Getting around Milan and city tours

WELCOME | Milano, city of the stars |

In the run-up to Expo 2015, as Milan gets ready to welcome in a year that will see it elevated to the status of caput mundi, the city is testing the waters by hosting names and events that will make people stand up and stare. Over the past few months, what with podium awards, ribbon cuttings and summit meetings, a number of VIPs, celebrities and world-famed critics have been spotted in the city.

PUTIN-POROSHENKO

Top security measures and protocols were the order of the day at the Europe-Asia Summit held in Milan and attended by as many as 53 heads of state. The summit, hosted by Italy, also included a high-stakes meeting between Russian president Putin and Ukraine leader Poroshenko.

ARATA ISOZAKY

The Japanese architect flew to Milan to personally inaugurate the first Milanese skyscraper carrying his signature. The magnificent 'tower' is undergoing completion in the new Citylife urban area. Standing 202 metres tall, it is slated to be the highest building in Italy.

VALE, MARC AND JORGE

The winners of MotoGP were spotted strolling through the city. Valentino Rossi (who continues to hold a number one spot in the hearts of his Italian fans), Marc Marquez and Jorge Lorenzo were all guests at EICMA, the international motorcycle exhibition, now in its 100th edition at the Milan fairgrounds.

SUZY MENKES

The doyenne of famous journalism and the much-feared Editor of Vogue international was sighted in Milan off-season, i.e. at a time when no fashion shows were on. This time, Suzy Menkes was the guest at a private dinner held at the Ambrosiana, possibly to check-out whether the city is suitably attired for the top-level engagements awaiting it...

SUNDAY

7 THE INIMITABLE MAGIC OF THE "PRIMA"

▲ On the evening of Sant' Ambrogio, Milan and Teatro alla Scala both experience a one-of-a-kind "Première". The inaugural performance of the opera season is a deeply-felt cultural, institutional and society event serving as a great opportunity to see VIPs from the world of culture, politics, fashion and showbiz strut their stuff in Piazza della Scala. This year, the season opens with "Fidelio" by Ludwig van Beethoven, conducted by maestro Daniel Barenboim. www.teatroallascala.org

FROM FRIDAY

5-8 OH BEJ! OH BEJ!

◀ When the stalls at "Oh Bej! Oh Bej!" light up, it's Christmas time in Milan. The old Lombard name is translated as "Oh belli! Oh belli!" (roughly Oh so nice! Oh so nice!) and, today, marks the largest multi-ethnic Christmas extravaganza in the city whose stalls sell all kinds of handcrafted items and various mouth watering festive treats. This traditional Christmas market pays homage to Sant' Ambrogio, patron saint of Milan (7 December) and is a must-visit for Christmas gifts, drawing a crowd of eager shoppers to piazza Castello and its surrounding areas (Map E4).

21 MILANO FROM THE TOP

► Dressed in the colours and logo of Expo Milano 2015, Palazzo Lombardia, headquarters of the governing body of the Regione, will open its doors to the public every Sunday from 10am to 6pm. After admiring the 'Art Columns' at the entrance of Nucleo NP, you can ascend to the belvedere on the 39th floor from where you can enjoy a breathtaking view over the city and the area designed to house the Universal Exposition. Free entry, no booking required. Piazza Città di Lombardia corner of via Restelli, M2 Gioia (Map G1).

WEDNESDAY

17 AN APERITIVO IN THE COMPANY OF FOUR BEAUTIFUL LADIES

► On the occasion of "Aperitivi in Museo", at Museo Poldi Pezzoli visitors will have a chance to enjoy a guided tour of "Le dame dei Pollaiuolo. Una bottega fiorentina del Rinascimento". The exhibition, scheduled to run until 16 February, is a unique opportunity to see the four magnificent Portraits of a Young Woman together with other works by the Pollaiuolo brothers, i.e. Antonio and Piero. It is also a great opportunity to visit the rich collections housed in the picture gallery of this luxurious former palazzo, located just steps from Teatro alla Scala. www.museopoldipezzoli.it

More than 200 initiatives, 7000 events scheduled, 500 public and private locations and 250 participating stores. These are the first figures (slated to increase) for "Expo in città", the program promoted and coordinated by the city's institutions to increase Expo's target basin by involving not only the pavilion area but also the city's urban space as a whole. Presented in November, the agreement between the authorities and business owners foresees an additional increase in hospitality standards, with the guarantee of multi-lingual services, longer shopping hours and the circulation of informative material in shops.

Six icons and ten keywords

The "Expo in città" programme follows two main roads: six icons that are part of the artistic heritage of Milan will make up the narrative frame, while ten keywords will organise the offer into areas of interest in a thematic index that is also a resource map.

The six icons are proof of Milan's enormous richness in works of art. Six works which, crossing through the history of Italian art, will accompany the months of Expo from May to October 2015. Six masterpieces associated with six words (BBeginning, BEloved, BELong, BESide, BEyond and BELieve) that express their symbolic meaning and generate the phrase Milan, a place to BE.

Performance, Art, Media, Creativity&Style, Leonardo, Kids, Science, Well Being, Città Mondo and Feed the Planet, are instead the ten keywords that cross the programme for language, content and reference public.

«Expo in città is a global project that gives life to a city, a city that is open and inclusive by tradition. Proposals and projects are arriving every day. The stage of our widespread Expo is taking shape. Milan will be the stage on which thousands and thousands of events will take place. Expo plus Expo in città: Milan doubles and will be the place to be in 2015.»

Giuliano Pisapia, Mayor of Milan

Milano, a place to BE

Milan confirms its status as a city of art and culture with the initiative "Milano, a place to BE" scheduled to be held from May to October 2015: a cultural program represented by six masterpieces which will serve as symbolic images of our city.

MAY 2015

BBeginning > "The Fourth Estate" by Pellizza da Volpedo (Museo del Novecento), one of the works that most indelibly marked the industrial changes at the beginning of the 20th century, will kick-off the events.

JUNE 2015

BEloved > The theme of love will be represented by Francesco Hayez's "The Kiss" (Pinacoteca di Brera).

JULY 2015

BELong > Raphael's "Marriage of the Virgin" (Pinacoteca di Brera) will serve as an emblem of belonging to the city as a place where people can share and socialize.

AUGUST 2015

BESide > The solidarity expressed by Milan and its volunteer associations will be represented by Michelangelo's "Pietà Rondanini" (Castello Sforzesco).

SEPTEMBER 2015

BEyond > With his "Spatial Concept" (Museo del Novecento), Lucio Fontana has transcended the definitions of painting, sculpture and poetry: in the same way that Milan, with EXPO 2015, is projected towards the future.

OCTOBER 2015

BELieve > As a gran finale, the city has chosen Leonardo da Vinci's "Last Supper", possibly the best-known work of art in the world.

Exploring clusters

Clusters are one of the new attractions of Expo Milano 2015: for the first time pavilion communities are not grouped by geographical area but rather by a common theme and the food group to which they belong. Each country found in one of the clusters has an individual display space in which to develop its own personal interpretation of the theme of Expo Milano 2015.

RICE: ABUNDANCE AND SECURITY

A landscape that echoes the images of never-ending rice fields, evoking the colors and scents of a rural setting, greets each visitor. Sierra Leone, Bangladesh, Cambodia, Laos People's Democratic Republic, Myanmar.

BIO-MEDITERRANEUM

The image of the sea is conveyed by its flooring in myriad hues of blue, recalling all the colors of the sea that embraces the countries hosted in the Cluster. Montenegro, Algeria, Serbia, Lebanon, Egypt, Croatia, San Marino, Tunisia, Greece, Libya, Malta, Albania.

COCOA: THE FOOD OF GODS

The cocoa tree is grown in the tropical and subtropical plantations which serve as a source of inspiration for this Cluster. Cameroon, Ghana, Gabon.

COFFEE: THE ENGINE OF IDEAS

Inspiring this Cluster are the vast coffee plantations set in the shade of the tropical forests of Africa and Central America. Kenya, Burundi, Yemen, Guatemala, El Salvador, Uganda, Costa Rica, Ethiopia, Rwanda.

FRUITS AND LEGUMES

As a cultivated forest, the space accommodates small and large varieties of fruit trees, creating a natural atmosphere. Gambia, Guinea, Benin, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Zambia, Kyrgyzstan, Uzbekistan.

SPICES: THE WORLD OF SPICES

A voyage along the spice route, featuring scents and colors evoking distant lands and seas, is the inspiration for this Cluster. Afghanistan, United Republic of Tanzania, Vanuatu.

CEREALS AND TUBERS

The colors and scents reminiscent of cereal and tuber crops are the conceptual basis for this pavilion. Bolivia, Haiti, Mozambique, Togo, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Zimbabwe.

ISLANDS, SEA AND FOOD

Here, the atmosphere is created by the sounds of rushing water, the crunch of gravel and the knocking of wood, to evoke these lands' sense of harmony. Guinea Bissau.

ARID ZONES

Pavilion preview

The national pavilions of Expo 2015 are all "self-built" by their participants, skilfully interpreting the themes of food safety and sustainable development.

La Scala Opera House

Considered one of the most important and famous theatres in the world, known as the 'Temple of Opera', La Scala has hosted the most revered names in the world of music and theatre. By Elena Peverata

According to José Carreras, "at La Scala you have a real sense of theatre". You have a sense of its history, its prestige and its talent. La Scala is hallowed ground to lovers of music and, in particular, opera. All of the world's most famous singers and musicians have graced the Milanese stage: from Rossini to Verdi (the house composer for decades), to Puccini; from Toscanini to Abbado, to Bareinboim; from starred singers (Maria Callas, Renata Tebaldi, Mirella Freni, Giuseppe Di Stefano, Luciano Pavarotti, Plácido Domingo and Nicolai Ghiaurov), to prominent directors (Luchino Visconti, Franco Zeffirelli and Luca Ronconi) right up to celebrated choreographers and ballet dancers (George Balanchine, Rudolf Nureyev, Carla Fracci, Luciana Savignano and Roberto Bolle). Founded at the behest of Empress Maria Teresa of Austria and designed by architect Giuseppe Piermarini, Teatro alla Scala was inaugurated in 1778 with an opera by Antonio Salieri, "L'Europa riconosciuta". From that time onwards, though renovated and refurbished several times, including 2001 when it closed for extensive renovations, re-opening in December 2004, it has retained all of its allure and magic intact. Its elegant Neo-classical façade, its stuccoes and mirrors in the foyer, its magnificent auditorium swathed in gold and red, the glitter of its huge crystal chandelier and the impressive dimensions and complexity of its stage settings: all these elements contribute to making an evening at La Scala an unforgettable experience. Home to the Choir, the Corps de ballet, the Orchestra and the eponymous Academy and Museum, the musical event of the year at Teatro alla Scala is on 7 December (a holiday dedicated to the city's patron saint) marking the opening of the opera season, attended by the cream of Milanese and international society. This year, the new season will kick off with "Fidelio", by Ludwig van Beethoven, conducted by Daniel Bareinboim.

The Museo Teatrale

Lying adjacent to La Scala, the former Ricordi Casino hosts the Museo Teatrale alla Scala (also accessible from the foyer). Founded in 1913, among other things, it gathers a rich collection of musical instruments, documents, memorabilia related to the opera and the theatre, as well as a gallery of portraits and busts dedicated to several of the great artists who performed here from Giuseppe Verdi to Arturo Toscanini. Unless a rehearsal or show is in progress, visitors can admire the auditorium from a box and actually watch the set-moving machinery in action.

DINING

Reservations for most restaurants are strongly advised. In Italy, service is included in the price meaning that although tipping is not compulsory, it is obviously appreciated as a sign of satisfaction. Some menus include the word "coperto", a small surcharge corresponding to the cost of the service and bread. Although no dress code exists in Italy, semiformal clothing is usually considered de rigueur at restaurants. All restaurants and bars are non-smoking unless a separate smokers' area is specifically offered. Set meals: prices are per person.

Milan is known as one of the shopping capitals of the world. Although high-end purchases can be made in any part of the city, several urban areas are also entirely given over to the business of luxury shopping. First and foremost, the Quadrilatero della Moda, set amidst four of Milan's most expensive and prestigious shopping streets, namely via Montenapoleone, via Manzoni, via della Spiga and corso Venezia. It is here that the most important fashion designers offer their luxurious creations.

ICONIC JEWELLERY AT THE MIKHAILOV GALLERY ITALY

Nestling in the heart of Milan, in via Gesù 17, Mikhail Sasonko from St. Petersburg has opened his first showroom in Italy: the Mikhailov Gallery Italy.

Vladimir Mikhailov is an artist and stonemason who creates images and symbols for Russian churches and their patriarchs, using an ancient technique that originated in Pskov and Novgorod in the 12th and 13th centuries.

His works of fine sculpture, typical of the Northern School, are deeply spiritual, a feature that is evident in all of his artifacts including crosses, icons, rings, chains, easter eggs, spoons, fantasy objects and exclusive limited edition.

Right on time with Dodo

To celebrate its 20th anniversary, the jewellery brand has launched a new collection of watches. This time Dodo invites us to suspend time and grasp the beauty of the moment assisted by vibrant, graphic illustrations: the customary tick tock is transformed into the almost imperceptible fluttering of the wings of blue butterflies, the chirping of small birds or the darting of fish.

Its steel case, in the Songbird, Butterfly and Two fish version, boasts the well-balanced proportions of high-end models whose severity is softened by a rose gold-coloured bezel and ceramic faces depicting beautifully stylized birds, butterflies or fish. More minimalist, full colour versions are also available: a whimsical, chic look, heightened by coloured straps paired to suit individual tastes. The beautiful photos of the press campaign, shot by renowned photographer Guido Mocafico, is inspired by the Flemish style of art. Corso Matteotti, 9. T: 02 49524750. Welcome to Brera Brera is synonymous with the artistic heart of the city. In fact, as you stroll along the streets of this ancient district, you cannot help but be enchanted by its almost surreal atmosphere boasting small artisans' workshops or quaint stores selling canvases and paints.

Additionally, Brera is home to the impressive Accademia di Belle Arti, where visitors can admire Milan's famous painting collection at the Pinacoteca (the Brera Picture Gallery), the historic Biblioteca Nazionale Braidense (Braidense National Library), the Museo Astronomico (The Astronomical Museum), the oldest scientific research institute in the city and the Giardino Botanico (Botanical Gardens).

Santa Maria del Carmine

Art, shopping and entertainment

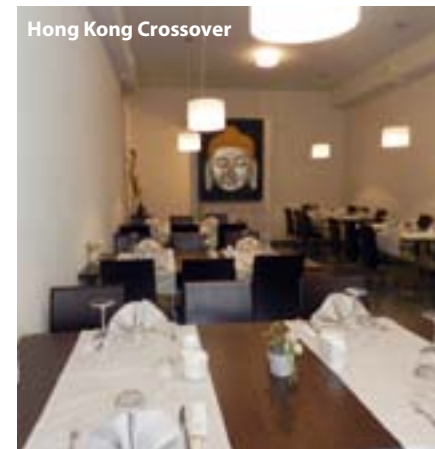

To start your sightseeing tour on the right foot, we suggest stopping for a cup of coffee at Princi, not just an ordinary bakery, but a meeting point where, amidst the heady scents of "brioche" and "cappuccino", you will have a chance to begin your day on a high note. A reference point for antique lovers, Brera boasts a large number of antique shops. As an aside, those interested in bargains or bric à brac should definitely make time to visit the Mercatino di antiquariato e brocantage, held on the third Sunday of each month.

Not far from the elegant artisan footwear sold by Iliprandi or the evocative location where jewellery collections are designed and handcrafted, ddm-daniela de marchi, visitors will find the first Italian monobrand store of fashion guru Marc Jacobs, whose adjacent café is the perfect spot for a "trendy" aperitivo. The array of boutiques continues with the new Gucci boutique, the first European men's flagship store, the Diego dalla Palma Make Up Studio, tailor-made, Italian-style shoes by Alfonso Garlando, and the Kusmi Tea new tea house, carrying a wide selection of blends of blacktea, green tea and infusions. Other points of interest include historic luxury jewellers Manfredi, antique and modern creations in silver at the Argenteria Dabbene, the original accessories by Angela Caputi Giuggiù, clothing and footwear for fashion-conscious kids by the new Gusella store in corso Garibaldi 50 and unique leather accessories by Giòsa Milano in via Ciovasso. Conversely, for design aficionados, we suggest a visit to the Calligaris flagship store, after which you will have a chance to lose yourself amidst the thousands of furnishing ideas offered by Cargo&Hi-Tech; dulcis in fundo, in the real sense of the word, don't forget to sample the specialities of maître chocolatier Guido Gobino in corso Garibaldi.

Tasting suggestions

Between visiting one shop and another, you might be surprised to suddenly discover that it's time for lunch. Try the typical Parma-based charcuterie specialities at Parma & Co, where you can also enjoy a Sunday brunch or the famed sandwiches sold by Panino Giusto. The afternoon is likely to pass by in a flash until you suddenly realize that it's aperitivo time: you are definitely likely to be seduced by the purely Art Déco-style atmosphere of El Tombon de San Marc or the trendier atmosphere of Fashion Café in via San Marco; other options are heady wine tasting sessions in the informal ambience of either N'Ombra de Vin or Moscatelli.

Conversely, the more fashion-oriented will find just what they're looking for in nearby corso Como, featuring Milan's renowned 10 Corso Como, a café, restaurant, concept store, bookshop and exhibition space. Choosing the right restaurant for dinner might pose quite some discussion. Here are some venues where you can savour authentic Italian cuisine: Maxelà, for meat lovers, La Briciola, Il Consolare, and Giallo for real "VIP-watching", the Piedmontese flavours of Alla Cucina delle Langhe, the Tuscan ones of Osteria Brunello and, last but not least, the characteristic restaurants of old Milan including Rigolo, All'Isola, La Libera, Bebel's and La Vecchia Lira.

Not to be missed, the Carminio where the menu changes daily. Finally, make sure to visit Ristorante 13 Giugno, a triumph of Sicilian cuisine, and the adjacent Fattoria di Brera, a unique pret-à-manger renowned for its stylish ambience and its delightfully fresh fare and for a different taste the new restaurant Hong Kong Crossover in via Ciovasso offers the sought-after flavours of the Orient.

Vercelli-Belfiore district

Maybe you've just seen Leonardo's Last Supper and are in need of a relaxing walk to ward off the possible onset of Stendhal's syndrome. Maybe you've got just one hour before seeing a musical at Teatro Nazionale or maybe your hotel happens to be located in the neighbourhood. Or, maybe you simply wish to take a stroll through one of Milan's less touristy areas. In all of these cases, the Vercelli-Belfiore district, midway between the Conciliazione and Wagner metro stops, is a perfect itinerary: one of Milan's best-kept secrets – though not by chance home to several of the world's best brands – this area, though mainly residential and frequented during the day, is capable of surprising those visiting it, thanks, for example to an extremely wide, cosmopolitan offer of restaurants. One of the most characteristic and strategic tram routes in the city (from here trams run to Fieramilano City and its congress centre, the Expo district, but also the historic centre, where you can catch a glimpse of the spires of the Duomo as the tram trundles along), this district is definitely worth a visit, shopping bag in hand. In fact, its carousel of shops has few rivals.

The Last Supper

CORSO VERCELLI, SHOPPING BAG IN HAND

If you access corso Vercelli starting from piazzale Baracca, at building number 1 you will immediately find a Montblanc boutique, home to high quality beautifully fashioned timepieces and writing instruments. At number 3, you will find Zadig&Voltaire, the French clothing brand that, in 2008, chose to open its first Italian monobrand store right here on corso Vercelli. While in the area, should you decide to pick up a new pair of uber-glam sunglasses, at number 5 corso Vercelli, Salmoiraghi e Viganò awaits you. One of the best-known opticians in Italy, it boasts as many as 500 sales points scattered across the country. Just a little further on, at number 7, your new sunglasses are likely to protect you from the glittering window displays of Luigi Verga Orologi, historic, high-class watchmakers offering a diverse selection of luxury brands including Rolex, Audemars Piguet and Pomellato. While on the subject of luxury, from number 11 onwards you will find a real mini-haven of elegance, mainly for men and mainly made-to-measure. The stores located here range from De Molfetta, the go-to shop for expertly handmade shirts and fashion-forward men's knitwear to Luca Calzature, a reference point since 1968 for artisanal footwear: all the beauty of Italian quality combined with the luxury of personalization and hundreds of models from among which to choose. At number 23 you can also find Brian & Barry (which, in spite of its name, is a 100% Italian brand, currently at the top of its form, as shown by its new, lavish megastore in San Babila) and Boggi, a surefire choice for men's clothing where you can take advantage of the discounts reserved for you as a reader of Where.

IN DISCOVERY OF VIA BELFIORE'S BOUTIQUES

On reaching piazza Wagner, you can make a small diversion in discovery of via Belfiore, even less touristy and, therefore, even more suggestive. And yet, even here, several of the most prestigious brands make an appearance, in quick succession. For a luxe pit-stop, at number 18, you'll find one of the most iconic Nespresso points in the city. Now that you're feeling a little more energized, you can return to the heart of Italian craftsmanship: in a singular "duel" two different artisanal shoe shops stand one next to the other, both boasting a storied past and the guarantee of Italian artisanal excellence. It's up to you to choose between one of the two, either Calzature Belfiore, handcrafted shoes since 1950, or Calzature Cardinale, a small family-run business since 1977. On the contrary, at number 8, you'll find Avirex, the legendary brand for "pilots" or simply for those who favour this type of look.

Montblanc

BACK IN CORSO VERCELLI AND VIA RASORI

By retracing your footsteps, you'll find yourself back in corso Vercelli, where you can browse the other side. Starting from the other end, you'll find Coin, the upmarket department store stocking a good collection of most of what you have seen until now. Further on, at number 14, you'll find yet another classic of Made-in-Italy, i.e. Geox, which doubles up just a little further on down the road at number 8, with its upmarket cousins Fay, Hogan and Tod's. Always at number 8, there's also Nadine, an Italian chain of women's fashion clothing. If children are your target, make a small deviation into the parallel of via Rasori, where, at number 4, you'll find a delectable boutique, simply spilling over with surprises, SophiePetit. And while you're here, bear in mind that there's another gem, whose "toys", in this case, are more likely to appeal to the ladies:

Martino & Mazzolini, at number 8, is an intriguing goldsmith's workshop that creates bronze jewellery using an ancient technique that has almost disappeared. Finally, walking towards Sant'Ambrogio, don't miss a visit to the famed Belgian chocolate atelier Neuhaus.

New world premieres for Leonardo3

After the Viola Organista and the Musical Can(n)on, another three musical instruments invented by Italian luminary Leonardo da Vinci will enrich the Leonardo3 - Il Mondo di Leonardo exhibition in piazza della Scala: the Continuous Windpipe, the Continuous Organ and 'Glissati' flutes. By Stefania Vida

The innovative multimedia exhibition, scheduled to run until 31 October 2015, will be further enriched by three new important works, namely the Continuous Windpipe, the Continuous Organ and 'Glissati' Flutes, the result of a passionate, ongoing commitment to study on the writings and drawings of Leonardo. Inside the exhibition area, in addition to three physical reproductions, new interactive stations dedicated to the instruments themselves have also been set up, thus offering visitors a chance to consult Leonardo da Vinci's manuscripts in digital format and interact with his inventions using innovative, engaging methods, several of which have been designed especially for children. Studies related to these three new musical instruments are contained in the Madrid Codex and in the Codex Atlanticus, annotated on sheets that might contain additional drawing or texts (or both) and, as is often the case, interrupted at the 'quick sketches' or 'notes to be developed' stage. Thus, five hundred years after the studies conducted by the Tuscan genius, these never-seen-before instruments have finally achieved a perfectly functioning status, thus completing and serving as an integration to the exhibition itself. An operation targeted at bringing to light the multi-faceted skills of Leonardo da Vinci, a figure perhaps best-known as an artist and engineer, often causing people to overlook the fact that his interests and achievements spread into an astonishing variety of fields, including, as previously mentioned, music.

Have you ever seen a fragment of the moon?

The new area of Milan's Museo della Scienza e della Tecnologia dedicated to space and astronomy is now open to the public. An interactive trip in discovery of places, people and technologies related to space exploration. By Elena Peverata

In addition to being one of the city's most vibrant cultural places, it is ranked among the world's most important scientific museums. Its collections – cars, planes, ships and trains! – and its sections – from metal working to electronics, from communications to plastic – explore the relationship between men and machines starting from the ingenious inventions of Leonardo da Vinci. A few weeks ago, the Museo Nazionale della Scienza e della Tecnologia Leonardo da Vinci opened a new, exciting interactive section entitled "Spazio", devoted entirely to space exploration and astronomy. Divided into two parts, "Observing space" and "Orbiting space", the new area traces four centuries of research on astronomy and space, from Galileo to the present-time, with, naturally, a nod to the future. The themes are presented according to an immersive and interactive format. In addition to extremely rare objects, including a fragment of lunar rock, a Russian cosmonaut's space suit and numerous 'tools of the trade', place of pride is given to a reproduction of a portion of the International Space Station. And since the idea of space travel has attracted mankind since the very beginning there is also no lack of references to literature, films and video games.

CHRISTMAS MARKETS

All across Europe, including Ticino, the Nordic tradition of Christmas markets have become a tradition.

Stalls are lined up with tantalizing goodies, toys and books, original floral compositions made from evergreens, pine cones and berries, greeting cards, creative decorations hand crafted by children and the seductive aroma of mulled wine, gingerbread and fir trees.

Artisanal and ethnic gift items abound together with regional products to be sampled together during convivial dinners, animated by the nostalgic notes of bagpipes. Festive lights twinkle brightly, illuminating the winter nights and, in the season of good will, what could be more appropriate than supporting charitable initiatives by making generous donations.

Ticino "cazzoeula" week

Following the extraordinary success of the first edition, the "Cazzoeula Club", in collaboration with Ticino a Tavola, is in the process of organizing the second "Settimana ticinese della Cazzoeula nei giorni della merla", i.e. from 23 January to 1 February 2015. "Cazzoeula" (but also cassöla, cassoela, casoeula, cassouela, casoela, cassuola and cazzuola, deriving from the word casseruola) is a typical Lombard dish, invented at the beginning of the 20th century, even though older, somewhat different versions are also documented. What we do know is that this is a winter dish linked to the slaughtering of pigs, which coincided with the date of 17 January, the feast day of sant'Antonio Abate. Although there are numerous variations on the theme, classic ingredients include a whole pig's head, the trotters, a few ribs, pork rind, special sausages known as "verzini" and, naturally, lots of cabbage, the kind that has been hit by the first winter frost, thus ensuring that it is much more tender and actually tastes better. Amazing dining on a tram

Tap into the unique experience of dining aboard the historic ATMosfera tram while taking in the sights of the city! By Diana Orlando

Those visiting Milan will have noted the iconic trams trundling through the streets of the city. Among these, one in particular will not go unnoticed: ATMosfera. In fact, several cars of this vintage tram have been meticulously refurbished to host the most characteristic of all Milanese restaurants, taking discerning diners on a sightseeing tour of the city to ensure a delightful, innovative retro approach to dining. As soon as you board, you are immediately catapulted into the past, thanks to its plush velvet covered seats and windows shaded with flounced curtains, surmounted by artfully placed period photographs. "ATMosfera" is an amusing play on words combining the company's acronym (Azienda Trasporti Milanesi aka ATM) with the idea of an atmospheric setting. As they cruise the city streets of Milan, lulled by the movement of the tram and its refined decor, diners can enjoy a sought-after dinner featuring a blend of enticing flavours highlighted in the three menus on offer: Milanese (meat), fish and vegetarian (65€ each). The tram-restaurant departs each evening at 8pm from piazza Castello, corner of via Beltrami, and returns to the tramstop after a 2-hour tour of several of the city's most romantic districts... a truly unmissable experience!

>> Booking is essential. Call Zani Viaggi T: 02 867131 or visit www.zaniviaggi.it

Milan's history

The "Carrelli" or "Ventotto", a tourism symbol of the city, is a vintage tram dating back to 1928. Originally known as "vettura tranviaria a carrelli tipo 1928", this institution on rails, featuring iconic wooden seats, has been boarded, at least once, by every self-respecting Milanese. A part of Milan's history and folklore, thanks to ATMosfera, the "Carrelli" has now been re-invented as an exclusive restaurant boasting an exquisitely retro flavour.
