Dear friends,

in recent months, Proedi-Wheretailia has inaugurated in Milan (and also in Venice, Florence and Turin) the new Welcome Smart Network circuit. This is the digital and sustainable evolution of the traditional paper edition of Wheretailia monthly magazines, now in their 12th year. Magazines and maps of the city that continue to be distributed in the main hotels, all in line with the restrictions made necessary by the adoption of fundamental precautions against the virus. Many new products are now appearing on the market and will see further developments in the coming months. Starting with this Welcome Smart Magazine - which can be accessed via a simple QR Code that we have equipped all the hotels in our network with - to the Welcome Audio Map, and the Welcome Smart Guides.

Important research and development work was carried out in the months of the lockdown, finding solutions adapted to the new needs of incoming tourism. Everything is evolving in the direction of greater environmental sustainability, but what remains the same is the completeness of the information, the graphic quality and, of course, the punctuality.

With sympathy,

Andrea Jarach

▼ LIFE OF MATTER

EXHIBITION Milan pays homage to a great Uruguayan artist who, as soon as he arrived in Italy at the beginning of the 1970s, chose to visit this city first: we are talking about Pablo Atchugarry, who concentrated his activity on large marble sculptures - all of which he worked personally - which now, in his most recent production, are giving way to sinuous forms carved in wood. A considerable number of works, more than 40, dialogue with the striking architecture of the Sala delle Cariatidi: a place of memory in Milan that still bears the signs of the fire that devastated it during the Second World War.

>> The exhibition is accompanied by a catalogue and a precious "limited edition" of 60 copies, each containing a wooden sculpture created by the artist.

CONTEMPORARY ART After more than 10 years, Milan hosts an exhibition dedicated to Maurizio Cattelan (Padua, 1960), an artist who often draws inspiration from historical events and symbols of society, highlighting its contradictions with an ironic and corrosive language. The Pirelli HangarBicocca hosts historical and new works that give life to a site-specific project not to be missed. The theme is existential concepts such as the fragility of life, memory and the sense of individual and community loss.

PHOTOGRAPHY Masters of photography such as Albert Watson, Annie Leibovitz, Bill Brandt, Diane Arbus, Herb Ritts, Irving Penn, Pierre et Gilles, Richard Avedon and Robert Mapplethorpe, and a great performer such as the famous actor, producer and fashion designer John Malkovich: put all this in the hands and imagination of the great American advertising photographer Sandro Miller and the result is a masterpiece of fine art photography. In 61 shots, Miller brings out the chameleon-like qualities and mimetic ability of his friend Malkovich as he interprets the subjects of famous shots, transforming himself from time to time into Marilyn Monroe, Salvador Dalí, Mick Jagger, Muhammad Ali, Meryl Streep, John Lennon and Yoko Ono, Andy Warhol, Albert Einstein, Ernest Hemingway and many other characters.

The great creative effort of Disney's artists has brought these stories to the cinema using different artistic tools, from hand-drawing to digital animation, which has made it possible to revitalise the oldest fairy tales. The exhibition tells the "behind the scenes" story of these masterpieces, taking the visitor into the heart of artistic processes that last for years.

Not to be missed is the experimental part of the exhibition that allows the visitor to become a storyteller himself, constructing his own tale that will be compiled into a small booklet to take home.

GALLERIE D'ITALIA, UNTIL 27 MARCH 2022
DREAMING OF ITALY

EXHIBITION Paintings, sculptures and objets d'art from important national and foreign collections are displayed in an evocative dialogue, presenting the image of an Italy loved and dreamed of by the whole of Europe. Between Neoclassicism and Romanticism, Italian and foreign artists explored places and monuments, met and portrayed people, restoring to us in their works the exceptional nature of an unrepeatable experience.

WHAT'S THE GRAND TOUR?

A journey of education and training in Italy, which, mainly between the 18th and 19th centuries, involved European elites, church men, literate, musicians and artists from Europe, Russia, and then America. All fascinated by the variety and beauty of Italy, rich in history, monuments and works of art, as today, a wonderful widespread museum.

A point of reference for generations of artists, Gnoli is difficult to classify in a current: a painter but also a set designer, poster artist and designer, he created a narrative art with clearly recognisable features.

MUSEO DEL NOVECENTO | GALLERIA DEL FUTURISMO
NEW STORIES OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

MODERN ART Ten years after the opening of the Museo del Novecento, the redevelopment process has been completed in stages: from February 2019 with the new rooms in the wing of the Palazzo Reale dedicated to art from the late 1950s to the early 1980s, to March 2021 with the new spaces on the fourth and fifth floors of the museum dedicated to the period between the 1920s and 1950s. In recent weeks the brand new "Galleria del Futurismo" was inaugurated with an exhibition of Futurist Manifestos and important works by masters of the period, including Boccioni, Carrà, Balla, Severini and Sant'Elia. But that's not all: in 2022 there will be a further major expansion of the collections of early 20th century Italian art, culminating in the following years with the ambitious extension of the Museum in the second Torre dell'Arengario, which will house workshops, an auditorium and multifunctional spaces.

WELCOME | AROUND THE CORNER

LAKESIDE DESTINATIONS

Lying North of Milan, each year the lakes of Lombardy attract millions of visitors thanks to their mild climate, breathtaking scenery, natural beauties and historic and artistic treasures.

Isola Bella (Lake Maggiore)

The shores of Lake Maggiore wash up on the banks of Piedmont and Lombardy in Italy, while its more austere northern basin lies in the mountainous region of Switzerland. The most famous island, lying just off Stresa – a small, elegant town, rich in neoclassic and liberty buildings and a shopping mecca boasting a myriad of boutiques – is Isola Bella, anchored like a fantastic ship-garden and dominated by the majestic Palazzo Borromeo, built in the 17th century and rich in art treasures, including the private collection of Milan's most famous aristocratic family. The Borromeo clan also owned Rocca di Angera, an imposing fortress (12th-17th century) boasting opulent ambiances, of which the most famous is the Sala di Giustizia. The "Rocca" also has a medieval garden (www.isoleborromeo.it).

Lake Como is the romantic and worldly older sister of Maggiore and Garda and takes its name from the city of Como. "Must-visit" sights include the Gothic Duomo, the Romanic basilicas of San Fedele and Sant'Abbondio and the neoclassic Villa Olmo. Nestling on the banks of Lake Como in Lenno and currently owned by FAI – a private non-profit trust – Villa del Balbianello is a magnificent example of a perfectly preserved 18th century dwelling. Surrounded by a stunning, terraced panoramic garden, with a breathtaking view of the lake, the Villa is one of the area's most romantic retreats. Standing on the tip of a promontory overlooking the waters of the lake, the Villa was chosen by director George

Lucas as one of the evocative settings for the famous "Star Wars" series. Lying just a stone's throw northwest of Como is Cernobbio, a small fashionable resort frequented by the wealthy of Europe because of its deluxe hotel Villa d'Este and Villa Erba where director Luchino Visconti spent his childhood (www.villaerba.it). Continuing North, we find Isola Comacina a jewel of art and nature, rich in Mediterranean vegetation and one of the most important archaeological sites of the dark ages in Northern Italy (www.isolacomacina.it). In nearby Tremezzo, don't miss a visit to the Baroque-style Villa Carlotta, featuring an Italian garden and sculptures by Canova. At the junction of the southern arm of the lake lies Bellagio, also referred to as the pearl of Como, set in a strategic position to soak up the panorama.

Don't miss a visit to the other lakes that are also easily accessible from Milan. These include Lake Orta, with the old Island of San Giulio, dominated by the Romanesque basilica, the Palazzo Vescovile and the monastery (by car from Milan: take the A26 autostrada and exit at either Borgomanero or Arona). Situated just moments from the lake, we find the UNESCO world heritage site of Sacro Monte di Varallo (16th century) with its magnificent basilica and reconstruction of the life of Christ in 45 chapels.

SANTA CATERINA DEL SASSO A hermitage perched on a rocky overhang

According to tradition, the hermitage of Santa Caterina del Sasso (75 km from Milan) was founded in the 12th century by Alberto Besozzi, a rich local merchant who, after having survived a heavy storm while crossing Lake Maggiore, decided to give up his worldly goods and live the life of a hermit. The particular appeal of this hermitage (which contains important frescoes) is mostly due to its astounding location, perched on a rocky overhang with a sheer drop down to the Lake.

Monterosa Ski Area

Just over a two-hour drive from the city, Lombardy, Piedmont or the Aosta Valley offer an array of ski resorts lying at the foot of the Alps. Here is a pick of the best winter sports destinations, ideal for downhill skiing enthusiasts but also for those who enjoy snowboarding, telemark and freeride skiing.

SNOW THRILLS IN LOMBARDY

There are roughly 25 ski destinations in Lombardy, including ski areas and smaller resorts, boasting an overall offer of more than 700 kilometres of downhill runs. Among the most popular destinations, a hot favourite with the Milanese is the Alta Valtellina which offers enthusiasts an opportunity to enjoy a variety of winter sports at Livigno, Bormio, Aprica and Santa Caterina Valfurva.
www.altavaltellina.com

THE 'WHITE GALAXY' OF PIEDMONT

Long associated with snow and ice sports, this region, which hosted the 2006 Winter Olympics, offers a vast range of options for downhill ski enthusiasts: 53 ski resorts, more than 1,300 km of runs and over 300 drag and chair lifts. The international ski area of the Via Lattea (the Milky Way), located between Italy and France, boasts as many as 212 pistes for all tastes, roughly seventy drag and chair lifts and the option of purchasing a single skipass for all the valleys between Sestriere, Sauze d'Oulx, Sansicario, Cesana, Pragelato, Claviere and Montgenèvre.

www.vialattea.it

THE AOSTA VALLEY, A SNOW PARADISE

Spectacular scenery framed by a chain of mountains that extends over a stretch of 4,000 metres, 45 lifts and 95 pistes suitable for skiers of all levels, acres of untracked powder and just one skipass for the d'Ayas, Gressoney and Valsesia valleys: these are the highlights of the Monterosa Ski area which offers an evocative crossing on skis. The trail starts from Champoluc, crosses through the Gressoney-La Trinité area and ends in Alagna.
www.monterosa-ski.com

On the Italian side of the Mont Blanc chain, Cormayeur, also known as the rooftop of Europe, is a top choice for all skiers.

www.cormayeurmontblanc.it

You start at an altitude of 1,500 metres until you reach the Plateau Rosa ski area located at an altitude of 3,500 metres. Boasting the best snow record in Europe and trails stretching for 350 km, you can ski day-long without ever crossing the same piste: all of this and more is Breuil-Cervinia Valtournenche Zermatt, one of the most extensive ski areas in the Alps, boasting kilometer after kilometer of sweeping pistes that stretch along the three valleys bordering Italy and Switzerland.

www.cervinia.it

Lastly, particularly worthy of note is the picturesque town of Chamois. The highest town in the Aosta Valley, it can only be reached via cablecar. This small, snow-covered hamlet (one of the several communities in Italy that cannot be accessed by car) offers an old-world atmosphere and trails suitable for skiers of all levels.

THE LEGENDARY MONTENAPOLEONE

Although high-end purchases can be made in any part of the city, several urban areas are also entirely given over to the business of luxury shopping. First and foremost, the Quadrilatero della Moda or Golden Quad, situated just east of the Piazza della Scala and a short distance on foot from the Duomo. This is where all the big designer names and most luxurious stores in the world cluster. The Quadrilatero set amidst four of Milan's most expensive and prestigious shopping streets, namely via Montenapoleone, via Manzoni, via della Spiga and corso Venezia. It is here that the most important fashion designers offer their luxurious creations. It's an open-air shopping mall, where haute couture takes centre stage and with its cornucopia of eye-catching window displays it make the eyes of even the most hardened fashionistas sparkle. Here, in the space of just a few hundred metres, you'll find everything your heart desires, including boutiques, museums, restaurants and luxury hotels. If fashion is your thing and you're interested in learning more about its history, then a visit to Palazzo Morando (www.costumemodaimmagine.mi.it), the headquarters of the museum of costumes, fashion and image, is an absolute must. Discover the world of fashion and glamour in this unique, magical pedestrian precinct (also featuring a number of small side streets dotted with glam boutiques). Well worth exploring from top to bottom.

Trendy venues can be found starting from Piazza Duomo and corso Vittorio Emanuele II which leads to piazza San Babila, and the nearby via Torino, which stretches as far as porta Ticinese (from here you can access the Navigli and the recently revamped Darsena). These areas boast loads and loads of shops and it's easy to get lost among the myriad offers of ever-changing, ready-to-wear fashion.

Pisa Diamanti

Milanese high jewellery

Pisa Orologeria is a reference point for haute horlogerie in Italy and has extended its range with the Pisa Diamanti high jewelry brand. From the desire of Maristella and Chiara Pisa to express their values and vision through a line of jewellery, this collection adds a touch of femininity to the universe of Pisa Orologeria.

Sobriety, elegance, attention to detail and the search for quality are the leitmotif of the Milanese brand, which expresses itself in the jewels with essential lines, enhanced by precious materials such as gemstones. Tennis, solitaires, earrings and pendant light points are the declinations of a classic and timeless aesthetic canon, to which is added the quirk of a watch hand-shaped griffe, embellished with a diamond setting. In addition to the proposals for women, there are now contemporary and decidedly recognisable lines for men, with precious cufflinks and chevalier rings.

PISA IN LOVE - The "LoveinMilan" ring tells the story of a love in Milan between two people who embrace and decide to walk together towards the future. The two gems that stand out from the setting symbolise an embrace between the two lovers, in which "she" is represented by the teardrop-shaped brilliant and "he" by the oval-cut one. www.pisaorologeria.com/it/product_circle/love-in-milan/

Trendy Milanese, who could never mingle in big crowds, shop in the Ticinense area and surrounding neighbourhoods. Here, amongst the columns of San Lorenzo and the Navigli, you'll find numerous trendy boutiques, niche labels and small vintage shops where, if you know how to look, it's still possible to bag a bargain and find showrooms that sell to the public. Together with Brera, the Navigli is one of the most picturesque districts in old Milan. The Navigli and the Darsena are two favourites among the locals, who love to enjoy the traditional aperitivo here, but are also a must-visit for visitors who will find themselves seduced by the artistic atmosphere of its numerous painters' studios. If you're interested in discovering the city from a different perspective, treat yourself to a picturesque cruise on the Navigli (www.milancanalcruises.it).

CORSO BUENOS AIRES: THE LONGEST SHOPPING STREET IN EUROPE

Since opening in 1782, Corso Buenos Aires has been one of the most important commercial thoroughfares in Milan where an increasing number of 'maxi boutiques' have taken up residence. A real shoppers' paradise, it offers one and a half kilometre of window displays, with shops for all tastes and all budgets: sophisticated boutiques, alternated with trendy stores offering all types of merchandise and numerous bars for a quick snack. Its sidestreets abound in restaurants, many of which are ethnic. A Saturday afternoon favourite with Milanese shoppers of all ages.

BRERA: THE ARTISTIC HEART OF THE CITY

WINDOW

Nowadays this is one of the liveliest areas of the city, still maintaining a characteristic atmosphere that summons its past, when the district was inhabited by artists and bohemians. Its narrow cobble streets host a number of interesting chic antique shops, galleries, cafés, restaurants and bars. If this is where you're headed, make sure to wear 'flatties', these cobble streets were not originally designed for heels! The area is expanding rapidly and its neighbouring streets, including Corso Garibaldi and Corso Como, are home to several of the trendiest addresses in the city. In fact, as you walk through this historic district, you will be struck by the almost surreal atmosphere, and a treasure trove of small artists' workshops, quaint shops selling canvases and paints and antique shops of this area. Highlights include the masterpieces at the Pinacoteca, the historic Biblioteca Nazionale Braidense, the Astronomical Museum, the oldest institute of scientific research in the city, and the Botanical Gardens, an evocative green oasis in the heart of the city. Brera never ceases to amaze and now, in addition to its picturesque artists' workshops, countless boutiques showcasing rare essences are springing up, transforming Brera into a 'district of Artistic Perfumery'.

Milan's historic centre is contained within a relatively small area which is now mostly closed to traffic, meaning that it's easy to explore on foot. There's no need to choose between planning a 'cultural' itinerary or a 'shopping' itinerary because you can combine the two and get the most out of both. In addition to being packed with several of Milan's most famous attractions, this area is home to myriad shops, including big-name fashion brands, historic 'botteghe' and some of the city's most sought-after cafés, bars and eateries. In the space of just a few kilometers you'll find the Duomo, the Galleria, Teatro alla Scala, the Castle, the ancient Basilica di Sant'Ambrogio, as well as sporadic traces of 'Roman Milan', which was the first settlement and the predecessor of present-day Milan. In the immediate vicinity, overlooking the various sides of the large square surrounding it, you'll find several of the world's most exclusive addresses. For the ultimate one-stop shopping experience look no further than the Rinascente flagship store (under the arcades): an amazing array of fashion items under just one roof! By walking just a few steps from the Cathedral, in a north-westerly direction, you'll reach the Castello Sforzesco, another of the city's most symbolic monuments. The castle was the residence of the ruling families in Milan between the Middle Ages and the Renaissance. Today, it hosts several museums and one of the city's best-loved green spaces.

THE GALLERIA: A FASHION VICTIM'S PARADISE

WINDOW

Another reference point for upmarket shopping is the picturesque, iconic and simply spectacular Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, home to the fashion giants and several high-class restaurants: a unique destination whose upper and lower spaces are well worth a visit. After honoring the Milanese tradition that requires firmly grinding the heel of your shoe into a bull depicted on the mosaic floor of the Galleria, which is said to bring luck, you can indulge yourself by purchasing something from one of the fabulous boutiques lining the Galleria.

» EDITOR'S TIP | A GLANCE TO THE HISTORY
A virtual masterpiece of eclectic architecture, it was designed by Giuseppe Mengoni between 1865 and 1867 to celebrate the birth of the Kingdom of Italy. By that time, the Galleria represented the greatest application of iron and glass-based technology to a civilian building. The majesty of its mosaics and the decorations of the buildings – now converted into shops, restaurants and offices – is naturally enhanced by the arching glass and cast iron roof (topped with a central glass dome standing at a height of 50 meters) which, together with its iron structure, was originally manufactured in France.

CORSO VERCELLI: A CHIC DISTRICT

WINDOW

Corso Vercelli is a 'niche' shopping street which is less busy and easier to shop in than the city centre. Overflowed with small shops just waiting to be discovered, the street is embraced by a distinctive atmosphere that is further enhanced by the passage of historic trams giving this street an almost retrò flavour. This is one of Milan's most upmarket districts: a residential area, still inhabited by Milan's upper crust, it epitomizes the traditional soul of the city and is distinguished by its air of sophistication, elegance and stunning residential architecture. Here you will come across several trendy shops for all tastes, offering clothing, footwear, home décor and eateries. What's more the area is located just a stone's throw from one of Milan's most important attractions: the Last Supper, Leonardo da Vinci's masterpiece admired each year by millions of visitors, the Parco Sempione, and the Triennale di Milano are also within easy walking distance, and, if you're feeling energetic, you can easily push onwards until you reach the Castello Sforzesco.

The new jewellery boutique Gioielleria Ghezzi has opened last month in Via Morone 8, introducing itself to the public as "Private Jewels", a nickname earned thanks to Elia Ghezzi's long experience as director of traditional brands of the Milanese jewellery field. It is an important sign of recovery for the whole luxury industry after the pandemic. Our magazine wishes the best to this new business in the city and reminds its readers that in Via Morone, a street little more than 100 meters long, are gathered some of the best Milanese venues: from Alessandro Manzoni's house to Antica Barberia Colla, from Ristorante Boeucc (dating back to 1696!) to the archives of Banca Intesa in which two centuries of Milanese history are stored. Recently installed in Piazza Belgioioso, connected to Via Manzoni and its 100 displayed brands through Via Morone, is also the first female statue of the city: that of Cristina Trivulzio di Belgioioso, a patron of the XIX century.

Tax Free Refund Guide

According to the Italian law, non-EU resident travellers may be granted VAT relief/refund for goods intended for personal or family use purchased in Italy. This relief is surely an advantage for the foreign travellers: in fact, it allows to save from a minimum of 4% up to a maximum of 22% of the selling price of the goods purchased. Here is a short guide according to the Italian legislation to discover the common system of value added tax exclusively for non-EU resident travellers.

- VAT (in Italian: IVA) is a value added tax on goods and services, and is part of the European Union's value added tax system.
- In some cases, travellers may be granted a VAT refund. This refund does not cover the services supplied by hotels, restaurants, taxis or agencies.
- You may be eligible for a VAT refund provided that:
 - you are a non-EU resident;
 - the goods purchased are intended for personal or family use only and are carried in your luggage;
 - the overall value of the goods purchased exceeds 154,94 Euro (VAT included);
 - the purchase is certified by an invoice. This invoice should include a description of the goods purchased, your personal information as well as the details of your passport or any other equivalent document;

- the goods shall leave the EU territory by the third month following the date of issue of the invoice, as proved by the "customs stamp";
- from 1 September 2018, tax free invoices in Italy must be electronically transmitted by the national seller to OTELO information system (Online Tax Refund at Exit: Light Lane Optimization) and their validation is digitally carried out.
- after the digital "customs stamp" is obtained, OTELO will send a message to the retailer that all the requirements are met and, as a consequence, the retailer will reimburse the amount due or will settle the tax relief.
- the invoice is returned to the Italian retailer within four months after the purchase was made. If the invoice is stamped by other EU countries, it needs to be brought to the shop retailer by the fourth month following that of the purchase.
- The goods purchased and the relevant invoice must be shown at the customs exit point when leaving EU territory (if you intend to pack the purchased items into your check-in luggage, you must go to Customs BEFORE checking in).
- After leaving EU territory, the traveller must return the original invoice, regularly endorsed by the customs office, to the Italian retailer. Said invoice must be returned within four months from the date when the - document was issued.

- The refund can be made directly by the Italian retailer (however, make sure that the shop you've chosen displays a "Tax Free Shopping" or "Euro Tax Free" sign in its window).
- Several Tax-Free companies are able to offer immediate VAT cash refunds when the goods leave either Italian or EU territory (thus exonerating the passenger from having to return the invoice to the retailer). However, this procedure only applies at major international airports or main border crossings. Most major department stores have Tax Free Refund offices.
- The services provided by Tax-Free companies imply the payment of a small administrative sum which is directly deducted from the amount of VAT refunded to the traveller.
- In the event of a traveller not receiving a VAT refund within a reasonable period of time, he or she should re-contact the Italian retailer or one of the aforementioned companies.
- However, please note, VAT cannot be refunded directly by customs offices.

A new opening the heart of Porta Nuova, not far from the skyscrapers of future-oriented Milan. An elegant Italian-style bistro where tradition looks to the future.

Mammara, a typical expression of Mediterranean cuisine, is a new bistro in Milan. Christian Busca, a Piedmontese-born but Sicilian-adopted Chef with his future-inspired cooking, is always on the lookout for quality ingredients and creative ideas. Simple but refined dishes, always created with just three ingredients: "Tuna, Panelle and Bagna Caoda", "Plin Calamari and Dried Tomatoes", "Red Prawn, Foie Gras and Figs" are some of the delicacies that can be enjoyed in a warm and welcoming environment with a contemporary design that however still reminds of ancient Sicilian homes. The wine list is also impressive, as is the cocktail menu, curated by bar manager Andrea Boscolo. Dinner with friends at the central counter (15 seats available) is a truly unmissable experience among friends: here the Chef and his brigade interact directly with customers, by offering them impromptu gourmet tastings.

Milanese tasting

Milan offers a cuisine featuring a number of truly unusual flavours. Here is a brief guide to make sure that you don't miss out on several of the city's best and most typical recipes.

RISOTTO ALLO ZAFFERANO

This is one of the few dishes boasting a specific "birth date". In fact, legend has it that, on 8 September 1574, master glassmaker Valerio di Fiandra was presented with a dish of saffron-coloured rice at his daughter's wedding feast after which time it became an iconic dish of Milanese cuisine. Master Chef Gualtiero Marchesi has transformed this delicacy into a real work of art, with the addition of a square of edible gold leaf! We also suggest trying its crunchier version: so-called "riso al salto". Try the creative dishes signed by Carlo Cracco at his restaurant in Galleria Vittorio Emanuele (www.ristorantecracco.it)

COTOLETTA ALLA MILANESE

Mentioned for the first time in 1500 at the court of the Sforza, its "invention" was a source of contention with the Viennese who laid claim to its origin. According to the traditional recipe, the veal slices used should be at least as thick as a finger, coated in egg and bread crumbs and deep fried in butter. One of the best places to eat breaded veal cutlets in Milan is at "Da Giannino" (www.gianninoristorante.it) or at the "Al Garghet" restaurant (www.algarghet.it).

TRIPE (OR BUSECCA)

A hearty winter dish that will keep the cold out, its main ingredient is the stomach lining of sheep or cows. It was originally served to celebrate special occasions in the peasant world. Upgrades include the addition of oysters and caviar and can be sampled at Michelin-starred osteria, "Al Pont de Ferr" at the Navigli district (pontdeferr.it).

CASSOEULA

According to the history books, composer and conductor Arturo Toscanini was mad about this dish made from pork (sausages, pork rinds and spare ribs) and cabbage. For a taste of old-world Milan, suggest you try it at "Antica Trattoria della Pesa" in Via Pasubio (www.anticatrattoriadellapesa.com).

MONDEGHILI

Small meat balls fried in butter and oil and a signature dish of renowned chef Bruno Barbieri who has made them an art form. You can taste the traditional Milanese meat balls at "Al Matarel" (www.almatarel.it).

PANETTONE

Boasting 500 years of tradition, panettone is a type of large, sweet bread, leavened very slowly and enriched with raisins and candied fruit. Amidst history and legend, the theories as to the origins of panettone vary widely. One of the most romantic is the story linking its invention to Ugo, a young falconer employed by Prince Ludovico il Moro. Ugo yearned to conquer the heart of the daughter of a poor baker named Toni. To win her over, the nobleman disguised himself as a baker and invented a rich bread in which he added to the flour and yeast, butter, eggs, dried raisins and candied lemon and orange peel. The fame of the bread spread far and wide and became known as "Pan del Toni" (Toni's bread). According to history, the tradition of panettone is documented by a manuscript conserved at the Biblioteca Ambrosiana dating back to the 15th century. Already at that time, on the night of 24 December, it was customary for the pater familias to place a huge log in the fireplace and to slice the large loaf of bread which he then distributed among those present.

From a gastronomic point of view, the distinguishing feature of panettone is that it is leavened two or three times. Its golden colour derives from the skilful combination of butter and egg yolks, while its overall beauty is completed by the orange, green and brown notes resulting from the addition of candied fruit and raisins. The gourmet trick is to warm it for a few minutes in front of an open oven or on top of a radiator before serving it.

» Dulcis in fundo, are the city's famous desserts, pastries and confectionery. In addition to world famed Italian gelato, an absolute "must" in summer, year-round you can also try Milan's traditional Tiramisù (although the main ingredient of the classic recipe includes coffee, there are also other variations on the theme) and Profiteroles, mouth watering chocolate coated puffs filled with custard. Finally, there are also a number of other typical delicacies that are prepared during the holiday season including Colomba (at Easter) and Chiacchiere and Frittelle (at Carnival) and panettone (at Christmas).

» INSIDER TIPS

- Breakfast time in Italy can be from 6am to 11am, depending on what time you got up, and it usually includes a cappuccino, which is a morning drink, and "cornetto" or other sweet pastries.
- Lunchtime usually ranges from midday to 2pm (that is why many of the shops of the shops close in these hours), dinnertime from 8pm to 10pm.
- Between 6pm and 9pm it's aperitivo time, an Italian tradition started in Milan. If you're feeling hungry between 3pm and 5pm then it's time for you to have a "merenda", a quick snack between the two main meals. Should you be hungry at late night, you can check several list of late-night restaurants in Milan.
- Never forget to check the restaurant's weekly closing day, which – most of the time – will be Monday.
- Reservations for most restaurants are strongly advised.
- In Italy, service is included in the price meaning that although tipping is not compulsory but it is obviously appreciated as a sign of satisfaction.
- Some menus include the word "coperto", a small surcharge corresponding to the cost of the service and bread (usually between 1 and 3 euros per person).
- If you want tap water, you should specify it to the waiting staff of the restaurant or bar, asking for a glass of "acqua di rubinetto".
- Although no dress code exists in Italy, semiformal clothing is usually considered de rigueur at restaurants.
- All restaurants and bars are non-smoking unless a separate smokers' area is specifically offered.

Hot air balloon in the skies of Lombardy

Fly over nature in the Ticino valley, blown by the wind: discover an excursion that takes you free-flying in the skies around Milan, to get to know an area rich in beauty and history.

Taking a trip in a hot air balloon is one of the experiences you should have at least once in your life, for the thrill of seeing the view from above, feeling as light as air and experiencing an exclusive, tailor-made excursion. A hot air balloon ride in Lombardy offers all this, with an ecological vehicle par excellence (which has no engine and is carried along by the wind), where each free flight becomes unique, as the landing site is always different.

Aeronord Aerostati, a leading company in Italy for aerostatic services, has developed in collaboration with the Fondazione Patrimonio Ca' Granda a new hot air balloon flight itinerary just a short distance from the centre of Milan, to discover the nature of the Ticino Park and the Ca' Granda Oasis from an exceptional perspective! An area waiting to be discovered, immersed in nature rich in beauty and history with meadows and woods, canals and farmsteads, churches and abbeys. This is the proposal: a flight (maximum capacity 4 people) lasting about two and a half hours, leaving early in the morning to seek out the cooler hours that help the flight. The experience includes the initial briefing, the inflation of the hot air balloon, the actual flight, the landing and a breakfast in a farmhouse with typical local products. It is also possible to combine this with a transfer service from the hotel to the place of departure.

Milan is the home of the Aperitivo

Aperitivo and Happy Hour in the city are most definitely a ritual which no Milanese is prepared to forego

The Aperitivo, the beloved Milanese tradition of pre-dinner drinks, is accompanied by complimentary "stuzzichini" and an all-you-can-eat buffet. Spreads range from traditional olives, nuts, cheeses and potato chips to awesome pasta dishes, "bruschetta", cold cuts, crudités, raw fish and fruit salads. Generally, lasting for 3 hours from 6 to 9pm (though most people rarely get there until 7pm), the aperitivo scene has become an evening meeting for people of all ages. Cocktails – alcoholic or not – are expertly mixed and a Negroni, Negroni sbagliato (a delicious mix of prosecco, red vermouth and Aperol instead of gin) or a Spritz are Milanese specialties. Favourite beverages consumed during this beloved tradition in Milan include also the city's renowned Martini, Prosecco or Campari, accompanied by an all-you-can-eat buffet.

TYPES OF VENUES

A myriad of venues, ranging from the smallest bars to larger, uberchic locations situated in the heart of the city, organize this event. There are 3 types of venues: design bars, traditional bars (the places that have written Milan's history) and, the latest trend, all luxury hotel bars.

WHERE TO GO

There are endless aperitivo options. Several of the most famous are situated in Piazza Sempione or Corso Como and offer a stretch of great bars with a glam vibe where, if you're lucky, you might run into a famous super-model or footballer. Others also worth note, featuring a more laid-back atmosphere, can be found in Brera or the Navigli area. A sign of a popular place are crowds of young people spilling out onto the streets with a drink in one hand and a plate in the other. Unlike other countries, the Milanese are quite happy to stop at one drink, so things rarely get out of hand. A fabulous idea to relax at the end of a long day and the perfect opportunity to enjoy a fabulous cocktail paired with good food at affordable prices.

AFTER THE APERITIVO...

In fact, during aperitivo hour, people start thinking about where to go for dinner, in a city boasting a highly eclectic offer. There are three main areas dedicated to nighttime entertainment featuring a concentration of venues:
 • Navigli District: an area characterized by places offering live music, patronized by artists, models, musicians and university students. Must-try options are its boat bars and the area's old osterie where you can sample an array of wines, cold cuts and typical cheeses.

 • Brera District: an historic area boasting a warren of characteristic venues offering live music and, believe it or not, fortunetellers who are happy to predict your future for a small fee...
 • Garibaldi district & Corso Como: this is Milan's most fashionable area by night, where not only will you find a bevy of pizzerie, restaurants, pubs and discotheques, but also possibly chance upon showbiz celebs and sports heroes.

INSIDER TIPS

Drink prices range from about 7-10 euros although several of the more luxe, upmarket places might ask as much as 15 euros. Not only will you be paying for a more lavish buffet but it will probably also serve as your ticket to VIP and celeb watching. Milan is the capital of cocktail hour snacking and practically ever bar and club in the city offers some kind of happy hour, competing to offer the most alluring pre-dinner scene in town.
