I am glad to welcome you in Milan.

No matter whether you are in our city for business or on holiday, whether you are staying for just one day or decide to spend a week. From the most representative places - such as Duomo, Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, Teatro alla Scala - to those that show the modern face of the city - such as Porta Nuova or CityLife -, from Darsena to the many city museums, from the street art works that color our neighborhoods to the most fashionable and niche clubs, Milan will conquer you. You will fall in love with its 26 centuries of history, its being traditional, international and open to innovation at the same time, I am sure.

Beppe Sala

Lombardy is a region that presents a perfect mix of nature, history, art, culture with innovation and technology. It offers a passion and authenticity you will seldom see elsewhere: there are countless things to do here. For example, in Milan you can spend your time in wonderful and breathtaking places such as the Castello Sforzesco, the monumental Duomo or La Scala theatre. But you can find cultural beauties also in the provinces visiting palazzos, archaeological parks, castles, and villas: pieces that make up the puzzle in a rare cultural landscape.

Lombardy is also a perfect destination for those who love mountain holidays in front the amazing scenery of the Alps and I am sure that with many activities on offer, finding what to do will certainly be easy. Moreover, we must not forget our four great lakes and the countless smaller ones where you can spend pleasant vacations or just a weekend. Exploring the territory through its extraordinary flavours is another way to come face to face with the local identity, Lombardy is full of restaurants and cellars hiding some of the delicious local gastronomy you can also discover the varied regional cuisine experiencing the wonder of hundreds of events and festivals around the region. You will discover unexpected corners, choose an itinerary full of unique experiences and Lombardy will surprise you!

Among one of the most important Gothic buildings in the world, the church constructed over a period of 450 years is the symbol of Milan. To experience the Duomo at its most majestic you must ascend to the roof.

GALLERIA VITTORIO EMANUELE II 2
Sometimes known as “the living-room of the Milanese”, this elegant, four-storey arcade, housing luxury cafés and famous designer shops, is covered by a glass barrel vault and a beautiful glass cupola.

CASTELLO SFORZESCO 3
The ancient seat of the ruling Visconti, it was later rebuilt by Francesco Sforza and is now simply known by the Milanese as “Il Castello”. It houses a number of interesting museums and libraries. Its park is a favourite with old and young alike.

CENACOLO VINCIANO 4
One of the most famous attractions in the world, “The Last Supper” by Leonardo da Vinci is a 15th century large mural painting representing the scene of the last supper of Jesus narrated in the Gospel. This fragile masterpiece was painted by Leonardo using a technique that was chemically imperfect and by the early 16th century it has started to flake and decay, resulting in numerous restorations.

PALAZZO REALE 5
Formerly the residence of all those who governed Milan, from Napoleon to the Royal House of Savoy, the Royal Palace is currently one of the most important cultural centres in the city, hosting exhibitions of international renown. Near the Duomo, it’s the perfect place to escape the crowds of the Duomo’s square.

PIAZZA SCALA 6
The perfect location for the Gallerie d’Italia Museum and the opera house Teatro alla Scala. In the center of the square is the monument dedicated to Leonardo da Vinci.

NAVIGLI 10

ago to ferry people and merchandise to Milan. This network was perfected in 1457 by Leonardo da Vinci. Today, the area is bursting with trendy dining and nightlife spots.

SAN SIRO STADIUM 11
With a capacity of 80,000 seats, it is the largest stadium in Italy and the 4th in Europe.

SANT’AMBROGIO 12
One of the most ancient churches in Milan, it was built in 379-386 A.D., in an area where martyrs had been buried.

PORTA NUOVA DISTRICT 13
A vibrant, futuristic district overlooking two neighbourhoods: the Garibaldi and Isola districts. The heart of the area is the large raised square dedicated to architect and designer Gae Aulenti. Just a little further on you will encounter the Bosco Verticale with the new Biblioteca degli Alberi.

TRIENNALE MILANO 14

A real outdoor museum catering, on the one hand to the whims of the elite of Milan’s society, and on the other to works of art by famous sculptors of various eras.

THE DUOMO'S TERRACES

OVERLOOKING THE CITY

— After crossing the threshold of its 18th century façade in Candoglia marble, the interior of the Cathedral is revealed in all its majesty. One of the most important Gothic buildings in the world, the church, constructed over a period of 450 years (began 1386), is the symbol of Milan. Built in the shape of a Latin cross, the cathedral is divided by soaring pillars into five naves, the largest of which measures 45 metres in height. Its inside columns measure 3 and a half metres in diameter.

— The interior boasts an apse with a large rose window, stained glass windows decorated with episodes from the Bible, chapels and high marble columns with capitals featuring statues of saints.

— To experience the Duomo at its most majestic you must ascend to the roof (either by elevator or by steps) where you will be surrounded by an outburst of pinnacles, turrets and marble statuary and, naturally, the city's famed golden "Madonnina". Here you can wander among 135 spires and 3,400 statues.

— Guided tours for small groups help visitors learn about the secrets behind the Duomo's construction. The tour starts from the back of the choir which leads to the Crypt housing the tomb of San Carlo Borromeo, and then moves on to the Archaeological Area where you'll find the remains of the Battistero di San Giovanni alle Fonti, dating back to 397 A.D. This is where Sant'Ambrogio christened St. Augustine. Next is the old Basilica of Santa Tecla (4th century).

PIAZZALE CUOCO, 10 MAY-25 JUNE
A WORLD OF POETRY AND HUMOUR

SHOW The magic of Cirque du Soleil returns to Italy with the show Kurios-Cabinet of Curiosities, taking the spectator into a fascinating and mysterious realm. An ambitious inventor, who defies the laws of time and space, reinvents the world around him: unique and quirky characters guide him to a wonderful place, where everything fires his imagination and his curiosities come to life before his eyes. An upside-down world of poetry and humour where the visible becomes invisible and perspectives are transformed. KURIOS-'Cabinet of Curiosities' is an ingenious mix of unusual curiosities and brehtaking acrobatic feats, a true kolossal in pure Cirque du Soleil style.

ARMANI/SILOS, 31 AUGUST
GLAMOUR SHOTS CHOSEN BY ARMANI

PHOTOGRAPHY The exhibition "Guy Bourdin: Storyteller" is a tribute to the work of the French photographer: an artist capable of encapsulating entire novels, preferably detective or noir, in a single shot. Presented in the Armani/Silos spaces are one hundred photographs that Giorgio Armani together with The Guy Bourdin Estate has selected from iconic shots and lesser-known images.

The use of saturated colours – a distinctive feature of Bourdin's style – is explored through entire rooms dedicated to reds, greens and pinks, as well as his skill in playing with deconstructed form, particularly with mannequins, and his unmistakable idea of composition. Twenty-one black and white photographs show how Bourdin's expressive ability is immediately perceived even with the simplest of contrasts. One section explores Bourdin's love for cinema, a central element of his creativity, and presents a selection of photographs of advertising campaigns showing what appear to be crime scenes or police chases, which hark back to his fascination with Alfred Hitchcock and the theme of the 'mysterious plot'.

SIXTY SELF-PORTRAITS ON SHOW AT MUDEC

PHOTOGRAPHY For Zanele Muholi, one of the most interesting voices of Visual Activism, the beauty of her compositions and her absolute talent as an artist are only a means of affirming the need to exist, the dignity and respect to which every human being is entitled in spite of the race and gender with which they identify. Her aim is the removal of barriers, the rethinking of history, the encouragement to be oneself, and to use artistic tools such as a camera as weapons to assert oneself, and to fight. Sonnyama Ngonyama, literally "Hail Black Lioness", is Zanele Muholi's social and political proclamation, in which the artist signs a series of self-portraits that stage, in their composition, a real denunciation, to which the artist herself lends her body.

◀ BILL VIOLA, THE GENIUS OF VIDEO ART

VIDEO ART The exhibition dedicated to the master of video art Bill Viola spans his entire production, from the 1970s to the present day: from works that explore the relationship between man and nature, to those inspired by classical iconology. Emotions, meditations and passions emerge from Viola's fifteen masterpieces, taking the viewer on an extremely intense inner journey, narrating what can be defined as the artist's most intimate and spiritual journeys through the electronic medium. This dimension emerges, for example, in his Passions videos (works that make clear reference to the Italian Renaissance), which in slow motion capture and extend details of human emotions impossible to see in real time, or in Ocean Without a Shore (2007), a work born in Venice in the small, deconsecrated church of San Gallo, which describes a metaphorical threshold of the moment of transition in which life becomes death.

MULTIPLE MEANINGS OF THE RAINBOW

CULTURE The "Rainbow" exhibition takes place in the spaces on the first floor of MUDEC. After a complete immersion in the colours of the rainbow thanks to a site-specific installation by artist Cory Arcangel in the spaces of the "cloud", the exhibition continues in the Focus Rooms. The exhibits, from the museum's collections but also the result of international loans, allow the visitor to explore the multiple meanings of the rainbow and learn about its origins and reflections in contemporary culture. An expression of different languages from anthropology to biology, from art to science, the exhibits illustrate ancient myths and new values of the iris between ancient and contemporary. The exhibition is part of an interdisciplinary project involving the Milan Natural History Museum and the Milan Planetarium, with a calendar full of events and initiatives linked to the rainbow theme.

Leonardo3 Museum, journey into the mind of Leonardo

"Leonardo3-The World of Leonardo" is the museum dedicated to artist and inventor Leonardo da Vinci located in Piazza della Scala, at the entrance to Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II: a unique museum that brings together a collection of Leonardo's machines, consisting of more than 200 interactive 3D models and working physical reconstructions, many of them previously unseen. All exhibits are the result of the work of its study center, which has been studying Leonardo's work for 20 years. In 2023, on the occasion of its 10th anniversary, the museum initiated a series of collaborations with important institutions and personalities. As Leonardo3 Museum director Massimiliano Lisa says, the museum offers the extraordinary opportunity to enter the mind of the Tuscan genius with the help of interactive and in-depth stations that support all the machines in the rooms. Among Leonardo's machines, one of the most famous projects is the Mechanical Lion. A zoomorphic automaton that was built so that it would walk, arousing wonder, in the presence of King Francis I of France. Making the model work was the study center led by Edoardo Zanon, scientific director of the Leonardo3 Museum.

THE LAST SUPPER – Not to be missed is the room dedicated to the Last Supper, which has been completely renovated to allow for an immersive experience where the details and colors now lost in the original can be discovered, thanks to the new digital restoration of the painting carried out by the Leonardo3 study center. In the room it is also possible to follow the reconstruction of the refectory of Santa Maria delle Grazie, with its wall decorations and vaults.

WELCOME | WHAT TO DO

PALAZZO REALE, UNTIL 4 OCTOBER

► HOW TO TURN REALITY UPSIDE DOWN

CONTEMPORARY ART Palazzo Reale is hosting for the first time in Europe an extensive monographic exhibition of one of the leading figures on the international art scene: Leandro Erlich. An Argentinean artist, born in Buenos Aires in 1973, Erlich creates large installations with which the public relates and interacts, becoming the work of art itself. His works are unique and represent an absolute novelty in the art world and combine creativity, vision, emotion and fun. Buildings in which one virtually climbs, uprooted houses suspended in the air, lifts that lead nowhere, escalators tangled like threads in a ball of yarn, disorienting and surreal sculptures, videos that subvert normality. These are all elements that tell us something ordinary in an extra-ordinary context, where everything is different from what it seems, where we lose our sense of reality and our perception of space.

TRIENNALE MILANO

◀ A TRIBUTE TO ITALIAN DESIGN

NEW RELEASE On the occasion of the 100th anniversary of Triennale Milano, the Museo del Design Italiano, directed by Marco Sammiceli, presents itself in a renewed guise with a new selection of objects and a new layout, designed by Paolo Giacomazzi Design Studio. The Museum of Italian Design traverses the 100-year history of the Triennale with an itinerary that starts from the foundation of the institution in 1923 and arrives at the present day.

Located as before in the Curva - over 1,300 square metres on the ground floor of the Palazzo dell'Arte - the Museum brings together over 300 pieces chosen from among the 1,600 that make up the institution's collections and others on loan from important private collections.

Museo del Design Italiano

Triennale Milano. Viale Alemagna, 6. triennale.org

The exhibition route will follow a chronological progression in which the objects that have made the history of Italian design will be accompanied by archive documents, historical photos, works of art and graphic designs by prominent authors. There will also be thematic installations that will host important projects and reproductions of interiors, where the story of significant cultural changes that involved Milan and Italy in the last century will be developed. Another new feature is the Design Platform: a space destined to host temporary exhibitions with a focus on today's design and occupying the final portion of the Curva.

A DOMESTIC RENAISSANCE OF THE BAGATTI HOME

The Bagatti Valsecchi Museum, born of an extraordinary art collecting adventure at the end of the 19th century, was shaped by two brothers, the Barons Fausto and Giuseppe Bagatti Valsecchi, who restructured their family home in the heart of downtown Milan in the Neo-Renaissance style, and furnished it with their rich 15th – 16th century Italian art and decorative arts collections. Open to the public since 1994, Fausto's and Giuseppe's home, preserved just as it was, is a fascinating historic house museum.

A COLLECTORS' HISTORICAL RESIDENCE

The Casa Museo Boschi Di Stefano, once inhabited by the couple made by Antonio Boschi (1896-1988) and Mariada Di Stefano

(1901-1968), hosts approximately 300 works of art, which represent a selection of the couple's extensive collection, that includes more than 2,000 pieces. The collection stands for an extraordinary example of the history of Italian art in the 20th century. The collection was donated to the Municipality of Milan in 1974 and in 1988. The House Museum opened to the public in 2003.

HISTORIC MILANESE HOME OF A MIDDLE CLASS FAMILY

Immersed in an ample private garden with a swimming pool and a tennis court and set in the center of Milan, the Villa Necchi Campiglio was completed by the architect Piero Portaluppi in 1935. Commissioning the structure was the Necchi Campiglio family, part of the rich and elegant industrial middle class of Milan in the 1930s.

The Necchi Campiglio family wanted above all to distance themselves from the traditions of their day, and planned ample areas dedicated to the reception of guests and to the social whirl: the dining room, the smoking room, the library and the grand salon.

A PRICELESS COLLECTION IN THE HEART OF MILAN

Created thanks to the passion for art-collecting of the noble Milanese Gian Giacomo Poldi Pezzoli (1822-1879), the Poldi Pezzoli Museum is one of the most important and famous house museums in the world, beloved by the Milanese and international public. It fascinates not only for the charm of the rooms evoking the past, but also for the variety and richness of its collections of over 6,000 extraordinary pieces, from Antiquity to the 19th century, suspended in a magical atmosphere.

On display are paintings, objects and works on paper, numerous rare books, periodicals and posters by important surrealist artists and writers. ► CLASSIC OR ROMANTIC?

SCULPTURE The GAM Galleria d'Arte Moderna carries on the promotion of some of the most significant nucleuses of Pompeo Marchesi's collections. The exhibition, set up in the rooms on the ground floor of the Villa Reale, pays tribute to the great sculptor of the 19th century and a trait d'union in the transition from Neoclassicism to Romanticism.

A pupil of Antonio Canova, the sculptor trained at the Brera Academy and participated in the city's most important building sites, from the Arco della Pace to the Duomo. The exhibition, 240 years after his birth, reconstructs his collection: classicist and perfect in form, he is in balance between the search for an ideal and eternal beauty, borrowed from Canova, and the unfolding of a more modern romantic sensibility. The exhibition is also an opportunity to show the results of an extensive restoration campaign on Marchesi's sculptures, sketches and terracottas.

WELCOME TO LOMBARDY

The Lombardy region is one of the richest in attractions in Italy. The area, between Switzerland and Emilia-Romagna, Veneto and Piedmont, offers countless destinations for day trips from Milan.

In addition to Milan, there are 11 main cities that preserve traces of centuries of art and culture - Bergamo, Brescia, Como, Cremona, Lecco, Mantua, Monza and Brianza, Pavia, Sondrio and Varese - and hundreds of smaller villages with art, history and traditions. Giorgio, the prehistoric pile-dwelling sites in the Alps, the Lombard monuments and the city walls of Bergamo.

For those who love panoramic places, a trip to Monte Isola is a must, with its breathtaking view of Lake Iseo; to the Sacro Monte of Varese with a view over the plain from the Alps to the Apennines; the Brunate cable car with an absolute view of Lake Como; the ascent to the Torrazza of Cremona, the highest masonry tower in Europe; the Terrazza del Brivido in Tremosine overlooking Lake Garda at a height of 350 metres.

LAKESIDE DESTINATIONS

Lying North of Milan, each year the lakes of Lombardy attract millions of visitors thanks to their mild climate, breathtaking scenery, natural beauties and historic and artistic treasures. Don't miss a day at the lake with Trenord with special all inclusive train+boat tickets!

The shores of Lake Maggiore wash up on the banks of Piedmont and Lombardy in Italy, while its more austere northern basin lies in the mountainous region of Switzerland. The most famous island, lying just off Stresa – a small, elegant town, rich in neoclassic and liberty buildings and a shopping mecca boasting a myriad of boutiques – is Isola Bella, anchored like a fantastic ship-garden and dominated by the majestic Palazzo Borromeo, built in the 17th century and rich in art treasures, including the private collection of Milan's most famous aristocratic family. The Borromeo clan also owned Rocca di Angera, an imposing fortress (12th-17th century) boasting opulent ambiances, of which the most famous is the Sala di Giustizia. The "Rocca" also has a medieval garden (www.isoleborromeo.it).

Lake Como is the romantic and worldly older sister of Maggiore and Garda and takes its name from the city of Como. "Must-visit" sights include the Gothic Duomo, the Romanic basilicas of San Fedele and Sant'Abbondio and the neoclassic Villa Olmo. Nestling on the banks of Lake Como in Lenno and currently owned by FAI – a private non-profit trust – Villa del Balbianello is a magnificent example of a perfectly preserved 18th century dwelling. Surrounded by a stunning, terraced panoramic garden, with a breathtaking view of the lake, the Villa is one of the area's most romantic retreats. Standing on the tip of a promontory overlooking the waters of the lake, the Villa was chosen by director George Lucas as one of the evocative settings for the famous "Star Wars"

Lying just a stone's throw northwest of Como is Cernobbio, a small fashionable resort frequented by the wealthy of Europe because of its deluxe hotel Villa d'Este and Villa Erba where director Luchino Visconti spent his childhood (www.villaerba.it). Continuing North, we find Isola Comacina a jewel of art and nature, rich in Mediterranean vegetation and one of the most important archaeological sites of the dark ages in Northern Italy. In nearby Tremezzo, don't miss a visit to the Baroque-style Villa Carlotta, featuring an Italian garden and sculptures by Canova. At the junction of the southern arm of the lake lies Bellagio, also referred to as the pearl of Como, set in a strategic position to soak up the panorama.

Don't miss a visit to the other lakes that are also easily accessible from Milan. These include Lake Lugano, where the enchanting towns of Morcote, Melide and Lugano offer many cultural attractions and charming itineraries; Lake Iseo, a gem of rare beauty nestled between the provinces of Bergamo and Brescia; Lake Garda attracting millions of visitors every year thanks to its mild climate, its old-fashioned atmosphere and its breathtaking scenery, including scenic roads along the coast, Renaissance villas, Romanesque hamlets and small villages.

Fine dining at the Anima restaurant

New Michelin star 2023, the restaurant lives a gastronomic luxury that is also democratic, open to all lovers of good food.

The restaurant opened by Chef Enrico Bartolini at the end of May 2021 inside the Hotel Milano Verticale | UNA Esperienze has its own old-fashioned futurist "soul". Skillfully led since October of the same year by Resident Chef Michele Cobuzzi, the restaurant expresses elegance, comfort and design: a style that counterbalances a cuisine that makes "Milanese" its strong point. Of Apulian origins and with international experience following great masters of international cuisine, Cobuzzi knows how to interpret the rich heritage of Italian tradition with modern taste, also in the kitchen of "Vertigo Osteria Contemporanea" and "Bar con Giardino", also inside the hotel. In "Anima", seven tables open only in the evenings (also to outsiders), the Chef proposes two gourmet courses: "Intensity" (in eight passages - 150 euro excluding drinks - with the possibility of also opting for three or four courses à la carte, respectively at 90 and 110 euro) and "My certainties" ("A path of small greatness" five passages at 125 euro excluding drinks). The wine list offers a selection of Italian and foreign labels with great personality, carefully chosen by sommelier Giacomo Morlacchi.

Milanese tasting

Milan offers a cuisine featuring a number of truly unusual flavours. Here is a brief guide to make sure that you don't miss out on several of the city's best and most typical recipes.

RISOTTO ALLO ZAFFERANO

This is one of the few dishes boasting a specific "birth date". In fact, legend has it that, on 8 September 1574, master glassmaker Valerio di Fiandra was presented with a dish of saffron-coloured rice at his daughter's wedding feast after which time it became an iconic dish of Milanese cuisine. Master Chef Gualtiero Marchesi has transformed this delicacy into a real work of art, with the addition of a square of edible gold leaf! We also suggest trying its crunchier version: so-called "riso al salto". Try the creative dishes signed by Carlo Cracco at his restaurant in Galleria Vittorio Emanuele (www.ristorantecracco.it)

COTOLETTA ALLA MILANESE

Mentioned for the first time in 1500 at the court of the Sforza, its "invention" was a source of contention with the Viennese who laid claim to its origin. According to the traditional recipe, the veal slices used should be at least as thick as a finger, coated in egg and bread crumbs and deep fried in butter. One of the best places to eat breaded veal cutlets in Milan is at "Da Giannino" (www.gianninoristorante.it) or at the "Al Garghet" restaurant (www.algarghet.it).

Cotoletta alla Milanese

RISTORANTE DA GIANNINO - PH © CARMINE ARRICHELLO

TRIPE (OR BUSECCA)

A hearty winter dish that will keep the cold out, its main ingredient is the stomach lining of sheep or cows. It was originally served to celebrate special occasions in the peasant world. Try the fried variant on the menu of the eponymous trattoria Trippa Milano, on Via Giorgio Vasari 3 (www.trippamilano.it).

CASSOEULA

According to the history books, composer and conductor Arturo Toscanini was mad about this dish made from pork (sausages, pork rinds and spare ribs) and cabbage. For a taste of old-world Milan, suggest you try it at "Antica Trattoria della Pesa" in Via Pasubio (www.anticatrattoriadellapesa.com).

MONDEGHILI

Small meat balls fried in butter and oil and a signature dish of renowned chef Bruno Barbieri who has made them an art form. You can taste the traditional Milanese meat balls at "Al Matarel" (www.almatarel.it).

PANETTONE

Boasting 500 years of tradition, panettone is a type of large, sweet bread, leavened very slowly and enriched with raisins and candied fruit. Amidst history and legend, the theories as to the origins of panettone vary widely. One of the most romantic is the story linking its invention to Ugo, a young falconer employed by Prince Ludovico il Moro. Ugo yearned to conquer the heart of the daughter of a poor baker named Toni. To win her over, the nobleman disguised himself as a baker and invented a rich bread in which he added to the flour and yeast, butter, eggs, dried raisins and candied lemon and orange peel. The fame of the bread spread far and wide and became known as "Pan del Toni" (Toni's bread). According to history, the tradition of panettone is documented by a manuscript conserved at the Biblioteca Ambrosiana dating back to the 15th century. Already at that time, on the night of 24 December, it was customary for the pater familias to place a huge log in the fireplace and to slice the large loaf of bread which he then distributed among those present. From a gastronomic point of view, the distinguishing feature of panettone is that it is leavened two or three times. Its golden colour derives from the skilful combination of butter and egg yolks, while its overall beauty is completed by the orange, green and brown notes resulting from the addition of candied fruit and raisins. The gourmet trick is to warm it for a few minutes in front of an open oven or on top of a radiator before serving it.

» Dulcis in fundo, are the city's famous desserts, pastries and confectionery. In addition to world famed Italian gelato, an absolute "must" in summer, year-round you can also try Milan's traditional Tiramisù (although the main ingredient of the classic recipe includes coffee, there are also other variations on the theme) and Profiteroles, mouth watering chocolate coated puffs filled with custard. Finally, there are also a number of other typical delicacies that are prepared during the holiday season including Colomba (at Easter) and Chiacchiere and Frittelle (at Carnival) and panettone (at Christmas).

Milan is the home of the Aperitivo

Aperitivo and Happy Hour in the city are most definitely a ritual which no Milanese is prepared to forego

The Aperitivo, the beloved Milanese tradition of pre-dinner drinks, is accompanied by complimentary "stuzzichini" and an all-you-can-eat buffet. Spreads range from traditional olives, nuts, cheeses and potato chips to awesome pasta dishes, "bruschetta", cold cuts, crudités, raw fish and fruit salads. Generally, lasting for 3 hours from 6 to 9pm (though most people rarely get there until 7pm), the aperitivo scene has become an evening meeting for people of all ages. Cocktails – alcoholic or not – are expertly mixed and a Negroni, Negroni sbagliato (a delicious mix of prosecco, red vermouth and Aperol instead of gin) or a Spritz are Milanese specialities. Favourite beverages consumed during this beloved tradition in Milan include also the city's renowned Martini, Prosecco or Campari, accompanied by an all-you-can-eat buffet.

TYPES OF VENUES

A myriad of venues, ranging from the smallest bars to larger, uberchic locations situated in the heart of the city, organize this event. There are 3 types of venues: design bars, traditional bars (the places that have written Milan's history) and, the latest trend, all luxury hotel bars.

WHERE TO GO

There are endless aperitivo options. Several of the most famous are situated in Piazza Sempione or Corso Como and offer a stretch of great bars with a glam vibe where, if you're lucky, you might run into a famous super-model or footballer. Others also worth note, featuring a more laid-back atmosphere, can be found in Brera or the Navigli area. A sign of a popular place are crowds of young people spilling out onto the streets with a drink in one hand and a plate in the other. Recently, even an aperitif in the CityLife Shopping District, under the archistar-designed towers, has become a trend among the Milanese and international guests. A stop at the Peck wine and cocktail bar is a must. A fabulous idea to relax at the end of a long day and the perfect opportunity to enjoy a fabulous cocktail paired with good food at affordable prices.

Navigli

AFTER THE APERITIVO...

In fact, during aperitivo hour, people start thinking about where to go for dinner, in a city boasting a highly eclectic offer. There are three main areas dedicated to nighttime entertainment featuring a concentration of venues:

- Navigli District: an area characterized by places offering live music, patronized by artists, models, musicians and university students. Must-try options are its boat bars and the area's old osterie where you can sample an array of wines, cold cuts and typical cheeses.

- Brera District: an historic area boasting a warren of characteristic venues offering live music and, believe it or not, fortune-tellers who are happy to predict your future for a small fee...

- Garibaldi district & Corso Como: this is Milan's most fashionable area by night, where not only will you find a bevy of pizzerie, restaurants, pubs and discotheques, but also possibly chance upon showbiz celebs and sports heroes.

INSIDER TIPS

Drink prices range from about 7-10 euros although several of the more luxe, upmarket places might ask as much as 15 euros. Not only will you be paying for a more lavish buffet but it will probably also serve as your ticket to VIP and celeb watching. Milan is the capital of cocktail hour snacking and practically ever bar and club in the city offers some kind of happy hour, competing to offer the most alluring pre-dinner scene in town.

The first floor, on the other hand, is designed as a museum space where contemporary works can be exhibited in dialogue with archaeological finds. The other floors of the building house the functions related to the museum's activities: the offices, the study room, the conference room, temporary exhibition spaces and storage for the collections.

The new headquarters of the Fondazione Luigi Rovati, in the historic building in Corso Venezia 52 in front of the Indro Montanelli Gardens, opened to the public in September 2022. The foundation, a scientific-cultural institution founded in 2016 and named after the doctor, researcher and pharmaceutical entrepreneur Luigi Rovati, goes beyond the traditional concept of a museum, but aims to be a place for thought, experimentation and sharing.
