Milan | January 2022

Dear friends,

in recent months, Proedi-Whereltalia has inaugurated in Milan, Venice, Florence and Turin the new Welcome Smart Network circuit. This is the digital and sustainable evolution of the traditional paper edition of Whereltalia monthly magazines, now in their 13th year. Magazines and maps of the city that continue to be distributed in the main hotels, all in line with the restrictions made necessary by the adoption of fundamental precautions against the Coronavirus.

Many new products are now appearing on the market and will see further developments in the coming months. Starting with this Welcome Smart Magazine - which can be accessed via a simple QR Code in all the hotels of our network - to the Welcome Audio Map, and the Welcome Smart Guides.

Last year, important research and development work was carried out finding solutions adapted to the new needs of incoming tourism. Everything is evolving in the direction of greater environmental sustainability, but what remains the same is the completeness of the information, the graphic quality and, of course, the punctuality.

With sympathy,

Andrea Jarach

- Porta Nuova is a sprawling area, the result of a project of urban and architectural redevelopment involving the area that leads from the Porta Garibaldi railway station to Piazza della Repubblica, up to Palazzo Lombardia.
- In 2005, an architectural project curated by American real estate developer Hines focused on transforming the area into a technological hub comprising more than twenty buildings including skyscrapers, offices, cultural centres and urban residences.
- Several of Milan and Italy's highest and most innovative skyscrapers, including the futuristic CityLife complex (visible in the background), are located in the Porta Nuova district. Among these, the Torre UniCredit –housed in the vibrant Piazza Gae Aulenti -, the Torre Solaria – the highest residential skyscraper in Italy-, the Torre Diamante and the green complex of the Bosco Verticale featuring hanging gardens designed by Stefano Boeri.
- The large public park in the middle of the neighbourhood, known as the BAM Biblioteca degli Alberi, extending over an area of 90,000 sq.m., was designed to provide a vast number of interconnecting pedestrian paths and to create a real botanical library. The park features over 450 trees and 90,000 different plant species, plus recreational areas, themed circular forests, teaching paths and pedestrian and bike paths. In summer, the park is also used to host outdoor concerts and events.

THE DUOMO'S TERRACES

OVERLOOKING THE CITY

≡ INDEX

WELCOME | PANORAMA

— After crossing the threshold of its 18th century façade in Candoglia marble, the interior of the Cathedral is revealed in all its majesty. One of the most important Gothic buildings in the world, the church, constructed over a period of 450 years (begun 1386), is the symbol of Milan. Built in the shape of a Latin cross, the cathedral is divided by soaring pillars into five naves, the largest of which measures 45 metres in height.

— The interior boasts an apse with a large rose window, stained glass windows decorated with episodes from the Bible, chapels and high marble columns with capitals featuring statues of saints.

— To experience the Duomo at its most majestic you must ascend to the roof (either by elevator or by steps) where you will be surrounded by an outburst of pinnacles, turrets and marble statuary and, naturally, the city's famed golden "Madonnina". Here you can wander among 135 spires and 3,400 statues.

— Guided tours for small groups help visitors learn about the secrets behind the Duomo's construction. The tour starts from the back of the choir which leads to the Crypt housing the tomb of San Carlo Borromeo, and then moves on to the Archaeological Area where you'll find the remains of the Battistero di San Giovanni alle Fonti, dating back to 397 A.D. This is where Sant'Ambrogio christened St. Augustine. Next is the old Basilica of Santa Tecla (4th century).

— Before accessing the Cathedral and its treasures, visit the nearby Museo del Duomo, located inside Palazzo Reale. The museum houses more than 150 masterpieces from the 15th century to the present time, including statues, architectural models, plaster casts, terracottas and paintings.

EXHIBITION More than 50 years after his death, the Fondazione Prada is dedicating a major retrospective to the Roman artist Domenico Gnoli, with over 100 works and just as many drawings on display at the Podium. A point of reference for generations of artists, Gnoli is difficult to classify in a current: a painter but also a set designer, poster artist and designer, he created a narrative art with clearly recognisable features.

These white and blue aquatic flowers have lent themselves to pictorial representations since antiquity and have a strong symbolic meaning: they have their roots in the bottom of ponds but out of the water they express all their beauty with their corollas on the surface of the water and become an icon of absolute purity. Although born from the mud, they are not contaminated by the evil of the world.

The great creative effort of Disney's artists has brought these stories to the cinema using different artistic tools, from hand-drawing to digital animation, which has made it possible to revitalise the oldest fairy tales. The exhibition tells the "behind the scenes" story of these masterpieces, taking the visitor into the heart of artistic processes that last for years.

ARTURO BRACHETTI, THE FUNAMBOLIC ARTIST OF TRANSFORMISM

SHOW The new season of SOLO the Legend of quick change, the great one-man show of the world's greatest transformer Arturo Brachetti, is entirely dedicated to Italy, and he has chosen to celebrate his return to theatres with a major Italian tour, the last before moving abroad. More than 60 new characters, many created especially for this show, will appear in front of the audience in a fast-paced and engaging rhythm. But that's not all: Brachetti also proposes a journey through his artistic history, between traditional scenography and videomapping, from the great classics such as Chinese shadows, mime and chapeaugraphie, and surprising novelties such as poetic sand painting and the magnetic laser beam. Ninety minutes of entertainment in which to immerse oneself between characters from famous television series, artists such as Magritte and the great icons of pop music, passing through fairers and science fiction adventures.

EXHIBITION Installations, sculptures, drawings, paintings, video installations and photographs by 34 international artists are exhibited for the first time in Italy, to narrate the multiplicity of the representation of the human being: from the body as protagonist with body art to the perfect, modified, reproduced and essentially fake body. Many artists, museums, foundations, archives, private galleries and collectors have collaborated in Italy and abroad in the "construction" of this exhibition, which for the first time reconsiders the concept of humanity after the shocking period caused by Covid19.

PALAZZO REALE, UNTIL 30 JANUARY LIFE OF MATTER

EXHIBITION Milan pays homage to a great Uruguayan artist who, as soon as he arrived in Italy at the beginning of the 1970s, chose to visit this city first: we are talking about Pablo Atchugarry, who concentrated his activity on large marble sculptures - all of which he worked personally - which now, in his most recent production, are giving way to sinuous forms carved in wood. A considerable number of works, more than 40, dialogue with the striking architecture of the Sala delle Cariatidi: a place of memory in Milan that still bears the signs of the fire that devastated it during the Second World War.

>> The exhibition is accompanied by a catalogue and a precious "limited edition" of 60 copies, each containing a wooden sculpture created by the artist.

THE ITALIAN STYLE BETWEEN THE TWO WARS

EXHIBITION “Realistic precision of contours, solidity of matter resting firmly on the ground; and all around like an atmosphere of magic...” This is how, in 1928, the Italian writer Massimo Bontempelli summed up the character of a declination of Italian art between the two world wars that took the name of Magic Realism. Thirty years after the last exhibition on the subject in Milan, this show presents some masterpieces of Italian art between 1920 and 1935, the work of artists such as Casorati, Carrà, Sironi and Martini, to name but a few.

THE THOUSAND FACES OF MALKOVICH ACCORDING TO MILLER

PHOTOGRAPHY Masters of photography such as Albert Watson, Annie Leibovitz, Bill Brandt, Diane Arbus, Herb Ritts, Irving Penn, Pierre et Gilles, Richard Avedon and Robert Mapplethorpe, and a great performer such as the famous actor, producer and fashion designer John Malkovich: put all this in the hands and imagination of the great American advertising photographer Sandro Miller and the result is a masterpiece of fine art photography. In 61 shots, Miller brings out the chameleon-like qualities and mimetic ability of his friend Malkovich as he interprets the subjects of famous shots, transforming himself from time to time into Marilyn Monroe, Salvador Dalí, Mick Jagger, Muhammad Ali, Meryl Streep, John Lennon and Yoko Ono, Andy Warhol, Albert Einstein, Ernest Hemingway and many other characters.

CONTEMPORARY ART After more than 10 years, Milan hosts an exhibition dedicated to Maurizio Cattelan (Padua, 1960), an artist who often draws inspiration from historical events and symbols of society, highlighting its contradictions with an ironic and corrosive language. The Pirelli HangarBicocca hosts historical and new works that give life to a site-specific project not to be missed. The theme is existential concepts such as the fragility of life, memory and the sense of individual and community loss.

EXPLORING THE TRUTH

CONTEMPORARY ART The PAC | Padiglione d'Arte

Contemporanea di Milano is currently presenting the first solo exhibition in Italy by Tania Bruguera (1968 La Havana, Cuba), one of the most influential artists on the global scene, whose performances and installations examine the structures of political power and their effect on the most vulnerable people in society. The works include a selection of the artist's most significant actions and some new works conceived for the Milan space.

The title of the exhibition is a quotation from Hannah Arendt: in a legendary interview in 1964, when asked whether she considered it her duty to publish everything she knew or whether there were valid reasons for keeping quiet about certain things, Arendt replied with the Latin quote "fiat veritas et pereat mundus" ("let the truth be told even to the detriment of the world").

In this exhibition, 50 images tell the story of his career, from his travels to Spain, Latin America, New York, Paris and his beloved Sicily.

WILLIAM CONGDON, WITNESS TO A COLLECTIVE DRAMA

ART A new exhibition at the Memoriale della Shoah gives voice to the drawings and diaries of the American painter William Congdon, which have remained largely unpublished until now. In 1945, Condon served as a volunteer for the American Field Service with the troops liberating the Bergen-Belsen concentration camp. The artist's participation in the war marked in him a particular sensitivity towards collective dramas, which is found in his works like a caress that lacerates the human soul.

A MASTERPIECE FOR MILAN

Capolavoro per Milano 2021

Museo Diocesano
"Carlo Maria Martini".
Piazza Sant'Eustorgio, 3.
www.chiostrisanteustorgio.it

EXHIBITION This year Milan has chosen to exhibit the work that traditionally accompanies visitors throughout the Christmas period at the Museo Diocesano, on the occasion of the celebrations of the first 20 years of this museum complex. On display is an "Annunciation" painted by Titian around 1558, a work of the Venetian master's maturity, characterised by a vibrant search for light. The large canvas comes from the Neapolitan church of San Domenico Maggiore and represents a rare episode of Venetian painting in 16th-century Naples.

MUSEO DEL NOVECENTO | GALLERIA DEL FUTURISMO NEW STORIES OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

MODERN ART Ten years after the opening of the Museo del Novecento, the redevelopment process has been completed in stages: from February 2019 with the new rooms in the wing of the Palazzo Reale dedicated to art from the late 1950s to the early 1980s, to March 2021 with the new spaces on the fourth and fifth floors of the museum dedicated to the period between the 1920s and 1950s.

In recent weeks the brand new “Galleria del Futurismo” was inaugurated with an exhibition of Futurist Manifestos and important works by masters of the period, including Boccioni, Carrà, Balla, Severini and Sant’Elia.

But that’s not all: in 2022 there will be a further major expansion of the collections of early 20th century Italian art, culminating in the following years with the ambitious extension of the Museum in the second Torre dell’Arenario, which will house workshops, an auditorium and multifunctional spaces.

NEW RELEASE Leonardo's only remaining painting on wood in Milan, "Il Musico" ("The Musician"), has found a new home in the Aula Leonardi, the room that houses the works of Leonardo's painters, from Salai to Giovanni Antonio Boltraffio and Bernardino Luini. The room is dominated by a fresco of Bernardino Luini dating from around 1521, and is part of the Ambrosiana complex adjacent to the Church of San Sepolcro. Leonardo's masterpiece, enclosed in an air-conditioned case that guarantees the best possible preservation, by a happy chance is thus placed in a site where the master was probably present, and precisely in what he described as the "vero mezo di Milano" (true middle of Milan).

WHAT POSSIBILITIES FOR THE ART OF THE FUTURE?

CRYPTO ART This new exhibition project aims to show the public the first physical exhibition of Crypto Art, an artistic movement that includes all those art forms that involve the creation of a totally digital work, or the digitisation of a physical work. This is done thanks to blockchain and NFT (Not-Fungible Token) systems, which allow works to be identified through a specific set of digital information guaranteeing the authenticity of the work itself. The artists selected for the exhibition are the main exponents of the movement, who often collect NFT works by other artists, creating global networks and connections driven by a desire for continuous research, experimentation and sharing.

LAKESIDE DESTINATIONS

Lying North of Milan, the lakes of Lombardy attract visitors thanks to their mild climate, breathtaking scenery, natural beauties and historic and artistic treasures.

WELCOME | AROUND THE CORNER

The shores of Lake Maggiore wash up on the banks of Piedmont and Lombardy in Italy, while its more austere northern basin lies in the mountainous region of Switzerland. The most famous island, lying just off Stresa – a small, elegant town, rich in neoclassic and liberty buildings and a shopping mecca boasting a myriad of boutiques – is Isola Bella, anchored like a fantastic ship-garden and dominated by the majestic Palazzo Borromeo, built in the 17th century and rich in art treasures, including the private collection of Milan's most famous aristocratic family. The Borromeo clan also owned Rocca di Angera, an imposing fortress (12th-17th century) boasting opulent ambiances, of which the most famous is the Sala di Giustizia. The "Rocca" also has a medieval garden (www.isoleborromeo.it).

Lake Como is the romantic and worldly older sister of Maggiore and Garda and takes its name from the city of Como. "Must-visit" sights include the Gothic Duomo, the Romanic basilicas of San Fedele and Sant'Abbondio and the neoclassic Villa Olmo. Nestling on the banks of Lake Como in Lenno and currently owned by FAI – a private non-profit trust – Villa del

Balbanello is a magnificent example of a perfectly preserved 18th century dwelling. Surrounded by a stunning, terraced panoramic garden, with a breathtaking view of the lake, the Villa is one of the area's most romantic retreats. Standing on the tip of a promontory overlooking the waters of the lake, the Villa was chosen by director George Lucas as one of the evocative settings for the famous "Star Wars" series. Lying just a stone's throw northwest of Como is Cernobbio, a small fashionable resort frequented by the wealthy of Europe because of its deluxe hotel Villa d'Este and Villa Erba where director Luchino Visconti spent his childhood

(www.villaerba.it). Continuing North, we find Isola Comacina a jewel of art and nature, rich in Mediterranean vegetation and one of the most important archaeological sites of the dark ages in Northern Italy (www.isolacomacina.it). In nearby Tremezzo, don't miss a visit to the Baroque-style Villa Carlotta, featuring an Italian garden and sculptures by Canova. At the junction of the southern arm of the lake lies Bellagio, also referred to as the pearl of Como, set in a strategic position to soak up the panorama.

Don't miss a visit to the other lakes that are also easily accessible from Milan. These include Lake Orta, with the old Island of San Giulio, dominated by the Romanesque basilica, the Palazzo Vescovile and the monastery (by car from Milan: take the A26 autostrada and exit at either Borgomanero or Arona). Situated just moments from the lake, we find the UNESCO world heritage site of Sacro Monte di Varallo (16th century) with its magnificent basilica and reconstruction of the life of Christ in 45 chapels.

SANTA CATERINA DEL SASSO

A hermitage perched on a rocky overhang

According to tradition, the hermitage of Santa Caterina del Sasso (75 km from Milan) was founded in the 12th century by Alberto Besozzi, a rich local merchant who, after having survived a heavy storm while crossing Lake Maggiore, decided to give up his worldly goods and live the life of a hermit. The particular appeal of this hermitage (which contains important frescoes) is mostly due to its astounding location, perched on a rocky overhang with a sheer drop down to the Lake.

Just over a two-hour drive from the city, Lombardy, Piedmont or the Aosta Valley offer an array of ski resorts lying at the foot of the Alps. Here is a pick of the best winter sports destinations, ideal for downhill skiing enthusiasts but also for those who enjoy snowboarding, telemark and freeride skiing.

SNOW THRILLS IN LOMBARDY

There are roughly 25 ski destinations in Lombardy, including ski areas and smaller resorts, boasting an overall offer of more than 700 kilometres of downhill runs. Among the most popular destinations, a hot favourite with the Milanese is the Alta Valtellina which offers enthusiasts an opportunity to enjoy a variety of winter sports at Livigno, Bormio, Aprica and Santa Caterina Valfurva.

THE 'WHITE GALAXY' OF PIEDMONT

Long associated with snow and ice sports, this region, which hosted the 2006 Winter Olympics, offers a vast range of options for downhill ski enthusiasts: 53 ski resorts, more than 1,300 km of runs and over 300 drag and chair lifts. The international ski area of the Via Lattea (the Milky Way), located between Italy and France,

On the Italian side of the Mont Blanc chain, Courmayeur, also known as the rooftop of Europe, is a top choice for all skiers.

Lastly, particularly worthy of note is the picturesque town of Chamois. The highest town in the Aosta Valley, it can only be reached via cablecar. Strolling through Milan

Milan, famous for being one of the fashion capitals of the world, has always something new to reveal, from its main shopping streets, always up-to-date with trends from abroad, to fabulous niche venues with sought-after products.

THE LEGENDARY MONTENAPOLEONE

The Quadrilatero della Moda, or Golden Quad, is situated just east of the Piazza della Scala, amidst four of Milan's most expensive and prestigious shopping streets, namely via Montenapoleone, via Manzoni, via della Spiga and corso Venezia. It is here that the most important fashion designers offer their luxurious creations. It's an open-air shopping mall, where haute couture takes centre stage and with its cornucopia of eye-catching window displays it make the eyes of even the most hardened fashionistas sparkle. In just a few hundred metres, you'll find everything your heart desires, including boutiques, museums, restaurants and luxury hotels.

CORSO VITTORIO EMANUELE & VIA TORINO: TRENDY SHOPPING

Trendy venues can be found starting from Piazza Duomo and corso Vittorio Emanuele II which leads to piazza San Babila, and the nearby via Torino, which stretches as far as porta Ticinese. These are the shopping meccas for youngsters and fashion-interested, in search of the latest trends. These areas boast loads and loads of shops and it's easy to get lost among the myriad offers of ever-changing, ready-to-wear fashion.

DUOMO: THE HEART OF THE CITY

SHOPPING

Milan's historic centre is contained within a relatively small area which is now mostly closed to traffic, meaning that it's easy to explore on foot. There's no need to choose between planning a 'cultural' itinerary or a 'shopping' itinerary because you can combine the two and get the most out of both. This area is home to myriad shops, including big-name fashion brands, historic 'botteghe' and some of the city's most sought-after cafés, bars and eateries. In the space of just a few kilometers you'll find the Duomo, the Galleria, Teatro alla Scala, the Castle, the ancient Basilica di Sant'Ambrogio, as well as sporadic traces of 'Roman Milan', which was the first settlement and the predecessor of present-day Milan. In the immediate vicinity, overlooking the various sides of the large square surrounding it, you'll find several of the world's most exclusive addresses. For the ultimate one-stop shopping experience look no further than the Rinascente flagship store (under the arcades): an amazing array of fashion items under just one roof!

SHOPPING

Beneath the imposing UniCredit Tower, one of the symbols of the Milanese skyline, you'll find the newest and most modern part of Milan, home to the skyscrapers of Porta Nuova and Piazza Gae Aulenti, a real jewel of architecture and design with its increasing number of boutiques. This is really one of Milan's most contemporary, fashionable districts, bursting with buzzy bars that cater to the traditional aperitivo ritual, a destination where hip youngsters are always in the limelight. In addition to the latter, the area also contains the Corso Como complex, where you'll find some of the most famous and fanciest clubs in Milan alongside fashion and art hotspots. If shopping is your objective you'll be spoilt for choice in piazza Gae Aulenti. The piazza hosts numerous bookshops, perfumeries and design or clothing shops.

THE GALLERIA: A FASHION VICTIM'S PARADISE

Another reference point for upmarket shopping is the picturesque, iconic and simply spectacular Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, home to the fashion giants and several high-class restaurants: a unique destination whose upper and lower spaces are well worth a visit. After honoring the Milanese tradition that requires firmly grinding the heel of your shoe into a bull depicted on the mosaic floor of the Galleria, which is said to bring luck, you can indulge yourself by purchasing something from one of the fabulous boutiques lining the Galleria.

TIP FROM THE EDITOR

The new jewellery boutique Gioielleria Ghezzi has opened last month in Via Morone 8, introducing itself to the public as “Private Jewels”, a nickname earned thanks to Elia Ghezzi’s long experience as director of traditional brands of the Milanese jewellery field. It is an important sign of recovery for the whole luxury industry after the pandemic. Our magazine wishes the best to this new business in the city and reminds its readers that in Via Morone, a street little more than 100 meters long, are gathered some of the best Milanese venues: from Alessandro Manzoni’s house to Antica Barberia Colla, from Ristorante Boeucc (dating back to 1696!) to the archives of Banca Intesa in which two centuries of Milanese history are stored. Recently installed in Piazza Belgioioso, connected to Via Manzoni and its 100 displayed brands through Via Morone, is also the first female statue of the city: that of Cristina Trivulzio di Belgioioso, a patron of the XIX century.

Pisa Diamanti

Milanese high jewellery

Pisa Orologeria is a reference point for haute horlogerie in Italy and has extended its range with the Pisa Diamanti high jewelry brand.

From the desire of Maristella and Chiara Pisa to express their values and vision through a line of jewellery, this collection adds a touch of femininity to the universe of Pisa Orologeria.

Sobriety, elegance, attention to detail and the search for quality are the leitmotif of the Milanese brand, which expresses itself in the jewels with essential lines, enhanced by precious materials such as gemstones.

Tennis, solitaires, earrings and pendant light points are the declinations of a classic and timeless aesthetic canon, to which is added the quirk of a watch hand-shaped griffe, embellished with a diamond setting.

In addition to the proposals for women, there are now contemporary and decidedly recognisable lines for men, with precious cufflinks and chevalier rings.

PISA IN LOVE - The "LoveinMilan" ring tells the story of a love in Milan between two people who embrace. The two gems that stand out from the setting symbolise the two lovers, in which "she" is represented by the teardrop-shaped brilliant and "he" by the oval-cut one.

Get ready for sales!

Sale time is an absolute must for shopping addicts: when it's sale time in Milan the city is inundated with hordes of fashion addicts in search of desirable objects.

© ALLIANCE IMAGES/SHUTTERSTOCK.COM

Milan is the fashion capital of the world. In case you don't believe this, various surveys conducted over the past few years have confirmed that Milan is the number one luxury-shopping destination: it is not surprising that the whole city is alive with shoppers during the eagerly awaited summer and winter sales.

WHEN >> In Italy sale times occur two times a year, according to the different Spring/Summer and Fall/Winter seasons. Generally, they are held after Christmas, January-February for winter collections and July-September for summer collections, though the starting dates change from region to region. Sales generally last for 60 days and keep in mind: the earliest you go, the widest choice you will find!

WHAT >> First and foremost, remember that discounts are only applied to collections already on sale at shops and not to new in-store arrivals. According to the Italian laws, sales always refer to seasonal products belonging to the outgoing collection. And it's important to bear in mind that discounts are not fixed, but they can range from 5% up to 70% depending on the individual policy of each shop even if applied to all kinds of articles, from clothing to accessories.

WHERE >> While the so-called 'Quadrilatero della Moda', which includes via Montenapoleone, via della Spiga, via Manzoni and Corso Venezia, is the place that has the highest average price tags (followed by Paris, New York and London) and the largest concentration of the most prestigious designer boutiques, new highend shopping districts are gradually emerging. A suggestion: don't limit yourself to the shopping streets in the centre... if you avoid following the crowds, you'll be able to take advantage of a much wider choice! And if you want to take the maximum advantage of the sales experience, we recommend focusing on fashion outlets (several located out-of- town) that offer additional discounts on their collections.

>> INSIDER TIP

By the Italian laws, items bought on sale can be tried on, as well as full-price ones, but they can have stricter rules on returns. While articles coming from new collections can be returned within 30 days, products with reduced prices can't be returned unless flawed. So, if you buy a reduced price dress or accessory, always pay attention to the fitting or to the size; if you make a mistake, maybe you can be given a voucher, but it's at the shop owner's complete discretion to agree.

Tax Free Refund Guide

According to the Italian law, non-EU resident travellers may be granted VAT relief/refund for goods intended for personal or family use purchased in Italy. This relief is surely an advantage for the foreign travellers: in fact, it allows to save from a minimum of 4% up to a maximum of 22% of the selling price of the goods purchased. Here is a short guide according to the Italian legislation to discover the common system of value added tax exclusively for non-EU resident travellers.

- 1. VAT (in Italian: IVA) is a value added tax on goods and services, and is part of the European Union's value added tax system.
- 2. In some cases, travellers may be granted a VAT refund. This refund does not cover the services supplied by hotels, restaurants, taxis or agencies.
- 3. You may be eligible for a VAT refund provided that:
 - you are a non-EU resident;
 - the goods purchased are intended for personal or family use only and are carried in your luggage;
 - the overall value of the goods purchased exceeds 154,94 Euro (VAT included);
 - the purchase is certified by an invoice. This invoice should include a description of the goods purchased, your personal information as well as the details of your passport or any other equivalent document;
 - the goods shall leave the EU territory by the third month following the date of issue of the invoice, as proved by the "customs stamp";
 - from 1 September 2018, tax free invoices in Italy must be electronically transmitted by the national seller to OTELLO information system (Online Tax Refund at Exit: Light Lane Optimization) and their validation is digitally carried out.
 - after the digital "customs stamp" is obtained, OTELLO will send a message to the retailer that all the requirements are met and, as a consequence, the retailer will reimburse the amount due or will settle the tax relief.

Tax Free Refund Guide

- the invoice is returned to the Italian retailer within four months after the purchase was made. If the invoice is stamped by other EU countries, it needs to be brought to the shop retailer by the fourth month following that of the purchase.
- 4. The goods purchased and the relevant invoice must be shown at the customs exit point when leaving EU territory (if you intend to pack the purchased items into your check-in luggage, you must go to Customs BEFORE checking in).
- 5. After leaving EU territory, the traveller must return the original invoice, regularly endorsed by the customs office, to the Italian retailer. Said invoice must be returned within four months from the date when the document was issued.
- 6. The refund can be made directly by the Italian retailer (however, make sure that the shop you've chosen displays a "Tax Free Shopping" or "Euro Tax Free" sign in its window).
- 7. Several Tax-Free companies are able to offer immediate VAT cash refunds when the goods leave either Italian or EU territory (thus exonerating the passenger from having to return the invoice to the retailer). However, this procedure only applies at major international airports or main border crossings. Most major department stores have Tax Free Refund offices.
- 8. The services provided by Tax-Free companies imply the payment of a small administrative sum which is directly deducted from the amount of VAT refunded to the traveller.
- 9. In the event of a traveller not receiving a VAT refund within a reasonable period of time, he or she should re-contact the Italian retailer or one of the aforementioned companies.
- 10. However, please note, VAT cannot be refunded directly by customs offices.

- Breakfast time in Italy can be from 6am to 11am, depending on what time you got up, and it usually includes a cappuccino, which is a morning drink, and “cornetto” or other sweet pastries.

- Lunchtime usually ranges from midday to 2pm (that is why many of the shops of the shops close in these hours), dinnertime from 8pm to 10pm.

- Between 6pm and 9pm it's aperitivo time, an Italian tradition started in Milan. If you're feeling hungry between 3pm and 5pm then it's time for you to have a “merenda”, a quick snack between the two main meals. Should you be hungry at late night, you can check several list of late-night restaurants in Milan.

- Never forget to check the restaurant's weekly closing day, which – most of the time – will be Monday.

- Reservations for most restaurants are strongly advised.

- In Italy, service is included in the price meaning that although tipping is not compulsory but it is obviously appreciated as a sign of satisfaction.

- Some menus include the word “coperto”, a small surcharge corresponding to the cost of the service and bread (usually between 1 and 3 euros per person).

- If you want tap water, you should specify it to the waiting staff of the restaurant or bar, asking for a glass of “acqua di rubinetto”.

- Although no dress code exists in Italy, semiformal clothing is usually considered de rigeur at restaurants.

- All restaurants and bars are non-smoking unless a separate smokers' area is specifically offered.

Milanese tasting

Milan offers a cuisine featuring a number of truly unusual flavours. Here is a brief guide to make sure that you don't miss out on several of the city's best and most typical recipes.

PH © CARMINE ARRICHIELLO

RISOTTO ALLO ZAFFERANO

This is one of the few dishes boasting a specific "birth date". In fact, legend has it that, on 8 September 1574, master glassmaker Valerio di Fiandra was presented with a dish of saffron-coloured rice at his daughter's wedding feast after which time it became an iconic dish of Milanese cuisine. Master Chef Gualtiero Marchesi has transformed this delicacy into a real work of art, with the addition of a square of edible gold leaf! We also suggest trying its crunchier version: so-called "riso al salto". Try the creative dishes signed by Carlo Cracco at his restaurant in Galleria Vittorio Emanuele (www.ristorantecracco.it)

COTOLETTA ALLA MILANESE

Mentioned for the first time in 1500 at the court of the Sforza, its "invention" was a source of contention with the Viennese who laid claim to its origin. According to the traditional recipe, the veal slices used should be at least as thick as a finger, coated in egg and bread crumbs and deep fried in butter. One of the best places to eat breaded veal cutlets in Milan is at "Da Giannino" (www.gianninoristorante.it) or at the "Al Garghet" restaurant (www.algarghet.it).

TRIFE (OR BUSECCA)

A hearty winter dish that will keep the cold out, its main ingredient is the stomach lining of sheep or cows. It was originally served to celebrate special occasions in the peasant world. Upgrades include the addition of oysters and caviar and can be sampled at Michelin-starred osteria, "Al Pont de Ferr" at the Navigli district (pontdeferr.it).

CASSOEULA

According to the history books, composer and conductor Arturo Toscanini was mad about this dish made from pork (sausages, pork rinds and spare ribs) and cabbage.

MONDEGHILI

Small meat balls fried in butter and oil and a signature dish of renowned chef Bruno Barbieri who has made them an art form. You can taste the traditional Milanese meat balls at "Al Matarel" (www.almatarel.it).

PANETTONE

Boasting 500 years of tradition, panettone is a type of large, sweet bread, leavened very slowly and enriched with raisins and candied fruit. Amidst history and legend, the theories as to the origins of panettone vary widely. One of the most romantic is the story linking its invention to Ugo, a young falconer employed by Prince Ludovico il Moro. Ugo yearned to conquer the heart of the daughter of a poor baker named Toni.

To win her over, the nobleman disguised himself as a baker and invented a rich bread in which he added to the flour and yeast, butter, eggs, dried raisins and candied lemon and orange peel. The fame of the bread spread far and wide and became known as “Pan del Toni” (Toni’s bread). According to history, the tradition of panettone is documented by a manuscript conserved at the Biblioteca Ambrosiana dating back to the 15th century. Already at that time, on the night of 24 December, it was customary for the pater familias to place a huge log in the fireplace and to slice the large loaf of bread which he then distributed among those present. From a gastronomic point of view, the distinguishing feature of panettone is that it is leavened two or three times. Its golden colour derives from the skilful combination of butter and egg yolks, while its overall beauty is completed by the orange, green and brown notes resulting from the addition of candied fruit and raisins. The gourmet trick is to warm it for a few minutes in front of an open oven or on top of a radiator before serving it.

Milan is the home of the Aperitivo

Aperitivo and Happy Hour in the city are most definitely a ritual which no Milanese is prepared to forego

The Aperitivo, the beloved Milanese tradition of pre-dinner drinks, is accompanied by complimentary “stuzzichini” and an all-you-can-eat buffet. Spreads range from traditional olives, nuts, cheeses and potato chips to awesome pasta dishes, “bruschetta”, cold cuts, crudités, raw fish and fruit salads. Generally, lasting for 3 hours from 6 to 9pm (though most people rarely get there until 7pm), the aperitivo scene has become an evening meeting for people of all ages. Cocktails – alcoholic or not – are expertly mixed and a Negroni, Negroni sbagliato

(a delicious mix of prosecco, red vermouth and Aperol instead of gin) or a Spritz are Milanese specialties. Favourite beverages consumed during this beloved tradition in Milan include also the city’s renowned Martini, Prosecco or Campari, accompanied by an all-you-can-eat buffet.

It's one of the landmark locations frequented by Leonardo da Vinci, an unknown piece of history, imbued with mystery. To mark the opening of Expo 2015, researchers excavated the plot where Leonardo's vineyard once stood in the gardens of the Casa degli Atellani, a magnificent Renaissance dwelling situated in front of the Church of Santa Maria delle Grazie. The House and Vineyard museum tour is divided into seven designated areas (the courtyards of Piero Portaluppi, the Zodiac Hall, the Luini Hall, Ettore Conti's studio, the Staircase Hall, the Garden of Earthly Delights – the novellas of Matteo Bandello and Leonardo's Vineyard).

Milan's Street of Art

The city of Milan is enriched by an art circuit featuring the city's three main museum hubs: the Pinacoteca di Brera, the Gallerie d'Italia in piazza della Scala and the civic complex consisting of Palazzo Reale and the Museo del Novecento.

An itinerary extending over 900 metres, that can be crossed on foot in just 15 minutes, from via Brera to piazzetta Reale, cutting through piazza Scala and the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, which hosts an extraordinary part of our country's art history, thus making Milan a prestigious international art capital.

DUOMO DI MILANO

Among one of the most important (and majestic) Gothic buildings in the world, the church, constructed on and off over a period of 450 years (began 1386) is the symbol of Milan. To experience the Duomo at its most majestic you must ascend to the terraces (either by elevator or by steps) where you will be surrounded by an outburst of pinnacles, turrets and marble statuary and, naturally, the city's famed golden "Madonnina".

GALLERIA VITTORIO EMANUELE II

Sometimes known as the “living-room of the Milanese”, this elegant, four-storey arcade, housing luxury cafés and famous designer shops, is covered by a glass barrel vault and a beautiful glass cupola and measures 196 metres in length. Tradition has it that placing your right heel on the bull, depicted in the mosaic on the floor, and then spinning around inside it, will bring good luck.

CASTELLO SFORZESCO

The ancient seat of the ruling Visconti, the Castello Sforzesco was later rebuilt by Francesco Sforza and is now simply known by the Milanese as “Il Castello”. Antique art, paintings, period furniture, sculptures and musical instruments are housed in its precious treasure trove. Today, it houses a number of interesting museums and libraries: don’t miss the museum of the Michelangelo’s masterpiece “Pietà Rondanini”.

CENACOLO VINCIANO

One of the most famous attractions in the world, "The Last Supper" or "Cenacolo" by Leonardo da Vinci is a large 15th century mural painting representing the scene of the last supper of Jesus narrated in the Gospel. It can be found in the Refectory close to the church of Santa Maria delle Grazie.

PALAZZO REALE

For many centuries it was the seat of the government of the city, of the Kingdom of Lombardy-Venetia and then a royal residence until 1919, when it was acquired by the State and became a venue for exhibitions. Today it has consolidated relations with museums all over the world and has become the exhibition heart of central Milan, with over a million visitors every year.

TEATRO ALLA SCALA

Built at the behest of Empress Maria Teresa of Austria, Teatro alla Scala was inaugurated in 1778 with an opera by Antonio Salieri. The Scala Opera House is one of the most famous theatres in the world. Lose yourselves in the magic of the theatre while admiring its magnificent auditorium. With a bit of luck, you might also have a chance to watch a rehearsal in progress.

AMBROSIANA ART GALLERY AND LIBRARY

The Ambrosiana Picture Gallery contains several exquisite works of art from the 15th through 17th centuries and includes "The musician", attributed to Leonardo, Raphael's cartoon for the "School of Athens" and Caravaggio's "Basket of fruit". The Library boasts the largest collection of Leonardo's writings and drawings, the "Codice Atlantico" (Atlantic Codex).

PINACOTECA DI BRERA

Magnificent Palazzo di Brera is clearly the artistic district's centre of gravity. The complex includes the Pinacoteca and the National Braidense Library, but also an important Academy of Fine Arts, a media library, a charming Botanical Garden and an Astronomical Observatory. The "Caffè Fernanda", designed as an integral part of the museum, and "Bottega Brera", the museum shop and bookstore, are part of the "Great Brera".

MUSEO NAZIONALE SCIENZA E TECNOLOGIA

The most important museum of science and technology in Italy, it hosts the testimonies of history of science, technology and Italian industry dating from the 19th century to present times. Don't miss the Enrico Toti submarine, the 1:1 scale model of the first Vega vector and the "Leonardo da Vinci Galleries".

TRIENNALE MILANO

One of the most vibrant, popular and important exhibition centres in the city. Since 1923, it is an international institution which organises exhibitions and events about design, architecture, visual arts and theatre: don't miss the Museo del Design Italiano in the spaces of the Curva on the ground floor. Triennale Milano has also a superb media library on design, art and architecture and the garden is home to great artists and designers.
