WELCOME TO MILANO | City of Expo

Welcome to the city of Expo Milano 2015... although, at this point, we might possibly be getting a little ahead of ourselves! For the time being you might have to suffer some inconvenience when moving around in this city which is changing and where preparations for the forthcoming Universal Exposition are in full swing. However, time is passing quickly because from 1 May to the end of October our city will host the event of the century.

It's not the first time that a World Fair has been held in Milan. In fact, way back in 1906, the city played host to a major Exposition which saw millions of visitors acquainting themselves with the marvels of technology of that period. The theme chosen at that time was transport; the event saw the participation of more than 40 countries and as many as 5.5 million visitors.

This year, it's about life: 'Feeding the Planet, Energy for life' is the leitmotif of this edition. More than 140 participating countries - an absolute record in the history of world fairs - will meet in Milan to show the world products, technologies and research that are useful to life. From the cultivation of seaweed to the production of drinking water, from air to a sustainable environment... all bound up in a whirl of fantastic events. From a performance by Italian tenor Andrea Bocelli, to show cooking events staged by the 'greats' of cuisine, from an acrobatic and choreographic spectacular by Cirque du Soleil to almost 17,000 'Expo in Città' events (i.e. around 120 events per day) taking place beyond the gates of Expo, all over the city.

You too can be a part of this incredible programme: visit www.wheremilan.com to find all the necessary information.

Where® Milan supports, in fact, 'Expo in Città' and not only; it's also an event organizer.

We await your return to Milan with eager anticipation when you too will have a chance to participate in the most exciting, event-filled year in the history of this city.

FRIDAY

13 MCCURRY'S WORLD

Today, as on every Friday, the exhibition "Oltre lo sguardo" by renowned photojournalist Steve McCurry closes at 10pm. An unmissable opportunity to visit this exhibition of auteur images, testifying to his enduring interest in the human condition. Particularly noteworthy is the mounting of his works which interacts with the recently renovated spaces of Villa Reale in Monza. Until 6 April at Villa Reale di Monza (30 minutes from Milan).

FROM FRIDAY

20 DIVINE PERFORMANCE

▲ Through the universal language of music and dance, Shen Yun weaves a marvellous tapestry of heavenly realms, ancient legends and modern heroic tales, taking you on a journey through 5,000 years of Chinese culture. Dazzling acrobatics, pirouettes and a delicate elegance are at the heart of this Chinese dance performance. At Teatro degli Arcimboldi, until 22 March.

27 MUSEO DELLE CULTURE NEW OPENING

◀ The new 'Museo delle Culture' opens today in Milan with two exhibitions: "Mondi a Milano" (until 19 July) and "Africa" (until 30 August). The first one is dedicated to the dialogue between Milan and the World: works of art, design, architecture, documents and furniture testify to the fascination of exoticism and the anxiety of modernity. The second one showcases more than 200 items devoted to African art from the Middle Ages to the present. www.mudec.it

UNTIL SUNDAY

29 POST-MODERN AMERICAN DANCE

► The new spectacular Italian tour of the Parsons Dance company, renowned for its cult choreographies, ends today. This positive, affirming and life-enriching performance features a medley of music including pieces by Rossini, Mozart, Phil Woods, Miles Davis, legendary Brazilian musician Milton Nascimento and Robert Fripp of King Crimson right up to the hits of Earth, Wind & Fire, a truly exuberant dance experience! ### » COMING SOON

LEONARDO DA VINCI, A UNIQUE PERFORMANCE

During Expo Milano 2015, a unique live 'permanent' event entitled "Essere Leonardo. Intervista Impossibile" will be staged at the Museo Nazionale della Scienza e della Tecnologia. Every Saturday, from 2 May to 31 October (5.30pm-6.30pm), a one-of-a-kind theatre and dance performance, developed by director and actor Massimiliano Finazzer Flory (see photo), will trace the life of the Italian Renaissance genius. The performance will be staged during an international tour first in Japan and in the US, between February and April. Stay tuned: www.wheremilan.com

12 MILAN AT THE CENTRE OF EUROPE

▲ The exhibition "Arte Lombarda dai Visconti agli Sforza. Milano al centro dell'Europa" opens today and features paintings, sculptures and manuscripts from several of the world's most important museums: the exhibition reconstructs the extraordinary flourishing of arts and crafts during the Visconti and Sforza dynasties, between the 14th and 15th centuries. At Palazzo Reale, until 28 June.

UNTIL WEDNESDAY

25 WELCOME TO VINITALY

▲ A special edition of Vinitaly! Scheduled to be held at the 'Fiera di Verona' (located at a distance of less than 2 hours from Milan) from 22 to 25 March, this year's edition will be held in conjunction with Saloni Sol&Agrifood and Enolitech. The extravaganza sees the gathering of wine professionals from 120 countries and offers a 360-degree overview of Italy's wine and olive oil-producing industries, from technical equipment right up to production. Before and after the renovation works

The new Galleria

SIGHTSEEING In the run up to Expo, the city's historic Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II has been given a makeover! The splendid 'Living Room of Milan' is gradually rediscovering all of its former splendour, attracting locals and foreigners alike!

With less than 2 months to go, the hype surrounding preparations for the World Fair is building. Amidst renovations and loads of construction work Milan is beginning to unveil its new look!

In perfect keeping with this general makeover, the highly central Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, known to all as "the Living Room of Milan" on account of its elegance and versatility as a meeting place for the Milanese, is gradually regaining its former splendour, thanks to important renovation works which will also see the re-opening of its upper floors with new spaces for exhibitions, events, meetings, bars, cafés and eateries plus exclusive panoramic walkways extending over a surface area of 550 sq.m. The access route envisages entry from the courtyards of via Silvio Pellico 2/Piazza Duomo 21. After ascending to the upper spaces via two lifts (currently under construction) and crossing a terrace, it will be possible to access the walkway. At the end of the visit, an external lift located in the courtyard will take visitors back down and out through the exit in via Silvio Pellico 8. In addition to being a stunning feat of architecture, the Galleria can realistically be considered the oldest shopping arcade in the world. Those crossing under its magnificent glass dome are treated to a one-of-a-kind shopping experience. The arcade is lined with several of the world's most famed and fabled designer stores, workshops steeped in history, landmark restaurants and cafés plus several intriguing, well-stocked bookstores. Depending on the time of the day, you will either encounter hordes of tourists, hurried office workers, foreigners from all parts of the globe or the Milanese either on their way to the theatre or to one of the area's numerous museums or nearby attractions (the Duomo, Teatro alla Scala, Gallerie d'Italia, Palazzo Reale, Grande Museo del Duomo and the Museo del '900). Two key reference points designed to help tourists discover all that the city has to offer are InfoMilano and the Urban Center.

SHOPPING After observing an old Milanese tradition known as the ritual of the bull (grind your heel three times on a specific spot of the mosaic of the Bull positioned on the floor of the Galleria) you can indulge in some retail therapy by visiting the numerous (and, often, jaw-dropping) high-end boutiques that have taken up residence here (some years ago and some more recently). From the iconic Prada

The ritual of the bull

Leonardo3. Il Mondo di Leonardo

Until 31 October 2015, you can visit the ultra-technological, futuristic exhibition dedicated to the works of this great inventor housed in the magnificent spaces of the "Sale del Re" in the Galleria. A unique exhibition (visited to-date by more than 270,000 visitors) featuring new additions and world premieres, interactive stations and working machinery created thanks to in-depth studies of Leonardo's manuscripts, never-seen-before physical reconstructions, digital reproductions and 3D restorations of the artistic creations of the Tuscan genius. First-rate audio guides in English, French, German, Russian, Portuguese, Spanish and Chinese are also available. www.leonardo3.net store to Versace's latest gem, it's impossible not to remain awestruck by the collections showcased in these spaces that tend to resemble museums rather than shops! In the Galleria, haute couture takes centre stage. In addition to the aforementioned Prada and Versace, other standouts include Louis Vuitton, Gucci, Armani, Borsalino, Luisa Spagnoli, Bric's, Tod's, Swarovski, Mercedes-Benz Spot, Stefanel and Massimo Dutti alternated with historic workshops (whose signs serve as an indication of their storied past), including Cadè (shirts and ties since 1926), Viganò Alta Moda (items for high fashion embroidery), Piumelli, renowned for its handmade gloves, Mejana, purveyors of time-honoured fountain pens and historic bookstores: Bocca, for art lovers, Libreria Poligrafico (Italian State Mint and Printing Institute) for coin collectors and the recently revamped Libreria Rizzoli Galleria: three floors all dedicated to the printed word!

Versace boutique

DINING

You say 'aperitivo' and you immediately think of Camparino in Galleria, a landmark location and a reference point where Milan's elite meet to partake in one of Italy's oldest social traditions! For those in search of a taste of tradition, located just nearby is Luini (renowned for its one-of-a-kind "panzerotti"). Conversely, those favouring a more sought-after gourmet experience can either opt to eat at Ristorante Galleria where you enjoy a taste of Milanese food and hospitality, at Savini, located at the first floor of the Galleria or Il Marchesino lying adjacent to Teatro alla Scala, presided over by Gaultiero Marchesi, one of Italy's most revered chefs.

For the more 'fashion oriented', a top-notch address is Ristorante Trussardi alla Scala located just moments away. And then again, if your idea of bliss is an unrivalled view over piazza Duomo a sure-fire choice is Giacomo Arengario, the restaurant of the Museo del '900.

AROUND THE CORNER

If after visiting all the boutiques in the Galleria, you still haven't had your fill of shopping, we recommend several truly unique addresses located just a stone's throw away. For the ultimate one-stop shopping experience look no further than la Rinascente (under the arcades): an amazing array of fashion items under just one roof! Just a little further one, the window displays of Rocca 1974 will seduce you with their collections of several of the world's most desirable jewelry and watch brands, a perfect blend of passion, dedication, know-how and luxury.

If you're in search of a special souvenir, head to Pettinaroli in piazza San Fedele. Founded in 1881, its antique prints are still an absolute 'must'! Outliving (in via Agnello) offers a storefront packed with items for outdoor living, leisure time, holidays, travel and the home... and, if after all of this you realize that you might have gone over the top with your purchases and thus need an extra suitcase, Rimowa (in piazza San Fedele) offers some of the best travel luxury in the industry!

YESTERDAY

A brief history of the Galleria

A virtual masterpiece of eclectic architecture, it was designed by Giuseppe Mengoni between 1865 and 1867 to celebrate the birth of the Kingdom of Italy. By that time, the Galleria represented the greatest application of iron and glass-based technology to a civilian building. The majesty of its mosaics and the decorations of the buildings – now converted into shops, restaurants and offices – is naturally enhanced by the arching glass and cast iron roof (topped with a central glass dome standing at a height of 50 meters) which, together with its iron structure, was originally manufactured in France.

The best way to visit the Last Supper

One of the most famous attractions in the world, the Cenacolo by Leonardo da Vinci is one of the symbols of Milan.

The large 15th century mural painting in which Christ announces that he will be betrayed by one of his apostles is among the most famous masterpieces of Renaissance art in Italy. Make sure not to miss the opportunity of discovering this symbol of the city at the complex of Santa Maria delle Grazie with Zani Viaggi's Grand Tour Milano. Accompanied by an expert guide, the Grand Tour Milano takes visitors in discovery of the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, the Duomo, the Castello Sforzesco, the Teatro alla Scala (Milan's famed opera house with its museum) and the Last Supper, ensuring that they make the most of their day thanks to 'skip the line' entrance. The tour leaves daily (excluding Mondays), year-round, morning and afternoon, with departures at 9.30am and 2.30pm. The Last Supper is also included in

"The Milan Pass", the ultimate sightseeing package that has been especially tailor-made for visitors offering the best of museums, attractions, city sightseings, transportation, shops and restaurants across the city.

Caruso

The new flagship store dedicated to high-profile, exquisitely tailored, Made in Italy menswear has just opened in via Gesù. From the window you enter straight onto the stage where the most surprising and elegant suits are hung all around this 'theatre', from the step-units in the wings, to the ropes of the curtain. Classical, traditional, of supreme quality, lightweight, warm, functional and impeccable with, however, that extra detail, that 'contemporary twist' that exists in each and every Caruso item, often mentioned but never clearly defined. All around, everything that you need to complete the suit, from knitwear to shirts, but also ties, sports jackets and accessories.

Milano, a place to BE

Milan confirms its status as a city of art and culture with the initiative "Milano, a place to BE" scheduled to be held from May to October 2015: a cultural program represented by six masterpieces which will serve as symbolic images of our city.

Leonardo da Vinci 1452-1519

An unprecedented display dedicated to Leonardo artist, painter and designer. It is a route that uses drawings, manuscripts and documents to reconstruct the complexity of this genius from the Renaissance period.

Palazzo Reale, 15 April - 19 July

Giotto, l'Italia. Da Assisi a Milano

Five months in which to go on an ideal journey through the years of Giotto in Milan, on the traces of the lost masterpiece entitled "Una gloria mondana" (A Mundane Glory) commissioned by Azzone Visconti.

Palazzo Reale,
2 September - 10 January 2016

MAY 2015

BEginning > "The Fourth Estate" by Pellizza da Volpedo (Museo del Novecento), one of the works that most indelibly marked the industrial changes at the beginning of the 20th century, will kick-off the events.

JULY 2015

BElong > Raphael's "Marriage of the Virgin" (Pinacoteca di Brera) will serve as an emblem of belonging to the city as a place where people can share and socialize.

SEPTEMBER 2015

BEyond > With his "Spatial Concept" (Museo del Novecento), Lucio Fontana has transcended the definitions of painting, sculpture and poetry: in the same way that Milan, with EXPO 2015, is projected towards the future.

JUNE 2015

BEloved > The theme of love will be represented by Francesco Hayez's "The Kiss" (Pinacoteca di Brera).

AUGUST 2015

BEside > The solidarity expressed by Milan and its volunteer associations will be represented by Michelangelo's "Pietà Rondanini" (Castello Sforzesco).

OCTOBER 2015

BElieve > As a gran finale, the city has chosen Leonardo da Vinci's "Last Supper", possibly the best-known work of art in the world.

Exploring clusters

Clusters are one of the new attractions of Expo Milano 2015: for the first time pavilion communities are not grouped by geographical area but rather by a common theme. Each country has an individual display space in which to develop its own personal interpretation of the theme of Expo.

RICE: ABUNDANCE AND SECURITY
A landscape that echoes the images of never-ending rice fields, evoking the colors and scents of a rural setting, greets each visitor.
Sierra Leone, Bangladesh, Cambodia, Laos People's Democratic Republic, Myanmar.

COCOA: THE FOOD OF GODS
The cocoa tree is grown in the tropical and subtropical plantations which serve as a source of inspiration for this Cluster.
Cameroon, Cuba, Ghana, Gabon, Sao Tome and Principe.

COFFEE: THE ENGINE OF IDEAS
Inspiring this Cluster are the vast coffee plantations set in the shade of the tropical forests of Africa and Central America.
Kenya, Burundi, Yemen, Guatemala, El Salvador, Uganda, Costa Rica, Ethiopia, Rwanda.

FRUITS AND LEGUMES
As a cultivated forest, the space accommodates small and large varieties of fruit trees, creating a natural atmosphere.
Gambia, Guinea, Benin, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Zambia, Kyrgyzstan, Uzbekistan.

SPICES: THE WORLD OF SPICES
A voyage along the spice route, featuring scents and colors evoking distant lands and seas, is the inspiration for this Cluster.
Afghanistan, Brunei Darussalam, United Republic of Tanzania, Vanuatu.

CEREALS AND TUBERS
The colors and scents reminiscent of cereal and tuber crops are the conceptual basis for this pavilion.
Bolivia, Haiti, Mozambique, Togo, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Zimbabwe.

ISLANDS, SEA AND FOOD
Here, the atmosphere is created by the sounds of rushing water, the crunch of gravel and the knocking of wood, to evoke these lands' sense of harmony.
Barbados, Belize, Cape Verde, Caribbean Community, Comoros, Dominica, Grenada, Guinea Bissau, Guyana, Madagascar, Maldives, Saint Lucia, Saint Vincent and The Grenadines, Suriname.

ARID ZONES
On entering the Cluster, visitors find themselves immersed in a desert sandstorm-like atmosphere, created by canes hanging from the ceiling.
Mauritania, Senegal, Palestine, Eritrea.

BIO-MEDITERRANEUM
The image of the sea is conveyed by its flooring in myriad hues of blue, recalling all the colors of the sea that embraces the countries hosted in the Cluster.
Montenegro, Algeria, Serbia, Lebanon, Egypt, San Marino, Tunisia, Greece, Libya, Malta, Albania.

Porta Nuova district

A vibrant, futuristic district overlooking two of Milan's more traditional neighbourhoods. A perfect spot to explore the new soul of the city. By Elena Peverata

Though called Porta Nuova, it's name is anything but new: in fact, since the very beginning, it has been a part of the city's identity. This historic, formerly industrial area has been given a makeover thanks to an important and complex redevelopment plan that has now transformed it into Milan's most futuristic district, redesigning and redefining both its skyline and character. This urban revitalization scheme involved several internationally renowned architectural firms (Pelli Clarke Pelli Architects, Kohn Pedersen Fox Associated, Boeri Studio and others), creating a 'virtuous' link with the Garibaldi and Isola districts, among some of the most vibrant and interesting in the city, renowned for their cultural assets and nightlife scene, and the Varesine district, which have been reconnected and embellished by pedestrian areas, cycling tracks and green spaces. Hi-tech stores, arcades, bookstores, bars and cafés, pizzerias and discotheques: a totally new area for Milan, and the Milanese. The heart of the area is the large raised square erected next to the Garibaldi railway station, dedicated to architect and designer Gae Aulenti and crowned by three glass skyscrapers designed by César Pelli, including the Unicredit tower, the highest building in Italy. Towards the south, a walkway connects it to the ultra-trendy corso Como, piazza XXV Aprile (home to the Eataly building, a haven of high-quality cuisine) and, just beyond it, to the Garibaldi district, renowned for its viny nightlife. Towards the north, a pedestrian boulevard and a cycling track connect it to the Isola district, a new, up-and-coming cultural hub, dotted with small restaurants and venues where you can listen to a great selection of upbeat music. Towards the east, the brand new Business Centre and the residential towers of the Varesine district. From piazza Gae Aulenti, you can enjoy a unique view of the district and the skyline of the new city: just a little further on you will encounter the Vertical Wood, nominated the most innovative highrise in the world at the 2014 Highrise Award, the Diamant Tower with all the new towers of the Porta Nuova Business District, Palazzo Lombardia, the Lombardy Regional Government building and Palazzo Pirelli designed by Giò Ponti.

Ambrosiana, Picture Gallery and Library

CODEX ATLANTICUS The Ambrosiana picture gallery contains several exquisite works of art from the 15th through 17th centuries and includes "The musician", attributed to Leonardo, Raphael's cartoon for the "School of Athens" fresco and Caravaggio's "Basket of fruit". The Ambrosiana library will be exhibiting Leonardo's entire Codex Atlanticus until 2015, 44 or 45 pages at a time for three months at a stretch. www.ambrosiana.it. Piazza Pio XI, 2. M1-M3 Duomo, M1 Cordusio. Map F5

Cimitero Monumentale

A real outdoor museum catering, on the one hand, to the whims of the elite of Milan's society and, on the other, to works of art by famous sculptors of various eras. Among the notables buried here are Alessandro Manzoni and Arturo Toscanini. Open Tues-Sun from 8am-6pm. ### Duomo

Among one of the most important Gothic buildings in the world, the church, constructed on and off over a period of 450 years (begun 1386) is the symbol of Milan. Built in the shape of a Latin cross, the cathedral is divided by soaring pillars into five naves, the largest of which measures 45 metres in height and has 135 spires. The cathedral is open daily 7am-7pm. The recently renovated Grande Museo del Duomo (see listing at the MUSEUMS section) houses hundreds of works of art dating from the 15th century to the present day. MAJESTIC TERRACES To experience the Duomo at its most majestic you must ascend to the roof (either by elevator or by steps) where you will be surrounded by an outburst of pinnacles and the famed golden "Madonnina". www.duomomilano.it. Piazza Duomo. M1-M3 Duomo. Map F4 FREE WITH MilanPass

Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II

Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II with its elegant, four-storey arcade, housing over 55 luxury cafés and famous designer shops, is covered by a glass barrel vault and a beautiful glass cupola and measures 196 metres in length. Tradition has it that placing your right heel on the bull, depicted in the mosaic on the floor, and then spinning around inside it, will bring good luck. Piazza Duomo-Piazza della Scala. M1-M3 Duomo. Map F4

Montenapoleone District

Milan is known as one of the shopping capitals of the world and via Montenapoleone, together with the Golden Quad is entirely given over to luxury shopping. Here the most important fashion designers offer their creations. Don't miss the "Fashion History Tour" by Zani Viaggi (www.zaniviaggi.it). ## Creed Haute Perfumerie

In the picturesque Brera district, at number 17 via Madonnina, a boutique entirely dedicated to prestigious brand Creed, de père en fils depuis 1760. By Stefania Vida

Among one of the most important (and iconic) Haute Perfumerie brands, Creed has chosen via Madonnina, in the heart of Brera, to open its sought-after boutique, boasting artisanal scents made from precious ingredients, a harmonious fusion of the past and the present, timeless signature scents imbued with an undeniable creative flair.

Boasting over 250 years in the industry, Creed has always known how to anticipate and create new trends, with totally unexpected fragrances that have gone down in history as several of the world's most iconic essences. Among these, particularly noteworthy are Royal English Leather (1781), Fleurs de Bulgarie (1845), Jasmin Imperatrice Eugenie (1870), Angelique Encens (1933), Fleurissimo (1972), Green Irish Tweed (1977) and Spring flower (1996), not to mention those created by its current owner Olivier Creed in collaboration with his son Erwin including Love in White (2006), the brand's unique Aventus (2010) and special collections Les Royal Exclusives (2010-2011) and Acqua Originale (2014). Creed's secret weapon of success has always been based on word of mouth. In fact, the maison's customer portfolio includes illustrious names of the calibre of Winston Churchill, Humphrey Bogart, Frank Sinatra, Jackie Kennedy and Elvis Presley to mention but a few, starred testimonials of the exclusivity and beauty of the creations produced by this historic brand.

MAP LOCATIONS

Note that references in bold at the end of each listing (A1, B5 etc) refer to the coordinates on the street maps on pages 78-79.

SHOPPING

Visitors should note that VAT is 22% and it is generally included in the price of goods.

TAX-FREE SHOPPING

By law, non-EU residents are entitled to reclaim the VAT paid on items purchased and exported from the EU: before finalizing a purchase, they should ask the shop assistant whether they are eligible for a tax refund.

Shopping hours are generally from 9.30am to 7.30pm; less centrally located shops still take the traditional lunch break. Most shops are closed on Sundays (except those located in central Milan) and on Monday mornings. Make sure to always check ahead.

 UnionPay Service Hotline:

e-mail: europe@unionpayintl.com

UnionPay is the national bankcard association in China, responsible for operating the unified inter-bank clearing and settlement system in China and developing the international acceptance network for UnionPay cards. More than 2000 shops already accept this card in Milan allowing hundred of thousands of affluent Chinese customers to shop with their favourite cards.

DINING

Reservations for most restaurants are strongly advised. In Italy, service is included in the price meaning that although tipping is not compulsory, it is obviously appreciated as a sign of satisfaction. Some menus include the word "coperto", a small surcharge corresponding to the cost of the service and bread. Although no dress code exists in Italy, semiformal clothing is usually considered de rigueur at restaurants. All restaurants and bars are non-smoking unless a separate smokers' area is specifically offered. Set meals: prices are per person.

€ = 30 € or less / €€ = 31-50€ /
€€€ = 51-100€ / €€€€ = 101-150€ /
€€€€€ = 150€ and above.

ENTERTAINMENT

Several venues offering food are included in the Entertainment section, because they are considered as meeting places. Most major theatre productions are listed there. Since programme times are subject to change it is impossible to list all of them. We therefore suggest that you doublecheck details regarding specific programme times. Major events can be found in the "Where Now" section.

Milan Style Journey

Every month a useful suggestion from StyleInMi™, the only service offering you a style journey into the heart of Milan conceived by Fabio Sbranchella and especially created for men in discovery of pure Milanese style.

“A favoured men’s tailoring destination, the reputation of “Dean” in via Sacco (M1, De Angeli stop) has been built by its owners Mario and Giuseppe, and their customers who treat it like a meeting place for old friends. Mario, a Milanese, boasts years of experience as a fabrics expert and is a fantastic individual of whom I am particularly fond; Giuseppe, Neapolitan by birth and Milanese by adoption, is a man of rare elegance and learning. Two colleagues and friends who are well-versed in advising and picking out the perfect pieces for their customers. Here it is not a question of following fads nor of creating them. At this discreet venue, its owners propose style and timeless elegance, the kind that makes a man feel confident at all times, whether this be a business meeting in Tokyo, a yachting trip in St. Tropez, a day at the Golf Club or a skiing holiday at a chalet in St. Moritz. A few select brands of only the highest quality, an impeccable tailoring service and unbeatable attention to customers, all values that make this atelier a truly special place when I’m in search of a beautiful item of clothing.”

ACQUA DI PARMA

This boutique is an elegant ode to pure Italian style, whose rooms and themed areas exude a multi-sensory atmosphere. Each detail expresses sheer Italian artisanship: precious mosaic niches, stuccoes, sophisticated decor, Poltrona Frau armchairs and paintings by Soraman act as a perfect setting for its products. Not only limited edition items but also services: from customized pieces to a home delivery service, plus a barber’s corner where customers can enjoy a classic Italian shave in a refined atmosphere reminiscent of a visit to a traditional Italian barber.

CAROLINA RAVARINI MILANO

Set within the heart of the ‘Quadrilatero della Moda’ the showroom hosts the jewels of the Milanese designer. Each stone is selected according to its luminosity and the sensations that it conveys. Among these, agate, aquamarine, jade, horn and many others are combined, by hand, by fine threads of brass and copper. Particularly noteworthy in her men’s collection are brightly-coloured cufflinks for a sought-after trendy look, while signature pieces in her women’s collection include elegant necklaces, charms, earrings and bracelets that can be customized to suit individual requirements. Open daily, by appointment only. Also offers an exclusive hotel delivery service. Map G4

Welcome to Brera

DDM - Daniela De Marchi

Brera is synonymous with the artistic heart of the city. In fact, as you stroll along the streets of this ancient district, you cannot help but be enchanted by its almost surreal atmosphere boasting small artisans' workshops or quaint stores selling canvases and paints.

Additionally, Brera is home to the impressive Accademia di Belle Arti, where visitors can admire Milan's famous painting collection at the Pinacoteca (the Brera Picture Gallery), the historic Biblioteca Nazionale Braidense (Braidense National Library), the Museo Astronomico (The Astronomical Museum), the oldest scientific research institute in the city and the Giardino Botanico (Botanical Gardens).

Santa Maria del Carmine

Art, shopping and entertainment

To start your sightseeing tour on the right foot, we suggest stopping for a cup of coffee at Princi, not just an ordinary bakery, but a meeting point where, amidst the heady scents of "brioche" and "cappuccino", you will have a chance to begin your day on a high note. A reference point for antique lovers, Brera boasts a large number of antique shops. As an aside, those interested in bargains or bric à brac should definitely make time to visit the Mercatino di antiquariato e broccante, held on the third Sunday of each month.

Not far from the elegant artisan footwear sold by Ilprandi or the evocative location where jewellery collections are designed and handcrafted, ddm-daniela de marchi, visitors will find the first Italian monobrand store of fashion guru Marc Jacobs, whose adjacent café is the perfect spot for a "trendy" aperitivo. The array of boutiques continues with the new Gucci boutique, the first European men's flagship store, the new Alfredo Pria 1824 boutique, dedicated to men and women's accessories, tailor-made, Italian-style shoes by Alfonso Garlando, and the Kusmi Tea tea house, carrying a wide selection of blends of blacktea, green tea and infusions. Other points of interest include historic luxury jewellers Manfredi, antique and modern creations in silver at the Argenteria Dabbene, the original accessories by Angela Caputi Giuggiù, clothing and footwear for fashion-conscious kids by the new Gusella store and unique leather accessories by Giòsa Milano in via Ciovasso.

Conversely, for design aficionados, we suggest a visit to the Calligaris flagship store, after which you will have a chance to lose yourself amidst the thousands of furnishing ideas offered by Cargo&Hi-Tech; dulcis in fundo don't forget to sample the specialties of maître chocolatier Guido Gobino in corso Garibaldi.

Tasting suggestions

Between visiting one shop and another, you might be surprised to suddenly discover that it's time for lunch. Try the typical Parma-based charcuterie specialties at Parma & Co, where you can also enjoy a Sunday brunch or the famed sandwiches sold by Panino Giusto.

The afternoon is likely to pass by in a flash until you suddenly realize that it's aperitivo time: you are definitely likely to be seduced by the purely Art Dèco-style atmosphere of

El Tombon de San Marc

or the trendier atmosphere of Fashion Café in via San Marco; other options are heady wine tasting sessions in the informal ambience of either N'Ombra de Vin or Moscattelli.

Brera district

Conversely, the more fashion-oriented will find just what they're looking for in nearby corso Como, featuring Milan's renowned 10 Corso Como, a café, restaurant, concept store, bookshop and exhibition space. Choosing the right restaurant for dinner might pose quite some discussion. Here are some venues where you can savour authentic Italian cuisine: Maxelà, for meat lovers, La Briciola, Il Consolare, and Giallo for real "VIP-watching", the Piedmontese flavours of Alla Cucina delle Langhe, the Tuscan ones of Osteria Brunello and, last but not least, the characteristic restaurants of old Milan including Rigolo, All'Isola, Trattoria Torre di Pisa and La Vecchia Lira. Not to be missed, the Carminio where the menu changes daily. Finally, make sure to visit Ristorante 13 Giugno, a triumph of Sicilian cuisine, and the adjacent Fattoria di Brera, a unique pret-à-manger renowned for its stylish ambience and its delightfully fresh fare and for a different taste the new restaurant

Hong Kong Crossover in via Ciovasso offers the sought-after flavours of the Orient.

Vercelli-Belfiore district

Maybe you've just seen Leonardo's Last Supper and are in need of a relaxing walk to ward off the possible onset of Stendhal's syndrome. Maybe you've got just one hour before seeing a musical at Teatro Nazionale or maybe your hotel happens to be located in the neighbourhood. Or, maybe you simply wish to take a stroll through one of Milan's less touristy areas. In all of these cases, the Vercelli-Belfiore district, midway between the Conciliazione and Wagner metro stops, is a perfect itinerary: one of Milan's best-kept secrets – though not by chance home to several of the world's best brands – this area, though mainly residential and frequented during the day, is capable of surprising those visiting it, thanks, for example to an extremely wide, cosmopolitan offer of restaurants. One of the most characteristic and strategic tram routes in the city (from here trams run to Fieramilano City and its congress centre, the Expo district, but also the historic centre, where you can catch a glimpse of the spires of the Duomo as the tram trundles along), this district is definitely worth a visit, shopping bag in hand. In fact, its carousel of shops has few rivals.

CORSO VERCELLI, SHOPPING BAG IN HAND

If you access corso Vercelli starting from piazzale Baracca, at building number 1 you will immediately find a Montblanc boutique, home to high quality beautifully fashioned timepieces and writing instruments. At number 3, you will find Zadig&Voltaire, the French clothing brand that, in 2008, chose to open its first Italian monobrand store right here on corso Vercelli. While in the area, should you decide to pick up a new pair of uber-glam sunglasses, at number 5 corso Vercelli, Salmoiraghi e Viganò awaits you. One of the best-known opticians in Italy, it boasts as many as 500 sales points scattered across the country. Just a little further on, at number 7, your new sunglasses are likely to protect you from the glittering window displays of Luigi Verga Orologi, historic, high-class watchmakers offering a diverse selection of luxury brands including Rolex, Audemars Piguet and Pomellato. While on the subject of luxury, from number 11 onwards you will find a real mini-haven of elegance, mainly for men and mainly made-to-measure. The stores located here range from De Molfetta, the go-to shop for expertly handmade shirts and fashion-forward men's knitwear to Luca Calzature, a reference point since 1968 for artisanal footwear: all the beauty of Italian quality combined with the luxury of personalization and hundreds of models from among which to choose. At number 23 you can also find Brian & Barry (which, in spite of its name, is a 100% Italian brand, currently at the top of its form, as shown by its new, lavish megastore in San Babila) and Boggi, a surefire choice for men's clothing where you can take advantage of the discounts reserved for you as a reader of Where.

IN DISCOVERY OF VIA BELFIORE'S BOUTIQUES

On reaching piazza Wagner, you can make a small diversion in discovery of via Belfiore, even less touristy and, therefore, even more suggestive. And yet, even here, several of the most prestigious brands make an appearance, in quick succession. For a luxe pit-stop, at number 18, you'll find one of the most iconic Nespresso points in the city. Now that you're feeling a little more energized, you can return to the heart of Italian craftsmanship: in a singular "duel" two different artisanal shoe shops stand one next to the other, both boasting a storied past and the guarantee of Italian artisanal excellence. It's up to you to choose between one of the two, either Calzature Belfiore, handcrafted shoes since 1950, or Calzature Cardinale, a small family-run business since 1977. On the contrary, at number 6, you'll find Mortarotti, a cult destination of Milanese style carrying the creations of the best Italian fashion brands.

BACK IN CORSO VERCELLI AND VIA RASORI

By retracing your footsteps, you'll find yourself back in corso Vercelli, where you can browse the other side. Starting from the other end, you'll find Coin, the upmarket department store stocking a good collection of most of what you have seen until now. Further on, at number 14, you'll find yet another classic of Made-in-Italy, i.e. Geox, which doubles up just a little further on down the road at number 8, with its upmarket cousins Fay, Hogan and Tod's. Always at number 8, there's also Nadine, an Italian chain of women's fashion clothing. If children are your target, make a small deviation into the parallel of via Rasori, where, at number 4, you'll find a delectable boutique, simply spilling over with surprises, SophiePetit. And while you're here, bear in mind that there's another gem, whose "toys", in this case, are more likely to appeal to the ladies: Martino & Mazzolini, at number 8, is an intriguing goldsmith's workshop that creates bronze jewellery using an ancient technique that has almost disappeared. Finally, walking towards Sant'Ambrogio, don't miss a visit to the famed Belgian chocolate atelier Neuhaus.

SAN SIRO, TEMPLE OF FOOTBALL

Named after the famous Milanese footballer Giuseppe Meazza, the San Siro Stadium is the largest stadium in Italy and the third in Europe. All seats are covered in this three-tiered structure which has a capacity of 79,471 and is the home stadium of two of the three most successful Italian Football League clubs: A.C. Milan and F.C. Internazionale (Inter). The stadium also has a Gift Shop (T: 02 4046430) and a Museum (T: 02 4042432) displaying all kinds of historic items from both Milan's and Inter's past: old jerseys, photos, boots, tickets and a fabulous trophy case. However, even better than the museum is the guided stadium tour which gives you a chance to sit in VIP seats and visit each of the home teams' locker rooms. In summer it also hosts important concerts.

Eataly Smeraldo, in love with food

The idea is very simple: to gather all high-quality Italian foods under one roof, where you can eat, shop and learn. By Diana Orlando

A new cult destination dedicated to highclass Italian gastronomy has opened in Milan, in piazza XXV Aprile: 5,000 sq.m. devoted to food and the best, locally sourced products spread out over 4 floors hosting not only 19 eateries and a starred restaurant (Alice) but also rooms for food workshops, a convention centre and loads of music.

In fact, the new Eataly has opened in the theatre space of Milan's former legendary Teatro Smeraldo. As a tribute to this historic Milanese location, Eataly Smeraldo hosts a huge stage and offers a totally free season of music, which includes all genres, from pop to rock to opera, as well as hosting recitals, readings, cabaret, theatre, ballet, meetings, art and, naturally, gastronomic shows. At Eataly Smeraldo, specialised eateries open every day from 12pm to 3.30pm and from 7pm to 11pm; the Lavazza and Vergnano bars are open from 10am to 12am; the "Salumi e formaggi" eatery is open from 12am to 11pm.

Michelin-starred restaurants in Milan

Alice Ristorante

Milan, capital of fashion and design but, above all, taste. A city that boasts as many as fourteen starred restaurants: a triumph of flavours, aromas and untold creativity... a true culinary delight to satiate the eyes as much as the taste buds!

Alice Ristorante c/o Eataly Smeraldo
Piazza XXV Aprile, 10
T: 02 5462930

www.aliceristorante.it

An elegant, warm and welcoming restaurant whose cuisine takes centre stage. Fish and meat, prepared with creativity and Italian sensibility, starting from its Mediterranean influenced cuisine which subsequently unfolds to reveal a whole new tasting experience, updated to suit current tastes.

Al Pont de Ferr
Ripa di Porta Ticinese, 55
T: 02 89406277

www.pontdeferr.it

A restaurant focusing in particular on prime ingredients and quality, stunning presentation and a playful aspect that takes diners in discovery of a new experience where flavours, impeccably-sourced ingredients and culinary artworks blend harmoniously in a unique mix.

Cracco
Via Victor Hugo, 4
T: 02 876774

www.ristorantecracco.it

Its cuisine revisits the signature dishes of traditional Milanese cuisine updated with a contemporary twist, combining flavours and playing on contrasts. The creativity and sophistication of Carlo Cracco's cuisine are further enhanced by a superbly stocked wine cellar boasting as many as 2,000 select vintages.

D'O
Via Magenta, 18 - Cornaredo (MI)
T: 02 9362209

www.cucinapop.do

The perfect place for those who enjoy experimenting, D'O offers colourful, innovative cuisine based, however, on the authentic ingredients of Italian cuisine. Although this small temple of taste is not located in the centre of Milan, it's well worth an out-of-town trip.

Joia
Via Panfilo Castaldi, 18
T: 02 29522124

www.joia.it

Pietro Leemann is considered the guru of vegetarian food or, according to his own definition, of "natural haute cuisine". Several of his finest creations include his "uovo apparente" and his "elogio della Sicilia". The wine list is just as classy as the restaurant.

Iyo
Via Piero della Francesca, 74
T: 02 45476898

www.iyo.it

Recently enlarged and refurbished, this is one of the most popular Japanese restaurants in Milan and the first fusion restaurant in Italy with a star... It offers authentic sushi dishes and teppan, lovingly prepared by Japanese chef Haruo Ichikawa and young Italian chef Lorenzo Lavezzari. High quality, traditional, creative cuisine, boasting a touch of western philosophy.

Friendly atmosphere at La Briciola

This delightful venue, established almost 36 years ago by patron "Gianni", is set in the heart of Brera and was recently enlarged to include a bar and lounge area. The atmosphere chez "La Briciola" is warm and friendly, thanks to Gianni and his "merry" team of waiters who have made hospitality one of their signature features. It is not mere chance that, since its inception, the venue has been the favourite haunt of the Milanese jet-set and numerous "friends", who meet here to spend a pleasant evening in good company. Boasting a sophisticated, elegant atmosphere and outstanding Mediterranean cuisine featuring a selection of superior-quality meat, La Briciola is also renowned for its typical Milanese specialities including "riso al salto" and the authentic version of "cotoletta alla Milanese" (Milanese-style breaded veal cutlet).

The capital of fashion, design and innovation, Milan offers the very best in entertainment at all hours. By Stefania Vida

Walks through the streets of the city centre in the shadow of the Duomo or its quainter districts. The Navigli, for example, are an absolute must-see for all those visiting Milan: indulge in a pleasant moment of relaxation at one of the countless venues offering live music and an array of specialties. Alternatively, sample a cocktail at one of the highly sought-after venues offering a great view over the imposing Arco della Pace followed by a pleasant walk through the charming green spaces of nearby Parco Sempione.

Enjoy a real Milanese experience and discover the best of Milan's night scene.

Take a breather while soaking up the artsy atmosphere of the historic district of Brera featuring a delightful maze of restaurants and small venues scattered amidst the workshops of artisans and painters. From here you can directly access the most innovative area of the city: Corso Como, with its myriad hangouts to which locals flock each evening to indulge in the unmissable aperitivo ritual, and Porta Nuova with its slew of futuristic buildings. Find out what's hot and happening by night because Milan is a city that never sleeps!

It's aperitivo time!

Take a fabulous tour with Zani Viaggi to see Milan when it sparkles... and share its iconic Happy Hour with savvy Milanese locals. In perfect keeping with the most innovative trends, Milan was the first city to spread the ritualistic aperitivo culture. First and foremost, it's about relaxing after a long day's work, catching up with friends and colleagues, checking each other out and generally having fun at one of the numerous venues (Brera, Corso Como, Garibaldi, Navigli) scattered throughout the city. The bus tour of the city's most popular nightlife areas include a break for a "happy hour" experience with one drink free and finger food. "Milano by Night Tour" by Zani Viaggi - € 50. Every Wednesday, Friday and Sunday until 31 October. Departure by bus at 8am - end of the tour at 11pm.

APERITIVO

10 Corso Como Cafè

Lounge bar (with adjoining restaurant) located inside a vast complex dedicated to shopping and entertainment (art, fashion and design) founded in 1990 by the publisher and gallerist Carla Sozzani. Open Mon 6pm-1am; Tues-Fri 12pm-1am; Sat 11pm-2am; Sun 11pm-1am. www.10corsocomo.com. Corso Como, 10. T: 02 29013581. M2 Garibaldi FS. Map F2

Bar Straf

The street bar of the Straf design hotel in the heart of Milan. The bar echoes the basic materials used inside the hotel, such as concrete walls and floors, although here the interior designer Vincenzo De Cotiis has created a sort of spatial overwriting by using a hyper-decorative style. Open daily from 9am to midnight (Sat-Sun 11-midnight); aperitivo 6pm-10pm. Live music on Tues from 6pm, dj set on Thurs-Fri. www.straf.it. Via San Raffaele, 3. T: 02 80508715. M1-M3 Duomo. Map F4

Biffi Pasticceria

A pasticceria established in 1847, its name is linked to the invention of "panettone", the famous Milanese Christmas cake, exported throughout the world. A taste of old Milan: quality and impeccable service. In the late afternoon, it serves traditional aperitivi accompanied by a buffet. Open every day from 6.30am to 8.30pm. www.biffipasticceria.it. Corso Magenta, 87. T: 02 48006702. M1 Conciliazione. Map D4

Camparino in Galleria

ICONIC One century after it was first opened, Camparino - historically known as the "bar of the Campari brand" - has returned to its original spot in the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II. In the early 20th century it was a meeting place for musicians, artists and men of learning, and the place that gave birth to the tradition of the Milanese aperitivo. The new modern interpretation of the famous original sign has been designed by the master Ugo Nespolo. A place where visitors can experience a true Campari "full immersion". Open Tues-Sun 7am-8.30pm. www.camparino.it. Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II corner of Piazza Duomo. T: 02 86464435. M1-M3 Duomo. Map F4

Cova Pasticceria

Founded in 1817, by none other than one of Napoleon's soldiers. Thanks to its strategic position, in the heart of the Quadrilatero della moda, this venue is a true Milanese classic. Established as a pasticceria, it also offers a house aperitivo: an infusion of herbs and flowers based on a secret recipe. Open 7.45am to 8.30pm. Also lunch noon-2pm and aperitivo from 6pm. www.pasticceriacova.it. Via Montenapoleone, 8. T: 02 76005599. M3 Montenapoleone. Map G4

Jamaica

Formerly a favorite haunt of artists and poets such as Giuseppe Ungaretti, Salvatore Quasimodo, Alessandro Francesco Tommaso Manzoni, Fernando Fontana, beat generation poet Allen Ginsberg and photographer Ugo Mulas, Jamaica today hosts photographic exhibitions and cultural events accompanied by an "aperitivo" in an atmosphere that continues to retain the intellectual appeal of years gone by. Open daily 9.30am-2am; Restaurant on Wed-Thurs-Sat. www.jamaicabar.it. Via Brera, 32. T: 02 876723. M2 Lanza. Map F3

CONCERT VENUES & THEATRES

Auditorium di Milano-Fondazione Cariplo

Inaugurated in 1999, the Auditorium is one of Milan's premier concert halls (boasting a seating capacity of 1,400) and home to the Giuseppe Verdi Symphonic Orchestra and Milan Chorus. It also acts as a venue for visiting international jazz acts, symphony concerts and chamber music. www.laverdi.org. Largo G. Mahler. T: 02 83389401. Map E7

Blue Note

A branch of the famous New York, Tokyo and Nagoya venues, this is the new temple of Milanese jazz and features world-class performers and big-names on the International music scene. True to tradition, it hosts two shows a night (at 9pm and

Giuseppe Verdi Music Conservatory

Founded in 1808, this Conservatory is another of Milan's most illustrious venues for classical concerts and also offers a wide range of courses and cultural activities (masterclasses, seminars, performances, etc.). Many famous Italian musicians studied here – although oddly enough, the young Giuseppe Verdi was rejected. There are two concert halls: the smaller Sala Puccini for chamber music and the bigger Sala Verdi for symphonic and choral music. www.consmilano.it. Via Conservatorio, 12. T: 02 762110. M1 San Babila. Map G4

Scimmie (Le)

An historic concert venue in the Naviglio Pavese district. Though formerly only catering to jazz, it now also offers a variety of concerts featuring different types of musical genres performed by emerging Italian talents or famous International stars. Drinks are available at the bar and club restaurant. It also has an outdoor space in summer. www.scimmie.it. Via A. Sforza, 49. T: 02 89402874. Map E7

TAM-Teatro degli Arcimboldi

Inaugurated in 2002, for three years it acted as Milan's main opera venue while the historic Teatro alla Scala was being restored and restructured. Boasting a seating capacity of 2,400, it currently hosts a variety of concerts ranging from classical music to rock and pop but also festivals, performances and TV shows. www.teatroarcimboldi.it. Viale dell'Innovazione, 20. T: 02 641142200. Off Map

Teatro alla Scala

Designed by Giuseppe Piermarini and inaugurated in 1778, it was recently totally refurbished under the supervision of the renowned architect, Mario Botta. Today the theatre is recognized as one of the leading opera and ballet theatres in the world and offers seasonal events. Out-of-season events are also often organized by private institutions and foundations. www.teatroallascala.org. ## La Triennale, a must-visit experience

Overlooking the green spaces of Parco Sempione and boasting a long glorious past, La Triennale is more than a cultural institution and more than just an exhibition space: seeing is believing! By Elena Peverata

This is one of the most important, vibrant and popular display spaces in the city. A cultural institute of international repute, it organizes exhibitions and conventions as well as events related to art, design, architecture, fashion, cinema, communications and lifestyle. Originally established at Monza's Villa Reale in 1923, in 1933, on the occasion of the first Biennial of decorative arts, it relocated to Milan's Palazzo dell'Arte, an elegant, stately building designed by architect Giovanni Muzio as a flexible, multi-functional centre. It is here that it now hosts temporary exhibitions of considerable note dedicated to contemporary art, architects and designers of international renown, famous fashion designers who have changed the face of fashion and social themes. Since 2007, this sleek white temple of cool has also housed the Triennale Design Museum, the first Italian and international design museum that, ever-aware of history and the entire design scene offers, visitors the possibility of discovering the best of design.

The Triennale now also hosts the Theatre of Arts, a stage for new expressions offered by digital technologies, a creative meeting point between the performing arts, theatre music and dance and architecture, design and fashion. Another must-visit standout is its superb multimedia library dedicated to design, art and architecture and, while you're about it, make sure to take a pit stop at the Triennale Design Café, where you can meet, talk and read while either sipping an aperitivo or sampling a tasty offering of Italian cuisine. A reason to return? On 9 April, to mark the advent of Expo 2015, the venue will not only host the opening of the VII Triennale del Design "Cucina & Ultracorpi" but also "Arts&Food. Rituali dal 1851", the only thematic Area of the World Fair to be held in the city.

>> Open Tues-Sun 10.30am-8.30pm; Thurs-Fri 10.30am-11pm. Closed on Monday. www.triennale.it. Viale E. Alemagna, 6. T: 02 724341. M1-M2 Cadorna FN. Map D3

Acquario di Milano

Housed in a splendid Liberty-style building, it is one of the largest and oldest of its kind in Italy. Established in 1906 and restructured in 2006, it hosts 36 gigantic pools filled with more than 100 species of fish, living in recreated environments ranging from the Amazon to the Mediterranean. The main focus of the pools is more towards native Italian fish, both fresh and saltwater, and plenty of exotic sea life from other continents. The aquarium hosts events that are suitable for the whole family and the library is one of the most important resources for marine biology and oceanic studies in Italy. Open Tues-Sun 9am-1pm/2pm-5.30pm. www.acquariocivicomilano.eu. Viale G. Gadio, 2. T: 02 88465750. M2 Lanza. Map E3

Ambrosiana Picture Gallery

The Ambrosiana picture gallery contains several exquisite works of art from the 15th through 17th centuries and includes "The musician", attributed to Leonardo, Raphael's cartoon for the "School of Athens" fresco and Caravaggio's "Basket of fruit". The Ambrosiana will be exhibiting Leonardo's entire "Codice Atlantico" (Atlantic Codex) until 2015, 44 or 45 pages at a time for three months at a stretch – the longest the International archival norms will allow such documents to be exposed to light. Don't miss the "Leonardo 2.0 Tour" organized by Zani Viaggi (www.zaniviaggi.it). Open Tues-Sun 9am-7pm. Admission fee €15, €10 for the adjacent Bramante Sacristy, €20 for group tickets. www.ambrosiana.it. Piazza Pio XI, 2. T: 02 806921. M1-M3 Duomo, M1 Cordusio. ### MIC – Interactive Museum of Cinema

From Méliès to Charlie Chaplin; from Totò to Marty Feldman, this Italian film library enables visitors to rediscover the magic of cinema thanks to this small, though innovative museum. A source of enjoyment, but not only, because MIC also hosts a large archive of the city's past, featuring 30 hours of films on 20th century Milan. Fri 10am-7pm, Sun 3pm-7pm. Full ticket price €5. <http://mic.cinetecamilano.it>. Viale Fulvio Testi, 121. T: 02 87242114. M5 Bicocca. Off Map

MUBA - Children's Museum

The new museum is headquartered in one of the city's most evocative, interesting spaces, the Rotonda della Besana: 1,200 square metres hosting a bar, a bookshop, an exhibition space, workshop areas and a "Happy Popping" corner where infants can be breastfed and changed. Open seven days a week. Mon 9.30am-3.30pm; Tues-Fri 9.30am-6.30pm; Sat-Sun and public holidays 10am-7pm. www.muba.it. Via E. Besana, 12. T: 02 43980402. Map G5

Museo Archeologico

Found in the cloister of an old monastery – the Monastero Maggiore di San Maurizio – dating back to the 8th century A.D., it houses Greek, Etruscan, Roman and medieval works of art, among which the famous "Parabiago Plate". The Museum also keeps pieces belonging to the Barbarian and Ghandara civilisations. Conversely, prehistoric and Egyptian art are housed in the Castello Sforzesco. Open Tues-Sun 9am-5.30pm. Full price ticket €2. www.comune.milano.it/museiemostre. Corso Magenta, 15. T: 02 88445208. M1-M2 Cadorna FN, M1 Cairoli. Map E4

Museo del Duomo

NEW Totally refurbished in 2013, the museum houses and highlights all the material not presently in use in the Duomo, linked to its history and construction. Comprising 2,000 square metres of space, twenty seven rooms and thirteen thematic areas, the museum hosts more than two hundred sculptures and over seven hundred gypsum models and then again paintings, stained glass windows, tapestries and architectural models ranging from the 15th century to the present day. Worthy of

At GAM-Galleria d'Arte Moderna, Milan presents a selection of 30 masterpieces by MEDARDO ROSSO, one of the most famous sculptors on the international art scene who lived between the 19th and 20th centuries (18 February-30 May). ## Leonardo3, "the" interactive exhibition

An interesting interactive experience to gain insight into Leonardo's genius: set against the charming backdrop of the 'Sale del Re', it hosts more than 200 interactive models of Leonardo's machines, including the Flying Machine and a working model of his incredible 'car', a digital restoration of 'The Last Supper' and a series of multi-media stations that can be used by visitors to interact with the prototypes displayed and actually 'turn the pages' of digital reproductions of the maestro's manuscripts, including the complete edition of the famous Codex Atlanticus. Until 31 October.

Visiting Lugano and the Ciani Park

Just 70 kilometres from Milan, Lugano in Switzerland will surprise you with the Ciani Park. Known as the city's 'elegant living room', Piazza della Riforma is surrounded by several old buildings including the Neoclassical Town Hall, plus a number of upscale bars, cafés and eateries. A meeting point for the residents of Lugano, it hosts many prestigious events including Estival Jazz.

THE ITINERARY

On entering via Nassa, a shopper's paradise, you will see the church of San Carlo Borromeo, built between 1640 and 1642. A little further on is the church of Saint Mary of Angels, home to Switzerland's most famous early Renaissance masterpiece, 'The Passion and Crucifixion' by Italian artist Bernardino Luini, a student of Leonardo da Vinci. Return to Piazza della Riforma along the lakefront and head back to via Nassa. On reaching Piazza Cioccaro you will be struck by the beauty of Palazzo Riva-Ghioldi, one of Lugano's oldest buildings. Walk up along via Cattedrale to the terrace located in front of the Cathedral of San Lorenzo, boasting a stunning view over the city. Quartiere Maghetti, a lively shopping center, lies just behind the Church of San Antonio, while on your right, in via Canova, you can admire the Cantonal Art Museum. From here the itinerary continues in the opposite direction towards Villa Ciani.

THE CIANI PARK

Located near the city center and fronting on Lake Ceresio, the park covers a surface area of 63,000 square meters and houses a number of interesting buildings: Villa Ciani, Palazzo dei Congressi (Congress House), the Darsena (Boat house), the Museo Cantonale di Storia Naturale (Natural History Museum) and the Biblioteca Cantonale (Canton Library).

Entertainment

SAGRA DI SAN PROVINO, AGNO
7-9 MARCH

For almost four hundred years, this popular autumnal festival has animated the town of Mendrisio. The Feast of San Martino, one of the best known in the peasant community of Ticino, originally marked the end of the planting season. On 11 November, the rural community gathered around the Romanesque church, where it was customary for them to pay their tithes and stipulate contracts. Although nowadays little or nothing remains of this rural world, the magic of the feast attracts countless visitors with stalls, merry-go-rounds, entertainment and gastronomic specialities. The air is filled with the aroma of chestnuts, mushrooms, cheeses, cold cuts and sweet treats further enhanced by stalls selling a colourful array of artisanal products. San Martino continues to be a feast of the senses, for all tastes, in keeping with the philosophy of good living for which the city of Mendrisio is renowned.

BREGGIA GORGE

An excursion of the Park of the Breggia Gorge serves as an authentic journey through time. In the region of Mendrisiotto, along the river Breggia, visitors can admire exceptional geological specimens. Thanks to natural erosion by water, between the Jurassic and Tertiary periods, a rocky outcrop, dating back 80 million years, was formed! The rocks bear witness to ancient forms of sea life: fossils, remains of underwater landslides and signs of climatic changes that took place before the appearance of mankind on Earth. Switzerland's first GeoPark, located between the communes of Balerna, Castel San Pietro, Morbio Inferiore and Morbio Superiore, bears witness to natural or manmade relics of great interest, likely to fascinate even those who have no specific knowledge of the subject. A one-of-a-kind experience thanks to the natural beauty of its landscape. The old Ghitello mill, constructed in 1606 and located behind the parking lot of the Breggia Shopping Center in Balerna, is one of the departure points. The trail leads to a small lake and continues along the river where you will encounter several buildings, including a cement factory and a brewery. After crossing the Breggia, the trail winds upwards to Val della Magna and then onwards to the hill of San Pietro, where visitors can admire the ruins of a medieval castle and the 14th century Chiesa Rossa (Red Church). Walk down the signposted trail and cross over the Punt da Canaa bridge. Along the route you will notice clearly stratified rocks. Classified as flint limestone, they are the oldest existing form of rock in the park, dating back as many as 190 million years. After crossing a deep, narrow gorge via a bridge, built in recent years, you will reach the right bank. Always surrounded by layers of stratified rock, you will find yourselves crossing several biotopes of particular interest, in order to finally return to the Ghitello mill where more recent deposits are visible (Tertiary and Quaternary). On request, the Park organizes guided tours and educational activities for schools, while in Summer, the local tourist office also offers guided tours.

GASTROTICINO

» CANTON TICINO

The "grotti" re-open

A region renowned for its gastronomic delights, Ticino pays tribute to its culinary tradition with a plethora of top restaurants that have been awarded stars, suns and toques from several of the most important gastronomic guides, thus confirming its tradition as a land of great chefs since the Middle Ages. However, it is not just a place of haute cuisine. Its 'grotti', taverns and 'canvetti' (simple, rustic venues, packed with traditional Ticino style and character) primarily serve local dishes sourced from local produce, which it would be very difficult to find elsewhere.

In fact, between the end of February and the end of March the 'grotti' (in the photo, "Pan Perdü" in Carona, a region of Lugano) re-open for the season thus giving visitors a chance to spend unforgettable moments sampling grilled meat, local cheeses and cold cuts plus other mouth watering specialities while seated at stone tables in the shade of pergolas and age-old trees. ## Welcome to Milano

InfoMilano, the tourist information and hospitality point for Expo 2015, has been set up in Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II. By Stefania Vida

InfoMilano is the city's first visiting card and the place from which everyone can get friendly, helpful, multilingual advice about everything that Milan has to offer.

A modern facility designed to welcome and accompany tourists from their arrival in the city and for the entire duration of their stay, offering a vast range of services: from cultural activities to hotel accommodation right up to the various options available to discover the city and its attractions, including museums, restaurants, historic workshops and the most exclusive shopping. The choice of setting up InfoMilano inside the Urban Center stemmed from a need to provide tourists with a highly central, visible and attractive place positioned in one of the city's best-known destinations, namely the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, a connecting point between piazza del Duomo and Teatro alla Scala. Boasting 400 square metres spread out over three floors (170 of which comprise the ground floor), the Urban Center is designed to accommodate a visitor influx estimated at around 90,000 people per day in anticipation of the Universal Exposition of 2015. The establishment of the InfoMilano space serves as an addition to the regular activities of the Urban Center which will continue to host debates, presentations and meetings open to the public. The spaces, its flooring, partitions and audio/video systems have been upgraded to guarantee improved efficiency and a more rational use of the space available, thus guaranteeing the complete autonomy of the two facilities.
