Milan | August 2022

I am Andrea Jarach, editor of the Welcome Magazines, periodicals that we have been publishing for 12 years for international visitors in some of the most important cities for tourism in Italy. Welcome back to Milan!

After the two terrible years of the pandemic, the city finally reopens to life. As you can see in the following pages, the Welcome Magazine offers useful information about events, shopping, food and wine, everything that can interest the visitor answering the question: "what can I do, what can I discover during my stay?". Our aim is to create memorable experiences of the visit, also by linking together the different opportunities offered by the area. Our mission is to provide essential tourist information for the benefit of visitors who choose wonderful Italy as their destination.

We too have renewed ourselves in recent years, especially with the new carbon-free distribution method that you are probably using now as you read us; thanks to QR codes, we can reach the whole world without using paper and avoiding physical transport by road. We have therefore decided as of last month to extend our coverage (information and distribution) to the entire Lombardy region. As you know, Lombardy is also mountains and lakes. So don't miss the opportunity to visit the lakes of Lombardy by taking advantage of the train plus lake navigation offer.

SIX REASONS TO VISIT MILAN

- Business & Leisure

Each year, millions of visitors flock to Milan for several of the world's most important international trade fairs, from fashion to design, from tourism to culture with "mustattend" calendar events including the Salone del Mobile.Milano, the Fashion Weeks, Miart and Bit Milano.

- The best shopping

A reference point for international fashion, year after year, Milan confirms its status as a must-visit destination for fashionistas who make a pilgrimage here to shop at the designers' flagship stores in the Quadrilatero, featuring the most highly sought-after fashion collections. For the more romantic, we suggest the flea markets on the Navigli, the artistic workshops of Brera or, for those who don't have much time, well-known department store la Rinascente, the ultimate one-stop-shop which carries the most esteemed brands in the world under just one roof!

- Food & taste

Milan is the ideal place for gourmands and food connoisseurs. In addition to hosting renowned gastronomic events like Taste of Milano, Identità Golose and Milano Food Week, here you can discover, purchase and taste the authentic flavours of Italian tradition either at historic downtown restaurants or more trendy, innovative locations.

- Performing arts

Each day the city is animated by a plethora of unmissable events: from awe-inspiring performances at Teatro alla Scala to film festivals; from dance to high-profile concerts by world-class performers, Milan is truly a city that never sleeps.

- Art & treasures

Milan is a real open-air museum, a keeper of some of the world's most unique treasures: from stunning architecture to art galleries right up to the countless museums that, year after year, host several of the most interesting art exhibitions ever featured. Milan is also home to several masterpieces by Renaissance artist and genius Leonardo da Vinci including the Cenacolo, the Biblioteca Ambrosiana and the Codex Atlanticus.

- For sport lovers

Those travelling to Milan should not miss a visit to the temple of football: the San Siro Stadium which, in addition to its iconic museum and shop, also hosts important football matches and concerts by world famous Italian and international stars.

- Porta Nuova is a sprawling area, the result of a project of urban and architectural redevelopment involving the area that leads from the Porta Garibaldi railway station to Piazza della Repubblica, up to Palazzo Lombardia.
- In 2005, an architectural project curated by American real estate developer Hines focused on transforming the area into a technological hub comprising more than twenty buildings including skyscrapers, offices, cultural centres and urban residences.
- Several of Milan and Italy's highest and most innovative skyscrapers, including the futuristic CityLife complex (visible in the background), are located in the Porta Nuova district. Among these, the Torre UniCredit –housed in the vibrant Piazza Gae Aulenti -, the Torre Solaria – the highest residential skyscraper in Italy-, the Torre Diamante and the green complex of the Bosco Verticale featuring hanging gardens designed by Stefano Boeri.
- The large public park in the middle of the neighbourhood, known as the BAM Biblioteca degli Alberi, extending over an area of 90,000 sq.m., was designed to provide a vast number of interconnecting pedestrian paths and to create a real botanical library. The park features over 450 trees and 90,000 different plant species, plus recreational areas, themed circular forests, teaching paths and pedestrian and bike paths. In summer, the park is also used to host outdoor concerts and events.

WELCOME | PANORAMA

— After crossing the threshold of its 18th century façade in Candoglia marble, the interior of the Cathedral is revealed in all its majesty. One of the most important Gothic buildings in the world, the church, constructed over a period of 450 years (begun 1386), is the symbol of Milan. Built in the shape of a Latin cross, the cathedral is divided by soaring pillars into five naves, the largest of which measures 45 metres in height.

— The interior boasts an apse with a large rose window, stained glass windows decorated with episodes from the Bible, chapels and high marble columns with capitals featuring statues of saints.

— To experience the Duomo at its most majestic you must ascend to the roof (either by elevator or by steps) where you will be surrounded by an outburst of pinnacles, turrets and marble statuary and, naturally, the city's famed golden "Madonnina". Here you can wander among 135 spires and 3,400 statues.

— Guided tours for small groups help visitors learn about the secrets behind the Duomo's construction. The tour starts from the back of the choir which leads to the Crypt housing the tomb of San Carlo Borromeo, and then moves on to the Archaeological Area where you'll find the remains of the Battistero di San Giovanni alle Fonti, dating back to 397 A.D. This is where Sant'Ambrogio christened St. Augustine. Next is the old Basilica of Santa Tecla (4th century).

— Before accessing the Cathedral and its treasures, visit the nearby Museo del Duomo, located inside Palazzo Reale. The museum houses more than 150 masterpieces from the 15th century to the present time, including statues, architectural models, plaster casts, terracottas and paintings.

GAM MILANO

A LEGENDARY PAINTING RETURNS HOME TO THE GAM

ART An emblematic work from an artistic, technical and social point of view, "Il Quarto Stato" is the masterpiece par excellence by Giuseppe Pellizza da Volpedo (1868-1907). Since July 2022, it has again been on display in the permanent collection of the GAM-Galleria d'Arte Moderna in Milan. A new display that enhances its pictorial quality and disruptive power, and with a closeness on the part of the visitor that allows an exciting direct relationship with the masterpiece. Characterised by a pictorial technique of extraordinary skill and complexity, the painting is exhibited between the room dedicated to Giovanni Segantini and the one dedicated to Gaetano Previati, where "Maternity", granted on loan for the next three years by Banco BPM, is visible. The overall path of the three works admirably expresses the passage of painting from the 19th to the 20th century.

WHAT WE DON'T KNOW

EVENT The 23rd International Exhibition has opened in July at the Triennale, which the President of Triennale Milano Stefano Boeri has described as “an opportunity for a collective and proactive reflection on the near future”. “Unknowns Unknowns” - this is the title of the exhibition - will attempt to answer a series of questions about what we still “don't know” in various fields: from genetics to astrophysics, from the universe to the bottom of the oceans. The challenge of the pandemic that has affected all of humanity in recent years has also broadened the sphere of phenomena that we do not know and placed man in a state of fragility. Designers, architects, artists, playwrights and musicians will be involved in the debate. Curator of the event will be the astrophysicist Ersilia Vaudo and designer of the installation Francis Kéré.

MUSEO DIOCESANO, UNTIL 16 OCTOBER

A GLIMPSE OF THE 20TH CENTURY

PHOTOGRAPHY For this summer, the Museo Diocesano will host a retrospective dedicated to Elliott Erwitt, one of the most important photographers of the 20th century who is still alive. The exhibition presents one hundred of his most famous shots, from the most iconic black and white ones to the lesser-known colour ones for his editorial, institutional and advertising work. The exhibition offers a glimpse of the world through the ironic, surreal and romantic – but always curious – gaze of the photographer, who in his long career has immortalised various fields, from politics to social issues, from architecture to cinema and fashion. A journey through portraits of celebrities and children, images of travel, metropolises and the great events of history, but also of his own family.

JUST TO KNOW >> Erwitt is very attached to Milan, where he spent his childhood until he left for the US because of the racial laws. The selection of images in the exhibition, many of which have never been exhibited in Milan, was also curated by him.

IS THE BODY AN OBJECT AMONG THE THINGS OF THE WORLD?

EXHIBITION "Useless Bodies?" is an exhibition curated by Scandinavian artists Elmgreen & Dragset that examines the condition of the human body in the post-industrial era. The installation stems from a reflection on the current meaning of man's physical presence, particularly after the experience of the pandemic. Having passed the century of man as a "producer" of consumer goods, and the following century in which he became a "consumer", today we can speak of the human being as a simple "object of data analysis" by big tech. Following a route through four exhibition spaces within the two floors of the Podium, the North Gallery and the Cisterna, the public encounters a sequence of immersive installations.

THE MEANING OF PAINTING ACCORDING TO SAVINIO

EXHIBITION Ruggero Savinio (Turin, 1934) gets back to Milan with an anthological exhibition retracing his entire artistic and biographical path through some works that are partly unknown or have not been seen for a long time, coming from public and private collections. The exhibition, which collects paintings, drawings and works on paper, starts from Savinio's formative years between Rome, Paris and above all Milan: the city is the scene of one of his most intense and tormented seasons. Twenty-three years have passed since 1999, when Milan hosted a major exhibition of the artist's work in the Sala Viscontea of the Castello Sforzesco.

A COLLECTION OF COLLECTIONS

EXHIBITION From the Torlonia Collection, the most important private collection of classical statuary, 96 marbles are on display at the Gallerie d'Italia, including five recently restored works. The Collection's worldwide exhibition programme is thus inaugurated in Milan, and will conclude with the identification of a permanent exhibition venue for the new Torlonia Museum. This group of masterpieces is the result of a long series of acquisitions and some significant movements of sculptures between the various residences of the Torlonia family.

The final section devoted entirely to restoration is remarkable, where the "Hercules" composed of 112 pieces dialogues with the sculpture of "Leda with a Swan": in both works, various phases of the cleaning process are visible, to illustrate the challenges facing contemporary restoration. ART Galleria Campari, a few kilometres from downtown Milan, is hosting the exhibition “Depero Campari: black and white in colour” to celebrate the 130th anniversary of the birth of Fortunato Depero, the brand’s key Futurist artist. To highlight the ten-year collaboration between Campari and the futurist artist himself (1926-1936), Galleria has created a tour with material from the archive together with some works on loan. Most of Depero’s graphics for Campari were created in black and white, a technique that the artist mastered with mastery, and they contributed to making the product and its image great and recognisable.

OUT OF TOWN

Milan is a mixture of art, culture, shopping and lifestyle and its outlying areas are equally attractive. Discover our pick of these fabulous destinations for an unmissable out of town trip.

Our tour begins on the outskirts of Milan at the 17th-century Villa Arconati ① (www.villaarconati.it). Known also as 'the small Versailles of Lombardy', it is set within the vast green spaces of the Groane Park in Bollate. This is a splendid example of Lombardy Baroque architecture, and visitors are welcomed in its frescoed rooms, while summer evenings are jazzed up with a series of concerts and events in its magnificent gardens. We recommend a visit to the Villa Visconti Borromeo Litta ② (www.villalittalainate.it) which is just a short distance away in Lainate. This neo-classical jewel of architecture is surrounded by a lovely park that earned the title of the 'Most Beautiful Historical Park in Italy' in 2016. The Villa is renowned for its Nyphaeum and spectacular water features. A mixture of sacred and profane, the Metropolitan City area is interspersed with numerous abbeys. In fact, there are so many that there is even a Road of Abbeys (www.stradadelleabbazie.it). Our route starts from the Abbey of Chiaravalle ③, dominated by an imposing, richly frescoed 14th-century bell tower, and continues onwards to the Abbey of Viboldone ④, one of the most beautiful medieval complexes in Lombardy, until we reach Mirasole ⑤, a 13th-century monastery which, with its numerous moats, resembles a fortress. After travelling for a few more kilometers, in a southwesterly direction, we come to the Abbey of Morimondo ⑥, a former Cistercian monastery renovated in Gothic style.

The area housing the abbeys is also the heart of the large Parco Agricolo Sud Milano (www.parcoagricolosudmilano.it). The Park boasts a rich historic and agricultural heritage and comprises old farmsteads, waterways and important residential complexes, including Gaggiano ⑦, which, with its small, pastel-coloured houses nestling on both banks of the Naviglio Grande, is well worth a visit.

This charming hamlet can be accessed from the city via a scenic bicycle track skirting the canal. The Naviglio Martesana ⑧ also offers views of rare beauty as it flows towards the Adda river. Rural centres are interspersed with expanses of greenery (an absolute must is a visit to the Adda Park which can also be crossed by bike or on horseback) and charming urban centres, including Crespi d'Adda ⑨, a late 19th-century workers' village built up around a textiles factory and a UNESCO world heritage site (www.villaggiocrespi.it). Lastly, escape the hustle and bustle of the city centre and take a relaxing break at Parco delle Cave ⑩. Situated just a short distance from the San Siro Stadium, this oasis of greenery is the ideal spot for a long walk or a bicycle ride where you can admire the various bird species that inhabit this beautiful nature park. www.parcodellecave.it

SANTA CATERINA DEL SASSO A hermitage perched on a rocky overhang

According to tradition, the hermitage of Santa Caterina del Sasso (75 km from Milan) was founded in the 12th century by Alberto Besozzi, a rich local merchant who, after having survived a heavy storm while crossing Lake Maggiore, decided to give up his worldly goods and live the life of a hermit. The particular appeal of this hermitage (which contains important frescoes) is mostly due to its astounding location, perched on a rocky overhang with a sheer drop down to the Lake.

WELCOME | AROUND THE CORNER

The Lombardy region is one of the richest in attractions in Italy. The area, between Switzerland and Emilia-Romagna, Veneto and Piedmont, offers countless destinations for day trips from Milan.

In addition to Milan, there are 11 main cities that preserve traces of centuries of art and culture - Bergamo, Brescia, Como, Cremona, Lecco, Mantua, Monza and Brianza, Pavia, Sondrio and Varese - and hundreds of smaller villages with art, history and traditions. But Lombardy also has some unmissable natural beauty, such as the vast Po Valley, the parks and the Pre-Alps with the five largest lakes: Garda, Maggiore, Como, Iseo, Lugano and Ceresio.

With its 10 Unesco Sites, as well as 3 intangible heritages including the lutherie art of Cremona, Lombardy is the Italian region with the largest number of such sites: Valle Camonica's Rock Art, Santa Maria delle Grazie and the Cenacolo Vinciano, the Workers' Village of Crespi d'Adda, the Sacred Mountains of Piedmont and Lombardy, the Rhaetian Railway between Tirano and Saint Moritz, Mantua and Sabbioneta, Monte San Giorgio, the prehistoric pile-dwelling sites in the Alps, the Lombard monuments and the city walls of Bergamo.

For those who love panoramic places, a trip to Monte Isola is a must, with its breathtaking view of Lake Iseo; to the Sacro Monte of Varese with a view over the plain from the Alps to the Apennines; the Brunate cable car with an absolute view of Lake Como; the ascent to the Torrazzo of Cremona, the highest masonry tower in Europe; the Terrazza del Brivido in Tremosine overlooking Lake Garda at a height of 350 metres.

>> Taking a train trip to Lombardy's cities of art is the ideal way to rediscover, in a comfortable and sustainable way, the beauty of the region's towns, visiting exhibitions, museums and monuments.

WELCOME | AROUND THE CORNER

The symbol of Milan, the city of design, fashion and business, is the Duomo, close to which are the 18th-century Teatro alla Scala and the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II: these are the most visited landmarks in the city. Not to be missed are the Sforza Castle, the Basilica of Sant’Ambrogio, the complex of the Church of Santa Maria delle Grazie and the Cenacolo Vinciano.

Two cities within a city, Bergamo (“Alta” and “Bassa”) is linked by two funicular railways. Five kilometres of walls surround domes, towers and palaces, including the Accademia Carrara, the Piazza Vecchia, with its Civic Tower and the Palazzo del Podestà, the “perfect” square also loved by the architect Le Corbusier. Bergamo is also the birthplace of the composer Gaetano Donizetti, to whom the city dedicates a major opera festival every year. (50 km from Milan)

Brescia presents itself in its Renaissance guise with its marvellous salon squares, an embattled castle, two cathedrals, a theatre and the Museum of Santa Giulia, a Unesco World Heritage Site. The famous 1000 Miglia race has been held here every year since 1927, and in September the world's best-loved Opera Festival transforms the city into a magical open-air theatre. (95 km from Milan)

Como is the city of water, light and silk, rich in history and culture. The Volta Temple is a small Pantheon on the banks of the Lario, built in memory of the physicist Alessandro Volta. Strolling within the medieval walls, among alleyways and old shops, the late Gothic Cathedral and the imposing Broletto from 1215 stand out. A dynamic and entrepreneurial town. (50 km from Milan)

WELCOME | AROUND THE CORNER

Known throughout the world as the “City of Art and Music”, Cremona is the cradle of the violin, as is home to the Violin Museum. In the medieval Piazza del Comune you will find the Cathedral, the Torrazzo, the highest in Italy, the Baptistry and the Gothic Loggia dei Militi. Don't miss the magnificent Ponchielli Theatre, home to important musical seasons. (76 km from Milan)

In a natural setting of rare beauty lies the city of Lecco, where Alessandro Manzoni set his masterpiece “I Promessi Sposi” (The Betrothed), and where are monuments in baroque and neoclassical style. The Lecco branch of Lake Como is characterised by the S. Martino and Barro mountains, the Resegone and the Grigne. Lecco is the starting point for fantastic trips around the lake. (55 km from Milan)

Lodi is a small Lombard town in the lower Po Valley, rich in art and history with many green areas. Places to visit include the neoclassical Palazzo Broletto, the 15th-century Palazzo Vistarini, the Basilica della Vergine Assunta, a Romanesque cathedral, and the Tempio Civico dell'Incoronata, a masterpiece of the Lombard Renaissance in the style of Bramante. (38 km from Milan)

Mantua, the tranquil and elegant city of the Gonzagas, is surrounded on three sides by water from which you can enjoy a fascinating city skyline. Sung about for its beauty by famous writers such as Virgil, Baudelaire and Dickens, the city is told through its many monuments, including the Rotonda di San Lorenzo, Palazzo Te, Palazzo Ducale and the Duomo. (185 km from Milan)

WELCOME | AROUND THE CORNER

Over the course of history, the Romans, the Lombards and the Habsburg and Napoleonic dominations have passed through Monza, leaving precious legacies such as the Villa Reale, a sumptuous neoclassical palace with its famous park around, one of the largest in Europe. Every year Monza is ready to host the Formula 1 Grand Prix in September. (18 km from Milan)

Pavia is home to one of the oldest universities in the world. It preserves evidence of its culture in the Castello Visconteo. Of considerable historical and religious interest are San Pietro in Ciel d'Oro, where the remains of Saint Augustine are kept, and San Teodoro and San Michele Maggiore. Don't miss a walk on the romantic Ponte Vecchio, which connects the historical centre with the picturesque Borgo Ticino district. (45 km from Milan)

Sondrio is a town of Lombard origin in the heart of the Valtellina. The historical centre is characterised by stone houses typical of the most beautiful mountain towns. The precious architecture of the Torre Ligariana is remarkable. A stop at a crotto or a typical restaurant is a must in the area to savour the cuisine based on pizzoccheri and Sassella or Inferno wine. (135 km from Milan)

Varese, also known as a “garden city”, enjoys a wealth of landscape, architecture and art that have been appreciated since the last century, when the city became a holiday destination with its prestigious Art Nouveau villas and hotels. An unmissable destination for contemporary art lovers is the 18th-century Villa Panza with its unique collection. (58 km from Milan)

The shores of Lake Maggiore wash up on the banks of Piedmont and Lombardy in Italy, while its more austere northern basin lies in the mountainous region of Switzerland. The most famous island, lying just off Stresa – a small, elegant town, rich in neoclassic and liberty buildings and a shopping mecca boasting a myriad of boutiques – is Isola Bella, anchored like a fantastic ship-garden and dominated by the majestic Palazzo Borromeo, built in the 17th century and rich in art treasures, including the private collection of Milan's most famous aristocratic family. The Borromeo clan also owned Rocca di Angera, an imposing fortress (12th-17th century) boasting opulent ambiances, of which the most famous is the Sala di Giustizia. The "Rocca" also has a medieval garden (www.isoleborromeo.it).

Lake Como is the romantic and worldly older sister of Maggiore and Garda and takes its name from the city of Como. "Must-visit" sights include the Gothic Duomo, the Romanic basilicas of San Fedele and Sant'Abbondio and the neoclassic Villa Olmo. Nestling on the banks of Lake Como in Lenno and currently owned by FAI – a private non-profit trust – Villa del Balbianello is a magnificent example of a perfectly preserved 18th century dwelling. Surrounded by a stunning, terraced panoramic garden, with a breathtaking view of the lake, the Villa is one of the area's most romantic retreats. Standing on the tip of a promontory overlooking the waters of the lake, the Villa was chosen by director George Lucas as one of the evocative settings for the famous "Star Wars" series. Lying just a stone's throw northwest of Como is Cernobbio, a small fashionable resort frequented by the wealthy of Europe because of its deluxe hotel Villa d'Este and Villa Erba where director Luchino Visconti spent his childhood (www.villaerba.it). Continuing North, we find Isola Comacina a jewel of art and nature, rich in Mediterranean vegetation and one of the most important archaeological sites of the dark ages in Northern Italy. This area is home to myriad shops, including big-name fashion brands, historic 'botteghe' and some of the city's most sought-after cafés, bars and eateries. In the space of just a few kilometers you'll find the Duomo, the Galleria, Teatro alla Scala, the Castle, the ancient Basilica di Sant'Ambrogio, as well as sporadic traces of 'Roman Milan', which was the first settlement and the predecessor of present-day Milan. Here you will come across several trendy shops for all tastes, offering clothing, footwear, home décor and eateries. What's more the area is located just a stone's throw from one of Milan's most important attractions: the Last Supper, Leonardo da Vinci's masterpiece; the Parco Sempione and the Triennale Milano are also within easy walking distance, and, if you're feeling energetic, you can easily push onwards until you reach the Castello Sforzesco.

Get ready for sales!

Sale time is an absolute must for shopping addicts: when it's sale time in Milan the city is inundated with hordes of fashion addicts in search of desirable objects.

© ROSSHELEN/SHUTTERSTOCK.COM

Milan is the fashion capital of the world. In case you don't believe this, various surveys conducted over the past few years have confirmed that Milan is the number one luxury-shopping destination: it is not surprising that the whole city is alive with shoppers during the eagerly awaited summer and winter sales.

WHEN >> In Italy sale times occur two times a year, according to the different Spring/Summer and Fall/Winter seasons. Generally, they are held after Christmas, January-February for winter collections and July-September for summer collections, though the starting dates change from region to region. Sales generally last for 60 days and keep in mind: the earliest you go, the widest choice you will find!

WHAT >> First and foremost, remember that discounts are only applied to collections already on sale at shops and not to new in-store arrivals. According to the Italian laws, sales always refer to seasonal products belonging to the outgoing collection. And it's important to bear in mind that discounts are not fixed, but they can range from 5% up to 70% depending on the individual policy of each shop even if applied to all kinds of articles, from clothing to accessories.

WHERE >> While the so-called 'Quadrilatero della Moda', which includes via Montenapoleone, via della Spiga, via Manzoni and Corso Venezia, is the place that has the highest average price tags (followed by Paris, New York and London) and the largest concentration of the most prestigious designer boutiques, new highend shopping districts are gradually emerging. A suggestion: don't limit yourself to the shopping streets in the centre... if you avoid following the crowds, you'll be able to take advantage of a much wider choice! And if you want to take the maximum advantage of the sales experience, we recommend focusing on fashion outlets (several located out-of- town) that offer additional discounts on their collections.

>> INSIDER TIP

By the Italian laws, items bought on sale can be tried on, as well as full-price ones, but they can have stricter rules on returns. While articles coming from new collections can be returned within 30 days, products with reduced prices can't be returned unless flawed. So, if you buy a reduced price dress or accessory, always pay attention to the fitting or to the size; if you make a mistake, maybe you can be given a voucher, but it's at the shop owner's complete discretion to agree.

Tax Free Refund Guide

According to the Italian law, non-EU resident travellers may be granted VAT relief/refund for goods intended for personal or family use purchased in Italy. This relief is surely an advantage for the foreign travellers: in fact, it allows to save from a minimum of 4% up to a maximum of 22% of the selling price of the goods purchased. Here is a short guide according to the Italian legislation to discover the common system of value added tax exclusively for non-EU resident travellers.

- 1. VAT (in Italian: IVA) is a value added tax on goods and services, and is part of the European Union's value added tax system.
- 2. In some cases, travellers may be granted a VAT refund. This refund does not cover the services supplied by hotels, restaurants, taxis or agencies.
- 3. You may be eligible for a VAT refund provided that:
 - you are a non-EU resident;
 - the goods purchased are intended for personal or family use only and are carried in your luggage;
 - the overall value of the goods purchased exceeds 154,94 Euro (VAT included);
 - the purchase is certified by an invoice. This invoice should include a description of the goods purchased, your personal information as well as the details of your passport or any other equivalent document;
 - the goods shall leave the EU territory by the third month following the date of issue of the invoice, as proved by the "customs stamp";
 - from 1 September 2018, tax free invoices in Italy must be electronically transmitted by the national seller to OTElLO information system (Online Tax Refund at Exit: Light Lane Optimization) and their validation is digitally carried out.
 - after the digital "customs stamp" is obtained, OTElLO will send a message to the retailer that all the requirements are met and, as a consequence, the retailer will reimburse the amount due or will settle the tax relief.

Tax Free Refund Guide

- the invoice is returned to the Italian retailer within four months after the purchase was made. If the invoice is stamped by other EU countries, it needs to be brought to the shop retailer by the fourth month following that of the purchase.
- 4. The goods purchased and the relevant invoice must be shown at the customs exit point when leaving EU territory (if you intend to pack the purchased items into your check-in luggage, you must go to Customs BEFORE checking in).
- 5. After leaving EU territory, the traveller must return the original invoice, regularly endorsed by the customs office, to the Italian retailer. Said invoice must be returned within four months from the date when the document was issued.
- 6. The refund can be made directly by the Italian retailer (however, make sure that the shop you've chosen displays a "Tax Free Shopping" or "Euro Tax Free" sign in its window).
- 7. Several Tax-Free companies are able to offer immediate VAT cash refunds when the goods leave either Italian or EU territory (thus exonerating the passenger from having to return the invoice to the retailer). However, this procedure only applies at major international airports or main border crossings. Most major department stores have Tax Free Refund offices.
- 8. The services provided by Tax-Free companies imply the payment of a small administrative sum which is directly deducted from the amount of VAT refunded to the traveller.
- 9. In the event of a traveller not receiving a VAT refund within a reasonable period of time, he or she should re-contact the Italian retailer or one of the aforementioned companies.
- 10. However, please note, VAT cannot be refunded directly by customs offices.

>> INSIDER TIPS

- Breakfast time in Italy can be from 6am to 11am, depending on what time you got up, and it usually includes a cappuccino, which is a morning drink, and “cornetto” or other sweet pastries.

- Lunchtime usually ranges from midday to 2pm (that is why many of the shops of the shops close in these hours), dinnertime from 8pm to 10pm.

- Between 6pm and 9pm it's aperitivo time, an Italian tradition started in Milan. If you're feeling hungry between 3pm and 5pm then it's time for you to have a “merenda”, a quick snack between the two main meals. Should you be hungry at late night, you can check several list of late-night restaurants in Milan.

- Never forget to check the restaurant's weekly closing day, which – most of the time – will be Monday.

- Reservations for most restaurants are strongly advised.

- In Italy, service is included in the price meaning that although tipping is not compulsory but it is obviously appreciated as a sign of satisfaction.

- Some menus include the word “coperto”, a small surcharge corresponding to the cost of the service and bread (usually between 1 and 3 euros per person).

- If you want tap water, you should specify it to the waiting staff of the restaurant or bar, asking for a glass of “acqua di rubinetto”.

- Although no dress code exists in Italy, semiformal clothing is usually considered de rigeur at restaurants.

- All restaurants and bars are non-smoking unless a separate smokers' area is specifically offered.

Obicà, not only Mozzarella and Pizza

Where in Milan can you enjoy the best Mozzarelle di Bufala Campana DOP, pizza and traditional Italian dishes in a cosy and convivial atmosphere? Obicà Duomo (at the Food Hall on the 7th floor of Rinascente), and the new Obicà Cusani in the Brera district, offer a selection of seasonal dishes made with the best Italian ingredients, divided into six types: Mozzarella Bar, Pizza, Pasta, Salads, Main Courses and Desserts.

At Obicà - which in Neapolitan dialect means "Here it is!" - the protagonist is Mozzarella (in the classic or smoked version or in the "bocconcini" format) made exclusively from buffalo milk. The selection of dairy products is completed by "Straciatella" and “Burrata” from Puglia and “Ricotta di Bufala”. Alongside dairy products, it is also possible to enjoy “Small Tasting” or “Gran Tagliere” of cold cuts. The Mozzarella Bar’s menu also includes leavened items such as “Gnocco Fritto”, “Focaccia” and “Crostini” in different variations, and another iconic dish: Pizza, prepared with stone-ground flour from 100% Italian wheat.

Milanese tasting

Milan offers a cuisine featuring a number of truly unusual flavours. Here is a brief guide to make sure that you don't miss out on several of the city's best and most typical recipes.

RISTORANTE DA GIANNINO - PH © CARMINE ARRICHELLO

RISOTTO ALLO ZAFFERANO

This is one of the few dishes boasting a specific "birth date". In fact, legend has it that, on 8 September 1574, master glassmaker Valerio di Fiandra was presented with a dish of saffron-coloured rice at his daughter's wedding feast after which time it became an iconic dish of Milanese cuisine. Master Chef Gualtiero Marchesi has transformed this delicacy into a real work of art, with the addition of a square of edible gold leaf! We also suggest trying its crunchier version: so-called "riso al salto". Try the creative dishes signed by Carlo Cracco at his restaurant in Galleria Vittorio Emanuele (www.ristorantecracco.it)

COTOLETTA ALLA MILANESE

Mentioned for the first time in 1500 at the court of the Sforza, its "invention" was a source of contention with the Viennese who laid claim to its origin. According to the traditional recipe, the veal slices used should be at least as thick as a finger, coated in egg and bread crumbs and deep fried in butter. One of the best places to eat breaded veal cutlets in Milan is at "Da Giannino" (www.gianninoristorante.it) or at the "Al Garghet" restaurant (www.algarghet.it).

TRIPE (OR BUSECCA)

A hearty winter dish that will keep the cold out, its main ingredient is the stomach lining of sheep or cows. It was originally served to celebrate special occasions in the peasant world. Try the fried variant on the menu of the eponymous trattoria Trippa Milano, on Via Giorgio Vasari 3 (www.trippamilano.it).

CASSOEULA

According to the history books, composer and conductor Arturo Toscanini was mad about this dish made from pork (sausages, pork rinds and spare ribs) and cabbage.

MONDEGHILI

Small meat balls fried in butter and oil and a signature dish of renowned chef Bruno Barbieri who has made them an art form. You can taste the traditional Milanese meat balls at “Al Matarel” (www.almatarel.it).

PANETTONE

Boasting 500 years of tradition, panettone is a type of large, sweet bread, leavened very slowly and enriched with raisins and candied fruit. Amidst history and legend, the theories as to the origins of panettone vary widely. One of the most romantic is the story linking its invention to Ugo, a young falconer employed by Prince Ludovico il Moro. Ugo yearned to conquer the heart of the daughter of a poor baker named Toni.

To win her over, the nobleman disguised himself as a baker and invented a rich bread in which he added to the flour and yeast, butter, eggs, dried raisins and candied lemon and orange peel. The fame of the bread spread far and wide and became known as “Pan del Toni” (Toni’s bread). According to history, the tradition of panettone is documented by a manuscript conserved at the Biblioteca Ambrosiana dating back to the 15th century. Already at that time, on the night of 24 December, it was customary for the pater familias to place a huge log in the fireplace and to slice the large loaf of bread which he then distributed among those present. From a gastronomic point of view, the distinguishing feature of panettone is that it is leavened two or three times. Its golden colour derives from the skilful combination of butter and egg yolks, while its overall beauty is completed by the orange, green and brown notes resulting from the addition of candied fruit and raisins. The gourmet trick is to warm it for a few minutes in front of an open oven or on top of a radiator before serving it.

Milan is the home of the Aperitivo

Aperitivo and Happy Hour in the city are most definitely a ritual which no Milanese is prepared to forego

Navigli

The Aperitivo, the beloved Milanese tradition of pre-dinner drinks, is accompanied by complimentary “stuzzichini” and an all-you-can-eat buffet. Spreads range from traditional olives, nuts, cheeses and potato chips to awesome pasta dishes, “bruschetta”, cold cuts, crudités, raw fish and fruit salads. Generally, lasting for 3 hours from 6 to 9pm (though most people rarely get there until 7pm), the aperitivo scene has become an evening meeting for people of all ages. Cocktails – alcoholic or not – are expertly mixed and a Negroni, Negroni sbagliato

(a delicious mix of prosecco, red vermouth and Aperol instead of gin) or a Spritz are Milanese specialties. Favourite beverages consumed during this beloved tradition in Milan include also the city’s renowned Martini, Prosecco or Campari, accompanied by an all-you-can-eat buffet.

Milan's Street of Art

The city of Milan is enriched by an art circuit featuring the city's three main museum hubs: the Pinacoteca di Brera, the Gallerie d'Italia in piazza della Scala and the civic complex consisting of Palazzo Reale and the Museo del Novecento.

An itinerary extending over 900 metres, that can be crossed on foot in just 15 minutes, from via Brera to piazzetta Reale, cutting through piazza Scala and the Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, which hosts an extraordinary part of our country's art history, thus making Milan a prestigious international art capital.

DUOMO DI MILANO

Among one of the most important (and majestic) Gothic buildings in the world, the church, constructed on and off over a period of 450 years (began 1386) is the symbol of Milan. To experience the Duomo at its most majestic you must ascend to the terraces (either by elevator or by steps) where you will be surrounded by an outburst of pinnacles, turrets and marble statuary and, naturally, the city's famed golden "Madonnina".

GALLERIA VITTORIO EMANUELE II

Sometimes known as the “living-room of the Milanese”, this elegant, four-storey arcade, housing luxury cafés and famous designer shops, is covered by a glass barrel vault and a beautiful glass cupola and measures 196 metres in length. Tradition has it that placing your right heel on the bull, depicted in the mosaic on the floor, and then spinning around inside it, will bring good luck.

CASTELLO SFORZESCO

The ancient seat of the ruling Visconti, the Castello Sforzesco was later rebuilt by Francesco Sforza and is now simply known by the Milanese as “Il Castello”. Antique art, paintings, period furniture, sculptures and musical instruments are housed in its precious treasure trove. Today, it houses a number of interesting museums and libraries: don’t miss the museum of the Michelangelo’s masterpiece “Pietà Rondanini”.

CENACOLO VINCIANO

One of the most famous attractions in the world, "The Last Supper" or "Cenacolo" by Leonardo da Vinci is a large 15th century mural painting representing the scene of the last supper of Jesus narrated in the Gospel. It can be found in the Refectory close to the church of Santa Maria delle Grazie.

Milano
PANORAMICA

PALAZZO REALE

For many centuries it was the seat of the government of the city, of the Kingdom of Lombardy-Venetia and then a royal residence until 1919, when it was acquired by the State and became a venue for exhibitions. Today it has consolidated relations with museums all over the world and has become the exhibition heart of central Milan, with over a million visitors every year.

TEATRO ALLA SCALA

Built at the behest of Empress Maria Teresa of Austria, Teatro alla Scala was inaugurated in 1778 with an opera by Antonio Salieri. The Scala Opera House is one of the most famous theatres in the world. Lose yourselves in the magic of the theatre while admiring its magnificent auditorium. With a bit of luck, you might also have a chance to watch a rehearsal in progress.

AMBROSIANA ART GALLERY AND LIBRARY

The Ambrosiana Picture Gallery contains several exquisite works of art from the 15th through 17th centuries and includes "The musician", attributed to Leonardo, Raphael's cartoon for the "School of Athens" and Caravaggio's "Basket of fruit". The Library boasts the largest collection of Leonardo's writings and drawings, the "Codice Atlantico" (Atlantic Codex).

PINACOTECA DI BRERA

Magnificent Palazzo di Brera is clearly the artistic district's centre of gravity. The complex includes the Pinacoteca and the National Braidense Library, but also an important Academy of Fine Arts, a media library, a charming Botanical Garden and an Astronomical Observatory. The "Caffè Fernanda", designed as an integral part of the museum, and "Bottega Brera", the museum shop and bookstore, are part of the "Great Brera".

© LORENZA DAVERIO

MUSEO NAZIONALE SCIENZA E TECNOLOGIA

The most important museum of science and technology in Italy, it hosts the testimonies of history of science, technology and Italian industry dating from the 19th century to present times. Don't miss the Enrico Toti submarine, the 1:1 scale model of the first Vega vector and the "Leonardo da Vinci Galleries".

TRIENNALE MILANO

One of the most vibrant, popular and important exhibition centres in the city. Since 1923, it is an international institution which organises exhibitions and events about design, architecture, visual arts and theatre: don't miss the Museo del Design Italiano in the spaces of the Curva on the ground floor. Triennale Milano has also a superb media library on design, art and architecture and the garden is home to great artists and designers.
