oriental art of presentation. So, take off time to enjoy the ritual calm of a Japanese meal, even in a fabulous, though often frenetic, city like Milan.

Guidelines

This directory, grouped by category, is a list of establishments recommended by the editors of Where Magazine and includes regular advertisers.

MAP LOCATIONS

Note that references in BOLD at the end of each listing (A1, B5 etc) refer to the coordinates on the street maps on pages 62-63.

INFORMATION

Several venues offering food are included in this section. These are considered as meeting places rather than gourmet addresses and thus explain our decision to list them here rather than under Dining. Most major theatre productions are listed here, together with a list of other entertainment. Since programme times are subject to change (often on a daily basis) it is impossible to list all of them here. We therefore suggest that you double-check details regarding specific programme times. Major events can be found in the "Where Now" section. Open-air markets are an excellent opportunity not only to make purchases but also to acquaint visitors with the folklore of the city or indulge in VIP watching. For this reason, we have listed them here rather than under "Shopping". All details are correct at the time of going to press but times can, and do, change. Always ask your concierge to double-check all details.

Book of the Month

A suggestion from Peter Pantoni, owner of Pantoni's English Bookshop, a favourite haunt of international book lovers in Milan.

Fashion: A Visual History: From Regency & Romance to Retro & Revolution by N.J. Stevenson.

Every generation can recall and identify with the fashion icons and idols of their era. The crinoline-caged Victorian female, the Gibson girl, and the grunge-layered youth of the 1990s all reflect the influences and extremes of their life and times. The start of the 19th century marks the dawn of the designer, a sartorial influence that became a star-studded industry. Fashion: A Visual History charts those points in time when distinctive styles that began as extravagances of the very rich permeated through well-dressed society until a cut of cloth or choice of accessory defined fashion. This elegantly-dressed volume assesses the contribution of such innovative players as Worth, Chanel, Dior, Saint Laurent, Klein, Westwood, and Gaultier, as well as the effects of stage, screen, music, dance, and sports celebrities on our ever-changing sense of fashion. Each spread focuses on a definitive item—be it bowler hat or little black dress, stiletto or caftan—or identifies key shifts in fashion that reflect excess, liberation, austerity, nostalgia, and technology, displaying it in contemporary images ranging from paintings and illustrated fashion plates to cartoons and photographs. Evocative primary quotes complete a history that visually traces the revealing evolution of fashion in Western society.

A Tribute to 19th Century Fashion

To celebrate the capital of fashion, Palazzo Morando has had a complete makeover. A series of 18 women's garments, restored thanks to the contribution of Cristallerie Baccarat, testifies to the changes that took place in Milanese women's dress styles between the end of the 19th century and the beginning of the 20th century. The evolution of women's fashions during the Risorgimento was extremely gradual: starting from bell-shaped skirts featuring stiff crinolines and tight-fitting corsets to straight, softer garments offset by large hats. The magnificent rooms of this 18th century "palazzo," located in the city's "Quadrilatero della Moda," will most definitely be imbued with a touch of style. Open Tues-Sun 9am-1pm/2pm-5.30pm.

Monuments & Places of Interest

DUOMO—Among one of the most important (and majestic) Gothic buildings in the world, the church, constructed on and off over a period of 450 years (begun 1386) is the symbol of Milan. Built in the shape of a Latin cross, the cathedral is divided by soaring pillars into five naves, the largest of which measures 45 metres in height. It has 135 spires and its inside columns measure 3 and a half metres in diameter. To experience the Duomo at its most majestic you must ascend to the roof (either by elevator or by steps) where you will be surrounded by an outburst of pinnacles, turrets and marble statuary and, naturally, the city's famed golden Madonnina. The cathedral is open daily 8.30am-6.45pm. Admission free. Guided visit in English every Saturday 10am (including Cathedral, Baptistery and Cathedral rooftops by lift) €20. Info point via Arcivescovado, 1 (open 9am-noon/1pm-6pm).

Much more than panoramic, this is itinerant! The restaurant that offers the most complete view of Milan is nothing other than a beautifully restored vintage tram called ATMosfera, a play on words combining the company's acronym ATM (Azienda Trasporti Milanesi - local public transport company) with the idea of an atmospheric setting. In addition to the sophistication of its décor, it offers three types of menu (meat, fish and vegetarian). The tram-restaurant leaves every lunch at 1pm and evening at 8pm from piazza Castello, corner of via Beltrami, to which it returns after about 2 hours of relaxed sightseeing by night. During the tour, dinner is served at a set price of €65. Booking is essential: ask your concierge or call the toll-free number 800.80.81.81 (Mon-Sat 11am-7pm) www.atm.it.
