Dear friends,

in recent months, Proedi-Whereltalia has inaugurated in Milan (and also in Venice, Florence and Turin) the new Welcome Smart Network circuit. This is the digital and sustainable evolution of the traditional paper edition of Whereltalia monthly magazines, now in their 13th year. Magazines and maps of the city that continue to be distributed in the main hotels, all in line with the restrictions made necessary by the adoption of fundamental precautions against the Coronavirus. Many new products are now appearing on the market and will see further developments in the coming months. Starting with this Welcome Smart Magazine - which can be accessed via a simple QR Code that we have equipped all the hotels in our network with - to the Welcome Audio Map, and the Welcome Smart Guides.

Important research and development work was carried out last year, finding solutions adapted to the new needs of incoming tourism. Everything is evolving in the direction of greater environmental sustainability, but what remains the same is the completeness of the information, the graphic quality and, of course, the punctuality.

With sympathy,

Andrea Jarach

EXHIBITION At the heart of the exhibition opening this month at Palazzo Reale, in collaboration with the Kunsthistorisches Museum in Vienna, is female beauty. A strong theme in the 16th century in Venice, where women take on an importance perhaps never seen before in the history of painting, both because of the presence of Titian and other artists working in Venice (who were particularly interested in the representation of the female figure) and because of the importance that women had in Venetian society. Among the masterpieces on display are some of the finest works by Tintoretto, Veronese and Palma il Vecchio.

TWENTIETH CENTURY

MODERN ART Ten years after the opening of the Museo del Novecento, the redevelopment process has been completed in stages: from February 2019 with the new rooms in the wing of the Palazzo Reale dedicated to art from the late 1950s to the early 1980s, to March 2021 with the new spaces on the fourth and fifth floors of the museum dedicated to the period between the 1920s and 1950s.

In recent months the brand new "Galleria del Futurismo" was inaugurated with an exhibition of Futurist Manifestos and important works by masters of the period, including Boccioni, Carrà, Balla, Severini and Sant'Elia.

But that's not all: in 2022 there will be a further major expansion of the collections of early 20th century Italian art, culminating in the following years with the ambitious extension of the Museum in the second Torre dell'Arengario, which will house workshops, an auditorium and multifunctional spaces.

PHOTOGRAPHY Joel Meyerowitz, great master of contemporary photography, is the protagonist of the exhibition hosted this month by Leica Galerie Milano. Meyerowitz is one of the greatest protagonists of street photography, among the first to make color an essential element of his artistic language in the sixties and seventies of the last century. The exhibition presents fifty photographs taken in different countries and in many cities, representing the most decisive periods of Joel Meyerowitz's career. They range from images captured on the streets of New York – the perfect environment to observe life and people in the big city – to those collected during a year-long trip through Europe in 1966/67.

► COLOURS AND SUGGESTIONS OF ANTONIO LIGABUE

EXHIBITION The Orangery of the Royal Palace in Monza will be enlivened this spring by figures, colours and enthralling suggestions. On display are 90 works, including paintings, sculptures, drawings and engravings that trace the human and creative life of Antonio Ligabue (1899-1965), the "tragic expressionist" of the Italian twentieth century. The exhibition features some of the paintings that are considered his masterpieces, covering a chronological span from the 1920s to 1962, when his illness effectively put an end to his activity. There are two main themes that characterise his works: animals, wild and domestic, and self-portraits, not forgetting other subjects such as scenes of rural life, landscapes of the Po Valley or castles and churches in his native Switzerland.

LAKESIDE DESTINATION

Lying North of Milan, each year the lakes of Lombardy attract millions of visitors thanks to their mild climate, breathtaking scenery, natural beauties and historic and artistic treasures.

Isola Bella (Lake Maggiore)

The shores of Lake Maggiore wash up on the banks of Piedmont and Lombardy in Italy, while its more austere northern basin lies in the mountainous region of Switzerland. The most famous island, lying just off Stresa – a small, elegant town, rich in neoclassic and liberty buildings and a shopping mecca boasting a myriad of boutiques – is Isola Bella, anchored like a fantastic ship-garden and dominated by the majestic Palazzo Borromeo, built in the 17th century and rich in art treasures, including the private collection of Milan's most famous aristocratic family. The Borromeo clan also owned Rocca di Angera, an imposing fortress (12th-17th century) boasting opulent ambiances, of which the most famous is the Sala di Giustizia. The "Rocca" also has a medieval garden (www.isoleborromeo.it).

Lake Como is the romantic and worldly older sister of Maggiore and Garda and takes its name from the city of Como. "Must-visit" sights include the Gothic Duomo, the Romanic basilicas of San Fedele and Sant'Abbondio and the neoclassic Villa Olmo. Nestling on the banks of Lake Como in Lenno and currently owned by FAI – a private non-profit trust – Villa del Balbianello is a magnificent example of a perfectly preserved 18th century dwelling. Surrounded by a stunning, terraced panoramic garden, with a breathtaking view of the lake, the Villa is one of the area's most romantic retreats. Standing on the tip of a promontory overlooking the waters of the lake, the Villa was chosen by director George

Lucas as one of the evocative settings for the famous "Star Wars" series. Lying just a stone's throw northwest of Como is Cernobbio, a small fashionable resort frequented by the wealthy of Europe because of its deluxe hotel Villa d'Este and Villa Erba where director Luchino Visconti spent his childhood (www.villaerba.it). Continuing North, we find Isola Comacina a jewel of art and nature, rich in Mediterranean vegetation and one of the most important archaeological sites of the dark ages in Northern Italy (www.isolacomacina.it). In nearby Tremezzo, don't miss a visit to the Baroque-style Villa Carlotta, featuring an Italian garden and sculptures by Canova. At the junction of the southern arm of the lake lies Bellagio, also referred to as the pearl of Como, set in a strategic position to soak up the panorama.

Don't miss a visit to the other lakes that are also easily accessible from Milan. These include Lake Orta, with the old Island of San Giulio, dominated by the Romanesque basilica, the Palazzo Vescovile and the monastery (by car from Milan: take the A26 autostrada and exit at either Borgomanero or Arona). Situated just moments from the lake, we find the UNESCO world heritage site of Sacro Monte di Varallo (16th century) with its magnificent basilica and reconstruction of the life of Christ in 45 chapels.

SANTA CATERINA DEL SASSO A hermitage perched on a rocky overhang

According to tradition, the hermitage of Santa Caterina del Sasso (75 km from Milan) was founded in the 12th century by Alberto Besozzi, a rich local merchant who, after having survived a heavy storm while crossing Lake Maggiore, decided to give up his worldly goods and live the life of a hermit. The particular appeal of this hermitage (which contains important frescoes) is mostly due to its astounding location, perched on a rocky overhang with a sheer drop down to the Lake.

THE LEGENDARY MONTENAPOLEONE

Although high-end purchases can be made in any part of the city, several urban areas are also entirely given over to the business of luxury shopping. First and foremost, the Quadrilatero della Moda or Golden Quad, situated just east of the Piazza della Scala and a short distance on foot from the Duomo. This is where all the big designer names and most luxurious stores in the world cluster. The Quadrilatero set amidst four of Milan's most expensive and prestigious shopping streets, namely via Montenapoleone, via Manzoni, via della Spiga and corso Venezia. It is here that the most important fashion designers offer their luxurious creations. It's an open-air shopping mall, where haute couture takes centre stage and with its cornucopia of eye-catching window displays it make the eyes of even the most hardened fashionistas sparkle. Here, in the space of just a few hundred metres, you'll find everything your heart desires, including boutiques, museums, restaurants and luxury hotels. If fashion is your thing and you're interested in learning more about its history, then a visit to Palazzo Morando (www.costumemodaimmagine.mi.it), the headquarters of the museum of costumes, fashion and image, is an absolute must. Discover the world of fashion and glamour in this unique, magical pedestrian precinct (also featuring a number of small side streets dotted with glam boutiques). Well worth exploring from top to bottom.

These areas boast loads and loads of shops and it's easy to get lost among the myriad offers of ever-changing, ready-to-wear fashion.

Pisa Diamanti

Milanese high jewellery

Pisa Orologeria is a reference point for haute horlogerie in Italy and has extended its range with the Pisa Diamanti high jewelry brand. From the desire of Maristella and Chiara Pisa to express their values and vision through a line of jewellery, this collection adds a touch of femininity to the universe of Pisa Orologeria.

Sobriety, elegance, attention to detail and the search for quality are the leitmotif of the Milanese brand, which expresses itself in the jewels with essential lines, enhanced by precious materials such as gemstones. Tennis, solitaires, earrings and pendant light points are the declinations of a classic and timeless aesthetic canon, to which is added the quirk of a watch hand-shaped griffe, embellished with a diamond setting. In addition to the proposals for women, there are now contemporary and decidedly recognisable lines for men, with precious cufflinks and chevalier rings.

PISA IN LOVE - The "LoveinMilan" ring tells the story of a love in Milan between two people who embrace and decide to walk together towards the future. The two gems that stand out from the setting symbolise an embrace between the two lovers, in which "she" is represented by the teardrop-shaped brilliant and "he" by the oval-cut one. www.pisaorologeria.com/it/product_circle/love-in-milan/

NAVIGLI: NICHE SHOPPING

Trendy Milanese, who could never mingle in big crowds, shop in the Ticinese area and surrounding neighbourhoods. Here, amongst the columns of San Lorenzo and the Navigli, you'll find numerous trendy boutiques, niche labels and small vintage shops where, if you know how to look, it's still possible to bag a bargain and find showrooms that sell to the public. Together with Brera, the Navigli is one of the most picturesque districts in old Milan. The Navigli and the Darsena are two favourites among the locals, who love to enjoy the traditional aperitivo here, but are also a must-visit for visitors who will find themselves seduced by the artistic atmosphere of its numerous painters' studios. If you're interested in discovering the city from a different perspective, treat yourself to a picturesque cruise on the Navigli (www.milancanalcruises.it).

CORSO BUENOS AIRES: THE LONGEST SHOPPING STREET IN EUROPE

Since opening in 1782, Corso Buenos Aires has been one of the most important commercial thoroughfares in Milan where an increasing number of 'maxi boutiques' have taken up residence. A real shoppers' paradise, it offers one and a half kilometre of window displays, with shops for all tastes and all budgets: sophisticated boutiques, alternated with trendy stores offering all types of merchandise and numerous bars for a quick snack. Its sidestreets abound in restaurants, many of which are ethnic. A Saturday afternoon favourite with Milanese shoppers of all ages.

BRERA: THE ARTISTIC HEART OF THE CITY

WINDOW

SHOPPING

Nowadays this is one of the liveliest areas of the city, still maintaining a characteristic atmosphere that summons its past, when the district was inhabited by artists and bohemians. Its narrow cobbled streets host a number of interesting chic antique shops, galleries, cafés, restaurants and bars. If this is where you're headed, make sure to wear 'flatties', these cobbled streets were not originally designed for heels! The area is expanding rapidly and its neighbouring streets, including Corso Garibaldi and Corso Como, are home to several of the trendiest addresses in the city. In fact, as you walk through this historic district, you will be struck by the almost surreal atmosphere, and a treasure trove of small artists' workshops, quaint shops selling canvases and paints and antique shops of this area. Highlights include the masterpieces at the Pinacoteca, the historic Biblioteca Nazionale Braidense, the Astronomical Museum, the oldest institute of scientific research in the city, and the Botanical Gardens, an evocative green oasis in the heart of the city. Brera never ceases to amaze and now, in addition to its picturesque artists' workshops, countless boutiques showcasing rare essences are springing up, transforming Brera into a 'district of Artistic Perfumery'.

>> INSIDER TIP

Shopping hours are generally from 9.30am to 7.30pm; less centrally located shops still take the traditional lunch break from 12.30pm or 1pm to 3pm or 4pm. Most shops are closed on Sundays (except those located in central Milan) and on Monday mornings. Make sure to always check ahead.

Beneath the imposing UniCredit Tower, one of the symbols of the Milanese skyline, you'll find the newest and most modern part of Milan, home to the skyscrapers of Porta Nuova and Piazza Gae Aulenti (which is dedicated to one of the 'greats' of Milanese design), a real jewel of architecture and design with its increasing number of boutiques. This is really one of Milan's most contemporary, fashionable districts, bursting with buzzy bars that cater to the traditional aperitivo ritual, a destination where hip youngsters are always in the limelight. In addition to the latter, the area also contains the Corso Como complex, where you'll find some of the most famous and fanciest clubs in Milan alongside fashion and art hotspots. If shopping is your objective you'll be spoilt for choice in piazza Gae Aulenti. The piazza hosts numerous bookshops, perfumeries and design or clothing shops.

TIP FROM THE EDITOR

A|X Armani Exchange, the brand born in 1991 in New York and always in tune with young people, has landed in Italy with its first store in Milan. After more than thirty years, the Armani Group has chosen to bring to Milan the largest and most representative store of this brand in Europe, defined by Giorgio Armani as "the most dynamic of the brands" in his portfolio. Clothing and accessories, for him and her, linked to an everyday and urban style, between casual and minimal, much loved by the younger generations. Designed by Giorgio Armani with his team of architects, the store is located in a building designed by Gio Ponti in Corso Vittorio Emanuele II (corner of via Passarella), a few steps from Piazza San Babila. An area devoted to multigenerational shopping that bears witness to Giorgio Armani's desire to maintain a constant dialogue with people. The store has a strong visual impact: the luminous brand initials "A" and "X" stand out on the facade with its angled movement. The entire project was designed to reduce its environmental impact, from the selection of materials and finishes to the coverings and lighting. www.armaniexchange.com

Discover the best spots to buy exquisite "made in Milan" craftsmanship, a precious silver or gold jewel, a hand-made diamond encrusted accessory, or maybe a gift for your beloved one.

Several of the most prestigious watch manufacturers in the world have home in Milan. Via Pietro Verri has earned the title "Street of Time" and Pisa Orologeria is the reference point of high-class Italian watchmaking for Milanese with a refined taste as well as for an increasingly international clientele.

Milan's historic centre is contained within a relatively small area which is now mostly closed to traffic, meaning that it's easy to explore on foot. There's no need to choose between planning a 'cultural' itinerary or a 'shopping' itinerary because you can combine the two and get the most out of both. In addition to being packed with several of Milan's most famous attractions, this area is home to myriad shops, including big-name fashion brands, historic 'botteghe' and some of the city's most sought-after cafés, bars and eateries. In the space of just a few kilometers you'll find the Duomo, the Galleria, Teatro alla Scala, the Castle, the ancient Basilica di Sant'Ambrogio, as well as sporadic traces of 'Roman Milan', which was the first settlement and the predecessor of present-day Milan. In the immediate vicinity, overlooking the various sides of the large square surrounding it, you'll find several of the world's most exclusive addresses. For the ultimate one-stop shopping experience look no further than the Rinascente flagship store (under the arcades): an amazing array of fashion items under just one roof! By walking just a few steps from the Cathedral, in a north-westerly direction, you'll reach the Castello Sforzesco, another of the city's most symbolic monuments. The castle was the residence of the ruling families in Milan between the Middle Ages and the Renaissance. Today, it hosts several museums and one of the city's best-loved green spaces.

Another reference point for upmarket shopping is the picturesque, iconic and simply spectacular Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, home to the fashion giants and several high-class restaurants: a unique destination whose upper and lower spaces are well worth a visit. After honoring the Milanese tradition that requires firmly grinding the heel of your shoe into a bull depicted on the mosaic floor of the Galleria, which is said to bring luck, you can indulge yourself by purchasing something from one of the fabulous boutiques lining the Galleria.

» EDITOR'S TIP | A GLANCE TO THE HISTORY
A virtual masterpiece of eclectic architecture, it was designed by Giuseppe Mengoni between 1865 and 1867 to celebrate the birth of the Kingdom of Italy. By that time, the Galleria represented the greatest application of iron and glassbased technology to a civilian building. The majesty of its mosaics and the decorations of the buildings – now converted into shops, restaurants and offices – is naturally enhanced by the arching glass and cast iron roof (topped with a central glass dome standing at a height of 50 meters) which, together with its iron structure, was originally manufactured in France.

Corso Vercelli is a 'niche' shopping street which is less busy and easier to shop in than the city centre. Overflowed with small shops just waiting to be discovered, the street is embraced by a distinctive atmosphere that is further enhanced by the passage of historic trams giving this street an almost retro flavour. This is one of Milan's most upmarket districts: a residential area, still inhabited by Milan's upper crust, it epitomizes the traditional soul of the city and is distinguished by its air of sophistication, elegance and stunning residential architecture. Here you will come across several trendy shops for all tastes, offering clothing, footwear, home décor and eateries. What's more the area is located just a stone's throw from one of Milan's most important attractions: the Last Supper, Leonardo da Vinci's masterpiece admired each year by millions of visitors, the Parco Sempione, and the Triennale di Milano are also within easy walking distance, and, if you're feeling energetic, you can easily push onwards until you reach the Castello Sforzesco.

Tax Free Refund Guide

According to the Italian law, non-EU resident travellers may be granted VAT relief/refund for goods intended for personal or family use purchased in Italy. This relief is surely an advantage for the foreign travellers: in fact, it allows to save from a minimum of 4% up to a maximum of 22% of the selling price of the goods purchased. Here is a short guide according to the Italian legislation to discover the common system of value added tax exclusively for non-EU resident travellers.

1. VAT (in Italian: IVA) is a value added tax on goods and services, and is part of the European Union's value added tax system.
2. In some cases, travellers may be granted a VAT refund. This refund does not cover the services supplied by hotels, restaurants, taxis or agencies.
3. You may be eligible for a VAT refund provided that:
 - you are a non-EU resident;
 - the goods purchased are intended for personal or family use only and are carried in your luggage;
 - the overall value of the goods purchased exceeds 154,94 Euro (VAT included);
 - the purchase is certified by an invoice. This invoice should include a description of the goods purchased, your personal information as well as the details of your passport or any other equivalent document;

- the goods shall leave the EU territory by the third month following the date of issue of the invoice, as proved by the "customs stamp";
- from 1 September 2018, tax free invoices in Italy must be electronically transmitted by the national seller to OTELO information system (Online Tax Refund at Exit: Light Lane Optimization) and their validation is digitally carried out.
- after the digital "customs stamp" is obtained, OTELO will send a message to the retailer that all the requirements are met and, as a consequence, the retailer will reimburse the amount due or will settle the tax relief.
- the invoice is returned to the Italian retailer within four months after the purchase was made. If the invoice is stamped by other EU countries, it needs to be brought to the shop retailer by the fourth month following that of the purchase.
- 4. The goods purchased and the relevant invoice must be shown at the customs exit point when leaving EU territory (if you intend to pack the purchased items into your check-in luggage, you must go to Customs BEFORE checking in).
- 5. After leaving EU territory, the traveller must return the original invoice, regularly endorsed by the customs office, to the Italian retailer. Said invoice must be returned within four months from the date when the - document was issued.

- 6. The refund can be made directly by the Italian retailer (however, make sure that the shop you've chosen displays a "Tax Free Shopping" or "Euro Tax Free" sign in its window).
- 7. Several Tax-Free companies are able to offer immediate VAT cash refunds when the goods leave either Italian or EU territory (thus exonerating the passenger from having to return the invoice to the retailer). However, this procedure only applies at major international airports or main border crossings. Most major department stores have Tax Free Refund offices.
- 8. The services provided by Tax-Free companies imply the payment of a small administrative sum which is directly deducted from the amount of VAT refunded to the traveller.
- 9. In the event of a traveller not receiving a VAT refund within a reasonable period of time, he or she should re-contact the Italian retailer or one of the aforementioned companies.
- 10. However, please note, VAT cannot be refunded directly by customs offices.

Milanese tasting

Milan offers a cuisine featuring a number of truly unusual flavours. Here is a brief guide to make sure that you don't miss out on several of the city's best and most typical recipes.

RISOTTO ALLO ZAFFERANO

This is one of the few dishes boasting a specific "birth date". In fact, legend has it that, on 8 September 1574, master glassmaker Valerio di Fiandra was presented with a dish of saffron-coloured rice at his daughter's wedding feast after which time it became an iconic dish of Milanese cuisine. Master Chef Gualtiero Marchesi has transformed this delicacy into a real work of art, with the addition of a square of edible gold leaf! We also suggest trying its crunchier version: so-called "riso al salto". Try the creative dishes signed by Carlo Cracco at his restaurant in Galleria Vittorio Emanuele (www.ristorantecracco.it)

COTOLETTA ALLA MILANESE

Mentioned for the first time in 1500 at the court of the Sforza, its "invention" was a source of contention with the Viennese who laid claim to its origin. According to the traditional recipe, the veal slices used should be at least as thick as a finger, coated in egg and bread crumbs and deep fried in butter. One of the best places to eat breaded veal cutlets in Milan is at "Da Giannino" (www.gianninoristorante.it) or at the "Al Garghet" restaurant (www.algarghet.it).

Ristorante Da Giannino

TRIPE (OR BUSECCA)

A hearty winter dish that will keep the cold out, its main ingredient is the stomach lining of sheep or cows. It was originally served to celebrate special occasions in the peasant world. Upgrades include the addition of oysters and caviar and can be sampled at Michelin-starred osteria, "Al Pont de Ferr" at the Navigli district (pontdeferr.it).

CASSOEULA

According to the history books, composer and conductor Arturo Toscanini was mad about this dish made from pork (sausages, pork rinds and spare ribs) and cabbage. For a taste of old-world Milan, suggest you try it at "Antica Trattoria della Pesa" in Via Pasubio (www.anticatrattoriadellapesa.com).

MONDEGHILI

Small meat balls fried in butter and oil and a signature dish of renowned chef Bruno Barbieri who has made them an art form. You can taste the traditional Milanese meat balls at "Al Matarel" (www.almatarel.it).

PANETTONE

Boasting 500 years of tradition, panettone is a type of large, sweet bread, leavened very slowly and enriched with raisins and candied fruit. Amidst history and legend, the theories as to the origins of panettone vary widely. One of the most romantic is the story linking its invention to Ugo, a young falconer employed by Prince Ludovico il Moro. Ugo yearned to conquer the heart of the daughter of a poor baker named Toni. To win her over, the nobleman disguised himself as a baker and invented a rich bread in which he added to the flour and yeast, butter, eggs, dried raisins and candied lemon and orange peel. The fame of the bread spread far and wide and became known as "Pan del Toni" (Toni's bread). According to history, the tradition of panettone is documented by a manuscript conserved at the Biblioteca Ambrosiana dating back to the 15th century. Already at that time, on the night of 24 December, it was customary for the pater familias to place a huge log in the fireplace and to slice the large loaf of bread which he then distributed among those present.

From a gastronomic point of view, the distinguishing feature of panettone is that it is leavened two or three times. Its golden colour derives from the skilful combination of butter and egg yolks, while its overall beauty is completed by the orange, green and brown notes resulting from the addition of candied fruit and raisins. The gourmet trick is to warm it for a few minutes in front of an open oven or on top of a radiator before serving it.

» Dulcis in fundo, are the city's famous desserts, pastries and confectionery. In addition to world famed Italian gelato, an absolute "must" in summer, year-round you can also try Milan's traditional Tiramisù (although the main ingredient of the classic recipe includes coffee, there are also other variations on the theme) and Profiteroles, mouth watering chocolate coated puffs filled with custard. Finally, there are also a number of other typical delicacies that are prepared during the holiday season including Colomba (at Easter) and Chiacchiere and Frittelle (at Carnival) and panettone (at Christmas).

Milan is the home of the Aperitivo

Aperitivo and Happy Hour in the city are most definitely a ritual which no Milanese is prepared to forego

The Aperitivo, the beloved Milanese tradition of pre-dinner drinks, is accompanied by complimentary "stuzzichini" and an all-you-can-eat buffet. Spreads range from traditional olives, nuts, cheeses and potato chips to awesome pasta dishes, "bruschetta", cold cuts, crudités, raw fish and fruit salads. Generally, lasting for 3 hours from 6 to 9pm (though most people rarely get there until 7pm), the aperitivo scene has become an evening meeting for people of all ages. Cocktails – alcoholic or not – are expertly mixed and a Negroni, Negroni sbagliato (a delicious mix of prosecco, red vermouth and Aperol instead of gin) or a Spritz are Milanese specialties. Favourite beverages consumed during this beloved tradition in Milan include also the city's renowned Martini, Prosecco or Campari, accompanied by an all-you-can-eat buffet.

TYPES OF VENUES

A myriad of venues, ranging from the smallest bars to larger, uberchic locations situated in the heart of the city, organize this event. There are 3 types of venues: design bars, traditional bars (the places that have written Milan's history) and, the latest trend, all luxury hotel bars.

WHERE TO GO

There are endless aperitivo options. Several of the most famous are situated in Piazza Sempione or Corso Como and offer a stretch of great bars with a glam vibe where, if you're lucky, you might run into a famous super-model or footballer. Others also worth note, featuring a more laid-back atmosphere, can be found in Brera or the Navigli area. A sign of a popular place are crowds of young people spilling out onto the streets with a drink in one hand and a plate in the other. Unlike other countries, the Milanese are quite happy to stop at one drink, so things rarely get out of hand. A fabulous idea to relax at the end of a long day and the perfect opportunity to enjoy a fabulous cocktail paired with good food at affordable prices.

AFTER THE APERITIVO...

In fact, during aperitivo hour, people start thinking about where to go for dinner, in a city boasting a highly eclectic offer. There are three main areas dedicated to nighttime entertainment featuring a concentration of venues:
• Navigli District: an area characterized by places offering live music, patronized by artists, models, musicians and university students. Must-try options are its boat bars and the area's old osterie where you can sample an array of wines, cold cuts and typical cheeses.

• Brera District: an historic area boasting a warren of characteristic venues offering live music and, believe it or not, fortunetellers who are happy to predict your future for a small fee...
• Garibaldi district & Corso Como: this is Milan's most fashionable area by night, where not only will you find a bevy of pizzeria, restaurants, pubs and discotheques, but also possibly chance upon showbiz celebs and sports heroes.

INSIDER TIPS

Drink prices range from about 7-10 euros although several of the more luxe, upmarket places might ask as much as 15 euros. Not only will you be paying for a more lavish buffet but it will probably also serve as your ticket to VIP and celeb watching. Milan is the capital of cocktail hour snacking and practically ever bar and club in the city offers some kind of happy hour, competing to offer the most alluring pre-dinner scene in town.
