Giuseppe Sala
Mayor of Milan

I am glad to welcome you in Milan.

No matter whether you are in our city for business or on holiday, whether you are staying for just one day or decide to spend a week. From the most representative places - such as Duomo, Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, Teatro alla Scala - to those that show the modern face of the city - such as Porta Nuova or CityLife -, from Darsena to the many city museums, from the street art works that color our neighborhoods to the most fashionable and niche clubs, Milan will conquer you. You will fall in love with its 26 centuries of history, its being traditional, international and open to innovation at the same time, I am sure.

Giuseppe Sala

Lombardy Region

Lombardy is a region that presents a perfect mix of nature, history, art, culture with innovation and technology. It offers a passion and authenticity you will seldom see elsewhere: there are countless things to do here. For example, in Milan you can spend your time in wonderful and breathtaking places such as the Castello Sforzesco, the monumental Duomo or La Scala theatre. But you can find cultural beauties also in the provinces visiting palazzos, archaeological parks, castles, and villas: pieces that make up the puzzle in a rare cultural landscape.

Lombardy is also a perfect destination for those who love mountain holidays in front the amazing scenery of the Alps and I am sure that with many activities on offer, finding what to do will certainly be easy. Moreover, we must not forget our four great lakes and the countless smaller ones where you can spend pleasant vacations or just a weekend. Exploring the territory through its extraordinary flavours is another way to come face to face with the local identity, Lombardy is full of restaurants and cellars hiding some of the delicious local gastronomy you can also discover the varied regional cuisine experiencing the wonder of hundreds of events and festivals around the region. You will discover unexpected corners, choose an itinerary full of unique experiences and Lombardy will surprise you!

Welcome back to Milan.

After the two terrible years of the pandemic, the city finally reopens to life. This June sees a return to the numbers of 2019, a year in which millions of visitors invaded the city, ever more beautiful, ever more packed with activities and experiences.

This month you will find the Salone del Mobile.Milano, the world's most important design event (from 7 to 12 June), once again coming out of the precincts of the Rho Fairgrounds to invade the streets with hundreds of fun "Fuorisalone" proposals. Also back are the Milano Fashion Week Men's in attendance with lots of fashion shows (from 17 to 21 June) and dream cars with MIMO Milano Monza Motor Show (from 16 to 19 June). And international shows arrive such as the Elton John (4 June) and Rolling Stones (21 June) concerts at the SanSiro Stadium. New hotels open and airline flights fill up.

We too have renewed ourselves in recent years, especially with the new carbon-free distribution method that you are probably using now as you read us; thanks to QRcodes, we can reach the whole world without using paper and avoiding physical transport by road. We have therefore decided as of this month to extend our coverage (information and distribution) to the entire Lombardy region.

As you know, Lombardy is also mountains and lakes. So don't miss the opportunity to visit the lakes of Lombardy by taking advantage of the train plus lake navigation offer (see page 16).

DISCOVER AND ENJOY

With June marking the beginning of summer, there are many events in the city. From the unmissable Milano Design Week with the Salone del Mobile.Milano and the countless events of the Fuorisalone, to the great art and photography exhibitions.

On these pages you will find some advice to help you find your way around the rich offer that Milan has in store for you.

EVERYONE AT FUORISALONE!

On the occasion of Milano Design Week (6-12 June), the city's most popular event is back. Here are several of the most important Fuorisalone events to mark in your diary.

Milan is once again a key player on the international design scene: designers, companies and universities will present ideas and installations to try to imagine the future, sharing solutions that can innovate and anticipate the times.

The event takes place in conjunction with the Salone del Mobile.Milano, which this year celebrates its 60th edition, reflecting its commitment to the ecological transition of the furniture system.

This edition of Fuorisalone, entitled "TraSpazio e Tempo" (Between Space and Time), is an invitation to reflect on the changes taking place in today's world needed to achieve the sustainability objectives that are essential for looking to the future.

>> Brera Design Week features a calendar of over 160 events including exhibitions, installations, group shows and new products. "Designing the present, choosing the future" is the theme proposed: finding solutions today to meet the challenges of tomorrow is also the task of design, a subject that is debated all year round and finds its climax during Design Week.

>> Tortona Rocks proposes for the week edition "MATERIA: New perspectives in design": a reflection on new design practices that use alternative materials. Highlight of the seventh edition is the installation by IQOS, a large-scale temporary public art intervention that continues the company's evolutionary path between art and technology.

>> BASE presents the second edition of "We Will Design": designers from all over the world, schools, universities, institutions and young students come together in an experimental laboratory of imagination and inclusion, in which design experiences become a tool to address the contradictions of the present.

>> Superstudio proposes the theme "Looking Ahead" to anticipate the Superdesign Show: a spontaneous "village", developing in areas of interest with "buildings" and site-specific installations in which to wander freely.

>> Milano Durini Design offers new products and exclusive lifestyle settings to professionals and design lovers. It also presents a new concept-district aimed at underlining the importance of the showrooms belonging to the Association to enhance the district also in other periods of the year.

>> 5VIE Design Week returns for its ninth edition with the annual event dedicated to cross-disciplinary design practices, collectibles and unique pieces. This year it will take place around the route of the co-construction of perspectives of meaning and collective visions for the design of a shared future, in the name of creativity.

>> The sixth edition of Isola Design Festival presents the theme "Together As One" and welcomes more than 250 international designers and design studios, in addition to local galleries and artisans, distributed among more than 30 locations in one of Milan's liveliest neighbourhoods.

>> Alcova, the exhibition project conceived by Joseph Grima of Space Caviar and

The INTERNI Design Re-Generation installations, designed by distinguished national and international designers, will be as usual at the Università degli Studi, at the Botanical Garden of Brera, at the Audi House of Progress and in several locations in Milan.

Certosa Initiative

Valentina Ciu of Studio Vedèt, is four years old and returns to the Inganni area, in the disused spaces of the military hospital in Baggio, creating synergies between emerging designers, artists, galleries and institutions.

>> Design Variations, the traditional event curated by MoscaPartners, leaves Palazzo Litta to take place in two new historic locations: the Circolo Filologico Milanese, in the Brera Design District, and Palazzo Visconti, a stone's throw from Corso Monforte. The artist Olimpia Zagnoli will present a site-specific work aimed at enhancing the new venues of the collective.

>> Certosa Initiative is one of the novelties of the 2022 edition curated by Beyond Space and Organization in Design. It is an exhibition project that takes shape in a post-industrial space of over 10,000 square metres in which emerging talents and some of the most important brands in the sector interact.

>> Baranzate Ateliers, for the second consecutive year at the Fuorisalone, proposes in the former Necchi factory, an icon of Italy's industrial heritage, an exhibition path dedicated to collectible design and experimental art that takes shape 3 thousand square metres.

>> Masterly-The Dutch in Milan is the group show that, since 2016, brings together and brings to Italy a rich selection of Dutch design, craftsmanship and art, under the curatorship of its founder, Nicole Uniquole. The event takes place in PalazzoTurati, blending with the majesty of the neo-Renaissance building.

>> Rossana Orlandi returns with Ro Plastic Prize. In its four years of activity it has seen more than 1800 participants, with an average age of 35, from 60 different countries touching all 5 continents. The prize has three categories: Urban and Public Design, Educational Social Media, Innovative and Tech Projects.

>> Triennale Milano presents both permanent exhibitions, such as the Museum of Italian Design and Casa Lana by Ettore Sottsass, and a series of events during Milano Design Week. "Memphis Again", in collaboration with Memphis Milano, and "Ettore Sottsass. Struttura e colore" are two of the exhibition events available to the public.

>> "ID-Exe", a real widespread district, created by D.O.S (Design Open Spaces). In dozens of points in the city which, for the first time in the history of the Fuorisalone, hybridises the real world and the virtual world, creating new scenarios that come to life on smartphones and tablets, overcoming the limits of space and time.

SALONE DEL MOBILE.MILANO 60TH EDITION • 7-12 JUNE 2022

The Salone Internazionale del Mobile, the Salone Internazionale del Complemento d'Arredo and Workplace3.0 will offer numerous and varied aesthetic paths. At EuroCucina and Salone Internazionale del Bagno, cutting-edge solutions for optimising water and energy consumption will be on show. FTK (Technology For the Kitchen) will showcase the future, towards an efficient, effective and sustainable Smart Kitchen. S.Project, the exhibition dedicated to design products and decorative and technical solutions for interior design, will be back. The theme of the SaloneSatellite will be "Designing for our future selves / Progettare per i nostri domani". An edition that will invite us to reflect on design that "includes", promoting autonomy, comfort, movement, interaction and safety for all.

THE SALONE IN SHORT

The 2022 events will bring together more than 2,000 exhibitors, including more than 600 young designers under 35. At the fair, visitors will walk into stands that will be both architectural and communicative elements. Spaces that will welcome visitors to showcase the new collections and lifestyle concepts of the individual brands: an immersive visitor experience.

Environmental and social wellbeing will be the theme of "Design with Nature", the installation designed by architect Mario Cucinella for the Salone's "birthday" and hosted in S.Project's pavilion 15: 1,400 square metres telling of a virtuous ecosystem that would ideally represent the future of living.

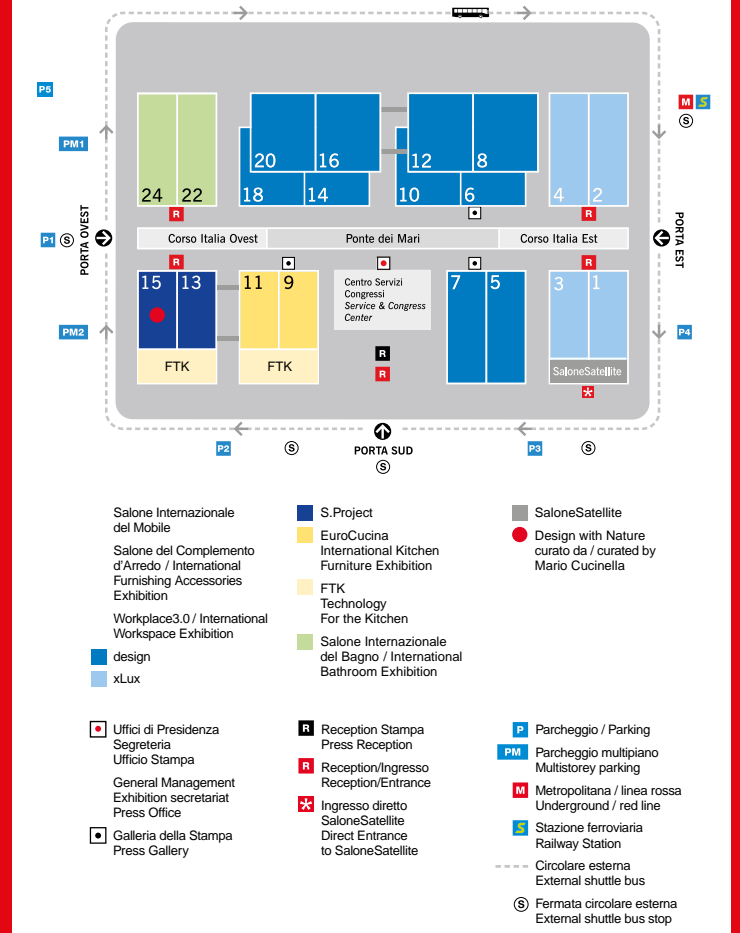

The 60th edition of the Salone del Mobile. Milano will also cross the borders of the Fair to arrive in the city: from 7 June, in the Sala delle Cariatidi of Palazzo Reale, a monumental site-specific installation will be staged dedicated to 11 values that have always been imprinted in the DNA of the Exhibition.

11 art-house films by 11 great Italian directors will be screened.

The Show will open with a concert at the Teatro alla Scala by the Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Maestro Lorenzo Viotti and will be followed by a ballet with Roberto Bolle as the extraordinary protagonist.

GALLERIE D'ITALIA-PIAZZA SCALA
25 MAY-18 SEPTEMBER

‡ A COLLECTION OF COLLECTIONS

EXHIBITION From the Torlonia Collection, the most important private collection of classical statuary, 96 marbles are on display at the Gallerie d'Italia, including five recently restored works. The Collection's worldwide exhibition programme is thus inaugurated in Milan, and will conclude with the identification of a permanent exhibition venue for the new Torlonia Museum. This group of masterpieces is the result of a long series of acquisitions and some significant movements of sculptures between the various residences of the Torlonia family. The final section devoted entirely to restoration is remarkable, where the "Hercules" composed of 112 pieces dialogues with the sculpture of "Leda with a Swan": in both works, various phases of the cleaning process are visible, to illustrate the challenges facing contemporary restoration. Gallerie d'Italia has supported this fundamental work of conservation by contributing to this restoration.

LEONARDO3 MUSEUM -
IL MONDO DI LEONARDO

The Leonardo3 museum in Piazza della Scala, at the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II entrance, is a unique opportunity to discover and learn more about Leonardo da Vinci. On display in the historic Sale del Re over 200 interactive 3D machines and working physical reconstructions, almost all of which have never been created before. From the analysis of the original manuscripts of the Tuscan genius by the Leonardo3 study centre, brand-new machines have been recreated: the Harpsichord-Viola, the Mechanical Lion, the Submarine, the Rapid-Fire Crossbow, the Great Kite and many others. The museum offer is constantly evolving with new content. Visitors have the opportunity to consult Leonardo's writings in digital format, interacting with his inventions through new and engaging ways such as interactive stations and virtual reality.

PALAZZO REALE, UNTIL 26 JUNE
^ SOROLLA, PAINTER OF LIGHT

EXHIBITION For the first time in Italy, a monographic exhibition traces the rich and successful artistic production of the Spanish painter Joaquín Sorolla y Bastida (1863-1923). Little known to the general public, Sorolla was one of the leading representatives of modern Iberian painting at the turn of the 19th and 20th centuries, making a decisive contribution to its renewal. On display at Palazzo Reale, 60 works divided into 5 thematic sections retrace the extraordinary career of this Spanish painter who was among the most appreciated of his time. The works of Sorolla, a great interpreter of "en plein air" painting, lead visitors to encounter the light of the Mediterranean, to discover it as it passes through gardens, landscapes and faces.

CARTIER-BRESSON
IN CHINA: FORM AND SUBSTANCE OF REALITY

PHOTOGRAPHY This exhibition project narrates two Chinese reportages by the great exponent of world photojournalism Henri Cartier-Bresson, famous for his "decisive instant" in photography. The eye of his lens picks up on important themes of change in contemporary Chinese history, presenting to the Western world even aspects kept hidden by regime propaganda. A corpus of over one hundred original prints and a collection of documents and archival materials tell the story of two key moments in China's history: the fall of the Kuomintang (1948-1949) and Mao Zedong's "Great Leap Forward" (1958).

Bergamo

WELCOME TO LOMBARDY

The Lombardy region is one of the richest in attractions in Italy. The area, between Switzerland and Emilia-Romagna, Veneto and Piedmont, offers countless destinations for day trips from Milan.

In addition to Milan, there are 11 main cities that preserve traces of centuries of art and culture - Bergamo, Brescia, Como, Cremona, Lecco, Mantua, Monza and Brianza, Pavia, Sondrio and Varese - and hundreds of smaller villages with art, history and traditions. But Lombardy also has some unmissable natural beauty, such as the vast Po Valley, the parks and the Pre-Alps with the five largest lakes: Garda, Maggiore, Como, Iseo, Lugano and Ceresio.

With its 10 Unesco Sites, as well as 3 intangible heritages including the lutherie art of Cremona, Lombardy is the Italian region with the largest number of such sites: Valle Camonica's Rock Art, Santa Maria delle Grazie and the Cenacolo Vinciano, the Workers' Village of Crespi d'Adda, the Sacred Mountains of Piedmont and Lombardy, the Rhaetian Railway between Tirano and Saint Moritz, Mantua and Sabbioneta, Monte San

Giorgio, the prehistoric pile-dwelling sites in the Alps, the Lombard monuments and the city walls of Bergamo. For those who love panoramic places, a trip to Monte Isola is a must, with its breathtaking view of Lake Iseo; to the Sacro Monte of Varese with a view over the plain from the Alps to the Apennines; the Brunate cable car with an absolute view of Lake Como; the ascent to the Torrazzo of Cremona, the highest masonry tower in Europe; the Terrazza del Brivido in Tremosine overlooking Lake Garda at a height of 350 metres.

>> Taking a train trip to Lombardy's cities of art is the ideal way to rediscover, in a comfortable and sustainable way, the beauty of our region's towns, visiting exhibitions, museums and monuments. www.trenord.it/giteintreno/citta-darte

‡ The symbol of Milan, the city of design, fashion and business, is the Duomo, close to which are the 18th-century Teatro alla Scala and the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II: these are the three most visited landmarks in the city. Not to be missed are the Sforza Castle, the Basilica of Sant'Ambrogio, the complex that houses the Church of Santa Maria delle Grazie and the Cenacolo Vinciano.

‰ Two cities within a city, Bergamo ("Alta" and "Bassa") is linked by two funicular railways. Five kilometres of walls surround domes, towers and palaces, including the Accademia Carrara, the Piazza Vecchia, with its Civic Tower and the Palazzo del Podestà, the "perfect" square also loved by the architect Le Corbusier. Bergamo is also the birthplace of the composer Gaetano Donizetti, to whom the city dedicates a major opera festival every year. (50 km from Milan)

^ Known throughout the world as the "City of Art and Music", Cremona is the cradle of the violin, as it is home to the Violin Museum. In the medieval Piazza del Comune you will find the Cathedral, the Torrazzo, the highest in Italy at 121 m, the Baptistry, the Gothic Loggia dei Militi and the Palazzo del Comune. Don't miss a visit to the magnificent Ponchielli Theatre, home to important musical and theatrical seasons. (76 km from Milan)

‡ Brescia presents itself in its Renaissance guise with its marvellous salon squares, an embattled castle, two cathedrals, a theatre created as a tribute to Napoleon Bonaparte and the Museum of Santa Giulia, a Unesco World Heritage Site. The famous 1000 Miglia race has been held here every year since 1927, and in September the world's best-loved Opera Festival takes place here, transforming the entire city into a magical open-air theatre. (95 km from Milan)

^ In a natural setting of rare beauty lies the city of Lecco, where Alessandro Manzoni set his masterpiece "I Promessi Sposi" (The Betrothed), and where there are monuments in baroque and neoclassical style. The Lecco branch of Lake Como is characterised by the S. Martino and Barro mountains, the Resegone and the Grigne. Lecco is the starting point for fantastic trips around the lake, to discover historical villas and sumptuous palaces. (55 km from Milan)

‰ Como is the city of water, light and silk, rich in history and culture. The Volta Temple is a small Pantheon on the banks of the Lario, built in memory of the physicist Alessandro Volta. Strolling within the medieval walls, among alleyways and old shops, the late Gothic Cathedral and the imposing Broletto from 1215 stand out. A dynamic and entrepreneurial town. (50 km from Milan)

‡ Lodi is a small Lombard town in the lower Po Valley, rich in art and history with many green areas. Places to visit include the neoclassical Palazzo Broletto, the 15th-century Palazzo Vistarini, the Basilica della Vergine Assunta, a Romanesque cathedral, and the Tempio Civico dell'Incoronata, a masterpiece of the Lombard Renaissance in the style of Bramante. (38 km from Milan)

% Mantua, the tranquil and elegant city of the Gonzagas, is surrounded on three sides by water from which you can enjoy a fascinating city skyline. Sung about for its beauty by famous writers such as Virgil, Baudelaire and Dickens, the city is told through its many monuments, including the Rotonda di San Lorenzo, Palazzo Te, Palazzo Ducale and the Duomo. (185 km from Milan)

‡ Over the course of history, the Romans, the Lombards and the Habsburg and Napoleonic dominations have passed through Monza, leaving precious legacies such as the Villa Reale, a sumptuous neoclassical palace with its famous park around it, of enormous historical, natural and artistic value, one of the largest in Europe. Every year Monza is ready to host the Formula 1 Grand Prix in September. (18 km from Milan)

% Pavia, in the heart of the Lombardy plain, is home to one of the oldest universities in the world. Rich in art and nature, it preserves evidence of its culture in the Castello Visconteo. Of considerable historical and religious interest are San Pietro in Ciel d'Oro, where the remains of Saint Augustine are kept, and the Basilicas of San Teodoro and San Michele Maggiore. Don't miss a walk on the romantic Ponte Vecchio, which connects the historical centre with the picturesque Borgo Ticino district. (45 km from Milan)

^ Sondrio is a town of Lombard origin in the heart of the Valtellina. The historical centre is characterised by stone houses and houses with wooden galleries typical of the most beautiful mountain towns. The precious architecture of the Torre Ligariana and the historic buildings is remarkable. A stop at a crocchio or a typical restaurant is a must in the area to savour the typical cuisine based on pizzoccheri and Sassella or Inferno wine. (135 km from Milan)

^ Varese, also known as a "garden city", enjoys a wealth of landscape, architecture and art that have been appreciated since the last century, when the city became a holiday destination with its prestigious Art Nouveau villas and hotels. An unmissable destination for contemporary art lovers is the 18th-century Villa Panza with its unique collection. (58 km from Milan)

LAKESIDE DESTINATIONS

Lying North of Milan, each year the lakes of Lombardy attract millions of visitors thanks to their mild climate, breathtaking scenery, natural beauties and historic and artistic treasures. Don't miss a day at the lake with Trenord with special all inclusive train+boat tickets!

The shores of Lake Maggiore wash up on the banks of Piedmont and Lombardy in Italy, while its more austere northern basin lies in the mountainous region of Switzerland. The most famous island, lying just off Stresa – a small, elegant town, rich in neoclassic and liberty buildings and a shopping mecca boasting a myriad of boutiques – is Isola Bella, anchored like a fantastic ship-garden and dominated by the majestic Palazzo Borromeo, built in the 17th century and rich in art treasures, including the private collection of Milan's most famous aristocratic family. The Borromeo clan also owned Rocca di Angera, an imposing fortress (12th-17th century) boasting opulent ambiances, of which the most famous is the Sala di Giustizia. The "Rocca" also has a medieval garden (www.isoleborromeo.it). Lake Como is the romantic and worldly older sister of Maggiore and Garda and takes its name from the city of Como. "Must-visit" sights include the Gothic Duomo, the Romanic basilicas of San Fedele and Sant'Abbondio and the neoclassic Villa Olmo. Nestling on the banks of Lake Como in Lenno and currently owned by FAI – a private non-profit trust – Villa del Balbianello is a magnificent example of a perfectly preserved 18th century dwelling. Surrounded by a stunning, terraced panoramic garden, with a breathtaking view of the lake, the Villa is one of the area's most romantic retreats. Standing on the tip of a promontory overlooking the waters of the lake, the Villa was chosen by director George Lucas as one of the evocative settings for the famous "Star Wars" series. Lying just a stone's throw northwest of Como is Cernobbio, a small fashionable resort frequented by the wealthy of Europe because of its deluxe hotel Villa d'Este and Villa Erba where director Luchino Visconti spent his childhood (www.villaerba.it). Continuing North, we find Isola Comacina a jewel of art and nature, rich in Mediterranean vegetation and one of the most important archaeological sites of the dark ages in Northern Italy. In nearby Tremezzo, don't miss a visit to the Baroque-style Villa Carlotta, featuring an Italian garden and sculptures by Canova. At the junction of the southern arm of the lake lies Bellagio, also referred to as the pearl of Como, set in a strategic position to soak up the panorama. Don't miss a visit to the other lakes that are also easily accessible from Milan. These include Lake Lugano, where the enchanting towns of Morcote, Melide and Lugano offer many cultural attractions and charming itineraries; Lake Iseo, a gem of rare beauty nestled between the provinces of Bergamo and Brescia; Lake Garda attracting millions of visitors every year thanks to its mild climate, its old-fashioned atmosphere and its breathtaking scenery, including scenic roads along the coast, Renaissance villas, Romanesque hamlets and small villages.

Satellite, jewellery from the stars

Satellite Paris, house of high fashion jewellery, has its Italian flagship store in the very central Via Manzoni.

The Parisian brand designs and creates its cosmopolitan collections, a constantly renewed alchemy inspired by a blend of cultures, travel and Parisian elegance. Baroque, graphic or ethnic, discreet or whimsical, Satellite rings "sign" the wearer's hand and can be customised. Bracelets can be tried on in all styles: ethnic, delicate bangle, graphic, baroque, sophisticated bracelet or maxi metal chain. Earrings are the Maison's signature piece of jewellery, setting the pace for all the season's feminine creations: worn in pairs or separately, alone or with other Satellite Paris creations, they are available in sleeper, hoop, clip-on or pierced earring styles. Very delicate or with large links, ethnic, minimalist or very show off, beautiful women's necklaces add brightness to an outfit. For a stacked, mix & match effect, don't hesitate to combine all models in order to mix materials and colours. The jewellery is entirely designed in the Paris atelier. Each piece is unique. Each creation is the expression of many talents: metal founders and engravers, gilders, stone carvers and polishers, embroiderers, lace makers and enamellers. By using precious stones mixed with beads, feathers and silk thread trimmings, a mix of rich and bold combinations is created.

Strolling through Milan

Milan, famous for being one of the fashion capitals of the world, has always something new to reveal, from its main shopping streets, always up-to-date with trends from abroad, to fabulous niche venues with sought-after products.

WINDOW 1,5 h SHOPPING

THE LEGENDARY MONTENAPOLEONE

Although high-end purchases can be made in any part of the city, several urban areas are also entirely given over to the business of luxury shopping. First and foremost, the Quadrilatero della Moda or Golden Quad, situated just east of the Piazza della Scala and a short distance on foot from the Duomo. This is where all the big designer names and most luxurious stores in the world cluster. The Quadrilatero set amidst four of Milan's most expensive and prestigious shopping streets, namely via Montenapoleone, via Manzoni, via della Spiga and corso Venezia. It is here that the most important fashion designers offer their luxurious creations. It's an open-air shopping mall, where haute couture takes centre stage and with its cornucopia of eye-catching window displays it makes the eyes of even the most hardened fashionistas sparkle. Here, in the space of just a few hundred metres, you'll find everything your heart desires, including boutiques, museums, restaurants and luxury hotels. If fashion is your thing and you're interested in learning more about its history, then a visit to Palazzo Morando (www.costumemodaimagine.mi.it), the headquarters of the museum of costumes, fashion and image, is an absolute must. Discover the world of fashion and glamour in this unique, magical pedestrian precinct (also featuring a number of small side streets dotted with glam boutiques). Well worth exploring from top to bottom.

CORSO VITTORIO EMANUELE & VIA TORINO: TRENDY SHOPPING

WINDOW 2,5 h SHOPPING

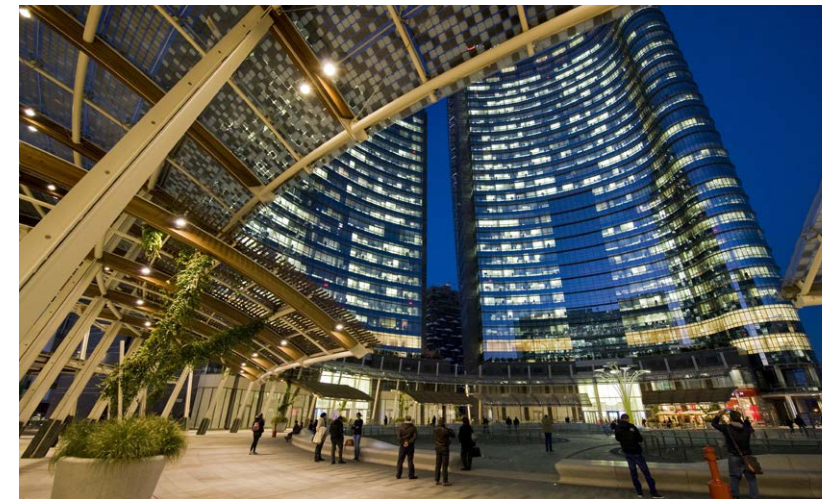

Trendy venues can be found starting from Piazza Duomo and corso Vittorio Emanuele II which leads to piazza San Babila, and the nearby via Torino, which stretches as far as porta Ticinese (from here you can access the Navigli and the recently revamped Darsena). These are the shopping meccas for youngsters and fashion-interested Milanese, in search of the latest trends. These areas boast loads and loads of shops and it's easy to get lost among the myriad offers of ever-changing, ready-to-wear fashion.

PORTA NUOVA: MODERN TIMES

WINDOW 30 min SHOPPING

Beneath the imposing UniCredit Tower, one of the symbols of the Milanese skyline, you'll find the newest and most modern part of Milan, home to the skyscrapers of Porta Nuova and Piazza Gae Aulenti (which is dedicated to one of the 'greats' of Milanese design), a real jewel of architecture and design with its increasing number of boutiques. This is really one of Milan's most contemporary, fashionable districts, bursting with buzzy bars that cater to the traditional aperitivo ritual, a destination where hip youngsters are always in the limelight. In addition to the latter, the area also contains the Corso Como complex, where you'll find some of the most famous and fanciest clubs in Milan alongside fashion and art hotspots. If shopping is your objective you'll be spoilt for choice in piazza Gae Aulenti. The piazza hosts numerous bookshops, perfumeries and design or clothing shops.

THE STREET OF TIME IN MILAN

In Milan, there are many evocative locations where jewellery collections are designed and handcrafted: exclusive lines that accompany those wearing them on a day-to-day basis, accentuating and highlighting their personalities. Discover the best spots to buy exquisite "made in Milan" craftsmanship, a precious silver or gold jewel, a hand-made diamond encrusted accessory, or maybe a gift for your beloved one. Several of the most prestigious watch manufacturers in the world have home in Milan. Via Pietro Verri has earned the title "Street of Time" and Pisa Orologeria is the reference point of high-class Italian watchmaking for Milanese with a refined taste as well as for an increasingly international clientele.

All Satellite objects of desire

The original handmade creations by Satellite Paris are jewellery-talismans imbued with French art and craftsmanship. Since the mid-80s, Satellite Paris has been creating surprising and original jewellery that didn't exist anywhere else. The brand's distinctive design, a rich mix of baroque fantasy, ethnic details and French craftsmanship, still seduces with its maximalist necklaces, rings, earrings and bracelets. Thirty years later, Satellite Paris remains W P E N C U U K , C D N G joyful and cosmopolitan. The Parisian design house proudly perpetuates its heritage: the love of colours, the profusion of beautiful materials, the passing on of know-how and skills, the taste for mix & match. Its timeless creations interpret different styles: romantic/girly (shimmering colours and beautiful materials), feminine (elegant and timeless), baroque (exuberant shapes and colours), graphic (modern and linear), glamorous or colourful. By using precious stones mixed with beads, feathers and silk thread trimmings, a mix of rich and bold combinations is created. www.satelliteparis-boutique.com

Design at your feet
by Fratelli Rossetti

“Design at your feet” is the Fuorisalone 2022 event that sees designers from the international scene take on the world of footwear. The two architects Ludovica+Roberto Palomba have designed a new genderless sandal for Fratelli Rossetti and redesigned the windows of the boutique in Via Montenapoleone 1: a “cage sandal” made of soft black leather with an avant-garde sole, which combines geometric and essential lines with a decisive and rigorous mood in an original way. The model, produced in a limited edition, will be available exclusively in Milan boutiques and on the e-boutique fratellirossetti.com.

The Fratelli Rossetti boutiques can be found at Via Montenapoleone 1, Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II (see photo) and Corso Magenta 17; these are joined by the recently opened boutiques at Milano Linate and Milano Malpensa airports.

Trendy Milanese, who could never mingle in big crowds, shop in the Ticinese area and surrounding neighbourhoods. Here, amongst the columns of San Lorenzo and the Navigli, you'll find numerous trendy boutiques, niche labels and small vintage shops where, if you know how to look, it's still possible to bag a bargain and find showrooms that sell to the public. Together with Brera, the Navigli is one of the most picturesque districts in old Milan. The Navigli and the Darsena are two favourites among the locals, who love to enjoy the traditional aperitivo here, but are also a must-visit for visitors who will find themselves seduced by the artistic atmosphere of its numerous painters' studios. If you're interested in discovering the city from a different perspective, treat yourself to a picturesque cruise on the Navigli (www.milancanalcruises.it).

CORSO BUENOS AIRES: THE LONGEST SHOPPING STREET IN EUROPE

Since opening in 1782, Corso Buenos Aires has been one of the most important commercial thoroughfares in Milan where an increasing number of 'maxi boutiques' have taken up residence. A real shoppers' paradise, it offers one and a half kilometres of window displays, with shops for all tastes and all budgets: sophisticated boutiques, alternated with trendy stores offering all types of merchandise and numerous bars for a quick snack. Its side streets abound in restaurants, many of which are ethnic. A Saturday afternoon favourite with Milanese shoppers of all ages.

Nowadays this is one of the liveliest areas of the city, still maintaining a characteristic atmosphere that summons its past, when the district was inhabited by artists and bohemians. Its narrow cobble streets host a number of interesting chic antique shops, galleries, cafés, restaurants and bars. If this is where you're headed, make sure to wear 'flatties', these cobble streets were not originally designed for heels! The area is expanding rapidly and its neighbouring streets, including Corso Garibaldi and Corso Como, are home to several of the trendiest addresses in the city. In fact, as you walk through this historic district, you will be struck by the almost surreal atmosphere, and a treasure trove of small artists' workshops, quaint shops selling canvases and paints and antique shops of this area. Highlights include the masterpieces at the Pinacoteca, the historic Biblioteca Nazionale Braidense, the Astronomical Museum, the oldest institute of scientific research in the city, and the Botanical Gardens, an evocative green oasis in the heart of the city. Brera never ceases to amaze and now, in addition to its picturesque artists' workshops, countless boutiques showcasing rare essences are springing up, transforming Brera into a 'district of Artistic Perfumery'.

The oldest and biggest Chinese district in Italy is an interesting location for a quiet walk or to take a look at the typical products displayed at the shiny windows at both sides of the road. This pedestrian district stretches over the central via Paolo Sarpi and reaches the nearby via Bramante, via Aleardi and via Niccolini, forming a real city within the city. Christmas, Chinese New Year and the Oriental Design Week or one on the liveliest atmospheres packed with events and are the best times to admire a triumph of lantern lighting and decorative elements.

ISOLA, A COOL VILLAGE

Walking north from Piazza Gae Aulenti, the heart of Milan's most futuristic area, we arrive at Isola, a historic and popular neighbourhood that in recent years has become the city's coolest area. A "small neighbourhood in the middle of a big city" offering typical aperitif spots, small vintage shops and craft workshops with unique products, in a youthful context characterised by murals and banister houses.

Tax Free Refund Guide

According to the Italian law, non-EU resident travellers who are leaving the EU territory by the third month of the year shall be granted VAT relief/refund for goods intended for personal use or family use purchased in Italy. This relief is surely an advantage for the foreign travellers: in fact, it allows to save from a minimum of 4% up to a maximum of 22% of the selling price of the goods purchased. Here is a guide according to the legislation to discover the common system of value added tax exclusively for non-EU resident travellers.

1. VAT (in Italian: IVA) is a value added tax on goods and services, and is part of the European unified tax system.

2. In some cases, travellers may be granted refund VAT. This refund does not cover the services supplied by hotels, restaurants, taxis or agencies.

3. You may be eligible for a VAT refund provided that:

- you are a non-EU resident;
- the goods purchased are intended for personal or family use only and are carried in your luggage;
- the overall value of the goods purchased exceeds 154,94 Euro (VAT included);
- the purchase is certified by an invoice which should include a description of the goods purchased, your personal information as well as the details of your passport or any other equivalent document;

4. The goods purchased and the relevant invoice must be shown at the customs exit point when leaving EU territory (if you intend to pack the purchased items in your checked-in luggage, you must go to Customs checking in).

5. After leaving EU territory, the traveller must return the original invoice, regularly endorsed by the customs office, to the Italian retailer. Said invoice must be returned within four months from the date when the document was issued.

6. The refund can be made directly by the Italian retailer (however, make sure that the shop you've chosen displays a "Tax Free Shopping" or "Euro Tax Free" sign in its window).

7. Several Tax-Free companies are able to offer immediate VAT cash refunds when the goods leave either Italian or EU territory (thus exonerating the passenger from having to return the invoice to the retailer). However, this procedure only applies at major international airports or main border crossings. Most major department stores have Tax Free Refund offices.

8. The services provided by Tax-Free companies imply the payment of a small administrative sum which is deducted from the amount of VAT refunded to the traveller.

9. In the event of a traveller not receiving a VAT refund within a reasonable period of time, he or she should contact the Italian retailer or one of the aforementioned companies.

10. However, please note, VAT cannot be refunded directly to the customs offices.

Jewelry from the roots of myths

Italy's culture is rooted in a multi-millennial history rich in myths, magic and artistic expressions of excellence. Gerardo Sacco is an excellent representative of this Italian character who bases his personal history on a deep culture and great creativity with a solid foundation. He was born in 1940 in Crotone and step by step trained in the goldsmith's profession before opening his workshop. The big leap onto the international stage came in the 1980s when the great director Franco Zeffirelli commissioned him to make the stage jewellery for the performance of Don Carlo. From here to cinema and even television, the step is short. Maestro Gerardo became the "Goldsmith of Divas" and his jewellery can be found worn by Liz Taylor or Glenn Close, to name a few. Today, inspired by his three children Viviana, Andrea and Antonio, he interprets contemporary style and his jewelry continues to tell stories of yesterday and today.

Amleto, Glenn Close

» MILAN IN THE HEART
What links Gerardo Sacco to Milan? First of all, the entrepreneurial spirit that made Milan be chosen as the base for the brand's international expansion. In Milan, in the historical heart of the city, Via Manzoni, he chose to open his boutique: a few steps away from La Scala where Maestro Gerardo Sacco was hired by Maestro Zeffirelli for the stage jewellery of a memorable edition of Don Carlo.

Milan's historic centre is contained within a relatively small area which is now mostly closed to traffic, meaning that it's easy to explore on foot. There's no need to choose between planning a 'cultural' itinerary or a 'shopping' itinerary because you can combine the two and get the most out of both. In addition to being packed with several of Milan's most famous attractions, this area is home to myriad shops, including big-name fashion brands, historic 'botteghe' and some of the city's most sought-after cafés, bars and eateries. In the space of just a few kilometers you'll find the Duomo, the Galleria, Teatro alla Scala, the Castle, the ancient Basilica di Sant'Ambrogio, as well as sporadic traces of 'Roman Milan', which was the first settlement and the predecessor of present-day Milan. In the immediate vicinity, overlooking the various sides of the large square surrounding it, you'll find several of the world's most exclusive addresses. For the ultimate one-stop shopping experience look no further than the Rinascente flagship store (under the arcades): an amazing array of fashion items under just one roof! By walking just a few steps from the Cathedral, in a north-westerly direction, you'll reach the Castello Sforzesco, another of the city's most symbolic monuments. The castle was the residence of the ruling families in Milan between the Middle Ages and the Renaissance. Today, it hosts several museums and one of the city's best-loved green spaces.

Another reference point for upmarket shopping is the picturesque, iconic and simply spectacular Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, home to the fashion giants and several high-class restaurants: a unique destination whose upper and lower spaces are well worth a visit. After honoring the Milanese tradition that requires firmly grinding the heel of your shoe into a bull depicted on the mosaic floor of the Galleria, which is said to bring luck, you can indulge yourself by purchasing something from one of the fabulous boutiques lining the Galleria.

» EDITOR'S TIP | A GLANCE TO THE HISTORY

A virtual masterpiece of eclectic architecture, it was designed by Giuseppe Mengoni between 1865 and 1867 to celebrate the birth of the Kingdom of Italy. By that time, the Galleria represented the greatest application of iron and glass-based technology to a civilian building. The majesty of its mosaics and the decorations of the buildings – now converted into shops, restaurants and offices – is naturally enhanced by the arching glass and cast iron roof (topped with a central glass dome standing at a height of 50 meters) which, together with its iron structure, was originally manufactured in France.

CORSO VERCELLI: A CHIC DISTRICT

WINDOW
2 h
SHOPPING

Corso Vercelli is a 'niche' shopping street which is less busy and easier to shop in than the city centre. Overlooked with small shops just waiting to be discovered, the street is embraced by a distinctive atmosphere that is further enhanced by the passage of historic trams giving this street an almost retro flavour. This is one of Milan's most upmarket districts: a residential area, still inhabited by Milan's upper crust, it epitomizes the traditional soul of the city and is distinguished by its air of sophistication, elegance and stunning residential architecture. Here you will come across several trendy shops for all tastes, offering clothing, footwear, home décor and eateries. What's more the area is located just a stone's throw from one of Milan's most important attractions: the Last Supper, Leonardo da Vinci's masterpiece admired each year by millions of visitors, the Parco Sempione, and the Triennale di Milano are also within easy walking distance, and, if you're feeling energetic, you can easily push onwards until you reach the Castello Sforzesco.

Advertorial

Gerardo Sacco, jewels telling a story

Gerardo Sacco's jewels are precious, elegant and refined artefacts that encapsulate a charm somewhere between the magical and the symbolic. Exclusive and magnetic, they blend style with the tradition of Calabria. Man's ingenuity and careful craftsmanship transform gold and silver into unique shapes, characterising the design. Entering the boutique that Gerardo Sacco wanted in Via Manzoni, because of his deep connection with the Teatro alla Scala, is like entering a wunderkammer where extraordinary jewels of fine Italian craftsmanship are collected, telling stories in a contemporary interpretation. Here you can admire the Mediterraneo, Mito and Magia collections, the three inspirations that nourish the creativity of Gerardo Sacco, who has always been inspired by his Italian homeland. Mediterraneo expresses a journey through the rituals and traditions of the various cultures that have succeeded one another in Calabria, home of Magna Graecia, where the sea plays a central role; Mito translates stories of passions, dreams and visions of ancient and contemporary heroes; Magia as a game to observe everyday life with a touch of irony. The brand's iconic jewel is the Reverse Oro.

Welcome to the new Obicà Cusani

In the heart of Milan, Obicà Cusani offers a luxurious gastronomic journey that respects the simplicity of Italian cuisine.

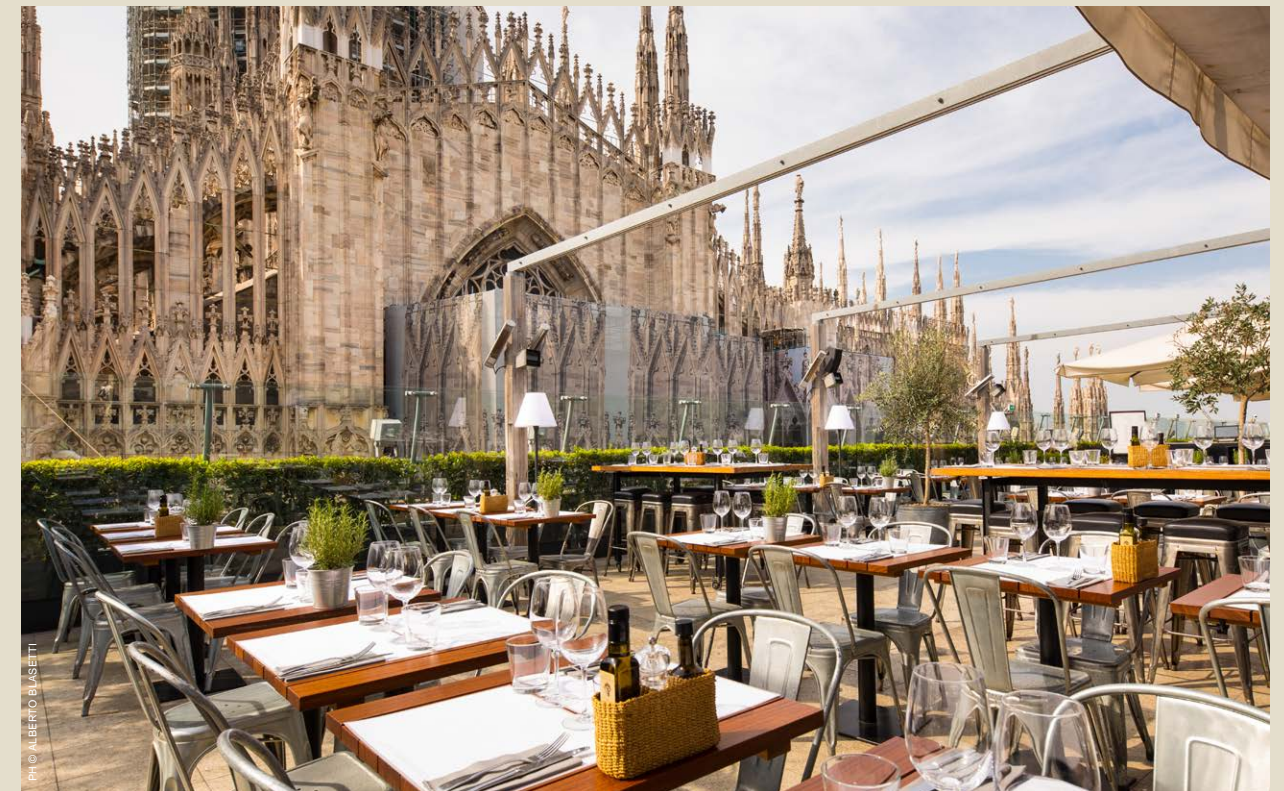

Milanese restaurant has thus succeeded in bringing the tradition, simplicity and purity of high quality Italian products into an environment that speaks of the future. The queen of the menu is the Mozzarella di Bufala Campana DOP - in Classic, Smoked and Bocconcini versions. Dairy products also include Stracciatella and Burrata Pugliesi and Ricotta di Bufala to be tasted with Small Plates of cold meats, vegetables and hot dishes, as well as leavened items such as Gnocco Fritto, Focacce and Crostini in different variations. An absolute novelty on the Obicà Cusani menu is the new Obicà Pizza dough, long leavening, round and baked in a wood-fired oven.

Advertorial

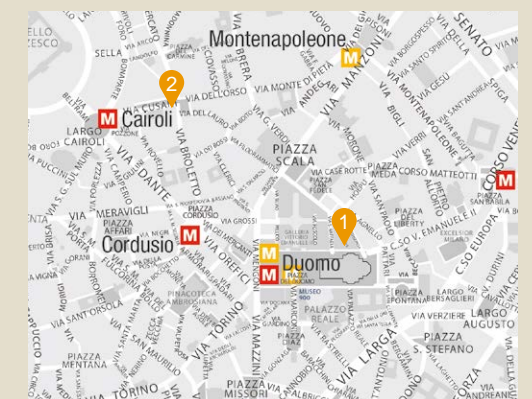

Obicà, not only Mozzarella and Pizza

Where in Milan can you enjoy the best Mozzarelle di Bufala Campana DOP, pizza and traditional Italian dishes in a cosy and convivial atmosphere? Obicà Duomo (at the Food Hall on the 7th floor of Rinascente), and the new Obicà Cusani in the Brera district, offer a selection of seasonal dishes made with the best Italian ingredients, divided into six types: Mozzarella Bar, Pizza, Pasta, Salads, Main Courses and Desserts.

At Obicà - which in Neapolitan dialect means "Here it is!" - the protagonist is Mozzarella (in the classic or smoked version or in the "bocconcini" format) made exclusively from buffalo milk. The selection of dairy products is completed by "Stracciatella" and "Burrata" from Puglia and "Ricotta di Bufala". Alongside dairy products, it is also possible to enjoy "Small Tasting" or "Gran Tagliere" of cold cuts. The Mozzarella Bar's menu also includes leavened items such as "Gnocco Fritto", "Focaccia" and "Crostini" in different variations, and another iconic dish: Pizza, prepared with stone-ground flour from 100% Italian wheat.

True Roman cuisine

A corner of Rome within the city of Milan: since 2012 this Ostaria Romana has brought true Roman cuisine to the city, with its tradition and mentality. In a cosy and informal environment, where the staff is ready to welcome you with sympathy and kindness, you can enjoy the best cuisine of the Roman tradition that has been handed down from generation to generation. From starters - artichokes "alla romana", p U W R R N È q C P F E T Q S W G V V G U V Q P C O G ranging from "bucatini all'amatriciana" to "spaghetti alla carbonara"; from more traditional main courses (baked lamb, "coda alla vaccinara" or "saltimbocca alla romana") to desserts with the inevitable Tiramisù. There is also a rich wine list that includes a selection of wines from Lazio. The menu is renewed every day, with new proposals according to the season. The restaurant is very popular for lunch and dinner, 7 days a week.

Roman cuisine with dehors

Together with the "Volemose Bene" restaurant in Via Moscova, this second Ostaria Romana in Milan is located in an elegant side of the city, not far from Central Station and a stone's throw from the Porta Nuova skyscrapers. Equipped with a large dehors, this restaurant has recently opened to welcome all those customers who already know the restaurant of the same name in Via Moscova and are looking for its f C X Q a n d T U atmosphere. A traditional and homely gastronomic proposal, also for the welcome and friendliness of the staff. The menu is wide-ranging and features the most typical dishes of Lazio cuisine: artichokes "alla romana", "suppli" and croquettes, "bucatini all'amatriciana", "spaghetti alla carbonara", baked lamb, "coda alla vaccinara", "saltimbocca alla romana" to name but a few, while desserts include the inevitable Tiramisù. The menu is renewed every day, with new proposals according to the season.

Milanese tasting

Milan offers a cuisine featuring a number of truly unusual flavours. Here is a brief guide to make sure that you don't miss out on several of the city's best and most typical recipes.

RISOTTO ALLO ZAFFERANO

This is one of the few dishes boasting a specific "birth date". In fact, legend has it that, on 8 September 1574, master glassmaker Valerio di Fiandra was presented with a dish of saffron-coloured rice at his daughter's wedding feast after which time it became an iconic dish of Milanese cuisine. Master Chef Gualtiero Marchesi has transformed this delicacy into a real work of art, with the addition of a square of edible gold leaf! We also suggest trying its crunchier version: so-called "riso al salto". Try the creative dishes signed by Carlo Cracco at his restaurant in Galleria Vittorio Emanuele (www.ristorantecracco.it)

COTOLETTA ALLA MILANESE

Mentioned for the first time in 1500 at the court of the Sforza, its "invention" was a source of contention with the Viennese who laid claim to its origin. According to the traditional recipe, the veal slices used should be at least as thick as a finger, coated in egg and bread crumbs and deep fried in butter. One of the best places to eat breaded veal cutlets in Milan is at "Da Giannino" (www.gianninoristorante.it) or at the "Al Garghet" restaurant (www.algarghet.it).

TRIPE OR BUSECCA

A hearty winter dish that will keep the cold out, its main ingredient is the stomach lining of sheep or cows. It was originally served to celebrate special occasions in the peasant world. Upgrades include the addition of oysters and caviar and can be sampled at Michelin-starred osteria, "Al Pont de Ferr" at the Navigli district (pontdeferr.it).

CASSOEULA

According to the history books, composer and conductor Arturo Toscanini was mad about this dish made from pork (sausages, pork rinds and spare ribs) and cabbage. For a taste of old-world Milan, suggest you try it at "Antica Trattoria della Pesa" in Via Pasubio (www.anticatrattoriadellapesa.com).

MONDEGHILI

Small meat balls fried in butter and oil and a signature dish of renowned chef Bruno Barbieri who has made them an art form. You can taste the traditional Milanese meat balls at "Al Matarel" (www.almatarel.it).

PANETTONE

Boasting 500 years of tradition, panettone is a type of large, sweet bread, leavened very slowly and enriched with raisins and candied fruit. Amidst history and legend, the theories as to the origins of panettone vary widely. One of the most romantic is the story linking its invention to Ugo, a young falconer employed by Prince Ludovico il Moro. Ugo yearned to conquer the heart of the daughter of a poor baker named Toni. To win her over, the nobleman disguised himself as a baker and invented a rich bread in which he added to the flour and yeast, butter, eggs, dried raisins and candied lemon and orange peel. The fame of the bread spread far and wide and became known as "Pan del Toni" (Toni's bread). According to history, the tradition of panettone is documented by a manuscript conserved at the Biblioteca Ambrosiana dating back to the 15th century. Already at that time, on the night of 24 December, it was customary for the pater familias to place a huge log in the fireplace and to slice the large loaf of bread which he then distributed among those present.

From a gastronomic point of view, the distinguishing feature of panettone is that it is leavened two or three times. Its golden colour derives from the skilful combination of butter and egg yolks, while its overall beauty is completed by the orange, green and brown notes resulting from the addition of candied fruit and raisins. The gourmet trick is to warm it for a few minutes in front of an open oven or on top of a radiator before serving it.

» Dulcis in fundo, are the city's famous desserts, pastries and confectionery. In addition to world-famed Italian gelato, an absolute "must" in summer, year-round you can also try Milan's traditional Tiramisù (although the main ingredient of the classic recipe includes coffee, there are also other variations on the theme) and Proseccos, mouth-watering chocolate coated with dusted with custard. Finally, there are also a number of other typical delicacies that are prepared during the holiday season including Colomba (at Easter) and Chiacchiere and Frittelle (at Carnival) and panettone (at Christmas).

>> INSIDER TIPS

- Breakfast time in Italy can be from 6am to 11am, depending on what time you got up, and it usually includes a cappuccino, which is a morning drink, and "cornetto" or other sweet pastries.
- Lunchtime usually ranges from midday to 2pm (that is why many of the shops close in these hours), dinnertime from 8pm to 10pm.
- Between 6pm and 9pm it's aperitivo time, an Italian tradition started in Milan. If you're feeling hungry between 3pm and 5pm then it's time for you to have a "merenda", a quick snack between the two main meals. Should you be hungry at late night, you can check several lists of late-night restaurants in Milan.
- Never forget to check the restaurant's weekly closing day, which – most of the time – will be Monday.
- Reservations for most restaurants are strongly advised.
- In Italy, service is included in the price meaning that although tipping is not compulsory but it is obviously appreciated as a sign of satisfaction.
- Some menus include the word "coperto", a small surcharge corresponding to the cost of the service and bread (usually between 1 and 3 euros per person).
- If you want tap water, you should specify it to the waiting staff of the restaurant or bar, asking for a glass of "acqua di rubinetto".
- Although no dress code exists in Italy, semiformal clothing is usually considered de rigueur at restaurants.
- All restaurants and bars are non-smoking unless a separate smokers' area is specifically offered.

Itineraries

LANDMARKS & MUSEUMS

In the footsteps of Leonardo

La Vigna di Leonardo is just a short distance from the Church of Santa Maria delle Grazie where Leonardo painted The Last Supper.

It's one of the landmark locations frequented by Leonardo da Vinci, an unknown piece of history, imbued with mystery. To mark the opening of Expo 2015, researchers excavated the plot where Leonardo's vineyard once stood in the gardens of the Casa degli Atellani, a magnificent Renaissance dwelling situated in front of the Church of Santa Maria delle Grazie.

Partly renovated by architect Portaluppi, who lived here, this historical palazzo is the only building in corso Magenta that still retains its Renaissance appearance intact. The House and Vineyard museum tour is divided into seven designated areas (the courtyards of Piero Portaluppi, the Zodiac Hall, the Luini Hall, Ettore Conti's studio, the Staircase Hall, the Garden of Earthly Delights – the novellas of Matteo Bandello and Leonardo's Vineyard). The tour is enhanced by audio guide commentary and descriptive panels located along the way.

Lasting for roughly 30 minutes, the tour caters to groups consisting of a maximum of 25 people every 15 minutes.

Audio guides are available in 10 languages (English, German, French, Spanish, Japanese, Korean, Portuguese, Chinese, Russian and Italian) plus a version in Milanese dialect. Open daily from 9am to 6pm.
